Senate Demos Ask Free Viet Elections

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats Monday called on the administration to stay out of this year's elections in South Vietnam and prove U.S. dedication to self-determination.

"We have preached self-determination at least since the time of Woodrow Wilson," said Majority Leader Mike Mansfield.

"I think it is time to put that principle into effect and not just talk about it," he declared in a floor speech in which he called the war a "corrosive cancer on the body politic of America."

Introducing a resolution designed to guarantee U.S. neutrality, Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III (D-Ill.) accused the administration of actively working for re-election of President Nguyen Van Thieu and Vice-President Nguyen Cao Ky.

The two leaders are up for re-election in October following legislative elections in August. Stevenson said the U.S. information Agency in South Vietnam has been promoting the Thieu-Ky regime.

He also said U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker was quoted in the South Vietnamese press last fall as saying the United States supports re-election of Thieu and Ky.

Although Bunker later denied such a statement, Stevenson said the damage was done.

In a floor speech and at a news conference later, Stevenson accused the administration of seeking to continue the Vietnam conflict as "a proxy war among Asians."

U.S. involvement with the pro-capitalist Diem regime in the 1950's was admittedly instrumental in providing Diem the strength to call off the 1956 elections set by international agreement at Geneva to reunite the two Vietnams. Later the then President Dwight Eisenhower said that his advisers had told him that a 1956 election in Vietnam would have meant the election of Ho Chi Minh, the late Vietnamese socialist leader.

Stevenson's resolution would establish a commission of five House members and five senators to oversee U.S. activities during the election campaign to assure a hands-off policy.

"The intent of this resolution is not to defeat Thieu and Ky, but to neutralize the political advantage which our military involvement affords them," Stevenson said.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said Stevenson's resolution might do more harm than good.

He said it would be interpreted as a "covert move to undermine the present government or to maintain it."

In another resolution introduced Monday, Sen. Jack Miller (R-Iowa) calls for complete withdrawal of all American forces from South Vietnam within 12 months following an exchange of POWs and an accounting for men missing in action.

Miller said Senate Democrats in a recent statement calling on the President to fix a date for withdrawal of U.S. forces in Indochina would leave the fate of American POWs to Hanoi.

Mansfield disputed this, saying the Democrats' statement had tied a withdrawal timetable to the release of the prisoners held by North Vietnam.

Miller's remarks came in spite of the fact that Vietnamese nationalists at the Paris peace talks have reassured the capitalist forces that prisoner exchanges will be negotiated after foreign forces have been withdrawn from Vietnamese soil.

Two Businesses Will Close Doors To Protest War

Two Iowa City businesses have announced their support and participation in the Tuesday Shoppers Stoppage sponsored by the International League for Peace and Freedom.

Epstein's Bookstore and Things & Things will close for one hour beginning at 11 a.m. today, according to Melissa Nygard, G, co-director of the project. The stores will continue to do so until the end of the school year.

"These businessmen want to close their doors, even though it will cost them money, to dramatize their concern over the continuing Indochina War. We hope that other businessmen will join them," Nygard said.

Harry Epstein of Epstein's Bookstore also expressed the hope that other stores and businessmen would join them.

"We're against the war and hope that others join us," he said.

Supreme Court: Privacy Not Violated

Listening Devices Ruled Lawful

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a major "bugging" decision, the Supreme Court Monday gave government agents permission to send informers with hidden radio transmitters into the homes of narcotics suspects and to use the recorded conversations for prosecution.

Justice Byron White said in the 6-3 ruling that the agent does not need a search warrant since there has been no invasion of the suspect's "constitutionally justifiable expectations of privacy."

Normally, White said, no one has a right to expect that a person with whom he is conversing will not reveal the conversation to the police, especially "one contemplating illegal activities."

The ruling, two years in the making and sought by the Justice Department, evoked a plaintive dissent from Justice

William Douglas. He asked: "Must everyone live in fear that every word he speaks may later be repeated to the entire world?"

Campus Housing Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Louisiana requirement that all unmarried students of state-supported colleges be required to live in campus housing was upheld, 6-3, by the U.S. Supreme Court Monday.

Three students at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute challenged a state requirement that all unmarried students, regardless of age, live and eat in campus facilities—unless specifically exempted by their college or university.

The rule affects 10 Louisiana colleges and universities.

Justice John M. Harlan and Thurgood Marshall entered separate dissents saying the Constitution dictates the need for a search warrant.

Meanwhile, the court indicated that it will provide no comfort for local officials who try to zone out blacks from white residential areas.

The foreboding hint came in the court's unanimous rejection of an attempt by the mayor and city council of Lackawanna, N.Y. to block construction of a housing subdivision for black people in an almost exclusively white neighborhood.

The city claimed in the test case that the already taxed sewerage facilities were inadequate and that the land was needed for a park.

At the same time, the court split sharply and ruled naturalized American citizens living abroad can lose their citizenship if they don't take up residence in the United States for five years.

The decision, given by freshman Justice Harry Blackmun, directly concerned Aldo Mario Bellei, 31, an electronics engineer who was born in Italy and inherited his U.S. citizenship from his mother.

In a sharp dissent, Justice William Brennan Jr. said: "Since the court this term has already downgraded citizens receiving public welfare, and citizens having the misfortune to be illegitimate, I suppose today's decision downgrading citizens born outside the United States should have been expected."

Also dissenting, Justice Hugo Black recalled that in 1967 the court had held that no American can be deprived of citizenship without his or her assent.

"Today, the court overrules that holding," Black said.

In another area, the court unanimously upheld the 1968 law that requires federal registration of manufacturers and importers of shotguns and rifles with short barrels, bombs, rockets, grenades and some other destructive devices.

The law was written after the court had invalidated an earlier registration procedure because Washington turned information over to state authorities.

Justice Douglas said no unconstitutional self-incrimination is at issue now since the government apparently keeps the information to itself.

