Union views hulk

Asks employers to employ

By LEROY VITRO

The Iowa Union for Freedom & Equality, which represents employees of the Hulk, has asked the employers to employ the union, as the union views the Hulk as an employer that has refused to recognize the union's rights.

The union's stance is based on the belief that the Hulk has refused to negotiate with the union over the workers' rights.

Expansion impossible

CABUS: dollar crisis

By MERRY BROOKS

The Iowa Student Union and the Iowa Student Union Foundation (ISA) are facing a financial crisis due to decreased funding from the University of Iowa. The union is seeking support from the university to continue its operations.

The crisis is due to the University of Iowa's decision to reduce funding to the union, which is currently operating on a $1 million budget.

Tigers, 4-1

DETROIT (AP) — Mike Piazza homered and drove in four runs and the New York Mets took advantage of a tired Detroit pitching staff for a 4-1 victory over the Tigers Thursday.

The Mets scored three runs in the first inning, including two on Paul Lo Duca's hit, and managed to beat the Tigers despite a 1.16 ERA by Detroit's Joel Zumaya.

Tigers, 4-1

The Mets scored three runs in the first inning, including two on Paul Lo Duca's hit, and managed to beat the Tigers despite a 1.16 ERA by Detroit's Joel Zumaya.

Rubenstein

Another internationally known concert pianist will perform in Des Moines this summer.

Artem Rubenstein, who was born in Poland in 1982, is one of the most sought-after pianists in the world. He has performed with some of the world's leading orchestras and has won numerous prestigious awards.

Rubenstein will perform in Des Moines on July 15, 2023, as part of the Des Moines Music Center's summer concert series.

Meany

MEANY

DEAN MOLYNEUX, IOWA (AP) — Dr. George McGovern

Defense money

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Monday passed a $2.4 trillion defense appropriation bill that would provide the military with the funding it needs in the coming year.

The bill, which was approved by a vote of 90-9, includes increases for military personnel, equipment, and programs.

Complaints

Hosted as an “emergency”

Well, a panel of Iowa City police officers who were interviewed by the Iowa City Police Department on Tuesday, Feb. 28, 2023, were asked about their experiences with police during the recent election season.

The officers reported a range of issues, including disruptiveness at polling places and concerns about the use of force by police.

Neck bite

An assault was reported in Iowa City police Monday morning.

A woman told police that a homeless man bit her on the neck while she was walking her dog.

Policing and the process was attended to in the 900 block of South Hewitt Street.

Open Forum

All political groups are invited to the open forum.

The open forum, which is open to the public, will be held on Wednesday, March 15, 2023, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Iowa City Public Library.

Riders

September’s residents in Iowa City area have increased.

Iowa City, IA, Sep 15, 2023

The number of riders in the Iowa City area has increased by 13.4% over the same period last year, according to the Iowa City Transit Authority.

Membership

COPINGHAMS — Davis guessed that a major twist in Copingham’s, expected

Governor Reynolds announced the creation of a new law enforcement agency in the state, which will focus on combating crime and improving public safety.

The new agency, which will be known as the Iowa Office of Criminal Justice Information and Planning, will be headquartered in Des Moines.

Copingham’s

COPINGHAMS — Davis guessed that a major twist in Copingham’s, expected

Governor Reynolds announced the creation of a new law enforcement agency in the state, which will focus on combating crime and improving public safety.

The new agency, which will be known as the Iowa Office of Criminal Justice Information and Planning, will be headquartered in Des Moines.

Copingham’s

COPINGHAMS — Davis guessed that a major twist in Copingham’s, expected

Governor Reynolds announced the creation of a new law enforcement agency in the state, which will focus on combating crime and improving public safety.

The new agency, which will be known as the Iowa Office of Criminal Justice Information and Planning, will be headquartered in Des Moines.

Copingham’s

COPINGHAMS — Davis guessed that a major twist in Copingham’s, expected

Governor Reynolds announced the creation of a new law enforcement agency in the state, which will focus on combating crime and improving public safety.

The new agency, which will be known as the Iowa Office of Criminal Justice Information and Planning, will be headquartered in Des Moines.
Senate policy 'stupid'? parking debate continues

By CHECKERMAN
Associate News Editor
Catholics for Urban Affairs, a student policy advocacy board, has decided to enact a campus-wide ban on student parking spaces from the 10,000 available. The ban will only affect the students with Regents cards, who are the only students allowed to park on campus.

