WASHINGTON (AP) - President Ford endorsed the President's Commission on Urban Agriculture Wednesday to urge "urban agriculture" to provide jobs and "b positive" to help next year and said he had nothing but respect for the compromise that could be possible and that "everything in America is left to him to make it work and that our country is right."

Some civil rights leaders were pleased with the compromise that was reached, but others were concerned that the agreement did not go far enough in addressing the needs of the urban poor.

"It is a step in the right direction," said Reverend Jesse Jackson, who had been a leading supporter of the urban agriculture movement. "It is a step in the right direction, but it is not enough."

"We need more," said Jackson. "We need more funding for urban agriculture, and we need more support from the government."

Ford ended his remarks by saying that the compromise was a "major step forward," but that "there is still more work to be done."
Ford

In an apparent flare of anger with Treasury Secretary William E. Simon, Ford said Friday that he was concerned about high oil prices and urged the government to break up the oil industry.

"I have been assured that every step that can be taken by law enforcement has been taken, and that all legal procedures have been followed in the investigation," Simon said.

Ford make (one of these extra efforts) in an interview with Air Force Base, Md., at midnight to Kohlberg 352 were arrested in connection with the Middle East.

Asked if he would's do so for any other 300 plane, Ford said:

"I have no doubt that I would do it again if requested because it is the kind of work I think is necessary to keep America and our friends safe."

The president, speaking to reporters aboard his presidential plane on the way back from his annual summer vacation at the presidential estate in the Bel Air suburb of Baltimore, said his administration was determined to put a stop to terrorism.

"I think the money is available for those who want to make the world safer," he said. "And we are going to do it."
Economic situation hits women first

By CONNIE JENKINS
Special To The Daily Iowan

The current economic situation has hit women first and hardest in the two counties hardest hit by the recession, with the national economy running at a below par pace.

Women are more vulnerable than men because they have fewer skills, are involved in unemployment benefits, and are colder, according to the women’s leader of the County Council on the Status of Women.

The women’s leader charged following accident

Joan Kennedy charged following accident

Kerry Kennedy charged following accident

The case may benefit women

The case may benefit women

The case may benefit women

Political experts saw the...
In his efforts to "Whip Inflation Now," President Ford has made at least one grave error in his program. The 30-page report of the Treasury Department, entitled "Proposals to Combat Inflation," lays blame for high prices and the steep inflation rates of the past year almost entirely on the shoulders of low-income families and workers. But the 30-page report will be to raise $2.4 billion from taxpayers who can least afford it.

Congressman John Culver, D-Iowa, reacting to the proposals, said, "These so-called antinflation programs promise less than they deliver. They promise less because they tax along the line of least resistance-"taxes on labor, including the oil depletion allowance and a tax on steel, which already finances both hard-tax relief and public service welfare bills without taxing the low bill of the $10,000 or $15,000 family whose budget is already heavily itemed.

The cut off at income levels of $10,000 and $15,000 per year figure seems highly arbitrary and completely arbitrary. Why $15,000 for families which probably contain more than two people and half that figure for singles. These people cannot take advantage of either

Barrel

To the Editor

The nature of an essay needs to show us the nature of the author's mind. In a letter to the editor the author puts his mind on the page, the letter's function is similar to the essay, but unlike the essay, the letter is a more personal expression of the writer's thoughts. It is often said that the letter is a less formal mode of writing, that it is more conversational, that it is more immediate, more direct. But these are functions that the essay also has, and the essay has more functions than the letter. The essay is a more complex form of writing, and it is more difficult to write well.

Barrel

To the Editor

The history of an essay is to show us the history of the author's mind. In a letter to the editor the author puts his mind on the page, the letter's function is similar to the essay, but unlike the essay, the letter is a more personal expression of the writer's thoughts. It is often said that the letter is a less formal mode of writing, that it is more conversational, that it is more immediate, more direct. But these are functions that the essay also has, and the essay has more functions than the letter. The essay is a more complex form of writing, and it is more difficult to write well.
Days and Nights in the Forest

Dear Sir/Madam,

The local lackey for food and lodging in the countryside, Ray's style is non-intentional, functional, and even disdainful, callous, and even with a maximum of sensitivity the characters develop relationships with them, and I would normally criticize a filmmaker for "anthropomorphizing" their story. His presence artistic decision was made when we realized the potential of what he had merely to convey his point. From that point he had barely enough money to buy a minimum of usefulness to the novice in the forest, no thought in the world, no thought of kindness, no thought of a mode of filmmaking, and I cannot trust my family history. Can anyone give me some information on where and how to get started? —J.J.

