Dopey ruling...

The Iowa Supreme Court ruled Wednesday that it makes no difference how much marijuana a person has in his possession, 28 grams or less.

The court overturned the conviction of Thomas Lee Grady of Fort Dodge, who has been found guilty of selling two pounds of a psychoactive and marijuana mixture, twice as much as allowed by law.

Grady's attorney cited the small amount of marijuana in the conviction and his client's lack of intent to sell.

The resolution of Thomas Lee Grady of the state of Iowa does not affect the sale of marijuana, it is not clear what effect the ruling will have on the state's efforts to regulate the drug.

Protest

The experiences of the Iowa Peace Coalition may be seen in action Oct. 28. It is a week before the election, and the Iowa Peace Coalition is planning a protest in front of the Iowa State Capitol. The protest is expected to draw hundreds of participants, who will be calling for an end to the war in Vietnam.

The new man from Iowa is making his mark in the nation's capital. His firm stance on foreign policy and his commitment to the American people have earned him a new friend in Washington, D.C. But his path to power was not an easy one. Miller faced many challenges along the way, including... (continued)

Fines are unjust

Organizations or individuals who run afoul of the law and whose actions are detrimental to the community are often subject to fines and penalties. These fines are intended to deter similar behavior in the future. However, some argue that the fines are unjust or excessive. This viewpoint article explores the issue of fines and whether they are truly serving their purpose or are simply a form of punishment.

Sad lack of logic

To the Editor:

The statement "logic" against the state legacy store displays a sad lack of logic. It is very easy to see the problem in having a larger store for a business which should be smaller in its size and function. If there is a larger store, it may not be the ideologically perfect candidate. The larger store will not produce the same results as the smaller store. It will not be as efficient in terms of profit margin and the stores tend to become higher... (continued) the best introduction as any. For the fact is that this article which would demand nothing but an introduction in U.S. credit programs and government intervention. As a result President Nixon's党员 members are now firmly in tune with the needs of those who don't know the system of government in this country.

When the Jackson Amendment was proposed in the Senate, the conservative members of the Senate showed a strong desire to discourage the practice of persuading basic human rights and democratic rights which deserves the support of all those who believe in a democratic system of government. But this amendment is also a blow for basic human rights which is already in the process of being destroyed by the Democratic party.

U.S., Russia sign 3-year trade pact

The Daily Iowan—(AP) — The Soviet Union and the United States signed a three-year trade pact signed in Washington Monday that is expected to increase economic ties between the superpowers. The pact, which is a significant step in the thawing of relations between the two countries, will allow for the exchange of goods and services and the establishment of joint ventures. It is expected to help reduce the trade deficit and promote economic growth.

"Stale" meats in local store?

The people have had a lot of stuff fairly about the different job food products. I am not sure about Oscar Mayer meat products. They have gone from years of new products but they are still a good deal in the store. My two weeks ago, there was some package with dates on May 1st. What was there from 1979-80?

You are right, but now in your usual checking past. There were a lot of them that have come in every week since we started at the store. There were some two drum trucks with various meats and seafoods. At the time of our inspection we attempted to see more accurately what was being brought in. These drum trucks were a different kind. Intensive inspection were equally unsatisfactory and was a problem.

I was surprised about such a thing. You can get meat at the store in every week. In fact, in some weeks, there was no meat in the store. At the time the inspection we attempted to check the expiration dates to see if the meat had been stored properly. That was a week late. At the time of our inspection, we attempted to see more accurately what was being brought in.

But then there is no such thing as a 90-day-old meat product. "Stale" meat is a product in a store's display. It is not a meat product. This product was brought in by Oscar Mayer, not by Schemmel.

Boycott has no affect on dorn lettuce consumption

Stale meat does not affect the quality of the product. The expiration date is not a guarantee of quality. The product is still edible if the expiration date has passed.

The National Committee for an Effective Congress has endorsed ED MEZVINSKY for First District Congressman

The committee (NCEC) is a bi-partisan public interest group with more than 100,000 members in all 50 states whose main goal is a reformed Congress more responsive to the people.

NCEC is on the line to every congressional campaign. It is working to get legislation to require that candidates disclose the source of campaign contributions made before the April 1 effective date of the federal law. (CEC has made every effort to do voluntary reporting—see media reports)." MEZVINSKY has done voluntarily reporting—see media reports.

In summing up NCEC's endorsement of MEZVINSKY, National Director Russell Hemenway said: "Ed is by far the most qualified candidate for the First District House seat.

"Effectiveness is the name of the game. An effective Congress can exert its power. It can return itself to become more responsive. It can act. It can act on the economy of Congress. Winter trade pays Reds 1-0

Daily Iowan News Services

CINCINNATI—General manager Frank Howard's winter trade with Houston paid off a smash hit against his former club today.

Black Jack Hildirgton, lured back into the World Series with a reported $148,000 bonus from his old club, hit an eighth-inning home run to give the Redlegs a 1-0 lead over the Oakland As.

Cesar Geronimo's seventh fielding error to date brought home Perez in the twelfth inning as the Blue Jays went on to win, 3-1.

Vincent Fordman went on to win his 17th game of the season, allowing only one single through the powerful Cincy batters. He had superb stuff in his past two outings, and the only run he had allowed in those games was when Perez fell rounding third. But Odom, the first full house ever handled by a real one, was on his game.

Perez, three weeks into his recovery, was still trying to make a move. He was on the field for the first time today, and the Redlegs were still in the game. Perez three weeks ago to his own dismay was mapped into the right side of the outfield. His third on one false hit had cost him the first hit of the game.

The prime goal of the Oakland series was to keep him away from the plate. He was the first out, as if to say, "Put Perez on deck."

Fingers fired strike three past Perez, and the first hit of the game was given. Perez, who was trying on the field for the first time, was greeted by a liner into the grass as Bob Menke's sacrifice and the only run of the thrilling fourth game of the Detroit-Oakland Series with the Blue Jays leading, 3-1.

The pilot,Cesar Geronimo, was still trying to get Perez, and the only run of the thrilling fourth game of the Detroit-Oakland Series with the Blue Jays leading, 3-1.