A recent survey conducted by the board showed that 70% of the student population does not have a Regents card. Therefore, the ban will only affect a small percentage of the student population.

The ban will go into effect starting next semester and will be enforced by the University Parking Committee, which currently manages the parking needs of the campus.

Affordable space

The policy of the board is to ensure that parking spaces are affordable and accessible to all students. The board has been working on this policy for three years and has consulted with many experts in the field.

The ban will not only affect the Regents card holders, but also the students who are already paying for parking spaces. The board has been working on a solution to this problem, but it has not been satisfied with the current proposals.

Deflation

OMar, the chairman of the board, has expressed his disappointment with the decision of the board. He stated, "The decision was made without proper consultation with the students. The board should have had a better understanding of the needs of the students."

The board has been working on this issue for three years and has consulted with many experts in the field. However, the decision was made without proper consultation with the students.

Citizen action

Two Project GREEN members, Dr. Marnie Milkman and Prof. Seiberling, have expressed their disappointment with the decision of the board. They stated, "The decision was made without proper consultation with the students. The board should have had a better understanding of the needs of the students."

The board has been working on this issue for three years and has consulted with many experts in the field. However, the decision was made without proper consultation with the students.

Ramp project alive: Laitner

Local citizens have been involved in defining that a pedestrian parking facility has been installed by the city as part of the "Mystic" parking system for Iowa City organizations. Opposing the facility is John Laitner, a recent returnee from the U.S. Army. The city administration said that the ramp project may still be on track.

Lownesem

He added that the city administration may still be on track to complete the ramp project. The city administration said that the ramp project may still be on track.

Hearing 'uneventful'

By ROBERTJONIK
Metro News
The latest performance of Iowa's finest orchestra, the Iowa City Symphony, was held in the city's auditorium on the evening of October 1.

The orchestra, led by the world-renowned conductor, Robert J. Smith, performed a selection of some of the most famous works of classical music, including Beethoven's Symphony No. 9, Brahms' First Symphony, and Schubert's Symphony No. 8.

The performance was held at the Iowa City Auditorium, which is located at 123 E. Market St. The auditorium has a capacity of 2,000 people and is equipped with state-of-the-art sound and lighting systems.

The orchestra was joined by a group of local choral groups, including the Iowa City Choral Society and the Iowa City Youth Chorus, who performed a selection of some of the most famous works of choral music, includingMessiaen's "Turangalila-Symphonie" and Mozart's "Requiem."
Recruiter talks about volunteer organizations

By JOHN HULLERT

"Being in the VA is like being in a country," he says. "Many people who have never been there may not understand the stories I've heard from veterans."

Wayne Christianson, 310 east 14th st., Iowa City, a former Iowa Supreme Court Justice from 1939 to 1959. The 85-year-old former Iowa Supreme Court Justice is a volunteer for the University of Iowa's Handicapped Services. He says that the supervisors meet twice a week to discuss the work and to review the supervisors' reports. The Handicapped Services office is open on Tuesdays from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.; weekends from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; and from 12:30 p.m. to 2 p.m. on Wednesdays. The office is located in the Iowa Union. The office can be reached at 333-2131.

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area," Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farmer in the area." Christianson says. "I learned a lot about hard work and the value of a dollar."

"As a result of my experiences, I feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"I also feel that it is important to support organizations that help the handicapped."

"As a youngster, I worked for a farm
Booze problem

Alcoholics are not the only ones who have a liquor problem in Johnson County. Anyone who has had to get to the liquor store on a football Saturday has a problem. Anyone who has tried to buy a bottle after 5 p.m. has a problem. Anyone who has tried to get Boone's Farm at their neighborhood grocery store has a problem. The problems go on and are centered around the state's liquor monopoly. Roland Gallagher is director of the Iowa Department of Liquor Control, and the staff at the local store is friendly and tries hard. They offer to hold the door for the fellow with a case of beer or a bottle of apple juice just as they do the customer who paid a high bill.

The state office should be given a half-gallon Gallon bottle and a key, and told to go.

The state should be out of the liquor business. Many neighboring states have private stores, and prices need not be any higher than now. Given that the state's liquor monopoly is run out of Iowa City, certain changes could be made. The state could part out the business of the liquor store in Iowa City. Perhaps the state should not own liquor stores.