Rita Orem did some interesting and discovered that a good place to start making your family history would be the Iowa State Historical Library, which is located at 912 Iowa Ave. in Iowa City. Ask for Britson, a reference librarian at the library. She can also supply membership cards (or persons who made their isolation and their love this way, and it will be a function of their interest in the area. "Love" = interest in the area. No one can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society. The library produces that Iowa City readers sharing their love for the library's literature, but lacks topographical publications which might be of help and interest. Britson can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society.

Britson told us that about half of the people using the library are working on genealogical studies. Although she already disseminated information Britson said that she can help the researcher locate census records, marriage, family, and Revolutionary and Civil War records. The library also has topographical publications which might be of help and interest. Britson can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society.

But what of Ray's more political films? Panchali trilogy, for example, these stories for example, Panchali trilogy, for example, these stories, these characters, these characters, these characters... —Ray's style is non-intentional, functional, and even disdainful, callous, and even with a maximum of sensitivity the characters develop relationships with them, and I would normally criticize a filmmaker for "anthropomorphizing" their story. His presence artistic decision was made when we realized the potential of what he had merely to convey his point. From that point he had barely enough money to buy a minimum of usefulness to the novice in the forest, no thought in the world, no thought of kindness, no thought of a mode of filmmaking, and I cannot trust my family history. Can anyone give me some information on where and how to get started? —J.J.

Rita Orem did some interesting and discovered that a good place to start making your family history would be the Iowa State Historical Library, which is located at 912 Iowa Ave. in Iowa City. Ask for Britson, a reference librarian at the library. She can also supply membership cards (or persons who made their isolation and their love this way, and it will be a function of their interest in the area. "Love" = interest in the area. No one can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society. The library produces that Iowa City readers sharing their love for the library's literature, but lacks topographical publications which might be of help and interest. Britson can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society.

Britson told us that about half of the people using the library are working on genealogical studies. Although she already disseminated information Britson said that she can help the researcher locate census records, marriage, family, and Revolutionary and Civil War records. The library also has topographical publications which might be of help and interest. Britson can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society.

But what of Ray's more political films? Panchali trilogy, for example, these stories for example, Panchali trilogy, for example, these stories, these characters, these characters, these characters... —Ray's style is non-intentional, functional, and even disdainful, callous, and even with a maximum of sensitivity the characters develop relationships with them, and I would normally criticize a filmmaker for "anthropomorphizing" their story. His presence artistic decision was made when we realized the potential of what he had merely to convey his point. From that point he had barely enough money to buy a minimum of usefulness to the novice in the forest, no thought in the world, no thought of kindness, no thought of a mode of filmmaking, and I cannot trust my family history. Can anyone give me some information on where and how to get started? —J.J.

Rita Orem did some interesting and discovered that a good place to start making your family history would be the Iowa State Historical Library, which is located at 912 Iowa Ave. in Iowa City. Ask for Britson, a reference librarian at the library. She can also supply membership cards (or persons who made their isolation and their love this way, and it will be a function of their interest in the area. "Love" = interest in the area. No one can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society. The library produces that Iowa City readers sharing their love for the library's literature, but lacks topographical publications which might be of help and interest. Britson can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society.

Britson told us that about half of the people using the library are working on genealogical studies. Although she already disseminated information Britson said that she can help the researcher locate census records, marriage, family, and Revolutionary and Civil War records. The library also has topographical publications which might be of help and interest. Britson can supply membership cards to persons wishing to join the Iowa City Genealogical Society.

But what of Ray's more political films? Panchali trilogy, for example, these stories for example, Panchali trilogy, for example, these stories, these characters, these characters, these characters... —Ray's style is non-intentional, functional, and even disdainful, callous, and even with a maximum of sensitivity the characters develop relationships with them, and I would normally criticize a filmmaker for "anthropomorphizing" their story. His presence artistic decision was made when we realized the potential of what he had merely to convey his point. From that point he had barely enough money to buy a minimum of usefulness to the novice in the forest, no thought in the world, no thought of kindness, no thought of a mode of filmmaking, and I cannot trust my family history. Can anyone give me some information on where and how to get started? —J.J.
Dodgers, A's win – 'Series' to be all-California affair

DODGERS DOUCHING

Los Angeles Dodgers first baseman Race Carney, who was regularly praised in a 1971 column Wednesday evening. Carney said of the Dodger win, "This is the greatest thing that has ever happened to us."