In other actions the court:

- Ruled 6 to 12 that banks may not enter the mutual-fund field.

- Rejected 7 to 2 a plea by officials in Nelcong, N.J., to permit voluntary reading of prayers from the Congressional Record in public school.

- Ruled 7 to 2 that gamblers convicted before the court's 1968 decision invalidating registration procedures cannot re-open their cases on the basis of the ruling.

- Rejected unanimously an appeal by a group of San Francisco parents who wanted to block the involuntary busing of school children.

- By a 6-3 vote refused to consider an appeal by a musician who was convicted in Wisconsin for performing in an athletic supporter painted red, white and blue.

Bryan Maker, the guitarist and singer, said the disorderly conduct law violated his free-speech right and was vague and indefinite.

SCLC Carries Poverty Protest To Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP) — The Southern Christian Leadership Conference brought its "War Against Repression" program, complete with mule train, to the Wall Street financial district Monday.

About 1,500 persons joined in the demonstration while another 2,500 listened to a program commemorating the third anniversary of the death of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The marchers displayed signs calling for new antipoverty measures and an end to the Indochina war.

The New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange closed their visitors' galleries before the noon march.

Spectators about eight deep along the sidewalk listened as the marchers, about one-third of them blacks, sang "We Shall Overcome," in front of the old Sub-Treasury Building.

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, King's successor as head of the SCLC, addressed the Wall Street gathering.

"We're going to demand our piece of the economic pie that surrounds us," said Abernathy. He said big business and banks should start allocating at least 10 per cent of their "moral and financial resources" to promote "investments that will meet human needs."

The civil rights leader called for the withdrawal of all American forces from Southeast Asia by Aug. 28, the eighth anniversary of the 1963 march on Washington.

Iowa House Defends Trespass Bill

DES MOINES (AP) — The Iowa House Monday deferred action on a bill that would define and set penalties for criminal trespass.

The lower chamber made the move after Rep. Daniel Bray (D-Davenport) pointed out that under the measure only labor and farm groups would be permitted to picket.

Peace Action Group Profests Draft

While a bus loaded with new draft inductees prepared to leave for Des Moines, a group of demonstrators met at the Iowa City Post Office at 5 a.m. this morning to protest the draft and the war in Indochina.

Members of Iowa Peace Action Committee (IPAC), International League for Peace and Freedom, Christians Affirming Life, and others will picket the Local Draft Board offices at the Post Office from 4 to 5:15 p.m. today through Friday. Picketers will ask passersby to sign a petition urging the Draft Board to agree to a public meeting to discuss the draft and its relationship to United State's foreign policy.

Why, he asked, should these two organizations be singled out to the exclusion of other groups?

He then asked and received unanimous consent to defer the bill until he could prepare an amendment declaring that the measure would not restrict or prohibit lawful picketing by any group.

Union Lawyers: 'Can't Fight Nixon'

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO construction unions said Monday their attorneys can find no legal basis to fight President Nixon's wage stabilization plan. However, they said union representatives should serve on the White House stabilization committee "to protect the interests of their membership."

The statement was issued by the presidents of the 17 unions in the AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Department who represent 3.5 million workers.

The general presidents received a report from the general counsels of the various international and national unions, affiliated with the Building and Construction Trades Department, AFL-CIO. The report stated that there is "no legal basis upon which effectively to attack the executive order on its face."

Chilean Marxist Wins Firm Mandate

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Marxist President Salvador Allende's leftist coalition government has won a firm mandate in municipal elections to continue the transformation of Chile into a Socialist state.

In final returns from Sunday's voting, Popular Unity candidates, including Communists and Socialists, received 1,375,063 votes — 48.7 per cent of the 2,832,784 total.

Hale Boggs Demands Hoover Firing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The immediate resignation of FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover Monday by Democratic leader Hale Boggs of Louisiana.

He accused the FBI of adopting "the tactics of Hitler's Gestapo and the Soviet Union" and said, "The time has come for the attorney general of the United States to ask for the resignation of J. Edgar Hoover."

Boggs charge that the FBI tapped the telephones of members of Congress brought a denial from Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell.

Mitchell, who is Hoover's immediate superior, called Boggs' attack on the FBI director "slandorous falsehoods and the most vicious kind of name calling." He said Boggs had "reached a new low in political dialogue" in comparing the FBI to the Soviet Union and to Hitler's Gestapo, and he demanded an immediate apology.

Boggs said in a telephone interview Monday night: "Not only will I not apologize but I am astonished that the attorney general of the United States has so little regard for the Bill of Rights and that he continues to defend this incompetent man."

Berkeley Radicals Bid For City Board Control

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A hotly contested plan for separate black, white and student Police Departments is the key issue in Tuesday's city election that could lead to control of the City Council by radicals.

A slate of radicals — two whites and two blacks — is making a determined bid for the City Council. They are among 33 council candidates seeking the four seats up for election and, if elected, could join with an incumbent to control the nine-member board.

The two top contenders in the nine-candidate mayor's race are both black city councilmen. Both oppose the city charter amendment to split the Police Department into neighborhood-controlled forces — one each for the white, black and student communities. A victory by either Wilmont Sweeney, 45, or Warren Widener, 33, would give Berkeley its first black mayor.

City Clerk Edythe Campbell predicted an 80 per cent voter turnout. Voter registration is 64,674 or 57.2 per cent of the city's 113,000 population. Berkeley is 30 per cent black.

As the campaign ended, Police Chief Bruce R. Baker said a poll he took showed almost all his force would resign if the police amendment passes. Radicals said the poll was "a cheap and shoddy way of trying to influence the public's vote."

or "the ho chi minh trail is a state of mind."

Welcome back to Iowa City and The University of Iowa. Nothing much happened while you were or weren't away.

What we have here is an attempt to list some of the things happening in Iowa City this spring. It is far from complete — partly because some of the DI staffers were on vacation too, partly because Iowa City just hasn't got too much together yet.

