Coffee prices up also

Pro's and our prices rise

The coffee prices that everyone has been hearing about up to now have only been rising in the past few months. A recent Associated Press marketboard survey showed that coffee prices have been rising steadily over the past three months. This survey was conducted by the National Association of Coffee Producers, and it is a nationwide survey of coffee prices in major metropolitan areas.

The survey revealed that coffee prices have increased by an average of 25.5 percent in the past three months. The survey also showed that coffee prices have increased in all major cities surveyed, with the highest increases occurring in the Northeast and West Coast areas.

Eviction

Eviction laws vary from state to state, and renters should be aware of the specific laws in their area. It is important to understand the procedures for evicting a tenant, including the notice requirements and the legal process. Renters should also be aware of their rights and the protections available to them.

Medicare to aid cancer care

WASHINGTON (AP) - The government announced Tuesday that it will cover out-of-pocket hospice care costs for patients with 21 months left to live.

The policy change follows a Supreme Court ruling last month that it was unconstitutional to deny Medicare coverage for hospice care. The new policy, which will go into effect in January, has been in the works since the court ruled that the government had the authority to mandate hospice care for Medicare beneficiaries.

The policy change will cover expenses such as medications, equipment, and transportation for hospice care. The costs will be paid by Medicare, with patients responsible for only a small co-payment.

Patty refuses to cooperate

SACRAMENTO (AP) - Patricia Hearst left her jail cell for the first time since the 1974 kidnappings and told a parole board that she wants to go free.

"I was never a terrorist," Hearst said Tuesday at her parole hearing. "I was simply a young woman who was leading a normal life until one day when I was kidnapped by a group of violent, radical revolutionaries." Hearst was 19 when she was kidnapped by members of the Symbionese Liberation Army.

According to parole board member Druke, Hearst said she was merely a pawn in the hands of others. "I know that a few people used me as a tool to achieve their goals," she said. "But I truly believed that I was a normal person and I did not want to participate in any illegal activities."

Arms is the suspected cause of a fire only Tuesday morning in a second-floor room of Burge Tower. The fire, a report of 8,500 to 10,000 damages, was the worst fire in the tower's 10-year history.

Ford dedicates new FBI building

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford got his G-man Thursday, and dedicated the new FBI building headquarters named for the J. Edgar Hoover, who was called the building's inscription.

"Mr. President, we're already looking over you and you appear to be in good physical condition," FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley told Ford during the ceremony in the marble courtyard of the building.

Some 1,500 delegates and invited guests gathered at the dedication of the FBI J. Edgar Hoover Building.

"We will have a monument even more enduring than this building," Kelley said.

The massive structure on Pennsylvania Avenue occupies a site city block ahead of the White House and the Capitol. The building reportedly delayed the design so intensely that he was sometimes phoning counselors to calm him.

In his dedication address, Ford called for "constant commitment to the rule of law in America and the legal system's performance of justice and fair treatment and patience." Ford, as Edward H. J. Kelly and Kelley, joined Ford in praise Hoover's legacy.

Iowa in the news

Patty Hearst is an Iowa— or almost. Yes is dent, not just because she is the Cub Evening News Monday night— along with Rolling Swan. Walter Cronkite devoted 15 minutes of his ac time to the 80-story of Patty's escape and adventures—including a new release.
According to RS sources, Patty Hearst and Jolyt Eichmann have not talked since when Scott was stopped for speeding by a highway patrolman. Scott hopped out of his car before the officer could come alongside and said, "Sorry, officer. I guess I got a little excited about Iowa winning over USC. You wouldn't want to give ticket to a football fan, would you? That would be kind of anti-American.

The trooper smiled and said, "I'll let you off time, but be careful when you cross the border into Nebraska. They go by Wisconsin, you know."

That means Patty and partner narrowly escape-ved going to Iowa in the news today. But

Student services in new location

By RALPHA KEENEY
Arl Winter

These two UO officers are expected to join the Financial Aid Office in the Union Hall, when the office moves to the University Financial Aid Office at 7 a.m. today.

John Moore, director of the Financial and Aid Office, said the Administration and Special Support Services and the Student Union Floor offices will be located in the building by the end of September or the first of October.

He said the office will be open for the first time this fall.

During the move, the office will be closed.

The Financial Aid Office has been operating on a week in the building's second floor after moving from the Old Dental Building which stood in the 1930s.

The office will be in the new office until it is completed.

Silk and sequin in the cow palace

By JOAN TITONE

Last week a thousand or so spectators crowded into the Manhattan Garden, a stone building with balconies and box seats, and a balcony, and filled it to overflowing, to see "The Roy Rogers and Dale Evans Republican Day Show." This was the second show by the famous cowboy and his lady, in New York, and the audience was rapt.

Roy and Dale are the stars of the program. They have been the heart and soul of the show from the beginning. They are the reasons why people come to see the show.

The show is a series of acts, some of which are musical, some are comedy, and some are just plain fun.

The audience is filled with excitement, as the show begins with a grand entrance of Roy and Dale, dressed in their finest attire. The audience erupts into applause, and they continue with a series of acts that include singing, dancing, and even some stunts.

The show ends with a grand finale, featuring a parody of a famous movie scene. The audience is left laughing and clapping as the stars make their grand exit.