Booze should be increased. On an experimental basis hours were increased for 3 months in five resort areas. Gallagher, director of the state monopoly, found that the experiment a $50,000 success. The department sold an extra $40,000 worth of alcohol at both Millburn and Clear Lake after the usual closing hour.

Anyone who is unhappy with the present situation should apply to become a politician who does not promise change. Where have our state representatives and senator been? Drinking with lobbyists. —Barb Yost

Finds McGovern aid tied to military rulers

Brown is also a director and legal counsel for National Interests, an organization in Indonesia which has been indicted by the New York Stock Exchange. During this week, concerned persons will go to a hearing in New York to determine the future of the organization of student action groups, either by leaving the United Nations or by forming a group of their own. The government has been demanding that student groups hand over their funds and hand out their aid to student groups in the United States who are sympathetic to Indonesia.

Brown is a director of National Interests. Brown will act to meet the demands of the National Interests.

There is a hint to something else in the story in which the Washington Post, which is sympathetic to Indonesia, has been turned against Brown. The Washington Post took a much more sympathetic view of Brown's statement about Indonesia.

In the campaign Brown will act to meet the demands of the National Interests and to help the student groups.

It does seem that once Brown's statement was made, he had to agree to meet the demands of the National Interests.

Boo, 'wrinkled, celibate!'

To the Editor:

Since I am interested in publishing the manuscript of my book entitled "The Search for the Valiant Men," I would like to know the procedures for submitting the manuscript. The purpose of my book is to describe the experiences of fine men and women in the struggle for nuclear disarmament.

I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience. Please let me know if there are any other questions that I may have.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Smith

Dear Mr. Smith,

I am pleased to hear of your interest in publishing your book. The manuscript must conform to the following guidelines:

1. The manuscript must be submitted in at least double-spaced, typewritten form.
2. The manuscript should not exceed 50 pages.
3. The manuscript should be accompanied by a brief summary of the book's contents.
4. The manuscript should be submitted in triplicate.

Please contact me at the above address if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

John Doe

University of Iowa Press

Boo, 'wrinkled, celibate!'

To the Editor:

I am interested in publishing the manuscript of my book entitled "The Search for the Valiant Men," I would like to know the procedures for submitting the manuscript. The purpose of my book is to describe the experiences of fine men and women in the struggle for nuclear disarmament.

I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience. Please let me know if there are any other questions that I may have.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Smith

Dear Mr. Smith,

I am pleased to hear of your interest in publishing your book. The manuscript must conform to the following guidelines:

1. The manuscript must be submitted in at least double-spaced, typewritten form.
2. The manuscript should not exceed 50 pages.
3. The manuscript should be accompanied by a brief summary of the book's contents.
4. The manuscript should be submitted in triplicate.

Please contact me at the above address if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

John Doe

University of Iowa Press

Medical aid to Indochina

Organizations and individuals who can get a sense of both the need and the potential of medical aid to Indochina are being asked to submit their views to the United Nations. The position of this feature is to encourage public opinion on the subject, as well as to provide a forum for discussion.

It is understood that the United Nations is not able to act without the knowledge of the local government. The government of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (North Vietnam) has supported its own medical system.

A double-spacing system, using three pages to length, is being used to permit a wide range of views to be presented.

The United Nations, on the other hand, is being supported by the United States, which has provided medical aid to Indochina in the past.

Leile Guernsey

The DAILY IOWAN

210 N. Linn, No. 10, October 7, 1977

News and Editorial Staff

Managing Editor

John Doe

Assistant Managing Editor

Jane Smith

Features Editor

Mary Brown

Editorial Staff

John Doe

Assistant Editor

Mary Smith

Copy Editor

Jane Brown

Sports Editor

John Smith

Art Director

Jane Doe

Staff Writer

John Smith

Staff Writer

Mary Brown
"Fugitives of our history"

Tribute to black cowboys in Buck and the Preacher

It's been suggested that one of the problems that black actors have encountered is that the American public is always going to be watching their every move. But Buck and the Preacher (filmed in the Indian Territory of Oklahoma) was being watched with a pair of black horses, riding to the rhythm of the 17th century, and it was wider than any black people. Its Buck and the Preacher (also called Gospel Train) is at Cinema 1 in the Mall, we hear. This is an exciting story of a fugitive, who is a horseback preacher, and he is going to tell us a story.

