Iowa group wants more rain

The Iowa Weather Bureau is forecasting above normal rainfall for Iowa this year, indicating a better growing season. This is important for farmers, as adequate rainfall is crucial for crop development. The bureau's projections are based on climate models and long-term weather patterns, which suggest a wetter than average season for the state.

HEW poses plan

A proposal in a bill ignored by liberal students last year that would require doctors and dentists to list their charges in public notices has been reintroduced to Congress. The proposal, sponsored by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., would require doctors and dentists to list their charges in public notices so that patients can compare costs.

Spartans relieve Iowa from Big Ten leaders

Will Iowa's basketball team survive the whirlwind of no points in the Big Ten championship? Can anything stop the Hawkeyes from building their third straight title run, again in the league beside the Badgers?

Here are some of the governing questions Iowa followers are asking themselves: Can the Hawkeyes expect to play Michigan State as usual? After four straight games with Minnesota and Ohio State, the Big Ten championship winner has a Thursday (April 3-7) p.m. showdown for an encore from Hibbing Tuesday.

A health concern over the last two games. A health concern over the last two games. Iowa's defense has been its chief drawback since a 1986-87 doubleheader with Minnesota's gold medal. But the Hawkeyes had a total time of 1.31.62, which was more than enough to boost them into the NCAA dual competition. John Ambrose finished fourth in the men's 5,000-meter cross country race in 2 hours, 43 minutes.

Although the failure of Misses Iowa swimming coach Bob Showalter also was a star wingback on his football team. "We've obviously have not been the kind of team that has been known for its defense," said Showalter, who was a pitcher and outfielder in high school. "If you look at the score indicates and came on the heels of tough losses at Ohio State and Nebraska before the Big Ten championship, snapping a string of nine victories, the Iowa defense has been its chief drawback since the 1986-87 doubleheader with Minnesota's gold medal. DISCOUNT STEREOLAND PRESENTS THE GARRARD SERIES OF AUTOMATIC TURNTABLES

During this special sale, Discount Stereoland is offering absolutely free a high quality cartridge with the purchase of a Garrard Turntable!

The Garrard Component Series is heir to the prestigious name in the history of high fidelity record playing equipment. It is no hereditary title; having been re-earned each year for over half a century by virtue of pedigree performance and durability. Incomparable both in features and expandability, the latest Garrard automatic turntables-include the mechanical refinements which distinguished the earlier Garrard models and, as always, they also incorporate a number of useful innovations, technical and aesthetic advancements that confirm their “First Family” standing in the here-and-now of fine turntable reproduction.

For fewer than half a century Garrard has led the world in the technology of high quality record reproduction, striving continuously through experience and rigid quality control, to bring the highest state-of-the-art in automatic record reproducing equipment within the reach of the home music listener. To assure the long-range satisfaction and dependability, the latest Garrard models incorporate a number of useful innovations, technical and aesthetic advancements that confirm their “First Family” standing in the here-and-now of fine turntable reproduction.
