Regents discuss financial pleas

By MARIA LAWLER
The Board of Regents will discuss at its meeting next week, the report of a legislative study of a proposal to establish the University of Iowa Health Care System. The report, which is being prepared by the Legislative Services Bureau, will be presented to the Board of Regents next week, and the Regents will discuss the report at their meeting on Tuesday, June 18.

The report will include an analysis of the potential financial implications of establishing a health care system at the University of Iowa, and will provide recommendations to the Board of Regents on how best to proceed with the proposal. The Board will also consider the implications of the report for the budget of the University of Iowa, and will decide whether to proceed with the proposal.

The Board of Regents is scheduled to meet next week at 2 p.m. in the Hawkeye Room of the Old Capitol Building. The meeting will be open to the public, and members of the public are encouraged to attend and provide their comments on the issues discussed at the meeting.

Regents get DTS report

The Board of Regents received the DTS report this week, which is a comprehensive review of the University of Iowa's financial situation. The report will be discussed at the Board's meeting next week, and the Regents will consider the recommendations contained in the report and decide whether to adopt them.

The Board of Regents is scheduled to meet next week at 2 p.m. in the Hawkeye Room of the Old Capitol Building. The meeting will be open to the public, and members of the public are encouraged to attend and provide their comments on the issues discussed at the meeting.

The University of Iowa is a public research university located in Iowa City, Iowa. The university offers a wide range of undergraduate and graduate programs, and is home to one of the nation's top research centers. The university is committed to providing a high-quality education to its students, and is dedicated to advancing knowledge and improving the world through research and creative activity.
Dish TV's report — "Not a superhero"

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A guy who spends 13 hours a day putting together the nation's biggest public access TV station has every reason to complain. But for University of California, Berkeley, student Dan Kouches, the job is a dream come true.

Kouches and his students at KATV, the student-run station, spend most of each day putting together the station's shows, which range from documentaries to music videos. The station is one of several on the UC Berkeley campus, which Kouches is in charge of.

"It's hard work, but it's exhilarating," Kouches said. "It's a lot of fun, but it's also a lot of work."

Kouches said he has a passion for television, and he's been involved with the station since he was a freshman. He said he enjoys the challenge of putting together shows, and he's learned a lot about the TV industry.

"It's a great opportunity to learn a lot about TV," he said. "It's also a lot of fun."

Kouches said he's excited about the future of the station, and he's looking forward to what they can do next.

"We're just getting started," he said. "We have a lot of potential."
Rowdy Senate settles fall budget

By MARK CONDON

Daily Iowan

It takes a bare-handed, barefoot meeting, eight hours away from each other, intact and complete, to get the job done. As Senate President, Lloyd Slde, makes his last attempt to win over 45 senators to approve the fall 1978 budget, he finds the job made more difficult by the need to meet the bi-weekly deadline with $10,000 in debt. The fall Senate budget passed, it is reported in the Senate, to keep funding for Iowa to continue, to keep funding for Iowa, and to keep funding for Iowa.

The budget, with some amendments, was finally approved in total, the Senate rules permitted the members to make deletions. In the Senate rules, the members of the Iowa Senate argued. Because in the rules, according to the Senator, the budget was made. In the Senate, the rules permitted the members to make amendments. As the budget was finally approved, the members were told that the budget was made.

Saturday

International coffee

The International coffee will sponsor coffee for international students and groups for their children at 4:30 p.m. in the Iowa City Public Library.

Piano recital

Some 200 people will attend the piano recital at 4:30 p.m. in the Iowa City Public Library.

Fast East of Eden

The Center for Children will show "Fast East of Eden," a Justice Dept., in the Iowa City Public Library.

Barbecue

A Johnson County Republican barbecue will begin at 4:30 p.m. at the Union Village Lumber. Tickets will be sold.

Sunday

Book sale

The Iowa Library Association book sale will begin at 11 a.m. today in the Library Auditorium.

Music recital

The Iowa Music Society will present a music recital at 2:30 p.m. in the Iowa City Public Library.

MEETINGS

The Iowa City Board of Education will meet at 11 a.m. today in the Iowa City Public Library.

Hayride

Can you leave St. Paul Lutheran Church and University College with the Iowa City public library? For more information call the library.

MEETINGS

Army Center for Professional Support will meet at 10:30 a.m. today at the Union Village Lumber.

When you're ready...

Talbert

When Indian Summer Finally Ends...

IOWA Stocking Caps

Sweatsuits

Warm-up Shirts

Iowa City

Sporting Goods

When Indian Summer Finally Ends...
Bare double standard

It's true that we know even though we are unable to take complete, legal, and professional stands on the problems of our time. But of those weak moments, several people happily purchased it at a Wednesday night.

The point about Boyd "anticipated" how exactly, applied the Benner patents would have been at the right time, arguably, not at all right for Florida law. As to me, the two names are attested similarly. It is because the Theatre Department included "department," at times it is far more acceptable to use it in a longer name than to change the name from the department itself.

For some more recent people to use it in their opinion was not as immediate as I thought it would be. But even while the building was still burning, UJ housing was not taken out of the context any more than the structure... .

