KINSLA, Zambia — Several hundred armed troops including tanks from Angola crossed into southern Zambia late Thursday and said the attack was aimed at apprehending suspected rebels. The troops were led by a South African officer and were on a mission to capture dissident leaders who were responsible for the recent violence in the area.

The action was part of a larger operation aimed at suppressing the rebellion activities in the region. The rebels, who are suspected of being backed by neighboring countries, have been causing unrest in the area for several weeks.

Projects

Warships and an aircraft carrier of the United States Navy are expected to arrive in the region tomorrow to support the ongoing military operations. The deployment of these assets is part of the broader efforts to stabilize the region and prevent further escalation of the conflict.

Big Daddy performs 'Idi': close-up of enigma

BY RICK WALL
Staff Writer

During the opening moments of French director Bruno Schreiner's new film, 'Big Daddy,' Ugandan dictator Idi Amin presides over a public execution of a suspected war criminal. Shrouded in a long, dark robe, his head bowed low, as he speaks to a large crowd, the camera is focused intently on him, creating a sense of tension and suspense.

The film, which follows Amin's rise to power and his brutal rule, is a powerful testament to the cruelty and violence that can befall a country when it is ruled by a megalomaniacal dictator.

The camera captures Amin's every move, from his terrifying speeches to his menacing glances at the camera. The audience is left with a clear view of his brutality, as he orders the execution of a man who is later revealed to have been a innocent bystander.

As the film continues, we see Amin's政权 rise to power, with the destruction of the country and the deaths of thousands of civilians. The film is a visceral reminder of the harm that can be caused by a leader who is willing to sacrifice the lives of others for their own gain.

The film is a haunting portrait of Amin's firsthand account of the horror and devastation that he caused in Uganda. It is a stark reminder of the power that can be wielded by a leader who is willing to do whatever it takes to maintain control.

The film is a powerful reminder of the importance of free speech and the freedom to express oneself. It is a necessary and disturbing reminder of the dangers of unchecked power and the importance of holding leaders accountable for their actions.

The film is a poignant reminder of the human cost of war, and the importance of peace and justice. It is a powerful reminder of the need for compassion and empathy, and the importance of working to create a better world for all.

The film is a must-see for anyone interested in film, history, or the human condition. It is a powerful and moving portrait of one of the most notorious dictators in modern history.

The back room of the bar is filled with the sounds of bells of racing pogs. People are looking at pinball machines, rearranging the football tables and rolling in triangles. Gaming is a popular pastime in Iowa City.

"The game is a little like pool," said the manager of Joe's Place and The Airliner, the game room that has the video games and pinball machines. "But people have the same games and it's competitive." The bar has seven video games in two rooms, and customers are encouraged to try the games and participate in the games.

The Copper Dollar owns 10 video games, seven football tables and one pinball machine in its gaming room. Joe's Place and The Airliner both have the same video game machines and pinball machines. Joe's Place and The Airliner both are popular with the Clash of the Spheres fans.

"The better you are at the video game, the better the game," said the manager of Joe's Place and The Airliner. "You can win money playing video games." The laundromat becomes student meeting ground

At this time, the laundromat was a popular gathering place for students to meet and socialize. It provided a relaxed environment for discussions and activities. The laundromat was typically open late at night, which made it a convenient location for students who needed a quiet space to study or hang out with friends. The presence of a laundromat also added to the community feel of the university, as it served as a common area where students could interact and build relationships. The laundromat became a symbol of the university's commitment to creating a welcoming and inclusive environment for students. It reflects the university's recognition of the importance of providing spaces for students to connect and engage in activities beyond the classroom.
NEW YORK — The end of a company that will be as much of a business as a personal victory for a psychiatrist who forced a change in the way sugar is used in everyday products has become an enormous amount of controversy in recent weeks.

Last week, Dr. Benjamin Eisenstadt, president of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, announced that the government had commissioned a study of marijuana use that had been conducted in Detroit by a special invitation, the National Institute of Mental Health. The study was conducted in conjunction with the British government.

Dr. Eisenstadt, speaking at a press conference in Detroit, said the study was conducted under the supervision of the National Institute of Mental Health.

Finley gets Allen; more deals

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) - Dick Allen, the Chicago White Sox's most talented and controversial slugger, came here today to begin a monthlong tryout for the Arizona Giants of the Pacific Coast League.

Allen, who batted .289 last season with 28 home runs and 113 runs batted in, showed up for his first day of tryouts with just a small case of the flu. He said his health had improved enough to allow him to take part in workouts.

Allen, who has been benched for the past month by White Sox manager Alvin Dark due to a recent return of chronic back trouble, said he was ready to travel to Tempe for the tryout. He was scheduled to arrive here Friday.

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) - The Bakersfield Condors, a minor league hockey team in the California League, announced today that they have signed Allen to a contract.

The Condors, who are affiliated with the National Hockey League's Los Angeles Kings, said Allen will report to the team's training camp in July.

Allen, 26, has been a highly controversial player throughout his career, often drawing criticism for his lack of hustle and his tendency to loaf on the bases. He was traded to the White Sox from the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1975, primarily because of his attitude problems.

In Tempe, Allen acknowledged that he has been a problem for the White Sox management.

"I've been a problem for them," he said. "I've been a problem for the city of Chicago. But I've been a problem for the entire baseball world."

Allen, who has a .299 batting average in his career, said he is eager to prove himself in Tempe.

"I'm looking forward to it," he said. "I'm looking forward to getting some good practice. I'm looking forward to it."

Allen said he is confident he will be able to contribute to the team.

"I'm going to work hard," he said. "I'm going to work hard."

A much improved Iowa women's gymnastics team will travel to Lincoln, Neb., this week to compete in the 11th annual University of Nebraska Invitational. The event, which started nine years ago and now features some of the nation's top teams, will be held March 5-6.

The Hawkeyes, coached by Jeanne Holzaepfel, have improved their team average from 35.000 last season to 35.250 this season. Holzaepfel's squad also was named the conference's team of the season.

In Holzaepfel's six years at Iowa, the Hawkeyes have won the Big Ten title twice and have placed second or third three other times. The team also advanced to the NCAA team championship.

The meet, which started the indoor Olympic season, is held at 10:30 in the morning on each day. There will be 10 meets each year involving 10 teams from across the country.

The team will compete against several of the nation's top teams, including the University of Nebraska, UCLA, Oklahoma, and the University of Michigan.

The meet will be held at the University of Nebraska's Devaney Center. The center is located on the campus of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln. The center is located on the campus of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

The team will be led by seniors Mary Johnson, Carol Arneson, and Jane Schraenen. Johnson, a native of South Dakota, is the only returning member of last year's team. Arneson, a native of Iowa City, is the team's captain. Schraenen, a native of Minneapolis, is the team's co-captain.
