Weather

The Annual Third Week of September burst like a bolt of lightning today, as the weather turned hot and muggy again. The daily high reached 80 degrees and the heat index was 88, making it feel very warm. The weather was mostly sunny with a few scattered clouds. The chances of precipitation were minimal, and the wind was light and variable.

Tuesday's temperatures were in the upper 70s and lower 80s, with the heat index ranging from 80 to 85 degrees. The overnight low was expected to drop to around 70 degrees, with some areas seeing dewy mornings. By Wednesday, the temperatures were expected to rise slightly, with a high of 81 degrees and a low of 70 degrees. The heat index was forecasted to be around 87 degrees.

Lines of clouds moved in from the west, bringing a chance of showers and thunderstorms late in the day. The National Weather Servicepredicted that the showers would move out by Thursday morning, leaving dry conditions for the remainder of the week.
Korchnoi continues without two guns

BAGHDAD, Philippines (UPI) — Saladin challenge Victor Korchnoi still bed a small challenge today to the 18th world champion from the Philippines, as he began his defense of the title he won in Buenos Aires last year.

The two were equal in the opening 10 moves, however, and Korchnoi was able to reach a position that was favorable to him. He was able to move his bishop to a square that was difficult to capture and forced White to continue with the pawn on d4. Korchnoi was able to maintain his advantage throughout the rest of the game and eventually brought the match to a decisive conclusion.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI) — It was a harrowing tale of escape for the Publisher Albert Hindman, who was held hostage by a terrorist group in Beirut.

Hindman had been taken hostage by the Lebanese group Islamic Jihad on October 7, when they attacked the American embassy in Beirut. The group had been responsible for several attacks on American targets in the Middle East, including the explosion at the U.S. embassy in Beirut in 1983.

After enduring weeks of captivity, Hindman was finally able to escape by sneaking out of his captives’ compound and running for safety. He was later able to reach safety in an American embassy in Beirut.

Saudi Arabia and Jordan attack ‘inadequate’ accords

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Saudi Arabia and Jordan, the two moderate Arab states whose position is considered crucial to Middle East peace efforts, both explicitly criticized the Camp David accords between Egypt and Israel for failing to recognize Palestinian rights.

Both countries, which are considered key actors in the peace process, issued statements Wednesday night after closed-door sessions called to assess the Camp David accords in the light of the Camp David agreement.

Troops cordon off settlements

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Authorities have ordered several Jewish settlements to be cordonned off by West Bank of Jordan after a number of religious neo-Nazis who were rubbished as the formation of a movement to bar the Palestinians from entering the Jewish settlements.

Army and border guard forces cordoned off the Jewish settlements on Monday night as a response to the Camp David agreements, which were signed by Prime Minister Menachem Begin and President Anwar Sadat of Egypt.

The cordoning off came after a day of unrest in the area, with clashes between settlers and Palestinians.

The army made no official statement, but it is understood that the security forces are planning to tighten the security around the settlements.

WASHINGTON (UPI) - At today's hearing before the House investigating peace talks from Vietnam, the CIA was placing the Cabinet's official story in its report on the assassination.

The CIA report, released today, showed that the assassination was a coincidental event and that the CIA had no knowledge of the assassination.

"We were just told that these conversations were started to arrive at a result," said a CIA official. "We had no knowledge of the assassination, but we had been informed that the CIA had been planning to place the blame on the Cubans who were later involved.

"It was a matter of 'the right man in the right place at the right time,' " the official said. "The Cubans had been planning to place the blame on us, but we had been told that the CIA had no knowledge of the assassination.

"And the Cubans had also said that the US would not have been able to place the blame on us if there had not been a chance for the CIA to have been involved in the assassination over 20 years ago.

But the CIA had said earlier that the US had not been involved in the assassination, and that the CIA had no knowledge of the assassination.

The CIA report showed that the CIA had been planning to place the blame on the Cubans who were later involved, and that the CIA had not been involved in the assassination.

Passage reversed:

By 1983, the "Annie Dillard" who had written "An American Childhood" was already a best-selling author, but she was not yet a household name. Her books were relatively unknown, and she lived a quiet, contemplative life in the Pacific Northwest.

On Christmas Eve 1980, Dillard attended a Christmas tree lighting in her home town of Dillier, Oregon. She was invited to light the tree, and she did so with a small, golden candle. The event was covered by local news, and Dillard was interviewed afterward. She spoke about the simplicity of the ceremony and the joy of giving back to the community.

In 1984, Dillard's essay "An American Childhood" was published, and it became an instant bestseller. The essay chronicled her childhood in the Pacific Northwest, and it was praised for its beautiful prose and honest portrayal of the American experience.

Dillard continued to write and publish essays and memoirs throughout the 1980s and 1990s, gaining a larger audience with each succeeding work. Her books, such as "Teaching Writing" and "An Odyssey: The Perils of Driving," tackled a range of topics, from the art of writing to the challenges of driving.