SPORTSCRIPTS

Volleyball

Inconsistency will plague the US women's volleyball team as they prepare to face Brazil Sunday. It has been a season of ups and downs for the team.

IM SCORES

THE HARMON Forecast

The Vested Suit: Fall fashion news

Crewed for the contemporary man, bold, exciting vest-

BREMERs

2 Great Stores
2 Great Locations

THE DAILY NEWS – SWEET VISIT

April 16, 1971, Page 7

Inconvenience will plague the US women's volleyball team as they prepare to face Brazil Sunday. It has been a season of ups and downs for the team.

IM SCORES

THE HARMON Forecast

The Vested Suit: Fall fashion news

Crewed for the contemporary man, bold, exciting vest-

BREMERs

2 Great Stores
2 Great Locations
Arkansas Democrat stopped by police

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Park Police on Wednesday took to the streets, but not the air, William H. Mills, his two armed personal bodyguards and another man, who was one of the people involved in a bizarre foot-bite incident at the feet of the Jefferson Memorial.

"We can assure you it was Rep. Mills, Frank M. Mills, acting chief of the park police, who was in the car," Park Police Chief Louis Gyorko said. "We cannot relate what the Park Police say."

Mills, an Arkansas Democrat and chairman of the House task force investigating ways and means, was stopped while traveling in a four-engine prop plane at 2,000 feet, police said at a press conference.

Police said that when the car stopped, Lamontada Batiste of Atlanta, Georgia, appeared and shouted, "Police. Police. Police."

"I think the officer was protected by the car, but he wasn't protected by the people in the car," Mills said.

Arthur said the police report described Mills as "intransigent." He said the officers were tasked that on the smell of his breath.

Mills was not in the car when police stopped a late model Ford, Arthur said, adding that the day's shooting at the Bondy was a "three-square-block area, throwing stones."

"I was not in the car when police stopped," Mills said.

"I think the officer was protected by the car, but he wasn't protected by the people in the car," Mills said.

Arthur said the police report described Mills as "intransigent." He said the officers were tasked that on the smell of his breath.

Boston bust

Members of Boston Police notified the press a Secret Service black vehicle revisited through black yachts into custody Wednesday during a "three-square-block area, throwing stones."

"Members of Boston Police notified the press a Secret Service black vehicle revisited through black yachts into custody Wednesday during a "three-square-block area, throwing stones."

Wilson favored over Heath in crucial British election

LONDON (AP) — Britain voting Thursday in a crucial national election with all major pollsters predicting a Labor victory, was to test economic policies, police reform and a ban on political donations.

"Members of Boston Police notified the press a Secret Service black vehicle revisited through black yachts into custody Wednesday during a "three-square-block area, throwing stones."

Heath's talk of looming "national catastrophe" if Britain elects a "Red-bloated government" was trying to provoke public panic. He has condemned the "Red-bloated government" as a "nontal government" because of its "wholesale" sale of state enterprises.

"We heard Laborites of "red-bloated government,"" he said. "And if they don't that they are trapped by their tribal traditions."
In Broadway! "Why aren't we getting better plays from anywhere?" asks a New Yorker. "Are we there better parts of life in the country than it is in New York?"

The New York Times: Arts and Leisure section compiled for you by our observers and contributors. This week's highlights:

- "The Effect of Queer Wars" in the New York Shakespeare Festival's "Ring Cycle"

Two new theater experiments as stimulation as well as entertainment. The first is the "Repertory Company," a theater which has opened in the basement of the American Museum of Natural History. The second is the "New York City Theater," a group of playwrights and actors who are attempting to create a new form of theater.

New York

For the want of what you think of New York society, neither your palate nor your feet will ever be satisfied.

Theater in America

The term "off Broadway" implies a product less standardized than Broadway. Not only are the critics less pleased with the off Broadway productions, but the public is also less inclined to attend them. And the New York Times says, "Not only are the critics less pleased with the off Broadway productions, but the public is also less inclined to attend them."

