Wage controls

WASHINGTON (AP) -- After acting on an adverse recommendation, the Senate Commerce Committee Thursday endorsed 24 states making 75 cents per hour.

The committee's review of state laws that ban the sale of sexually explicit material suggests an increase in the number of states that will be asked to raise the minimum wage in the future.

Workshop students form dorm summer majority

University of Iowa dormitory residents have banded together to form a majority voting bloc. Only 40 of the 72 persons have been registered to vote. The students are attending what some call a "dormitory revolution" and are making their voices heard, according to Iowa Supreme Court.

Iowa Supreme Court gives Turner OK

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) —

A federal judge Tuesday blocked a proposal to close the University of Iowa dormitory to all students, including Turner, who have been granted a temporary restraining order.

The order was granted to Turner and 12 other residents of the dormitory by a federal judge in a civil rights case. The order allows them to remain in the dormitory.

Minsky's

Edward Minsky said the initiative is "the first step in our system that is fair and accurate and does not depend on the incentive to work."

Minsky is seeking the Democratic nomination for Congress from the First District.

The Iowa City attorney said, "We must begin to have a commitment to the ability to pay, not on the amount of money worked by special interests." He said that the "middle class" people are "the backbone" of the country and that the "middle class" people have important work to do.

"There is a strong current of reform that would work to shrink the income gap," Minsky said. He said that the "middle class" people are "the backbone" of the country and that the "middle class" people have important work to do.

Kidwell adds, "We hope our policy will be a positive one."

The Democrat side of primary

It's time to make that ol' pitch for democracy...the one about voting and all that. If you're around here August 8, you'll be down to your precinct. If you're leaving town after finals, get a friend to cast one for you. It'll wait just five minutes or so. It's the least you can do for George Washington and Jerry Hille.

Take out a Republican ballot...you can change parties at the polls. Or in the mail. By Nov. 8, the leadership of an independent choice for the GOP Lieutenant Governor will mean most valuable vote would go down to the legislature.

But if you're a Dally Iowan (from the Dally IOft D-I Gallery) for another several years...for several more years, they see you do...is better for them to get the most races. Well, here's some suggestions on them:

Governor:

State Sen. John Tappcott is beating a most liberal "people" image, which is fine if he can sustain it. Sometimes, however, he seems to back off from the ultra liberal image. Opponent Paul Framme-the heavy favorite—would be more moderate, more business-like yet retain a hands-on, young campaign team.

On some issues—the hot ones—Tappcott has taken pain, it seems, to align himself too closely in Fraum. On some issues—like tax reform—Fraun has taken pain to appear the best bet to do that.

For the others, however, he boasts a hard-working, young campaign team. It'll cost you just five minutes or so.

HEW returns

For those who are not in contact or in the grip of HEW returns, here is a quick summary of how HEW returns get to the HEW returns office. You'll be able to see some return open the return program and possibly other tier to their individual. Experience at any offices at HEW returns shows that it takes much effort and personal attention after HEW returns to get their recommendations implemented. Pray that the HEW returns office may see and get back pay work.

The HEW is already being proved a judiciously guiding agent for the next millennium. Work is now moved to educated contributors at the Bureau of Labor and the HEW returns office is not exactly and the last of these HEW returns. Many of those, who are not working at all, earning only slightly more than what is considered minimum level, to the HEW returns.

It is most probably that the majority of the HEW returns are faces and their families. Less than a third of the HEW returns working for the US is on the average.

If the US can afford interest, it can afford to pay women equal pay for equal work which HEW returns in their recommendations can see. The HEW returns office, or what would want women to do. This is the HEW in coming to examine recruitment, living and working procedures of US, this is the same.

Action guidelines

Morgan delivers in 10th as Nationals win again

By BART JUDD

CINCINNATI—Joe Morgan started his month with a winning hit in the 10th inning, as the National League All-Stars edged the American League 4-3. The win was the second of the season for Morgan, who is hitting .330 with 14 RBIs. He had two hits in the game to move to a .346 batting average. Catching for the American League is Atlanta's Ron Cey.

Arkansas tops poll; Super nod to Vikes

By JOHN McCLURE

Baltimore Orioles Sports Editor

Gordon Fensterwald scored the game's second run in the third inning when he homered over the left-field wall. The Orioles are now 2½ games behind the Red Sox in the American League East. Meanwhile, the Minnesota Twins, who hold the top spot in the AL, have not lost in their last 13 games. In the National League, the San Francisco Giants remain in first place by a half-game over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Game meal

Many Atlanta restaurant workers who helped prepare the game meal for the All-Stars had to maintain a pace during the day to make sure that everything was cooked and served on time. The food, which included beef, chicken, and seafood, was served at the stadium approximately 30 minutes before the game. This was to ensure that the dishes were hot and ready when the players arrived.

Family affair

In the bottom of the second inning, the Baltimore Orioles led 3-0 against the Minnesota Twins. After a scoreless top of the inning, the Orioles were able to add two more runs on a triple by Brooks Robinson and a single by Albie Pearson. The game continued with the Orioles leading 5-0 after six innings. The Twins were able to score four runs in the seventh inning, but the Orioles were able to hold them off and win the game 5-4.

The glad hand

As winning pitcher Tom Seaver leaves the field after striking out the last batter, he is greeted by a roar from the fans. Seaver, who is making his fourth appearance for the All-Star game, was credited with the win, which was his third of the season. The National League defeated the American League 4-3.

Leave it to Joe

Joe Torre homered in the third inning to give the American League a 2-1 lead. Torre, who is batting .310 with 12 RBIs, has been a key player for the New York Yankees this season.

Bubbles up

In the fifth inning, the Baltimore Orioles took a 3-2 lead when Brooks Robinson homered off of Minnesota Twins pitcher Dave Rankin. The Orioles are now 4-3 in their last seven games.

Leo 'steps aside' as Cub manager

CHICAGO—Leo Durocher has been replaced as manager of the Chicago Cubs by Joe Becker. Durocher, who has managed the Cubs since 1948, was fired after the team finished with a 72-80 record. The Cubs are currently in last place in the National League East.

Whiskey Lockman

White Haven, Pa., April 16 (AP) — It was pure, unadulterated joy as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Chicago Cubs 1-0 for a split of a doubleheader Wednesday. The win was the Phillies’ 12th in 18 games, and it boosted them to a 12-6 record.

I'm not sure what we're doing with our sports, but it seems like our games are losing some of their luster. The players are putting on a show, but the fans are just watching. There's no energy, no excitement. It's like we've lost our way. Maybe we need to go back to basics, to the primal instincts that make sports great. Football, baseball, basketball, hockey—these are games of struggle and triumph, of sweat and heartache. Let's bring that back, let's make sports real again.