Here, also, is information on the Spring Offensive, for ending the war, getting $6,500 annual income, and for building support to demand the freedom of all political prisoners. We will try to get information to you regarding buses to Washington, etc., as we find it out.

Prepared or just restless — spring, my dears, is here — Cheryl Miller

The Spring Offensive, nationwide

DEMANDS OF SPRING OFFENSIVE:

1) End the war
2) Sixty-five hundred yearly income for family of four
3) Free all political prisoners

DEFEND THE RIGHT TO LIVE:

APRIL 10: On April 10, as the long marches move closer to their targets, women will assemble at various govern-ment buildings to move through the streets of Washington towards the Pen-tagon. Women, demanding the right to live, will gather on the steps of the world's largest manufacturer of death to express their unity in defense of life in Vietnam and life in America.

APRIL 19-23: All the evidence gather-ed at the Winter Soldier investigations (there have been three of them) will be presented to Congress at a five-day "in-cursion" of thousands of veterans in Washington, D.C. The five days of anti-war protest will begin with a march from Arlington National Cemetery to Capitol Hill. The marchers will wear their jungle fatigues and carry plastic M-16 rifles. They will also wear their DD-214's (discharge papers) because they are often referred to in the straight press as "alleged veterans." The veter-ans will stage mock "search and des-troy" operations around the city, and conduct guerrilla theater "terror investi-gations" of Vietnamese prisoners. Those who have decorations will wear them and return their medals in a symbolic ceremony on Capitol Hill.

The veterans can be contacted at: Vietnam Vets Against the War % Dick Phillips 718 Giblin Drive Iowa City 351-7251

People's Lobby: April 24-30: In Wash-ington, D. C. and San Francisco, the anti-war movement will rally its people to demand of this government an immedi-ate and total withdrawal of all U.S. troops from Indochina, the establishment of a guaranteed annual income of $6,500 a year for all American families, and the immediate release of all political prison-ers.

The rally on April 24 will call for a people's lobby. People will be asked to stay in Washington to take their demands and the People's Peace Treaty literally and physically into every department, committee, and agency of this government. This will be the largest lobby ever to converge on Washington, backed by a public mandate that is staggering: 73 per cent of the American people want out of Vietnam, only 34 per cent support Nixon's handling of the war. The inten-tion of the lobby is to open all parts of the government to the people, including the Pentagon, the CIA, the National Sec-urity Council, and Joint Chiefs of Staff. Government workers will be asked to sign the peace treaty and to help this country begin the implementation of that treaty by striking against Nixon's war Administration.

CELEBRATION OF PEACE: Mayday

— May 1: As the pressure of our lobby builds throughout the last week of April, the long marches will be arriving and gathering on a farm outside of Washing-ton. This "peace city" will be open to people for workshops on non-violent tactics for the month of May. We want it to be known that when we enter the city, it will not be to disrupt the community or to close down Washington or to en-gage in any acts of violence. It will be to stop the war machinery. Similar assem-blies in Paris, London, Tokyo, Peking, and around the world will show massive international support for the people in Vietnam. Mayday is a planetwide dis-tress signal for every concerned person to get in touch with the life and death struggle facing Vietnam. Mayday is a pledge of tens of millions of human beings to a worldwide struggle to stop the war.

STOP THE WAR OR WE STOP THE GOVERNMENT: May 3: On Monday morning, as the sun rises over the Po-tomac, we will be up preparing to march from "Peace City" into Washington. We join with the Southern Christian Lead-ership Conference, Clergy and Laymen Concerned, Women's Strike for Peace, Fellowship of Reconciliation, National Welfare Rights Organization, American Friends Service Committee, New Uni-versity Conference, Vietnam Veterans Against the War and many other organi-zations which take the position that the broadest possible coalition of forces for peace and social justice in America must now commit themselves to force without violence, to a campaign of massive civil disobedience in Washington and other communities.

Five major targets have been chosen for concentrated actions on the morning of May 3; the Pentagon, the CIA, the Justice Depart., the Dept. of Health, Edu-cation and Welfare and the White House. At noon, we will surround the Capitol with people who are determined that Congress accept the mandate of American and world public opinion. That Congress strike down this war with legislation cutting the funds of the death machine and ordering the withdrawal of troops, the establishment of a $6,500 annual income for a family of four and the release of all political prisoners.

On May 4 and throughout the week, we will engage in militant actions at the entrances of those government institu-tions that cannot be allowed to continue their murderous activities.

NO BUSINESS AS USUAL: MAY 5: Nationwide strikes on campuses and high schools, demonstrations in cities, civil disobedience at government buildings, GI actions.

BEYOND MAYDAY: We hope to set off the chain of events that will end the war. It can be done if enough people respond to the appeal of the Vietnamese people for help; if we can only understand that Nixon is right when he says that what we do or fail to do right now will shape world history. After the first week of May we will take the peace treaty into every community in the country urging Americans to continue efforts to im-plement that treaty, to stop sending their taxes to the government's war chests, organizing cities, towns and institutions to withdraw themselves from the war, turning the tremendous public opinion against the war into the power to stop it.

After Washington, thousands of us will march up the East Coast to New Haven as the lawyers begin their summation to the jury in the trial of Bobby and Ericka. After Washington, we will build massive support for the militant actions of anti-war GIs on Armed Forces Day, May 16.

We make this pledge that whatever the cost to ourselves, the energy of May, the power of May will not stop. We will build stronger commitments for more and more people to make the government of the United States understand that it can have no peace until it is out of Viet-nam. Vietnam Lives!

An interview with Angela's lawyer

Editor's note: Margaret Burnham is one of the lawyers defending Angela Davis. She recently gave the following interview to The Old Mole, an under-ground newspaper in Boston. We will re-lay more information as we receive it.

Mole: What are the charges against Angela?

Margaret: She is charged with kid-napping, murder, and four separate counts of conspiracy: conspiracy to kidnap, conspiracy to murder, conspiracy to effect the release of the Soledad Brothers, and conspiracy to aid in the escape attempt of San Quentin inmates. In California, all of these charges carry a sentence of either life imprisonment without parole or death.

