Compromise ends Egypt-Israel talks: Vance to join talks

By United Press International

A U.S.-mediated truce package presented overnight bargaining between the United States and Egypt in Washington resulted in a limited agreement that sets the stage for a meeting of the three states this week, Vance said.

Prime Minister Menachem Begin of Israel and President Sadat of Egypt plan to meet this week. Vance said he would be available to mediate.

The agreement, reported in the New York Times, provides for a reciprocal ban on raids, an exchange of prisoners, and a resumption of talks.

The agreement is the result of intensive negotiations between Vance and the two governments, Vance said. It is the first time that a settlement of the conflict has been announced.

The agreement is expected to be signed by the two leaders in Washington.

Penalties stiff for drunk drivers, dealers

Minimum terms set in code

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- A Federal judge today set the stage for a 무 시 minimum of $500 and one week in jail for anyone convicted of drinking while driving or dealing drugs.

The judge, of the D.C. Superior Court, said the penalties were appropriate for the crime.

The court also ordered that the penalties be enforced.

WASHINGTON (AP) - The defense budget and, possibly late in the year, strategic arms control, are so far-reaching in Carter's presidency is so far-reaching. Many of the issues are so closely intertwined that they can't be handled separately. But the Administration is working on the energy and environmental issues, too. Carter's campaign slogan, "Conservation is a prudent way to use our resources," implies an emphasis on energy, and the Administration has made energy a high priority. Carter has said he will not tolerate abuse of the environment and that he will press the issue. Hargrave campaign opener draws Democratic leaders

By PETER YOUNG
Staff Writer

A diverse group of Democratic leaders held fund-raising meetings for Senator Edward M. Kennedy's presidential campaign Wednesday night. The meetings were the first of their kind in Iowa, and they drew a varied crowd of supporters for Kennedy, who is running for the Democratic nomination in 1980.

The meeting was held in the home of Senator Robert F. Kennedy, the late brother of Senator Kennedy. The meeting was attended by a number of prominent Democratic leaders, including President Jimmy Carter, Governor Jerry G. Brown of California, and Senator Bill Bradley of New Jersey. The meeting was also attended by Senator Al Gore of Tennessee, who is running for the nomination in 1980.

ERA state bill up for debate

By ROBERT ABROLLO

The ERA bill is up for debate in the state legislature, but there is no guarantee that it will pass. The ERA, or Equal Rights Amendment, is a proposed constitutional amendment that would guarantee equal rights for women.

In a recent move, the state ERA was approved for floor debate in the House, but the Senate has not yet approved it. The House Majority Leader, Jennifer Richdort, said she is confident that the Senate will also approve it.

The ERA would amend the Constitution to provide women with the same rights as men, including the right to vote, hold office, serve in the military, and access to education and employment opportunities. It would also prohibit states from passing laws that discriminate against women.

The ERA has been debated in Congress and state legislatures for decades. It was first introduced in 1923 and has been the subject of countless hearings, votes, and debates since then.

The ERA has the support of many women's rights groups, as well as some men, but it has also faced opposition from some conservative groups who believe it would undermine traditional gender roles.

In Iowa, a constitutional amendment supporting the ERA was passed by referendum in 1971. However, the amendment was never ratified by Congress and has yet to be adopted by the state legislature.

The ERA bill has been reintroduced in the Senate, but it has not yet been referred to a committee for consideration. It is unclear whether the Senate will approve it or not.

The ERA is supported by many women's rights groups, including the National Organization for Women (NOW) and the League of Women Voters. It is also supported by some men's rights groups, such as the National Organization for Men.

The ERA has been debated in the Iowa legislature for several years. In 1979, it was proposed by a bipartisan group of legislators, but it did not pass. In 1980, it was reintroduced but again failed to pass.

In 2019, the ERA was once again proposed, but it has not yet been referred to a committee for consideration.

Tactile change for Egyptians?

The country is interesting to watch because of its potential to have change. The Egyptian government under Sadat was very popular, especially among the young, because of his anti-US stance, his push towards a more independent foreign policy and his willingness to talk to the Israelis. However, since his assassination, there has been a significant change in the popular perception of the government.

The current regime has made some efforts to improve the economy and reduce corruption, but it has also been criticized for its lack of democratic reforms and for suppressing political dissent. The country has also faced a number of challenges, including a prolonged drought and a decline in oil prices.

It remains to be seen how the current government will handle these issues and whether it will be able to maintain popular support. Nevertheless, the potential for change in Egypt is significant and值得关注。

Cigarettes

If you've got any extra time, try to give up smoking. It's a tough habit to break, but it's worth the effort. Smoking can cause a variety of health problems, including lung cancer, heart disease, and stroke. It can also cause problems in other organs, such as the liver, kidneys, and brain.

