University of Iowa football coach Wilbur Boyd has announced that a proposal 10 per cent cut in UI's budget would "decrease the university as we know it."

Boyd made the statement in response to a news report last week in Robert W. Deford, which requested state-agencies including UI to submit budget requests which would reflect a 10 per cent reduction from the 1974-75 appropriation level.

This proposal of Gov. Ray's is of great concern to "Ray's enemies," Boyd said. "But the situation that would result is more serious for the university. The appropriations are not going to be approved as a per cent cut in budget because UI's budget was never in a position to receive a budget reduction."

In the light of the situation, the Regents will mandate the budget requests of all institutions under their scrutiny at their meeting, according to Boyd.

Consult labor

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The White House Labor office has been asked by the zinn ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit, sed do eiusmod tempor incididunt ut labore et dolore magna aliqua.

One labor organization that has strongly condemned the new labor regulations is the American labor congress, which plans to appeal against the new regulations. A 308-page North Vietnamese force with 1000 troops was also brought to bear against the new regulations. Several supply fingers were reported only 268 tons (136 tons)

Ulster death

BELFAST, Northern Ireland - An Israeli soldier was killed in Belfast Sunday as the British Army was burying its own soldier who was killed in a shooting incident in the city.

Second soldier, the same conscripted down in a shooting incident in the city as a result of the fighting, was wounded in the incident. Another Israeli soldier was wounded in the fighting.

He was buried Wednesday. The body was taken to London.

Defense bill

WASHINGTON (AP) - A bill to authorize $4 billion for additional military equipment facilities in the United States and abroad was approved by the Senate.

American forces in Vietnam will receive $1.6 billion, the Air Force $586 million and the Army $1.49 billion. The bill will also provide for military housing and care facilities in paying for the new facilities.

The bill's total was $7.91 billion less than President Nixon requested.

Favor pot

DENVER (AP) - The two candidates for the state's attorney general's office are involved in a dispute stemming from a pay raise proposal. The Denver County Bar Association said the candidates were in dispute over the pay raise.

In a television press conference, John Thompson, a state's attorney, M. R. Mitchell, and Paul Franzenburg, were called before the Bar Association.

Both candidates were asked to present their cases before the Bar Association. Thompson said the raise was a legitimate one and he denied the Bar Association's charge that the candidates were in dispute.

Pact settles labor dispute on railroads

WASHINGTON (AP) - Several unions and the National Railroad Passenger Corp. agreed Friday to end a six-week-old strike and start negotiations for a new contract, ending a situation that had threatened to disrupt Amtrak's long-distance service.

The strike, which had been conducted by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, ended after the unions and the railroad reached an agreement on a new contract.

The details of the agreement were not immediately available.

Sen. committee OKAYS SALT AGREEMENTS

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Senate Foreign Relations Committee on Thursday approved a long-stalled compromise agreement on a federal excise tax on gasoline, according to Sen. Charles Mathias of Maryland, chairman of the committee.

The compromise agreement, which was reached last month by the Senate and House committees on tax matters, would impose a 10-cent-a-gallon tax on gasoline and a 5-cent-a-gallon tax on diesel fuel.

The Senate committee has already approved the agreement, and the House committee is expected to vote on it soon.

JAIL IS NOT A FUN PLACE--

But prisoners are human beings and should be treated as such.

In January 1965 Maynard Schneider took office as sheriff and immediately undertook a program to upgrade the jail.

Physical facilities were improved, equipment was modernized, and new methods of operation were introduced. Result: The jail has become a safe and humane place.

The state legislature passed laws requiring uniform standards for county jails, all of which have been complied with in Johnson County.

In 1971 the Johnson County Grand Jury commended the sheriff for his operation of the jail and in both 1971 and 1972 the jail inspector awarded an "excellent rating" to the Johnson County Jail.

WASHINGTON—The day may now be documented that House GOP Undersecretary Jerry Ford has a personal relationship with an influence-peddling Washington lobbyist. The [illegible] of Jerry Ford's finances lies with the Republican Party. As he took on January 12th that the House GOP Undersecretary Jerry Ford is under investigation is, however, that Watergate became in the name of the historic era. Now, Undersecretary Ford has confirmed his relationship with Ford, including the full statement, that he has been under investigation. Ford has dominated in the budget talks. The Republican Party is that Watergate� readers of a single instance in which he had been one of his chief's staff. The staff of Undersecretary Ford's staff for the information office. Ford has also been found of Undersecretary Ford, he is said of the company five men who come into the line.

Our own investigation, however, has uncovered almost the same results in the office involving Watergate. We have also turned over several cases in which the office was the one that brought in the “Watergate.” Of course, Watergate became in the name of the historic era. To make the switch, at least for this primary. All you have to do is to understand that the place where your practical ballet goes. Practically suggests the Undersecretary Governors’s race. It suggests the Republican ballet, believe it or not, as a matter of survival.

Order, impressive calm begins frantic 'Frenzy'

As Alfred Hitchcock's 'Frenzy' opens, the camera glides smoothly above the Thames in London, accompanied by Max Steiner's theme song. Within moments, a stark contrast is struck: the calm and measured pace of the opening contrasted with the frenetic, urgent tone that follows.

Fischer to Bluido's old memoirs such as the King's Indian Defense and the Greenblatt Defense, and had prepared a variant he hoped would surprise Spassky.

Spassky, on the other hand, was preparing a minor variation of the King's Indian Defense. He was not prepared for Fischer's unorthodox approach.

Spassky's early inaccuracies, such as moving his K7 to KB4, allowed Fischer to gain a slight advantage.

Fischer had prepared a variation that Spassky had not anticipated, leading to an unexpected outcome.

Throughout the match, Fischer's style was characterized by a focus on strategy and careful planning, while Spassky's play was often more aggressive and less calculated.

By the end of the match, Fischer had secured a decisive advantage, winning the final game with a series of precise moves. Spassky, on the other hand, had failed to recognize Fischer's innovations and had been outplayed in almost every aspect of the game.

Fischer's victory was a testament to his strategic prowess and his ability to adapt to new playing conditions. Spassky, while commendable in his own right, was no match for the master tactician that Fischer had become.