Mole: What's the basis of the charges against Angela? Is it that a gun pur-chased was used in the escape attempt?

Margaret: No, Angela is being charg-ed under California's "accessory" sta-tute, which says that if you're an acces-sory before or after the crime, you are liable to the same sentence as the per-son directly involved. This law has been used in other prosecutions, but the ap-plication of it to a case like Angela's is almost unprecedented because the evidence is so weak. It is in attempting to prove the conspiracy charges that the prosecution will really be attempting to try Angela for her revolutionary beliefs and activities.

Mole: How is Angela? What are the conditions like in jail?

Margaret: Angela is in good spirits, despite the fact that she is in virtual iso-lation because of a regulation which for-bids accused felons from mixing with accused misdemeanants. There are no exercise facilities for women, and she has not been outside since December 22. She is not allowed any access to media people and can see only four vis-itors a week.

Mole: What kind of support is Angela getting?

Margaret: Support for Angela cuts across many lines. International sup-port has been strong, particularly from German students, who perhaps identify with her because of her studies there.

Black people in this country have re-sponded very strongly to Angela's im-prisonment. I think this is a reaction to the growing repression that has been coming down on all black revolution-aries. The black community is not angry just because of who Angela is, but be-cause, at this time in history, they are fed up with what is happening to all black people.

On the other hand, support from the white left has not been as strong or as united as it might be. Perhaps doubts on the left about the communist party have held some people back, which is unfortunate.

There also has not been much sup-port from the women's movement as a whole, which does not seem to see An-gela's imprisonment as a "women's is-sue."

Mole: What are the kinds of things the white left could be doing about An-gela's trial?

Margaret: On one level, the most im-mediate need is for information to get out about the trial, and about the spec-ific legal and political moves that An-gela is making now. It will be harder for the judge to refuse to dismiss the in-dictments, or, if he does, to refuse to grant bail, if people are aware of what is happening and are watching what he does. This kind of information, as web as a more general understanding of what Angela's trial is all about, is wide spread in black communities. The white left could play a big role in getting the same kind of information out on cam-puses and in the white community.

Mole: What's the best way?

Margaret: As a first step, people should contact their local Committee to Free Angela, to find out what is happening and hopefully, in order to help or to work with them.

Mole: Are there other things the white movement could be doing that would help Angela?

Margaret: I guess that the most im-portant thing really is to regenerate the support for Bobby and Ericka that was last spring, and also build support for Ruchell Magee. This support is not only crucial for Bobby and Ericka, and Ru-chell but also for Angela as well as all other political prisoners. There has been a lot of talk about Angela's trial hurt-ing Bobby and Ericka by distracting at-tention from their trial. This can only happen if the movement lets it; and if it does happen, the only one to benefit will be the government. Angela has repeat-edly said that she can not hope to be free, regardless of what happens in her trial, unless Bobby and Ericka are free. As long as the government can imprison and persecute the Panthers, no other revolutionary will be safe. Working to free Bobby and Ericka is working to free Ruchell and Angela, and all other political prisoners and revolutionaries now being held by the government.

Nothing to lose . . .

The City Council will begin deliberations tonight on a proposed city ordinance defining disorderly conduct within the city of Iowa City. If enacted, this ordinance, as written, will have what is popularly called a "chilling effect" on two basic freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights, freedom of speech and freedom of assembly. Because the language of the ordinance is so vague, virtually every act of speech or assembly could fall within its provisions. And it is little comfort that sections of the ordinance are very likely unconstitutional — City Attorney Jay Honohan knows that it takes more money than most students have to fight a case through the courts.

And no one should be fooled by the one sop thrown the people in Section 2.2 which specifies that "nothing herein contained will apply to any persons who picket or demonstrate advocating any cause whatsoever . . . as long as said person or persons do not commit (sic) other acts or conduct prohibited by this ordinance."

For the language of the ordinance could be interpreted in such a way as to make any act of speech or assembly illegal. For example, "offensive" or "insulting" or "indecent or obscene language, conduct or behavior" are prohibited. But the ordinance does not contain any definitions of those terms. What is "of-fensive" to Ben Summerville or Patrick McCarney may well be free speech to another.

The ordinance prohibits persons from acting in such a manner as to "annoy, disturb, interfere with . . . or be offensive to others." What is "annoying" or "of-fensive" to Ben Summerville or Patrick McCarney might well be freedom of as-sembly to another.

That this ordinance was written for the convenience of the police and uni-versity administrators is clear from a reading of Section 2.11 which prohibits persons from using "any profane, indecent or abusive language towards a peace officer or a member of the governing body of any governmental agency." Once again, profane, indecent and abusive are not defined. And the ordinance says nothing about prohibiting peace officers or members of governing bodies of governmental agencies from using such language toward students.

Those who oppose this ordinance have two choices: they can go to the City Council on hands and knees and beg them for mercy or they can join the New University Conference Tuesday evening in front of the Civic Center as they leaflet in support of the ordinance on the grounds that its enactment will fur-ther the revolution. You have nothing to lose if this ordinance is passed but a little more of your freedom.

City Council Discusses ARH Letter

By NORMAN LYZENGA

Daily Iowan Reporter

Responding to a letter from the Associated Residence Halls (ARH), Iowa City City Manager Frank Smiley said Monday that although the city is concerned with pedestrian problems that ARH has cited, it has been unable to come up with any good ideas that would alleviate them.

ARH's major concern has been for university pedestrians. It proposed installation of a manual crossing signal at three crossings and erection of pedestrian warning signs at others.

Smiley told the city council at its informal afternoon work-session that the city staff had taken the ARH proposals under consideration, but that the solutions proposed by ARH did not improve the situation.

ARH proposed placing crossing signals on Grand Avenue between Rienow I and II, in front of the English-Philosophy Building and at the intersection of Jefferson and Capitol Streets.