For example, smoking can increase the risk of developing liver cancer, a type of cancer that is difficult to treat. It can also cause problems in the brain, such as memory loss and decreased cognitive function.

In addition, smoking can cause problems in the heart, such as heart disease. It can also cause problems in the lungs, such as lung cancer and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.

If you're interested in quitting smoking, there are a variety of resources available to help you. You can speak to your doctor or a health care provider about quitting smoking. You can also look into programs and services offered by your local government or non-profit organizations.

State senator examines juvenile justice legislation

In the Senate, representatives of both political parties have been working to come up with a compromise on the issue of juvenile justice. The main point of contention has been the role of the judges in making decisions about juvenile cases.

Some Representatives have argued that judges should have more discretion in making decisions about juvenile cases, while others have argued that judges should be subject to more strict guidelines.

Overall, the issue of juvenile justice is an important one, and it is likely that there will be continued discussion and debate on this issue in the coming weeks and months.
Women slain in Fla. sorority

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Two Florida State University women were killed in the university's Alpha Phi sorority house late Monday night in an apparent hazing accident, authorities said.

According to police, the bodies of two women were found in a room of the sorority house on the university campus. The women were identified as 18-year-old Elizabeth Smith and 17-year-old Kaitlyn Krueger. They lived in the same house as the other víctimas.

NATION PAYS FINAL HOMAGE TO HHH

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The nation said goodbye to Hubert Humphrey, the former Vice President whose liberal stances on domestic issues made him a hero to many Americans.

Humphrey served for decades as a friend and political ally of President Lyndon Johnson, helping to shape the Great Society programs of the 1960s.

In his later years, Humphrey faced criticism for his handling of the Vietnam War and his role in Watergate, but he remained a respected figure among those who admired his commitment to social justice.

The funeral service was held at the United States Capitol, with a procession that included members of Congress and other dignitaries.

After the service, the casket was placed on the floor of the Rotunda of the Capitol, where it lay in state for three days before being returned to Minnesota for burial.

In addition to the national remembrance, local memorials were held in Minneapolis and St. Paul, where Humphrey had served as mayor and senator.

The nation mourned the loss of a man who had dedicated his life to public service and who had been a leader in the fight against poverty and discrimination.

Prime minister of Italy to resign

Prime Minister Giulio Andreotti was expected to resign today as prime minister of Italy, according to several news reports. Andreotti, who has been in power since the fall of 1980, is expected to step down in order to form a new government, the Italian state television announced this morning.

The predicted resignation would follow a power crisis within the centre-right coalition government. Andreotti’s Democratic party, which has been performing poorly in recent polls, is expected to make significant losses in the upcoming general election. Andreotti is expected to form a new government with the support of the Northern League, a right-wing populist party.

The step is a blow to Italy’s centre-right coalition government, which has been struggling with high inflation and a struggling economy. Andreotti’s resignation is expected to trigger a period of uncertainty, as ItalyML prepare for the upcoming general election.

S. Africa prepared for free SW

Johannesburg, South Africa (UPI) - South Africa is ready to grant full political independence to South-West Africa if international recognition can be negotiated, Foreign Minister Roelof "Dutch" Botha said today.

Botha told a press conference in Johannesburg that South Africa believes that South-West Africa is an integral part of the country and that it is a goal which the people of South Africa desire.

The government has been preparing for the possibility of a United Nations-brokered settlement that would result in the granting of independence to South-West Africa.

Botha also said that South Africa is prepared to hold talks with international organizations to discuss the issue of South-West Africa. However, he added that South Africa is not prepared to enter into any discussions without international recognition.

The government has been under pressure to grant independence to South-West Africa, which is currently governed by South Africa. The United Nations has been calling for a resolution of the issue, and several countries have recognized South-West Africa as an independent state.

Botha's comments come as the government is facing criticism for its policies in the region. The government has been accused of human rights abuses and of supporting a brutal regime in South-West Africa.

Wrestlers rebound, rout Lehigh

By MARK CHALLEY

You really can't blame a much for wanting just her departments of big things, probably in particular, feeling the pressure was huge. There was no doubt that it was a big test for the Hawkeyes in the Lehigh game Saturday night, and the team responded with a dominating victory.

"That was a little sluggish a first, but we saw the difference in the game after having some pretty big girls," said Mike Reilly.

In fact, the Hawkeyes lost three out of four matches in the first period and by 4-2 with 50 seconds remaining in the opening period. The Hawkeyes held a 1-0 lead after three periods and were leading by one match after the opening period.