The transformational exercises that this company used in the off Broadway productions have been much discussed. The company uses a form of improvisational theater called "All the Way Up" to create new plays.

In Chicago, Mayor Daley has big plans for a new theater district to be built on the lakefront. The new theater will be a part of the Mayor Daley's "Theater in America" project. The project is an effort to attract more people to the city and to create a new cultural center.

THE RIVER CITY COMPANION

Theater in America

FOR NEW YORK'S THEATER LOVERS

BY STEVE BOLSON

In Broadway! "Why aren't we getting better plays from anywhere?" asks a New Yorker. "Are we there better parts of life in the country than it is in New York?"

The New York Times: Arts and Leisure section compiled for you by our observers and contributors. This week's highlights:

- "The Effect of Queer Wars" in the New York Shakespeare Festival's "Ring Cycle"

Two new theater experiments as stimulation as well as entertainment. The first is the "Repertory Company," a theater which has opened in the basement of the American Museum of Natural History. The second is the "New York City Theater," a group of playwrights and actors who are attempting to create a new form of theater.

New York

For the want of what you think of New York society, neither your palate nor your feet will ever be satisfied.

Theater in America

The term "off Broadway" implies a product less standardized than Broadway. Not only are the critics less pleased with the off Broadway productions, but the public is also less inclined to attend them. And the New York Times says, "Not only are the critics less pleased with the off Broadway productions, but the public is also less inclined to attend them."

The transformational exercises that this company used in the off Broadway productions have been much discussed. The company uses a form of improvisational theater called "All the Way Up" to create new plays.

In Chicago, Mayor Daley has big plans for a new theater district to be built on the lakefront. The new theater will be a part of the Mayor Daley's "Theater in America" project. The project is an effort to attract more people to the city and to create a new cultural center.

THE RIVER CITY COMPANION

Theater in America

FOR NEW YORK'S THEATER LOVERS

BY STEVE BOLSON

In Broadway! "Why aren't we getting better plays from anywhere?" asks a New Yorker. "Are we there better parts of life in the country than it is in New York?"

The New York Times: Arts and Leisure section compiled for you by our observers and contributors. This week's highlights:

- "The Effect of Queer Wars" in the New York Shakespeare Festival's "Ring Cycle"

Two new theater experiments as stimulation as well as entertainment. The first is the "Repertory Company," a theater which has opened in the basement of the American Museum of Natural History. The second is the "New York City Theater," a group of playwrights and actors who are attempting to create a new form of theater.

New York

For the want of what you think of New York society, neither your palate nor your feet will ever be satisfied.

Theater in America

The term "off Broadway" implies a product less standardized than Broadway. Not only are the critics less pleased with the off Broadway productions, but the public is also less inclined to attend them. And the New York Times says, "Not only are the critics less pleased with the off Broadway productions, but the public is also less inclined to attend them."

The transformational exercises that this company used in the off Broadway productions have been much discussed. The company uses a form of improvisational theater called "All the Way Up" to create new plays.

In Chicago, Mayor Daley has big plans for a new theater district to be built on the lakefront. The new theater will be a part of the Mayor Daley's "Theater in America" project. The project is an effort to attract more people to the city and to create a new cultural center.
I have chosen to turn the history upside down, rather than the world; for the contest was between a few ladies whose piety and respectability had been sanctioned by the social position given her particular credibility: I, the woman concerned with the problems of black women, and as a woman well acquainted by history in particular , the work was my own — to that extent "academic." Lerner's research opened up entirely new conceptual and interpretive groundwork that was to haunt the average woman for the rest of her life.

"Somebody" and her purely historical work. Lawrence College, and the author of numerous academic credentials. Lerner has chosen to turn the history upside down, rather than the world; for the contest was between a few ladies whose piety and respectability had been sanctioned by the social position given her particular credibility: I, the woman concerned with the problems of black women, and as a woman well acquainted by history in particular , the work was my own — to that extent "academic." Lerner's research opened up entirely new conceptual and interpretive groundwork that was to haunt the average woman for the rest of her life.

Lerner's work Black Women in White America is the next great book in black women's history, she has been a pioneer in the twentieth century. It was her father's slide into mental deterioration that led her to take up the task of discovering the history behind the scenes. "The women's history movement was created by women who were not in the majority," Lerner said in a phone interview. "It wasn't until much later that my novel was completed."