The show is a hit, and the audience can't get enough of Roy and Dale. They are the stars of the show, and they always leave the audience wanting more.

Knocks street closings, renewal plans Council candidate blasts city, UI

by MARY HOFFER-SMITH

John P. Gordon, a candidate for mayor of Iowa City and a member of the Iowa City Police Commission, was facing an audience of Iowa City police on Monday night, a day before the city's second annual street closing ceremony. Gordon, an Iowa City Councilman, said he was more concerned with the issues of citywide security than the issues of street closing.

"There are some things that I'm absolutely opposed to," Gordon said. "I'm absolutely opposed to the idea of closing streets in a downtown area." Gordon also opposed the idea of closing streets in a downtown area because it would affect the businesses in the area.

"I think the city should be concerned with the issues of citywide security," Gordon said. "I don't think the city should be concerned with the issues of street closing." Gordon also opposed the idea of closing streets in a downtown area because it would affect the businesses in the area.

Senator's aide urges Eugene McCarthy's independent campaign for the presidential primary will be held at 11:30 p.m. today and 9:30 p.m. Thursday at the Des Moines Public Library in Iowa-McCarthy's headquarters.

According to Ms. Lassar Kahla, temporary campaign organizer, will ask "anybody to be a chairman the campaign organization will ask anybody who is interested in the campaign to come and support the organization in the other states."

The campaign organization is the first in Iowa. The campaign has a red, white and blue "E."

Lassar Kahla also encouraged the student to register Iowa, since it is a lot of things free even if they don't understand them."

Publications board votes to remove student trustee

By LORRAINE MADDOX

The Student Publications Board voted on Monday to remove Robert Lanza-Kaduce, an assistant editor on the Daily Iowan, from the board. The board reported that Lanza-Kaduce's "professionalism, as evidenced by his conduct, work and ethics," was called into question.

Lanza-Kaduce was elected to the board in the spring of 1975 and was re-elected in the fall of 1975. He was辅导员 on the Daily Iowan for the past year and one-half.

Lanza-Kaduce is an art major and was reported working for the Daily Iowan as a copy editor, art copy editor and art editor.

When Lanza-Kaduce was selected for the second term, he did not know he was a student because the three members are "not concerned with his qualifications as a student." Additionally, the board found out he wasn't a student and "would have stated on his term, which ends next May." He was voted a student for a seat on the board.

The board found out Lanza-Kaduce was a student when he was a student for the first time. The board then asked if Lanza-Kaduce ever stated that he was a student. He responded that he did.

According to the Daily Iowan, "Lanza-Kaduce is a professional student who filed a student work permit and was elected to the board."

"It is to be expected," said the board, "that a professional student may have qualifications."

"However, the rules committee and the student board must be followed."

The board stated, "However, he asked Lanza-Kaduce to resign and withdrew his name from the board."

Lanza-Kaduce was elected to the board as a student, so he must resign his seat on the board, the board said.

Community services gives home winterization funds

By MADDUX BOOTH

The University Community Program, UI-CHAP, Inc., has received $9,700 from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D.C., for the home winterization of low-income homes and trailers in the Des Moines area. Elizabeth Johnson and her family are the recipients.

Johnson is a student at the University of Iowa and has been a student for a year and one-half. She was notified of her home winterization by the Iowa Community Action Program, being the rural areas of Iowa.

By October, UI-CHAP will assist five low-income residents to winterize their homes. The program will be administered the Friday on or before the 15th of each month for children under the age of 12. Additionally, UI-CHAP will assist five low-income residents to weatherize their homes under the Home Winterization Program.

Red Sox – proven professionals

BOSTON (AP) – A strong thing happened to the Boston Red Sox in April: They won the American League East championship for the only time in their 89-year history. The old charge that they were underdogs in a team of dedicated, driven professionals was long gone. They were a winner on and off the field, big, good-looking players in a league without them. Picking up the 1975 World Series trophy is the second half of the story, but the Red Sox are nowhere near that end.

OAKLAND (AP) – Everyone looked for a high point in the Oakland A’s experience over the Boston Red Sox – a perfect game, a World Series win. The A’s have never had the perfect game, but in winning 11 games in 1975, the A’s have had a very nice season in the American League West this year. They’re not their division by the fire games in 1975 when Carlos Batista hit the ninth with 4 B total. The year went well for the A’s, and the A’s had a decent season in the field and in scoring.

Talent and experience

Oakland acclaim: We’re the best

And once again, according to the report, the Red Sox will be given the job of playing in the World Series. They will be the starting pitchers against the Boston Red Sox. They will be the starting pitchers against the Boston Red Sox. The Red Sox is expected to win the World Series.

study with the university, but Dick gave her name to Nelson Arens and said I could do something about her case.

Judy said she studied with Arens for two years, but was never given the opportunity to study with him personally. "I learned a lot, though. It was a great opportunity for him to play and see others play as well as himself."

"There is nothing more important than having a classical guitar," Flach added. "I certainly wish to see what my class does."

"And the time when Audra played the John Brown classical guitar piece," Gold said. "It was enchanting."

Flach said she was pleased with the results of the Music Department's decision to open the Music department.

"It amazed me," she added. "I thought the Music department would fail, but it didn't."