In an ironic way, it's a pity the film might have been a big hit in all black casting. John Wayne could have been Harry Belafonte, and Baby Dee Dee Osborne, who directed, made a reportedly a film. The dialogue is kept to a minimum, and we are sometimes lulled into thinking of him. One of his scenes seems to hint of the film's circular nature.

Gus is a long noses and a product of black people. It is especially effective because the film was made in an area (Oklahoma?) that's the semi-desert. The action was limited, but the action was kept a joke. It's the human-sized valley that the black actors reached and kept in tow.

Several performances are good, but the story is Harry Belafonte, both for his object throughout and for his first meeting with black.

Martha Rogers

Left to Write

with oddie baskell

Daily Iowan Features Editor

Lenny Bruce without Tears

Wheel Room

Tues., October 3

8:00 p.m. continuous till 11:00 p.m.

25c COVER  25c BEER

Friday, October 3

DAYS AT THE TACO VENDOR LTD.

107 E. Burlington

Authentic Home Mexican Foods

On the street corner

TACOS
ENCILADAS
TOSTADAS
BURRITOS
TAMALES

ALL AT THE COUNTER

WE ARE A FRANCHISE

THE DAILY IOWAN—City, Iowa—Tues.—Oct. 5, 1971—Page 3
Cincinnati vs. Pittsburgh
Big brawl in NL

By BART KIPP
Sports Writer

A fearsome brawl averted this weekend when the Cincinnati Reds met up with the Pittsburgh Pirates down at Riverfront Stadium, and the Bucs, on paper, were a better team, or were they? The Mets were not too happy after the game, and the Reds were as well.

The brawl had a story reminiscent of a large group of疗法的tally, but no one was hurt. The Reds had been leading 5-0 over the Pirates, but the Pirates had fought back to tie the game, 5-5, in the ninth inning.

Let's take a look at the teams.

出血. The Reds have played four straight games in one day, and have a quick one to catch up with the Pirates.

John L. Bench

Hawk awards to
Skog & Windauer

By ROVER
Quarterback Kyle Skagnum
and defensive tackle RJ Windauer were named Iowa's offensive and defensive players of the week.

The Red Birds remained unchanged in the top middle of the slate had a few changes. As its victim, the Pirates are a little easier, but it's still a good game to watch.

The Reds' starting pitcher, Pete Tolan, has made a miraculous comeback in the last few seasons. He is a good hitter, a good pitcher, and a decent fielder.

To win the game, the Reds' manager, Pat Malone, had to put the ball in the right place. He has a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well.

The Pirates are a good team, but they are not as good as the Reds. The Reds have a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well. The Pirates have a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well.

The Reds' third baseman, Pete Tolan, has made a miraculous comeback in the last few seasons. He is a good hitter, a good pitcher, and a decent fielder.

The Pirates are a good team, but they are not as good as the Reds. The Reds have a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well. The Pirates have a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well.

The Reds' manager, Pat Malone, had to put the ball in the right place. He has a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well.

The Pirates are a good team, but they are not as good as the Reds. The Reds have a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well. The Pirates have a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well.

The Reds' manager, Pat Malone, had to put the ball in the right place. He has a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well.

The Pirates are a good team, but they are not as good as the Reds. The Reds have a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well. The Pirates have a good hitting team, and a decent hitting team, as well.
Iowa sailors puff to Big 10 boat title

By JEFF STEMPF

The Iowa Sailing Club mounted a stirring last-minute comeback and then steadied to win the Big Ten sailing championship for just a third time in school history.

The Hawkeyes, whose skipper is Tom Bennett and the crew is Ann Martin, overcame a 20-point deficit in thepets of the final day of competition.

"It's been a long time coming, a lot of hard work," Bennett said. "We've been working on this since the beginning of the season."

The Hawkeyes finished with 136 points, while Michigan State finished second with 116 and Purdue finished third with 104.

Bennett said the win was sweet after the team had to overcome several obstacles during the season.

"We had a lot of ups and downs," Bennett said. "We lost a lot of races, but we never gave up."

The Hawkeyes closed out the season with a three-race sweep in the final Big Ten regatta.

"It's a great feeling to win," Bennett said. "We've been working hard all season long."