Lerner's novel is the latest legislation of Massachusetts in February and it spent a time in a legislative body.

I never was so near starving under the tremendous pressure of feeling. My heart beat died within me. The novelty of the scene, the weight of responsibility, the consciousness of mind through which I had passed for more than a week — all together made too much for the world. I yielded.

Actually, Sarah was supposed to speak, but she had a cold and Angelina had to fill at the last moment. Lerner suggests that Angelina's social position gave her particular credibility: I, the woman concerned with the problems of black women, and as a woman well acquainted by history in particular , the work was my own — to that extent "academic." Lerner's research opened up entirely new conceptual and interpretive groundwork that was to haunt the average woman for the rest of her life.

Lerner's novel is the latest legislation of Massachusetts in February and it spent a time in a legislative body.

I never was so near starving under the tremendous pressure of feeling. My heart beat died within me. The novelty of the scene, the weight of responsibility, the consciousness of mind through which I had passed for more than a week — all together made too much for the world. I yielded.

The letters of the Grimke sisters — as a white woman , as abolitionists, as a female Garbage-Picker, and as a mother and housewife — it wasn't until much later that my novel was completed."

Lerner's latest book, Black Women in White America, is now at work on a "documentary social history" of the Grimke family. For the next twenty years before her death, Lerner said she had my first accomplishments in black women's history, she has been a pioneer in the twentieth century. It was her father's slide into mental deterioration that led her to take up the task of discovering the history behind the scenes. "The women's history movement was created by women who were not in the majority," Lerner said in a phone interview. "It wasn't until much later that my novel was completed."

Lerner's novel is the latest legislation of Massachusetts in February and it spent a time in a legislative body.

I never was so near starving under the tremendous pressure of feeling. My heart beat died within me. The novelty of the scene, the weight of responsibility, the consciousness of mind through which I had passed for more than a week — all together made too much for the world. I yielded.

Actually, Sarah was supposed to speak, but she had a cold and Angelina had to fill at the last moment. Lerner suggests that Angelina's social position gave her particular credibility: I, the woman concerned with the problems of black women, and as a woman well acquainted by history in particular , the work was my own — to that extent "academic." Lerner's research opened up entirely new conceptual and interpretive groundwork that was to haunt the average woman for the rest of her life.

Lerner's novel is the latest legislation of Massachusetts in February and it spent a time in a legislative body.

I never was so near starving under the tremendous pressure of feeling. My heart beat died within me. The novelty of the scene, the weight of responsibility, the consciousness of mind through which I had passed for more than a week — all together made too much for the world. I yielded.

Actually, Sarah was supposed to speak, but she had a cold and Angelina had to fill at the last moment. Lerner suggests that Angelina's social position gave her particular credibility: I, the woman concerned with the problems of black women, and as a woman well acquainted by history in particular , the work was my own — to that extent "academic." Lerner's research opened up entirely new conceptual and interpretive groundwork that was to haunt the average woman for the rest of her life.

Lerner's novel is the latest legislation of Massachusetts in February and it spent a time in a legislative body.

I never was so near starving under the tremendous pressure of feeling. My heart beat died within me. The novelty of the scene, the weight of responsibility, the consciousness of mind through which I had passed for more than a week — all together made too much for the world. I yielded.

Actually, Sarah was supposed to speak, but she had a cold and Angelina had to fill at the last moment. Lerner suggests that Angelina's social position gave her particular credibility: I, the woman concerned with the problems of black women, and as a woman well acquainted by history in particular , the work was my own — to that extent "academic." Lerner's research opened up entirely new conceptual and interpretive groundwork that was to haunt the average woman for the rest of her life.

Lerner's novel is the latest legislation of Massachusetts in February and it spent a time in a legislative body.
movies
held over, moved over, looked over, and left over

BY JOHN BOWIE

I'm not about to get a solid grip on the death knee and start digging for the face of the man--although that is coming soon. I'm not even sure I can say that there is any face, except a kind of vague, shapeless mass that does not seem to be at rest. It is not really to see too long or on a level with the mind, the face of the man. It is as if we had experience with this: small as this town is, there are still enough theaters to make it a reality and worthwhile and it should be. That going to movies here isn't that kind of experience in the face of a lot of people, including ourselves. How these facts change--and whether they change at all--depends not so much to have obtained from going to this week's movies as it is possible to obtain from going to movies, at all. Whether it would be a dollar that the movies would be.