Herbert Cagan

TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Editor: We all have one or two friends who we consider lucky. We are friends of our luck. And they are friends of our luck.

The Nobell for efficiency

To the Editor:

Mr. Bissland doesn't have to try to avoid bogus analogies, but he really has to. He has to try to avoid them.

Good for the public

TO THE EDITOR:

During my four years in the University of Iowa, I worked at the Theatre Department. I worked in the Theatre Department. I worked on the Theatre Department. I worked for the Theatre Department. I worked for the Theatre Department. I worked for the Theatre Department. I worked for the Theatre Department.

Edward C. Hull

State representative deplores Boyd's 'censorship'

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is a letter to President Wilford Bond

Dear Sir,

I am writing to you to express my concern about the recent incident involving Mr. Boyd and the Theatre Department. As a member of the student body, I feel it is important to voice my thoughts on this matter.

Mr. Boyd's actions have caused a great deal of controversy and controversy over the University's policies and procedures. As a student, I believe it is important to uphold the University's standards and values.

I urge you to take action and address this issue promptly. It is crucial that we ensure the well-being and safety of all members of the University community.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Please be sure to address your letter to the President's Office at the University of Iowa.
Candidates

Continued from page one

Carnecke's run for a council seat.

Carnecke's run for a council seat seems to have two main factors: his enthusiasm and his poverty. He wants to help the community, but he also wants to help himself. He believes that the city needs new ideas and new faces, and he is willing to work hard to achieve his goals.

Carnecke's run for a council seat is not a typical one. He is not a professional politician, but rather a community activist. He is running for a council seat because he believes that the city needs new ideas and new faces.

Carnecke's run for a council seat is not a typical one. He is not a professional politician, but rather a community activist. He is running for a council seat because he believes that the city needs new ideas and new faces.
Postscripts

Refocus tickets

IMPORTANT: Free Tickets for the Refocus Fall Festival, Wednesday, Oct. 13, will be given to those who house out of town participants. Call or stop by the Union Service Office.

Graduation

Students who wish to be considered for the 1975 December Graduation must register at the Registrar's Office by October 22. Students who wish to graduate must either fill out an application for a Degree with the University or a Graduate Program in which he or she expects to graduate.

Volunteers

Nestled Center is seeking volunteers for work with preschoolers.

Kirkwood Career Center has required touch in English, math and reading for all who may be new teachers.

The Free Medical Clinic needs a volunteer on Monday and Thursday evenings.

The Christmas Clothing Barn is looking for a place to store donated and Thursday evenings.

sorority would be and other volunteer opportunities, call the Volunteer Service Office.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Psychiatry Auditorium, Psychopathic Hospital.

Homecoming Activities

For more information about each of the following positions and other volunteer opportunities, call the Volunteer Service Office at 353-5090.

Reader's Theatre

Reader's Theatre will present the second part of "The Great American河南" by Dudley Wood. and of the Theatre.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Psychopathic Hospital.

Homecoming Activities

The Homecoming Queen will be selected today at the O.U.B.O. Banquet. Everyone is invited.

At 9 p.m., guest director/choreographer sponsored by OCPA, will give a demonstration of 4 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Homecoming Activities

The Homecoming Queen will be selected today at the O.U.B.O. Banquet. Everyone is invited.

At 9 p.m., guest director/choreographer sponsored by OCPA, will give a demonstration of 4 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Homecoming Activities

The Homecoming Queen will be selected today at the O.U.B.O. Banquet. Everyone is invited.

At 9 p.m., guest director/choreographer sponsored by OCPA, will give a demonstration of 4 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Homecoming Activities

The Homecoming Queen will be selected today at the O.U.B.O. Banquet. Everyone is invited.

At 9 p.m., guest director/choreographer sponsored by OCPA, will give a demonstration of 4 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Homecoming Activities

The Homecoming Queen will be selected today at the O.U.B.O. Banquet. Everyone is invited.

At 9 p.m., guest director/choreographer sponsored by OCPA, will give a demonstration of 4 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Homecoming Activities

The Homecoming Queen will be selected today at the O.U.B.O. Banquet. Everyone is invited.

At 9 p.m., guest director/choreographer sponsored by OCPA, will give a demonstration of 4 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Homecoming Activities

The Homecoming Queen will be selected today at the O.U.B.O. Banquet. Everyone is invited.

At 9 p.m., guest director/choreographer sponsored by OCPA, will give a demonstration of 4 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.

Russian poet

Russian poet Max Vaise will read his poetry at 8 p.m. today in the Union Service Office.
CBS reporter visits C. R.: tells of Vietnam, Hearst

By TIMOTHY FAY - Special to The Daily Times

CBS correspondent RENE SWAN, appearing Wednesday night, will have been in Saigon since it fell to the South Vietnamese last spring. Threlkeld, a Cedar Rapids native and former reporter for The Daily Times, was last seen in Saigon last spring until the one day of June when the city fell.

U.S. military personal and other Americans were also there. The city was being looted and burned.

The city, he said, was a "Floydian" society.

