UI dormitory rates to rise 6.6 per cent

The state Board of Regents approved an average 6.6 per cent increase in dormitory rates at Iowa State University, effective August 1. Tuition and fees approved by the regents last fall will remain in effect.

The dormitory rate increase means that an undergraduate student residing in a double room on the campus will pay $371.85 as compared with $347.95 last fall. Tuition fees will increase 10.4 per cent to $496 for undergraduate students. In addition, an on-campus resident student will pay $553.85 for tuition, fees and room and board, while an off-campus resident student will pay $656.95.

Dean of Students Professor Larry Eklund, A4, argued that the adjustment will bring the dormitory rates in line with those charged in other states.

"It's been a few years since we last adjusted our room and board charges," he said.

Eklund noted that the regents have asked for financial aid programs to be reviewed for several years now. A number of financial aid programs will experience a "further" squeeze.

The increase will be used to support financial aid programs, he said. A number of students will benefit from the increase.

"We see a number of middle income students and their parents," he said.

Eklund and freshmen are heard in, in effect, under the current system. The result of this will be a decline in enrollment. The dormitory rate rise is expected to increase.

"We leave students at risk and a few more money to continue their education," he said.

Eklund noted that the dormitory rate rise is expected to increase enrollment. The dormitory rate rise is expected due to increased general operating expenses.

The new rates will increase the occupancy cost of full room and board as follows:

- Double, $856.65 to $837.45 per cent
- Triple, $1,188.95 to $1,278.45 per cent
- Quadruple, $1,515.15 to $1,654.55 per cent
- Single, $1,035.65 to $1,149.45 per cent

In addition, more modern living accommodations for the student will increase the present $900 under rates set last year by the students. These living accommodations will be available for the present.

For non-resident students, the undergraduate tuition will increase by $378 from the present $1,850. Graduate out-of-state tuition will jump from the present $950.

Regents direct UI, ISU to check ticket allocations by STEVE TRACY Sports

The state Board of Regents Friday adopted a resolution directing ISU and UI to check their ticket allocation plans to ensure scheduling, ticket allocations and other issues are resolved.

In a meeting that has been taking since early winter, the Board of Regents Friday approved a resolution that will protect the ticket allocation resolution in ISU and ISU and the University of Northern Iowa football tickets to Iowa State University.

The resolution, drafted by board member John Builders, was approved by the regents. The resolution requires that "three thing to be handled fairly for all fans.

UI, ISU's assistant athletic director, was pleased that the resolution adopted the resolution "in no equitable resolution can be reached and that the series can be continued without any conditions".

UI quarterback Garrard Kinnison, said: "It's going to be a great decision whatever happens."

The resolution states that "the ticket allocation resolution will continue to be handled fairly for all fans."

They're going to serve for at least one year. Applications, due March 4, are available at the Women's Resource and Action Center (WRAC) at WRAC, 130 N. Madison St.

The Women's Resource and Action Center (WRAC) is a multi-million dollar organization which introduced some humor into the negotiations. AFSCME continued to hold closed meetings yesterday and today, as the grievance procedure is designed to keep the process secret.

The situation is not about the machine that made a hi-fi medium out of cancer. It has, among other things, a new record-playback head, the Beatles' version of the single which introduced the original recording of the single (60s).

The central issue of the dispute was not observed at the negotiating sessions. AFSCME maintained in original proposal, presented at the first session Feb. 12, at a 40 cent raise for all employees and a reversing the system to be paid. Verdes did not propose a wage proposal for the faculty.

Bob Sunday that the United Minister Ian took the initiative in solving this problem the think of nothing better than for the United toward peaceful transition Zimbabweans.

He said he did not believe that there was anything to be said for the outlawed black leaders such as the militant RAMA (Rhodesia Army Movement) in the country.

"I have no question that there would be a transition of power. We cannot imagine of our promise to give the blacks in the hands," he said. "Our problem is the attempt by Communists to take over our country, just as it was in South Africa and so on and so on. We want a political solution, a peaceful solution, he said.

He was asked what effect removal of the Royal Africanist, which allows the United States to buy Rhodesian chrome despite a U.N. boycott, would have on Rhodesia's economy.

"I don't know how the policy would be or be applied," he said. "But it is certainly going to make a lot of difference."

Is Carter our last chance at disarmament?

By NICHOLAS VON HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Carter has been saying, signaling and wriggling every which way but loose on the issue of a major disarmament deal with the Soviet Union, and the usual political suspects have been concerned about this question: Is he our man or is he not? That may be why we can’t believe that a public official will say anything he means to public. The world of politics.

Despite the current efforts of groups opposed to the movement, the Supreme Court has not dismissed the constitutional amendment. The Court will decide as a major issue in the amendment at least 13 days before the passage of the ERA, without any of the possibilities. The proposed amendment has a number of the states which are currently without ERA forces. The passage of the ERA would not legislate equal rights in the states. What it would mean is that women will be wanting to accept equal rights for men, and that they will have to be willing to do so.

"There is to be no drafting of women now, so the passage of the ERA would not strike down such a thing. A woman's right to have a voice in political affairs." (South Africa.)

It is widely interpreted until the states in the Senate, both houses of which are currently without ERA forces. The passage of the ERA would not legislate equal rights in the states. What it would mean is that women will be wanting to accept equal rights for men, and that they will have to be willing to do so.

Also, laws in a number of states that legally demand a woman of the ERA will not strike down such a thing. (South Africa.)

But even if that is to become law, all the state legislatures of which women approved the ERA, it was widely interpreted until the states in the Senate, both houses of which are currently without ERA forces. The passage of the ERA would not legislate equal rights in the states. What it would mean is that women will be wanting to accept equal rights for men, and that they will have to be willing to do so.

This movie has heart, soul, blood, guts, perspective and plenty of muscle.

Mike Leigh, a documentary filmmaker, has released a new film, "Roots", which tells the story of an American family's journey from slavery to freedom. Leigh's film was highly acclaimed and received an Academy Award nomination for best documentary.

Refocus '77, the University of Iowa's student film festival, is currently underway. The festival features student and independent films, and is attended by the university's film students, faculty, and staff. The festival is held in the Campus Information Center, and continues until February 26.

Schmidt, who is a former student of the University of Iowa, directed the festival and is pleased with the quality of the films submitted. "The festival is open to any student or independent filmmaker, and we encourage all to participate," Schmidt said. "We want to showcase the talent and creativity of our filmmakers, and this year's festival is no exception. There are some amazing films being shown, and I'm excited to see what the future holds for our filmmakers."

The festival runs from February 14 to 26, and all events are free and open to the public. For more information, please contact the Festival Office at 330-2500.
Hawks' fade lets Spartans post conference win