Environment Commission Gets City OK

Iowa City city councilmen Monday, informally agreed to a proposed Johnson County Commission on Environmental Quality.

The commission, originally suggested by Mayor Loren Hickerson, is to be an eight-member commission with advisory power only.

The University of Iowa and Coralville are to have one member each, Iowa City is to have three representatives and Johnson County is to have two. The eighth member is to be an at-large member representing all other cities in Johnson County.

The final agreement setting up the environmental commission is to be presented to the County Regional Planning Commission on April 23 for approval.

Councilman J. Patrick White said that the purpose of the commission was to "promote the health, safety and welfare of its inhabitants, prevent injury to human health, plant and animal life and property, foster the comfort and convenience of the inhabitants of this area and protect and facilitate the enjoyment of the natural resources of the Johnson County area."

At approximately 9:30 the same night John Michael Poggenpohl, 22, Iowa City, was arrested by local police while asleep in his car in a nearby alley.

Poggenpohl was charged with assault and battery, possession of marijuana, and intoxication.

Senate Moves to Increase U.S.-East European Trade

WASHINGTON — The Senate approved Monday legislation designed to increase U.S. trade with East Europe.

The bill which passed 66 to 1 included a provision which would expand the authority of the Export-Import Bank.

Under the section, American businessmen could seek the facilities of the bank to finance deals made with Iron Curtain countries.

The bill may face strong opposition in the House. Sen. Walter F. Mondale (D-Minn.) chief sponsor of the East-West trade rider, told his colleagues the present restriction on such exchanges does not deny any products to the socialist nations.

They obtain all of the items they need from industrial nations in West Europe or elsewhere in the world. U.S. firms simply lose the right to bid on the business, he contended.

The rider would remove the absolute ban on Export-Import Bank financing for U.S. export sales to Eastern Europe — a prohibition which originated in the House several years ago.

$1 Million Suit Filed in Iowa City

A lawsuit asking over $1 million in damages has been filed in Johnson County District Court here in connection with an explosion at a construction site two years ago.

The suit, filed Friday, is against five firms — two of them local — and is in behalf of Robert L. Hein and his wife, Letha.

Hein, a fireman, was injured in the blast which occurred during construction work at Mercy Hospital on April 7, 1969.

The suit asks $884,000 for Hein, who is alleged to have suffered "permanent and total disability," and $200,000 for his wife.

Defendants named in the suit are Hansen Lind Meyer, an architectural firm, and Universal Climate Control, Inc., both of Iowa City; McGraw-Edison Co., a Delaware based firm; Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Co. of Davenport; and Emmet J. Keough Electric, Inc., of Cedar Rapids.

TORONTO (AP) — Joe Theisman stunned the Toronto Argonauts by signing a two-year contract with the Canadian Football League team after it had all but given up hope of landing the Notre Dame star quarterback.

Nats Clip Oakland On Six-hitter, 8-0

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dick Bosman pitched a six-hit shutout as the Washington Senators crushed Oakland 8-0 Monday and won the ceremonial American League baseball opener for the first time since 1962.

Six walks, a pair of crucial errors, and a hit batter helped the Senators to all their runs in the first five innings. They scored twice again in the fourth on just one hit, a bunt single.

Frank Howard and Mike Epstein each drove in two Senators' runs while Howard saved Bosman's shutout with a leaping catch at the left field fence that robbed Felipe Alou of a homer in the third inning.

Alou doubled in the eighth and went to third on a wild pitch, but Bosman struck out Reggie Jackson to keep the A's in check. The ace right-hander, who led the American League in earned run average two years ago, struck out two and walked two.

Felix Millan opened the eighth inning with a triple and scored the tie-breaking run on Woody Woodward's throwing error as the Atlanta Braves tripped the Cincinnati Reds 7-4 Monday in the 1971 National League baseball opener.

A chilled Riverfront Stadium crowd of 51,702 saw the Braves capitalize on six errors, including three by third baseman Woodward. The Reds battled back from a 4-0 deficit to tie the game in the sixth with the help of Tony Perez' two-run homer. But their defense failed in the eighth when Millan tripled to deep left reliever Wayne Granger and scored as Woodward threw the ball away after fielding Clete Boyer's bouncer.

Ninth-inning singles by Orlando Cepeda and Boyer delivered a pair of insurance runs for the Braves. Cecil Upshaw, who relieved knuckleballer Phil Niekro in the sixth and blanked the Reds over the final three innings, picked up the victory.

Iowa Seeks 7th Win at Drake Today—Hawks Return from West: Winners

By JOHN RICHARDS
Assoc. Sports Editor

Iowa's baseball team returned from Arizona with a 6-5 record and more confidence than when they left. Drake will get to see how good the Hawkeyes are when they host them for a doubleheader in Des Moines today.

"We played much like I thought we would," Iowa coach Duane Banks said of the western trip Monday. "I wasn't really surprised by anything or anyone nor disappointed either. I still believe we are going to have a good year and so do the players."

Much of Banks' confidence is a result of the batting averages the Hawks brought back from their 11-game trip with some pretty good competition. At present seven front line players are hitting .300 or better.

Second baseman Jim Cox is the leading Iowa sticker with a .385 average in nine games. He also leads the team in total bases with 24 — including three triples. Cox led Iowa in hitting last year with a .360 average.

But the man who brought the biggest comment from Banks was rightfielder Dave Blazin, who hit .382 in 11 games and has two home runs and 11 runs-batted-in.

"Blazin is going to be extremely tough to get out as long as he keeps his confidence," Banks explained. "He has a nine-game hitting streak after going hitless the first two games. But he isn't ers and catcher Joe Wessels has a .278 average. Iowa as a team is hitting .283.

Iowa's pitching staff still needs a bit of work according to Banks, but they too, are well ahead of last year's performances.