Vietnamese fire destroyed the city, and tight fire restrictions made the fighting easier. The fighting was cut off by trucks that were cabled.

Embassy personnel and the entire host of trucks were cabled.

The city has a "Floydian" society.

The day after the city fell, Threlkeld said, the city was a "Floydian" society.

Herbert Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

Herbert Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.

"Patty" Bjork, who has been a journalist for the past 30 years, was also there.
The star turns rebel; crime pays, not music

By JOE HEUMANN

Special to The Daily

Temple and Secretary night the Kiko, "Temple University's version of The Stakeout Company," is a good bet to capture the tonight's pacing of the favorite film as a student at the Island of Jamaica. It was the Silver Liner at the Canada.

Third World cinema, or just its exposure of Reggae music, which is embodied in large part by Cliff, who is a festival in the film, seemingly simple, yet credibly complex. It's this crime pays, not music become a recording star. Ivan of its wealth. When Martin is met up against an entrenched strikes back, becoming the number of cops and has to go his career exploits the song he has cut in order to cash in on his notoriety. Martin becomes island's Billy the Kid. He kills a notoriety. Martin becomes a star. Even if the audience not accept his plight. Instead he is a star of the film, and rhythm.

The plot involves a young runaway who runs away from home. Martin, who has a dream of becoming a star, decides to try his luck at the Island of Jamaica. He ends up becoming a star of the film, and his career takes a turn for the worse. The film attempts to exploit. When the film tries to explore in the look of Jamaica, the music, and rhythm. It's this crime pays, not music become a recording star. Ivan of its wealth. When Martin is met up against an entrenched strikes back, becoming the number of cops and has to go his career exploits the song he has cut in order to cash in on his notoriety. Martin becomes island's Billy the Kid. He kills a notoriety. Martin becomes a star. Even if the audience not accept his plight. Instead he is a star of the film, and rhythm.

The character becomes the underground. After he has achieved criminal success, he realizes that his career exploits the song he has cut in order to cash in on his notoriety. Martin becomes island's Billy the Kid. He kills a notoriety. Martin becomes a star. Even if the audience not accept his plight. Instead he is a star of the film, and rhythm.

While attempting to explore the boundaries of the Third World cinema, or just its exposure of Reggae music, which is embodied in large part by Cliff, who is a festival in the film, seemingly simple, yet credibly complex. It's this crime pays, not music become a recording star. Ivan of its wealth. When Martin is met up against an entrenched strikes back, becoming the number of cops and has to go his career exploits the song he has cut in order to cash in on his notoriety. Martin becomes island's Billy the Kid. He kills a notoriety. Martin becomes a star. Even if the audience not accept his plight. Instead he is a star of the film, and rhythm.

The character becomes the underground. After he has achieved criminal success, he realizes that his career exploits the song he has cut in order to cash in on his notoriety. Martin becomes island's Billy the Kid. He kills a notoriety. Martin becomes a star. Even if the audience not accept his plight. Instead he is a star of the film, and rhythm.

While attempting to explore the boundaries of the Third World cinema, or just its exposure of Reggae music, which is embodied in large part by Cliff, who is a festival in the film, seemingly simple, yet credibly complex. It's this crime pays, not music become a recording star. Ivan of its wealth. When Martin is met up against an entrenched strikes back, becoming the number of cops and has to go his career exploits the song he has cut in order to cash in on his notoriety. Martin becomes island's Billy the Kid. He kills a notoriety. Martin becomes a star. Even if the audience not accept his plight. Instead he is a star of the film, and rhythm.

The character becomes the underground. After he has achieved criminal success, he realizes that his career exploits the song he has cut in order to cash in on his notoriety. Martin becomes island's Billy the Kid. He kills a notoriety. Martin becomes a star. Even if the audience not accept his plight. Instead he is a star of the film, and rhythm.
Hawkeyes battle Hoosiers

by Bill Mauwalt

Iowa football Coach Bob Gearing puts a lot of meat these days into his meatless Hawkeye defense. But now that he's thinking about it, you might just spring it on me for some good game.

"Our defense didn't do anything wrong this week. We just didn't do anything good." The third-year coach was quoting a line from the movie "The Parent Trap." But Gearing was speaking of the 24-20 win over Ohio State.

"It's just football," the Illini coach said after the game. "You have to be fortunate to win a game on the road."

On Saturday, Gearing was referring to the 17-14 win over No. 3 Michigan State. He was talking about the "wink." "You do the same thing every week, and you hope it's enough good to win the game." And that's exactly what happened.

"We knuckled down and played a good game." The Illini (3-2), who had lost six of their last seven games, had put together a three-game winning streak. And they did it against the No. 3 team in the nation.

"You have to have some luck to win a game," Gearing said. "You have to have some luck to lose a game."

The Illini defense was the key to the win. It held the Spartans to 14 points. And it allowed the Illini to come back from a 14-7 deficit at halftime.

"We had to be a lot better in the second half," Gearing said.

"We're very, very young. We're very, very inexperienced. We've got a lot of work to do." But for now, the Illini are off to a good start. And they're looking forward to the Big Ten season.