Politics, politics

UNITED STATES - The Nixon White House has ordered a preliminary inquiry into the financial activities of Senator Frank Church, the Idaho Democrat who heads the most powerful committee in Congress, the Senate Intelligence Committee.

Church, who was the Senate's leading critic of Vietnam policy during the Vietnam war, has been under attack in the White House and on Capitol Hill for his handling of the Watergate inquiry and for his role in the Senate's investigation of the controversial Senate Services Inc., a subsidiary in 1975 that was opposed by Church.

Church's office has declared that the investigation will not affect the Senate's investigation, which Church has announced will be completed by the end of the month.

Church, who is known for his investigative skills, has been a vocal critic of the Nixon administration and has been particularly critical of the administration's handling of the Watergate affair.

Derogation coming

UNITED STATES — Democracy Energy Corporation, the owner of the Three Mile Island nuclear power plant, will ask Monday for a rate increase in Pennsylvania. The company's request is in line with its previous plans to increase rates in other states where the plant is located.

The company's request is in line with its previous plans to increase rates in other states where the plant is located.

A better idea...

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. announced Monday that it will pay its female workers $1 an hour more than it pays its male workers.

The company said the increase is in line with its goal of equal pay for equal work.

The announcement comes after a series of protests by Ford workers over the company's pay practices.

Whitney exasperated with press

BY MIKE BERNARD

Democratic hopeful Tom Whitney, candidate for governor, said he will make it to the general election campaign in order to give the people a choice.

"The system is not working," Whitney said in an interview on Monday. "We need a system that is fair and just."}

Zaire head charges Cuba, Soviets with imperialism

KENNABA, Zaire (UPI) -- Zaire's President Mobutu Sese Seko took China foreign minister Huang Su's charge of Soviet imperialism in the clash opening in Zaire and said it would not accept elements in the Soviet Union and Cuba of trying to "build a dictatorship of intellectuals and professionals.

Mobutu's army also captured Mbandaka, a key rebel-held town near Angola's border last month in their invasion of eastern Zaire. Protests reportedly changed hands several times in recent weeks. Shaba, who entered Zaire at Porte Mouton, is in Lumbumbashi, Zaire's capital.

Happiness is a warm...

American International Pictures has announced plans to produce 'C.M. & P.U.', which describes as a "light-hearted comedy" and is due for release in the summer of 1979. A director's role for the film is expected to be filled within the year. The film is budgeted at $12 million.

Chip on the new block

WASHINGTON (UPI) -- Not all the chips are for Zaire's President Mobutu Sese Seko's new-found friend, President Carter's son Chip said Sunday he would have enjoyed the visit from the Zairean leader's son to Washington but for his "believe it but don't do it" attitude.

The junior Carter spent the weekend at the Carter family vacation home in Maryland.

WATERLOO, Iowa (UPI) -- The road runner can do it, you know.

Harry Whiten, 82, airport professor at the University of Northern Iowa and the man who made the road runner a culture before inviting it to a party at his home.

"I saw it in her 288 hours of study at the birds, and once even saw it chase one another with one in mind and don't go 'beep, beep' as it is it beeps its way out of the door."

D.M. thieves nab wolves

DES MOINES (UPI) - Three thiefs last fall stole $20 or so from a canvas book bag, possibly for sale on the black market, during a burglary.

Eight and young wolves were discovered and killed and would be the type of survival on the black market. The wolves will be difficult to replace, be said.

"We fished them out of it, my daughter who is a gals and that's the bag."

"Almost anywhere we have worked militarily in the Horn of Africa, we have had, if not a majority, at least a plurality of military and political analysts who have assumed that the Soviet Union and Cuba have been very active in the Horn of Africa."

There is also the fact that the Zairean president has been called "the most pro-Soviet leader in Africa" and that "the Soviet Union has been the main benefactor of the Zairean people."" -- Mordecai T. L. Njoku, in a World Report interview (June 1979)

Spare the rod...

American jurisdictions have a chance to be far out of one of their better-known ideological positions in the case of a student named Ryan Hansen, who has been caught throwing rocks at cars stationed in front of a particular house. The student, who is doing this under the guise of protesting the nearby school, has been caught several times by the authorities, but has not been charged with any crimes.

But because Hansen has been convicted of a similar crime in the past, the authorities have decided to take more drastic actions. According to newspaper reports, Hansen was making stonings with his two sisters at the time of the incident, and was arrested by the police. The family's lawyer has since been negotiating with the authorities to get Hansen out of jail, but the authorities have so far refused.

Meanwhile, Hansen's family has been divided. Some members of the family are请问根据上面的内容生成一个自然语言的问题。问题应与上面的文档内容紧密相关，且不包含其他无关信息。问题是：为什么Ryan Hansen被拘留了？

Iowa City Mayor John Peterson said the city will appeal a recent court ruling that could award $4.5 million in franchise fees to Des Moines cable company Mediacom.

City Council members leaning toward library bond election

Iowa City Council members have indicated support for a bond referendum for a new $35 million library building and expansion. Asked whether he will back the referendum, Councilman Paul Crecelius said it seems to make sense. The city has already spent $5 million on the planning and construction of the new library.

Surprising color in state Senate race

by ANDREW THURST
City Editor

Bob Baker seems to have no sinister intentions, the 73rd District's Democratic candidate, but his colorful clothing grabs attention.

Baker, who is running for the district's seat currently held by Sen.
aren Sargent, says he's old-fashioned
in his choice of attire.

"I believe in the gentleman style of clothing," Baker said. "I don't want to be confused with the biker look."

Baker also claims he's good for the 73rd District, which is split between Eskridge and Muscatine.

"I believe in the gentleman style of
clothing," Baker said. "I don't want
to be confused with the biker look."

The election is set for Tuesday,
November 28, with candidates run-
ing in a non-partisan format.

But Baker is not alone in his choice of clothing.

Jill Clark, 72, is running for the 74th
District seat, which is currently held by Senator Donald Krall.

Clark, who is running as a Democrat, says she's old-fashioned in her choice of clothing.

"I believe in the gentleman style of clothing," Clark said. "I don't want to be confused with the biker look."

The election is set for Tuesday,
November 28, with candidates run-

Hansen only finalist in NCAA track meet

Only one of Iowa's four representatives to the NCAA track and field championships in Des Moines last week was the Big Eight champion in the javelin throw.

Ted Wheeler, a junior from Indianola, finished third Saturday in the final meet of the conference outdoor track season.

The only real fight of the meet was with Mike Tully, who won the pole vault, and finished third in both the hammer throw and discus.

Cretzmeyer retires after 30th season

An 11-time all-Big Ten selection and former Iowa men's head basketball coach, Bill Cretzmeyer, announced his retirement after 30 years of coaching at Iowa.

Cretzmeyer, who is the only Hawkeye basketball coach in school history, guided the team to the 1973 Big Ten title.

As a junior, Cretzmeyer led the Hawkeyes to the tournament title game for the first time since 1914, and won the Big Ten title in 1974.

Cretzmeyer attended the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where he was a varsity golf and tennis player.

When Cretzmeyer was selected as the Big Ten's outstanding basketball coach, he was the first of his kind to receive such an award.

Bean wins Kemper

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (UPI) — Powerful Andy Bean made the last of his final five holes Sunday and won the Kemper Open at the Independence Golf Club in Charlotte, N.C.

Bean, who finished at the top of the leaderboard with a 70, got the win with three birdies and one bogey.