"The pitchers didn't fare too well the second time around," wat pitched six innings and had a 1.50 earned-run-average, Arango had a 3.16 ERA in five innings and Bruchas had 3.51 in seven.

The top starter by statistics was Bill Heckroth with 3.00 in 12 innings. Mark Tschopp had 4.74 in 13 and Chef Teklinski was 5.51 in 14. As a team Iowa had a 4.76 ERA in 90 frames.

Defensively, the Hawks also were very adequate. Iowa committed only 18 errors in the 11 game compared to their opponents' 30. Iowa has spun eight double plays thus far.

Banks said he would start Tschopp and Teklinski today against the Bulldogs. The rest of the lineup will be the usual guys although he still plans to let everyone play.

That lineup will have Sundberg and Wessels splitting time behind the plate, Hurn at first, Cox at second and Larry Schutzius at third. Smith will be at short. The outfield will have Blazin in right, Jeff Elgin in center and Mims or Keopple in left.

"I'm sorry that I don't know that much about Drake, but we think we have the team to beat them," Banks said. "The attitude was tremendous in Arizona and I think our confidence is going to continue growing."

Banks said, "but they were a little tired and we were facing some pretty good hitters. I'm not making any excuses, because the pitchers weren't satisfied either, but Arizona was better than we expected and Wyoming had its best team in 13 years."

Relievers Lynn Rowat, Fernando Arrango and Jerry Bruchas probably gave the best performances in Arizona. Ro-

THE BOSE 501 DIRECT / REFLECTING™ SPEAKER SYSTEM

DESIGN GOALS:
In designing the 501 we set two goals:
A To develop a speaker that would audibly outperform all speakers costing less than the BOSE 901.
B To design this speaker to sell for less than $130.

DESCRIPTION:
The BOSE 501 is a floor standing speaker that may be placed against a wall or up to one foot in front of a wall. Each 501 enclosure contains one 10-inch speaker and two 3 1/2 inch speakers. The 10-inch speaker faces forward. It covers the low frequency range and has a specially extended frequency response to supply a small amount of direct energy at higher frequencies to balance the reflected energy of the smaller speakers. The two 3 1/2 inch speakers provide primarily reflected sound at high frequencies. They are directed at angles to the rear wall such that stereo can be enjoyed from a wide range of positions while avoiding the point source effect of conventional direct radiating speakers.

FEATURES OF THE 501:
A The use of the wall of your room to reflect sound as the stage wall reflects the sound of instruments in a live performance. This eliminates the undesirable point source effect of conventional speakers.
B Radiating a combination of direct and reflected sound to provide localization of sound while maintaining the spatial fullness that is characteristic of a live performance. Stereo can now be enjoyed from almost any position in your room. No special seating arrangements are required as for direct radiating speakers.
C Flat power radiation rather than conventional flat frequency response on axis. This permits the 501 to reproduce crisp instrumental attacks without the shrillness so often observed in direct radiating speakers.

THE PERFORMANCE OF THE 501:
You be the judge. If we have succeeded in our design goals, the result will be obvious to you when you A-B the 501 with any speaker selling for less than the 901.

Liehr Is Lone Hawk to Place In NCAA Gymnastics Meet

Cross-state rival Iowa State is beating the drums after coasting to the NCAA gymnastics title, and the University of Iowa gymnasts are looking to the future after only senior Ken Liehr placed in the finals. Liehr, 1970 Big 10 side horse champion, qualified through the compulsories in first place with an outstanding 9.25 score, but sagged in the first optionals and wound up in fourth place in the finals of the nationals.

"Ken was relaxed and made sloppy mistakes that cost him in the optionals," said Iowa assistant gymnastics coach Neil Schmitt. "There's no question in my mind that Liehr was the best side horse man in the meet," said Schmitt.

Two other Hawkeyes — senior Barry Sloten and freshman Carl Walin — failed to reach the finals after slow starts in the compulsories.

Sloten, who suffered a recurrence of a stone bruise of the heel, scored high in the optional vault to finish tenth after ranking 16th through the compulsories.

Iowa freshman Walin was a surprising 17th in the all-round division, but Schmitt said "four silly mistakes" prevented him from going higher.

"Carl looked very good and looked more sound than we thought he would," said Schmitt, who added that he had to be a little disappointed in the Hawks' finishes.

The Cyclones' victory kept the NCAA crown within the state for the second time in four years (Iowa won the nationals in 1968), but it was little consolation for Schmitt, who is turning his attention to the National AAU meet next month at Cedar Rapids and to the rebuilding of next year's squad.

"I would have liked to have been a little better," said Schmitt. "I really thought Ken would win."

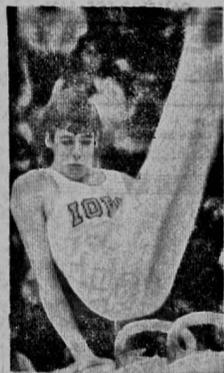

The pre-meet favored Cyclones were expected to have trouble only in handling Big 10 champion Michigan, who hosted the meet held in Ann Arbor.

But the Wolverines had an off day and the Cyclones coasted to their second straight championship.

"Everybody expected Michigan to really push Iowa State for the championship, but having the meet at home cost Michigan," said Schmitt, who explained that its coaches were too busy running the meet to do much coaching.

Iowa's young squad finished second in the Big 10 for the second straight time, but Schmitt feels the Hawks could challenge for the conference crown next year with the ad-

With the deadline for signing national letters of intent in the distant future, the Iowa assistant said he has already had one verbal commitment from one of the top gymnasts in the country. "Recruiting is kind of sitting and waiting," said Schmitt, who is waiting for the championship to return to this part of the state.

Hunger in America

WASHINGTON, D.C. (LNS) — "We make the poor fight, clutch and claw for everything they can get," said Leslie Dunbar, summing up the findings of a Citizens Board of Inquiry into Hunger and Malnutrition.

The Board of Inquiry was addressed by welfare and food stamp recipients from 12 states who testified to "a pattern of official lawlessness, at that point where government comes most into contact with poor people."

