Fifty try to confront Boyd on lettuce policy

By JOE ENGER

The Daily Iowan

After a fast-paced day Thursday of academic affairs, student leaders and a large group of protesters gathered at the university's administration building Thursday to express their dissatisfaction with the university's policy on buying lettuce.

The group, which included more than 50 people, was organized by the Student Labor Support Committee and the University of Iowa Student Union. The group was met by a small group of university security officers who blocked the entrance to Boyd Hall, the building where the administration offices are located.

The protesters, who were carrying signs and chanting slogans, demanded that the university stop buying lettuce from Saladmaster Farms, a company that provides lettuce to the university's dining facilities.

The protest, which lasted for several hours, resulted in a confrontation between the protesters and university security officers. The officers used pepper spray and tear gas to disperse the crowd.

The university later announced that it would be suspending its contract with Saladmaster Farms and would be seeking alternative suppliers for its lettuce needs.
Architect hired to assess feasibility of proposed law enforcement center

By MARC SCHLOM Staff Writer

Johnson County Supervisor Jeanne Wiltse told the Iowa City Press-Citizen that it is likely that an architect has been chosen to assess the feasibility of a law enforcement center proposed by the City of Iowa City and the University of Iowa. The architect will conduct a study that will include an evaluation of the potential site, a review of current law enforcement facilities, and an analysis of the needs of the community.

The proposal calls for the construction of a new law enforcement center on the corner of North Gilbert Street and West High Street. The center would house the Iowa City Police Department and the University of Iowa Police Department and would replace the current law enforcement facilities in the Old Capitol and the University of Iowa Police Department's current location.

The architect will prepare a report that will include recommendations for the design and construction of the new center. The report will be presented to the City Council and the University of Iowa Board of Directors for their consideration.

The architect will be chosen through a process of external evaluation. The City of Iowa City and the University of Iowa will work with the architect to develop a plan for the new center that meets the needs of the community and is cost-effective.

The project is expected to cost $20 million to $30 million and would be funded by a combination of city and university funds. The project is expected to be completed in 2025.

The architect will conduct a detailed study of the site, including an analysis of the existing infrastructure and the potential for accommodating the new center.

The project is expected to be funded through a combination of city and university funds. The project is expected to be completed in 2025.

Boys' basketball will have to take a backseat for a few days as the team headed west to Lutesly for a month's basketball tournament. The grappling will take place with the best hosts yet at the home of the Crimson Tide of Alabama State.

Coach Bill Kurdelmeyer is bringing along a number of strong wrestlers and a good team of regulars. Expected to shine in the Purdue match are Keith Merritt (106 pounds), Mike McDonough (134), Joe Amore (158), and Neil Parker (184).

Michigan is not really having that good of a season, but will no doubt provide a couple of good matches. Purdue's best wrestler, Mike Haman (126), will definitely be a challenge. The starting Hawk lineup for the double dual dueling is Dick Eisenlauer (126) and Don Meyer (170). "We'll be a fine challenge for them."

The starting Hawk lineup for the dual duel with Purdue's will consist of Mike Haman (126), Chuck Yagle (165), Scott Morgan (182), and Dave Carter (213). "They have depth and our depth is sorely needed."

The Iowa team has had their ups and downs this winter and winning against Michigan hasn't made things any easier. The runners, K. B. Breyer to Galen Brown to Ed Speer, moved to the top three in that order.

The Hawkeyes produced one of their best efforts last Saturday in a narrow loss to Northwestern. "We're going to have to do better with possession of the ball and make them work for their points."

Tough test for Bob

BY BILL KURDELMEYER

Bob Lawson will face his toughest competition in the January 26 January dual as he takes on the Iowa Hawkeyes Saturday when Iowa hosts the Big Ten challenge and the Midwest State Challenge in the JPJ. The main Lawson will be the surprise of the evening as he will take on Chad Wrenn, who is rated higher than the United States ranking. "I am confident we can win if we do our best," Lawson said.

"Last year we won against Purdue, but that was a close match. He'll be a fine challenge for us."

Lawson, who has won eight of eight events this season, is looking for one more win to put him up among the nation's elite. "I think I've been keeping him away from a better performance," he said.

PANAMA RED

Originally an off-shoot band of the Grateful Dead (with Jerry Garcia on pedal steel guitar), the New Riders of the Purple Sage are now known as one of the best bands in America, thanks to their tight, cohesive band of seasoned, experienced musicians. Anyone who has seen them in concert can testify to their excellence and genuine talent with such classics as "Henry," "Mellow Marry Man," "I Don't Need No Doctor," "Morning Girl," and the infamous "Panama Red." The New Riders have dispelled a tightness and virtuosity that can't be matched by any other American music band. Here, when the New Riders (and special guest Elvin Bishop) bring the Field House down...

NEW YORK (AP) — Billie Jean King and her women's team gave Wimbledon one more chance Thursday night when they posted a 146-139 victory in a best-of-14-set tie-breaker to give the United States a 3-1 lead in the 14th annual event. It was the first time the women won in the history of the tournament.

“Wimbledon is unique,” Margaret Court said they would like to take another poll in Palmer's absence, but the Laker's promise was broken when he was asked if he was playing against medical advice.

“I feel sick,” he said.

Palmer's swallows have often been an issue to the Lakers, and he often has been an issue to the Lakers.

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Cunningham swallows once again.

The 30-year-old veteran swingman has been put on the roster for the NBA finals.

Cunningham said he was feeling better, and he was scheduled to return to the team for the first practice of the series.

“I feel sick, but I think we can play,” Cunningham said.

The Celtics will be without Pallotta for the rest of the series.

Do the pills have some affect on him physically?

The All-Ciudadarlas All-stars are understated, but a familiar face in the 9:50:30 competition. Defending champ Dennis Cumby will win this year's tournament. Cumby's main rivals this year, Garfield May and Bill Nuss, are ruled out of competition.

May also plays both the 9:50:30 and the 1:50:30. He says he'll win them both. First, he'll win the 9:50:30. It's going to be a very close race, but May will come out on top. He's ready to defend his title.

May has been training hard for this season. He's working on his techniques, getting in shape, and mentally preparing for the big event. He's ready to show what he's made of this year.

The 9:50:30 competition is always a close race, and May is determined to come out on top. He's ready to defend his title and prove that he's the best.