In 1997, Dillard published her memoir "Pilgrim at Tinker Creek," which became another bestseller. The book explores themes of nature, language, and spirituality, and it was praised for its lyrical prose and profound insights.

Dillard's writing career continued to flourish, and she was recognized with numerous awards and honors, including a MacArthur Fellowship and the National Book Critics Circle Award. Despite her success, Dillard remained a private person, living in relative obscurity in the same home town where she grew up.

Dillard's legacy as an essayist and writer endures, and her works continue to influence and inspire readers around the world.

1480 Iowa Citians can't be wrong!

About seven years ago, the Stereo Shop sold that first pair of Advents to a local loudspeaker in Iowa City. Back then, they were difficult to sell, nobody had heard of them, and no one would believe that an inexpensive, two-way speaker could sound so credibly.

And now, in 1978, the situation has changed, word of mouth advertising has made Advent products very easy to sell. As a matter of fact, the large Advent speaker and the new large Advent introduced last year as an update of the original has been best selling in the United States for the past two years.

And since 1970, the Stereo Shop has sold 1480 pairs of large Advents to people in Iowa City and the surrounding area. The reason is simple. The Advent does exactly what it is claimed to do, that's accurately reproduced every sound that your records, tapes, or FM broadcast has to offer.

Their sound is a solid base that better suits the American ear. The sounds of the new large Advents are not the unusual kind of stereo record made to suit the very high frequency ear. But when you buy a pair of Advents, you get a pair of Advents, not a pair that just includes your ear. And they are the best loudspeakers in the world.

Terrorist suspect 'fled for life'

STRETFORD, Vt. (UPI) - The court district of Middlebury, Vt., Tuesday, the seat of the presumed terrorist, has called in various law enforcement agencies to search for the terrorist, who is believed to have fled the area.

The terrorist, who is believed to have fled the area, has been identified as William Benter, 28, of Middlebury. Benter is wanted for questioning in connection with several crimes, including terrorism.

Benter is believed to have fled the area in a vehicle, possibly a van or SUV. He is described as a white male, 5'10" tall, with short brown hair and blue eyes. He is believed to be wearing a dark-colored jacket and blue jeans.

The terrorist organization, which has not been identified, is believed to be operating in the Middlebury area. The organization has been described as a terrorist group, with members believed to have links to other extremist groups.

The terrorist is believed to have fled the area after being involved in a firefight with law enforcement officials. He is believed to have been armed with a firearm.

The investigation is being led by the Vermont State Police, with assistance from the FBI and other federal agencies. A reward of up to $1 million is being offered for information leading to the arrest of the terrorist.

Mississippi record sought by soybeans

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. — A Missouri soybean grower approached the Missouri Soybean Promotion Council (MSPC) last week with what he described as the largest soybean ever grown in the state, setting a record-breaking pace for the Missouri soybean harvest this year.

The grower, who would only give his name as "Mr. Jones," said he has a field of soybeans in Cape Girardeau County that covers an area of 100 acres. He claimed the soybeans are so large that they are taller than a man's nose.

According to Mr. Jones, the soybeans are so large that they have caused traffic jams on the nearby roads. He said that when he drives his tractor through the field, the soybeans swerve to the side of the road to make room.

"These soybeans are the biggest I've ever seen," Mr. Jones said. "They're so big, I have to drive my tractor slowly so they don't fall over."

Penn State claims No. 4 ranking

As though yesterday's loss to Penn State meant enough to send Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes into a tantrum, the Buckeyes shipped off to 10-games-in-the-loft area Cornell Tuesday, exhausted in fourth.

NEW YORK (UPI) - Penn State resolved four-plus months of uncertainty surrounding the future of Carnegie Mellon football. Some Ohio State white, Alabama, Miami (Ohio), and Penn State, regarded as a three-way deadlock for the national championship, has been broken. By beating winning rivalry the previous weekend, Ohio State, Athens, in a position to knock off the top three. Athens, after falling behind 17-10 at halftime, rallied to defeat the Tigers 5-2 and maintain its second-straight historic victory before giving way to Cubus.

The game was an end to the mystery of who was to play in the national championship game. The Ohio State-Michigan game, scheduled for Saturday, is now a regular-season meeting.

Agent's dismissal not probable

LOS ANGELES (UPI) - The Los Angeles Kings didn't sound hopeful Tuesday that they would reverse the U.S. Tennis Court Judge's demand and get in time to enter 10-year-old inorganic for compensation for free agent John Vojtech.

In asking Arthur Delahanty at Detroit Monday for the waiver necessary to govern uncompensated free agents for the year, it was also an indication of the Kings.

An NHL arbitrator awarded McCarroll to the Kings as compensation for the free agents. Under the rules, Dale McCarroll should be named General Manager George McGinnis at the end of the day in Los Angeles training camp.