Geraldine Decker, an Indian mother from Reno, Nev., broke into tears as she spoke about "unnecessary and degrading questions" asked by state and local officials. "It's not enough to say, 'my husband left me and I need help,' she said sobbing.

"When women try to work a little bit to get more money for food for their children because they don't get enough welfare, they are cut off what welfare they get and called cheaters."

Nevada recently reduced its welfare payments sharply.

The National Welfare Rights Organization stressed that Pres. Nixon's "revolutionary" welfare reform and revenue-sharing proposals would do little to help this situation beyond increasing the authority of these same state and local officials whose callousness already magnifies the problems of welfare recipients.

However, the inquiry revealed that there are some people who are benefiting from the welfare system. In Collier County, Fla., migrants now receive food stamps. "But during the migrant season, the price of a quart of milk jumps from 30 to 40 cents," said Michael McQuire, an anti-poverty lawyer. "There has been a significant reduction in hunger," he went on, sarcastically. "At least I can't name a single hungry store owner or farmer."

Walsh Chooses New Staff

Editorial staff members for the Daily Iowan have been selected by Thomas Walsh, A3, editor-select.

Named to positions on the staff were:

Randy Evans, A3, news editor; Bill Israel, A3, university editor; Kevin McCormally, A2, city-county editor; Mike McGrevey, A3, feature editor; Dean Blake, A4, editorial page editor.

Keith Gillett, A3, sports editor; Brian Chapman, A1, associate sports editor; John Avery, A4, chief photographer; Gary Drake, A1, art director.

Walsh was appointed editor of the newspaper March 18 by the Board of Student Publications, Inc. (SPI), the governing body of the Daily Iowan.

Some 60 applications were received for the nine positions, Walsh said. Still to be appointed is an associate feature editor.

Walsh's staff will assume control of the Daily Iowan Aug. 30. A five-person staff will direct the operations of the newspaper during the summer, he said. Blake, Gillett and McGrevey will be members of the summer staff, with John Camp, G, and Peggy McGaffey, G.

Evans has worked for the Daily Iowan as a reporter, and for the Associated Press as an Iowa City correspondent. He has also worked for the Bloomfield Newspapers and the Albia Newspapers. Israel has been a staff member on the Sioux City Journal and the Daily Iowan. He has worked on the staff of the Burlington Hawk-Eye.

McGrevey is currently the associate news editor of the Daily Iowan. He has also worked for the Kansas City Star and Times, the Oskaloosa Daily Herald, and the New Sharon Star.

Gillett worked as the sports editor of the Fort Madison Evening Democrat. In addition, he has been a reporter for the Daily Iowan. Avery is currently a photographer for the Associated Press. He has also worked for the Iowa City Press-Citizen, University News Service, and the Daily Iowan. He was the assistant photographer for the Daily Iowan.

Blake, Chapman and Drake have no previous newspaper experience.

Pot Smokers Bust Day Set

In a unique effort to reform drug laws, the National Bust Day Committee is asking marijuana users — en masse — to turn themselves in to police.

The committee has set June 5 as turn-yourself-in day for what they estimate to be ten to 20 million American users.

"It is the conviction of the committee that the judicial system is not equipped to handle the proposed caseload," their constitution reads.

"It is the conviction of the committee that marijuana is 'here to stay' in America, and that enforcement of current marijuana laws discriminates against those who enjoy a substance that has yet to be proven to be dangerous, in preference over, or as well as, one that is undeniably harmful, and, in fact, lethal: alcohol."

Committee chairman John Struthers of Allendale, Michigan, stressed that the proposed action is "organized compliance with the law. Those who currently use marijuana are considered criminals under existing law, and we believe the fact that this is so makes a mockery of law in general."

"We hope to persuade our public officials that the only sane thing that they can do at this time is declare a period of amnesty on prosecution and enforcement of existing marijuana laws . . . the pot user is not a criminal and should not be treated as such."

Army Continues Bio-War Research

DESERT, Utah (LNS) — On Nov. 25, 1969, Richard Nixon announced that the U.S. would stop using biological weapons and would destroy its existing stock. In early March, Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho) revealed that the Army germ warfare testing center here will hire 190 military and 250 civilian workers, making it the largest center of its kind in the world. Their job is to conduct "defensive bio-warfare research."

Foreign Student Visit—

Foreign students will get a chance to see how an Iowa community works through an annual foreign student weekend project in Black Hawk County.

The organization sponsoring the project, the International Student Exchange of Black Hawk County, Inc., plans to host the students April 22 through 25 in Waterloo.

The schedule includes industrial tours, city government and management briefings at Waterloo City Hall and briefings concerning the local judicial system, political system and collective bargaining.

The "Something Else" in Blue Cross and Blue Shield is Social Conscience.

Social conscience is worrying more about people than about profit. Blue Cross and Blue Shield aren't in it for the money and that's what makes a whole of a difference in the way we take care of people.

Money that doesn't go into profit can go into broadening Blue Cross and Blue Shield benefits, for example. We've done a lot of that. Voluntarily, too. Things like increasing the number of days of coverage to 365. And adding care in approved extended care facilities. And providing medical emergency benefits, and home health care benefits. And allowing full time students to stay under the family contract as long as they are dependent and unmarried.

There's a whole lot more. But, the point is that Blue Cross and Blue Shield do things like this because we want to out of concern for our members. They aren't forced by competition. Fact is, most of the commercial insurance companies haven't fully caught up with the forward strides we have made.

We're glad we don't have to trade benefits for profit. So are our nearly a million Iowa members.

Prefab Units Displayed To Regents

The advantages of constructing college and university buildings with the help of prefabricated units were discussed at a meeting of State Board of Regents staff members here Monday.

Donald Clark, business manager at Indiana University and program manager for Academic Building Systems, told an audience of 40 persons that the "industrial systems" approach to construction can produce savings in several ways.