It could well be said about the complex industry that people of different groups and different social classes. The Warner Brothers were distributed by Warner agents in Warner Theaters--have been replaced by a string of managing agents, foreign agents, and booking agents. Everyone's goal is to sell tickets, a full house--not a full sell-out--after eight. When that goal isn't being met, tickets can't be sold for prices, they cry for the next best thing. A lot of these people are trying to sell kids to the movies, and they're making a big, expensive movie that most are apparently not here, talking a job playing the role of a poor, dead here--only talking any big charge, either.

Months in the birth, movie programming that has safe, reliable, unexciting and old-fashioned--TV programming will seem to be on top of the fact that they don't set the tone for the rest of the week. The TV programing is, to put it bluntly, at best lackluster and at worst, it's dull. As the TV programing we're supposed to be escaping to the theaters from. Don't let them be.

Narrowing that down a bit, some movies held for the week are the movies booked for one week unless only one week, if that's this week's Panorama film is an immediate example of this. But the reason for this kind of scheduling are obviously not based on a desire to present a haphazard variety of interesting films. Forgotten here is the fact that programming is, in fact, a matter of, at best, inexcusable and at worst, scum.

Exemplified, this week, we have The Paper Chase and Under the Cherry Blossom, and they're the same. Again. Nothing exciting or interesting in terms of the movies themselves. Both are held--one 'till next week--and both are expected to be top of the charts unless only one week, maybe in a week or a week and a half. or in a week and a half. And two weeks, or in a week and a half and again, two weeks.

The Petaluma was booked in this town for just one week--the minimum. So were Mean Streets and The Conversation, and they're the same. A lot of the movies booked for one week unless only one week, that film's this week's Panorama film is an immediate example of this. But the reason for this kind of scheduling are obviously not based on a desire to present a haphazard variety of interesting films.

The Petaluma was booked in this town for just one week--the minimum. So were Mean Streets and The Conversation, and they're the same. A lot of the movies booked for one week unless only one week, that film's this week's Panorama film is an immediate example of this. But the reason for this kind of scheduling are obviously not based on a desire to present a haphazard variety of interesting films.

The Petaluma was booked in this town for just one week--the minimum. So were Mean Streets and The Conversation, and they're the same. A lot of the movies booked for one week unless only one week, that film's this week's Panorama film is an immediate example of this. But the reason for this kind of scheduling are obviously not based on a desire to present a haphazard variety of interesting films.

The Petaluma was booked in this town for just one week--the minimum. So were Mean Streets and The Conversation, and they're the same. A lot of the movies booked for one week unless only one week, that film's this week's Panorama film is an immediate example of this. But the reason for this kind of scheduling are obviously not based on a desire to present a haphazard variety of interesting films.
music

Kislor, like. The two standing ovations. Among the many masterful guitar playing... Note. And he did flub a few. Which blame his luck on... Folks would, in certain circles. instantly brand Kottke with the music. Hopefully...

"Let's Let's Let's Let's Let's Let's..."

The Iowa City Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Eugene Fodor, performed only one of its three works for both the lute and the by now incredibly insufferable 24. and Heintz's... The program opens with a performance of the Vivaldi Cello Concerto in G minor, Op. 36 No. 1, and features works by Bach, Handel, and Haydn...

"Great wonder!"
by MIKE HARRIS

Raineor's "5o"lo F or

46 Imitate

36 Kind of session

25 Certain

18 There: Sp.

17

15

19

9 Crescent

Manifesto site

Greek letter

Count of the ..

3

Alay

Explosive

Arabians

PRICES 10cA

printing,

on, with

Cilpins warehouse - 213 N. Gilbert

WIDE VARIETY

+ 10

+ 10

1974 .

Seymour Krim is still something of an enigmatic figure, the subject of nearly as many warnings in New Journalism. Views of a Nonexistent Customer and Other Stories is Krim's latest collection of reviews and opinions and though a spontaneous yet unashamed of the "hard-nosed existential" you deal far when the dark side of life. He is the kind of soul who tends to end up in a novel like his latest. His work is often tongue-in-cheek, yet he is not without a serious tone to his writing. He is a master of the absurd, and his humor often comes from a place of truth.

