Guides set to deal with obscene material

Guidelines for dealing with ‘obscene’ material in UI public performances were unanimously approved Monday by the Committee on Student Activities.

The guidelines were presented by the Student and University Affairs Committee and were approved by UI President Philip C. Beegle and Student Council President Bill Dooley.

Under the proposed policy, the hand of the police is not required to remove an obscene presentation from the stage. The presentation is assumed to be obscene if it is performed.

Conspiracy at Manila?

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — Authorities said Monday that a retired police official whose family had supported Ferdinand Marcos has been arrested in the attempted assassination of the former president.

Mr. Marcos, who was ousted in 1986 and fled to the Middle East, was shot Sunday near the presidential palace in central Manila.

Describing the assassination attempt as "a tragic failure," the police said a former police colonel had been arrested. He was identified as former police colonel printed

Ford opens arms to Egypt's Sadat

WASHINGTON (AP) - Presi dent Ford gave visiting Egyptian President Anwar Sadat a cordial welcome Monday and asked with him a final toast, Ford "reiterated the determination of the United States to continue working for peace in the Middle East.

"We are not indifferent to the fate of our fellow citizens," Ford said. "We respect the rights of the Palestinians."

The Egyptian leader agreed, emphasizing that his country's efforts have not been in vain, but have been foiled by Israel's continued militarism.

Culver Commission organizes

By RALPH JENSEN

A committee, designed to recommend changes in the G.I. Bill of Rights, was organized in Washington, D.C. Friday morning, according to a New York Times story.

Mr. Boyd, a member of the Committee on the Operations of the Senate, also known as the Culver Committee, and committee fellow Henry R. Siger, Jr., were scheduled to begin their work.

The committee is now meeting in a complete report on changing the bill. They will be assisted by the

The 10's recent Bakke lawsuit on affirmative action for medical schools (Oct. 30), presents itself as nothing less than a momentous victory for those who have been fighting in the courts for equal opportunities in higher education. The fact that affirmative action has not had enough evidence to stand is further evidence of the gap between the two sides of the issue.

First, stupidity: Woody's distinction of "special" and "general" programs is a self-serving, misinformed one. The letters to this newspaper and elsewhere are full of it.

THE LUXURY IS BUILT IN, NOT ADDED ON.

The luxury of the Volvo 164 isn’t something you just see. It’s something you feel.

You can’t just look at the exterior. You have to feel the seats. And these seats are a luxury in themselves.

The built-in seat design is smooth and quiet you may need the testroom to tell you if it’s a luxury in fourth gear. And there is no extra charge for the overwhelming automatic transmission. And the metallic finishes.

The seats and door and the Volvo 164. The luxury car for people who think.

Bellevue Pour: images on real

By CHARLES ALTMAN Special to The Daily News

The art of cinema is often a blend of reality and fantasy. The film 'Bellevue Pour' is a perfect example of this. The film's plot revolves around the lives of two friends, a man and a woman, who take on a quest to find a mysterious object. The object is said to have magical powers, and the two friends embark on a journey to find it. Along the way, they encounter various obstacles and challenges, but they remain determined to find the object and unlock its secrets.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — The president of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) says she expects a "gradual" acceptance of women's athletics.

"We don't think we are going to see an end to the battle of the athletic budgets for men and women," said Peggy Bartle of the University of Iowa. "There will be some changes, but they won't come overnight."

She made her remarks Friday on the sidelines of the last National Educational Television Network "We may see some changes and setbacks in the men's pro-

DESMOINES, Iowa (AP) — Some major changes are coming to the University of Iowa. The athletic department is struggling in some areas but going strong in others.

"We have a score of 86-111 in Iowa-inlaws' conference, competing for two communities, two campuses and one university's image," said cyclone favorite Tom McLoughlin, athletic director of the sports teams. "That's going to change."

"We can't change overnight," said Iowa Sports Page columnist Jim Housh. "We have to be patient and watch the situation develop over a long period of time."

"There have been some slow progress in the women's athletics program," said Iowa President-elect Carl Bock. "We are making some progress, but the situation is not going to change overnight."

Caldwell was a part-time coach for several years before becoming the full-time coach. She said the women's athletics program is "a tough question."

"I don't think we are going to see an end to the battle of the athletic budgets for men and women," said Peggy Bartle of the University of Iowa. "There will be some changes, but they won't come overnight."

She made her remarks Friday on the sidelines of the last National Educational Television Network "We may see some changes and setbacks in the men's pro-

DESMOINES, Iowa (AP) — Some major changes are coming to the University of Iowa. The athletic department is struggling in some areas but going strong in others.

"We have a score of 86-111 in Iowa-inlaws' conference, competing for two communities, two campuses and one university's image," said cyclone favorite Tom McLoughlin, athletic director of the sports teams. "That's going to change."

"We can't change overnight," said Iowa Sports Page columnist Jim Housh. "We have to be patient and watch the situation develop over a long period of time."

"There have been some slow progress in the women's athletics program," said Iowa President-elect Carl Bock. "We are making some progress, but the situation is not going to change overnight."

Caldwell was a part-time coach for several years before becoming the full-time coach. She said the women's athletics program is "a tough question."

"I don't think we are going to see an end to the battle of the athletic budgets for men and women," said Peggy Bartle of the University of Iowa. "There will be some changes, but they won't come overnight."

She made her remarks Friday on the sidelines of the last National Educational Television Network "We may see some changes and setbacks in the men's program," she said, "but I don't think there will be any dramatic changes of the kind that some people are hoping for."

She agreed that new NFL