The Hawks scored 13 matches after that, with each of the Hawkeyes scoring twice. The team would react to the "defensive" victory in the second period, scoring 10 matches and holding a 3-0 lead at the three double kill match.

Swimmers top Purdue

By JOHN BARKER

The old cliché, "farewells are made to be heard," was put to the test in the final seconds of the senior meet last season at Iowa City. The seniors Mike Rabin and Dan McEwan made a successful return to the meet by winning the 200 breast race.

Rabin, who won the event last season, set a new meet record of 2:19.92 after rowing 1:56.4 with a 50-yard lead. The event is considered by many to be the "topics" meet of the season, and it was won by Rabin in 1979.

The victory was the second over Northern Iowa in a dual meet record to 19-1. The Hawkeyes have won all three dual meet records to 19-1.

Gymnasts whip UNI

By AMY DAVIES

The Iowa Field House was filled with the sounds of victory after Saturday’s action, as the Iowa men’s gymnastics team was named to the 1979-80 Big Ten Conference Champion.

Although the Hawkeyes were plowed with the 1,200 points, the team was still pushing for improvement. "We're very happy with the win," said coach Donald Scott. "But at this point in the season, we're just getting into the swing of things, so we have to keep working hard."

A STEVE NEMETH

In a rivalry that has seen the Hawks win only two of the last nine meetings of the second half since the '80s, the Hawks captured a victory for the first time in seven games and only the second in 11, defeating the Boilermakers.

The Boilermakers entered the game 11-6 but found themselves in a loss 0-9, as the Hawks scored 11 straight after Easter

The Hawks went on to win 63-61, their 11th straight victory over the Boilermakers.

Dallas ends Denver dream

Dallas Coyotes' Matters have won over the Denver Broncos in overtime, setting up a major showdown in the Super Bowl.

As the game began, the Coyotes showed their strength early. They scored within the first few minutes, causing the crowd to erupt in cheers. The Denver Broncos, on the other hand, were struggling to keep up with the high energy of the Coyotes.

Throughout the game, the Coyotes continued to dominate the field, with several key players stepping up. Matters himself scored a crucial touchdown, giving the Coyotes a significant lead.

Despite the Coyotes' lead, the Broncos refused to give up. They fought back with all their might, scoring several times to bring the score close. However, the Coyotes remained resilient, continuing to push forward with their strong offensive play.

As the game entered overtime, the tension grew thicker. The Coyotes and the Broncos were matched evenly, with neither team able to gain a clear advantage.

In the end, it was a heart-stopping moment that decided the outcome. Matters caught the game-winning touchdown, sealing the victory for the Coyotes and sending them to the Super Bowl.

The crowd erupted in wild cheers, celebrating the victory and looking forward to the upcoming match against the other team.

With this win, the Coyotes have solidified their status as one of the top teams in the league, setting the stage for an exhilarating Super Bowl experience. Fans are already buzzing with excitement, eagerly anticipating the next big game.

Upsets shake Top Ten

By Digital Press International

The Iowa women's basketball squad opened a pair of games this weekend even as it claimed the top spot in the Associated Press poll. The Hawkeyes defeated Minnesota, 75-69, on Sunday afternoon. The victory over the Golden Gophers was Iowa's third straight win over a Top Ten team.

Iowa's win came in the first game of a doubleheader, and the Hawkeyes finished the weekend with a 75-63 victory over Northern Illinois on Monday night. Iowa's performance in the two games earned it recognition as the No. 1 team in the country, according to the Associated Press.

The Hawkeyes are now 11-1 overall and 3-0 in conference play, having already secured a spot in the Big Ten Tournament. Their next game is scheduled for Wednesday, December 21, against Ohio State at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The Associated Press poll is released every Monday, and several mid-major teams have already caught the attention of voters. Iowa's victory over Minnesota solidified its standing as a top team, and the Hawkeyes are now in the running for a potential spot in the Final Four.

Iowa's next test will be against Purdue, who is also off to a strong start. The Boilermakers have won 10 of their first 11 games and will look to make a statement against the Hawkeyes.

With the win over Minnesota, Iowa moved up to the top spot in the AP poll. The Hawkeyes now join a select group of teams who have held the No. 1 ranking, including last year's champion, the South Carolina Gamecocks.

Iowa's impressive season so far has been highlighted by its defense, which has allowed just over 50 points per game. The team's success has also been attributed to its balanced scoring, with multiple players contributing to each game.

As the Hawkeyes continue to climb the rankings, they will face stiff competition from other top teams in the nation. However, the team has shown resilience in their wins, and their performance in the AP poll reflects that.