Less work is required from architects and from the academic personnel on the campus involved, he said. In addition, local contractors can be consulted about how to avoid features which may be expensive in their region, said Clark.

Clark said the new method produces buildings much like airplanes, in that all space is used and easy access is permitted for changes and repairs. But unlike aircraft design, the new system stresses flexibility because the use of campus building tends to be shifted around from laboratories to classrooms to administrative offices, he said.

The other principal speakers were Jonathan King, former director of the Ford Foundation's Educational Facilities Laboratory Inc., and now a member of the firm Caudill, Rowlett and Scott in Houston, and Ray Casate, architect at Indiana University.

Coconspirator?

Sister Jogues Egan, right, sought in federal court in Philadelphia to have her conviction for contempt of court set aside. Sister Egan, who has been named as a coconspirator in an alleged plot to kidnap a Presidential adviser (the Berrigan case) refused to testify before a federal grand jury.

Education, English: Popular UI Majors

At both the undergraduate and graduate levels, education is the most popular major program of study at the University of Iowa, according to a recently published statistical profile of the fall semester student body.

The profile, prepared by Elizabeth Stroud, coordinator of institutional data in the Office of the Provost, shows that, during the fall semester, education attracted 967 undergraduate majors and 816 graduate majors. With 611 undergraduates and 409 graduate students, English was the next most popular major.

Other highlights contained in the report:

- Students came to the university from every Iowa county, all 50 states, and 37 foreign countries. About 74 per cent were Iowa residents; nearly 13 per cent lived in adjoining states, 11 per cent in the other 43 states, and about 2 per cent were from foreign countries.

- The 10 counties with the largest representation: Johnson, 2,498; Linn, 1,390; Polk, 1,352; Scott, 1,052; Black Hawk, 470; Clinton, 380; Dubuque, 367; Woodbury, 346; Des Moines, 339; and Muscatine, 278.

- 82 per cent of the fall's freshman class were Iowa residents.

- Although nearly a third of the entering freshmen did not indicate a major, among those who did the most frequently mentioned were in the pre-professional areas: pre-business administration, 191; pre-medicine, 187; pre-nursing, 179; engineering and pre-engineering, 113; and education, 113.

- The quality of the 1970 freshman class was indicated by such measures as high school grade point average — 56 per cent with 3.0 or higher; 85.5 per cent with 2.5 or above; rank in high school class — 26.5 per cent in the top 10th, 89.7 per cent in upper half; and ACT composite score — 50.9 per cent rank in top 10th, 93.7 per cent in upper half of national college-bound high school seniors.

- More than 30 per cent of the students were married, compared to 24 per cent in years ago. 65 per cent of the married students were enrolled in the Graduate College or in the colleges of dentistry, law or medicine.

- 29 per cent lived in university housing, either residence halls or married student apartments; 7 per cent lived in fraternity or sorority houses; some 12 per cent commuted; 3 per cent lived at home in Iowa City; and the largest group, 48 per cent, lived off-campus in the community.

- During the 1969-70 academic year, the largest yearly total of degrees in the university's history were awarded: 4,407. They included 2,724 bachelor's degrees; 267 in dentistry, law and medicine; 1,097 master's degrees; and 319 doctoral degrees.

- Enrollment reached a record 20,604 last fall. The largest college, Liberal Arts, enrolled 57.4 per cent of the total, followed by the Graduate College with 24.7 per cent (spring semester enrollment is 19,515, also a record for the second term).

- The number of transfer students new to the university last fall numbered 2,717, including 1,225 from Iowa schools. Of the latter total, 277 came from the other two state universities (159 from Iowa State and 118 from Northern Iowa); 463 from private four-year schools; 394 from public community colleges; and 91 transferred from private junior colleges.

UI Foundation Gets Richer

The University of Iowa Foundation received private gifts totaling $1,602,153 in 1970, ac-ording to an annual report by foundation officials.

A record number of contributors — 10,856 — made gifts to the foundation in 1970. However, according to Darrell Wyrick, executive director of the foundation, the total is about $100,000 less than the record amount received in 1969.

University alumni contributed $1,203,117, a record amount.

Wyrick said "economic factors such as a bearish stock market and inflation are having a negative influence on contributions to the university and all educational institutions."

He added, "As in many other institutions where campus unrest occurred, university alumni giving slowed considerably last spring. But by the end of the year the trend was reversed and a record of alumni givers was established."

The foundation was formed in 1956, cumulative gifts to the university's educational programs through voluntary giving. Since 1956, cumulative gifts to the agency has passed $8.3 million.

Wyrick said the foundation's No. 1 need in 1971 and in coming years is funds for student aid.

House GOP Scraps Tax Hike

DES MOINES (AP) — A plan to increase the state sales tax temporarily from 3 to 4 per cent effective April 15 to get the state out of the red was scrapped by House Republicans Monday.

The GOP House caucus decided to go ahead with prompt passage of a requirement that merchants must report their sales tax collections to the state monthly instead of quarterly if they take in more than $50 a month in sales tax.

It was estimated the decision would leave the state about $7.6 million shy of wiping out the state deficit, projected to be about $25 million by the time the present biennium ends next June 30.

House Majority Leader Andrew Varley (R-Stuart) commented however that even without the increase, which the party had decided last month would be enacted for a 2½-month period, the state would be "in fairly good shape."

He said the bill requiring monthly reporting would come up in the House "in the next couple of days — maybe tomorrow."

The House Ways and Means Committee had put together only last Thursday the "get out of the red bill," which included both the temporary sales tax increase and the monthly reporting requirement.

Rep. Norman Roorda (R-Monroe) had estimated the two measures together would produce about $16.4 million by next June 30 to eliminate the deficit. Rep. John Camp (R-Bryant) Appropriations Committee chairman, said the measure, taken together with a 3-cents-a-pack cigarette tax increase and return of nearly $6 million in capital funds to the state general fund, would erase the money shortage.