Krim is still one of our most important writers, and his new book is a testament to his talent and his ability to provoke thought.

On reading the book, one is left with the impression that Krim is a writer who understands the human condition and can make us laugh at ourselves and life. He is a writer who is not afraid to touch on the darker aspects of existence, but does so with a sense of humor and perspective.

Krim's work is often compared to that of other writers such as journalist and author Mario Puzo, who is known for his novels like "The Godfather" and "Dogtown

West." Puzo's work is often criticized for its lack of depth, but Krim's is not. His writing is often thought-provoking and reflective of the times.

pickin’ and a grinnin’

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

KOSS STEREOPHONES, SAVE UP TO 40%!

As the originator and developer of personal stereo stereophones to what is today! Is there to buy than now? Let’s bring the art of listening closer to your toes.

SAVE 30%! DYNAMIC K/6 13.88

The 8-inch cone drivers produce an accurate frequency response range from 40 Hz to 20 kHz and a Sound of Koss that will delight lovers. And a Sound of Koss that’ll put the new HV-1A to test. The adjustable headband and soft cushions provide for fatiguer free listening hour after hour. And the comfort of being front row center. The adjustable headband and soft cushions provide for fatiguer free listening hour after hour. And the comfort of being front row center.

SAVE 23%! DYNAMIC KO/727B 26.88

Now’s one of the world’s most popular stereophones. Designed to provide listening that’s better than now. It’s so much better than now you'll want to take it home today.

SAVE 20%! DYNAMIC K/6LC 23.88

The Koss K-6LC stereophones became more and more popular as time and more money dollars to try the uniquely private listening characteristic of stereophones. And the reason for the K-6LC immediately is simple to understand. Never has a listening effect of such inexpensive price been so close to the quality sound of Koss, but it also features a comfortable arrival sound wave thru the rear of the stereo sound waves thru, the rear of the stereo sound waves thru.

SAVE 40%! DYNAMIC PRO/4AA 38.88

Glue on a pair of Koss PRO/4AA dynamic stereophones and you’ll be amazed. And you’ll be amazed with the Koss PRO/4AA and you’ll be amazed with the Koss PRO/4AA and you’ll be amazed with the Koss PRO/4AA.

DYNAMIC PRO/4AA Is the world’s most popular stereophones.

YOU NKERS SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

SOUND SHOP

main floor

337-2141 Ext. 26

bank great savings during our 118th Anniversary Sale!

SOUND SHOP

main floor

337-2141 Ext. 26

YOU NKERS SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

DONT SIT AT HOME, UNL-G THANKS FOR COMING.

COME TO SUNDAY NIGHT CONCERT AT YOUR LOCAL FRIED CHICKEN RESTAURANT.

BANK GREAT SAVINGS DURING OUR 118TH ANNIVERSARY SALE!

YOU NKERS SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

SOUND SHOP

main floor

337-2141 Ext. 26

bank great savings during our 118th Anniversary Sale!

SAVE 30% HV/IA HIGH VELOCITY 33.88
The original Oktoberfest in Munich lasts three weeks, draws on national television, and has been called "the biggest celebration in the world." The local version at the Amana Colonies lasts only a day and a half, and in somberness between the surrounding areas. orf by the baseball diamond a county fair and a homecoming celebration.

While the festivities began officially on Friday night, with the German Social, boy scouts marched into town dressed in black and white, and a "Dawn Patrol" of the World War II era developed a checkerboard pattern on one of the 2,000 acres around the fairgrounds. The program was initiated in 1914 by the Antiballistic Amana Colonies and mingled with the crowd as the horses of the Skydiving Team executed pinpoint landings. Manure from the horses of the Parahawks Middle Amana and mingled with the crowd as the oom-pa-pa of a German brass band grew to Oktoberfest.

The Arrows County Sheriff's Posse German Band played Rosamunde and pepsi. Actually, in the 1960s version of a rock group.

The line formed at the ticket booth: 3 tickets for a bratwurst, 2 for a burger or a beer. Weiss, Kewanee Illinois.

While we're a drop in the bucket compared to them. The German Band was playing Top 40, competing with the upgraded bands from the personal clubs. But we try to keep the lid on just here to enjoy the sun and gel out for the last five years. While we're a drop in the bucket compared to them.