Dear Mr. Editor:

I'm writing to draw your attention to an article in The Daily Iowan of November 22, 1978, which contains an error in the facts reported.

The article in question is titled "Palo troubles repaired by lax supervision." It reports on an investigation of the "Palo electric plant," which allegedly found that the plant had been allowed to operate with "loose supervision," leading to "troubles that could have been avoided if proper procedures had been followed.

However, the facts reported in the article are incorrect. The investigation was not conducted by the NRC (the Nuclear Regulatory Commission) as stated in the article. Rather, it was conducted by an independent consultant hired by the plant owner, and the findings were not publicly disclosed.

I believe it is important to correct this error in order to ensure that the public is informed correctly about the status of the "Palo electric plant."

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Agent Orange request reasonable

Vietnamese Veterans Against the War has decided to appeal the Vietnam Veterans Administration publication on the potential carcinogenicity of Agent Orange. A recent study—chemical analysis of Agent Orange sprayed in Vietnam that has been stored in the United States for many years—very strongly contended the Agent Orange Agent's contention about no carcinogenicity of Agent Orange.

The statement last week by the Vietnamese Veterans Administration that Agent Orange did not cause cancer was demanded by the Vietnamese Veterans Administration as being false. The Vietnam Veterans Administration also obtained another study which showed the Agent Orange Agent's contention about the non-carcinogenicity of Agent Orange.

The statement of the Vietnam Veterans Administration that Agent Orange did not cause cancer was obtained by the Vietnam Veterans Administration from a government agency. The Vietnam Veterans Administration, on the other hand, did not have access to an accurate expression on this issue. While scores of Vietnam Veterans who have been affected by Agent Orange have been dying of cancer, the Vietnam Veterans Administration is asking the public to believe that Agent Orange did not cause cancer. This is simply a false and dishonest expression on this issue.

The Vietnamese Veterans Association is working on this issue. Vietnamese Veterans who have been affected by Agent Orange have been dying of cancer. Vietnamese Veterans who have been affected by Agent Orange have been asking the Vietnamese Veterans Administration to recognize this issue. However, the Vietnamese Veterans Administration is not seriously answering this issue. The Vietnamese Veterans Administration is asking the public to believe that Agent Orange did not cause cancer. This is simply a false and dishonest expression on this issue.

A more tragic consequence involves a human element. Agents and Vietnam Veterans sprayed by Agent Orange may be forced to endure a host of lingering effects—personality changes, depression, sleeplessness, and other physical effects.

Agent Orange was sprayed in large quantities on the Vietnamese forests. It is very likely that the Vietnamese forests may never recover. It is very likely that the Vietnamese countryside will be made physically lifeless not only for a generation but for centuries. It is very likely that the Vietnamese will never recover a sense of belonging to their own environment.

In the investigation, Eldridge explained why he left the county for a time. According to his account, he and his friends were threatened and assaulted.

In the meantime, the F.B.I. has been trying to establish whether Eldridge was involved in illegal drug activity.

Eldridge denied that he ever sold drugs, insisting they were just for personal use.

The F.B.I. has not made a final determination on the matter.

Commenting in general on the investigation, a spokesman for the F.B.I. said: "We have no further comment to make at this time."
Economy slows, inflation down

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Inflation, a threat to the economy during the winter months and economic recovery, has been blamed by the government and said to be due to the economy's performance.

The Consumer Price Index (CPI), the benchmark measure of price changes, has been revised to show a slight decline in April. The index, which had been rising at a moderate rate for several years, showed a slight decline in April. The decline in April was attributed to the fact that the CPI had been revised to show a decline in April, which had been rising at a moderate rate for several years.

Carter owes back taxes

APOLLO, Ga. (UPI) -- As an asterisk to President Carter's list of personal achievements, federal authorities said yesterday that they had found evidence that his 1976 return understated improvements to his peanut warehouse for which he claimed $8,000 in depreciation tax credits.

The Internal Revenue Service investigation was undertaken after receipt of a tip. "This is not a criminal investigation, but we believe there is a clear amount of money that should have been reported," said an IRS spokesman.

The improvements were valued at $2,000,000, and the capital investment tax credit received was $800,000.

The warehouse, a 20,000-square-foot building, was assessed for $1 million in improvements in 1975, according to federal authorities. Carter, however, reported $820,400 in improvements for the Sumter County Assessor in President Carter's income tax return that year.

In the president's income tax return, he reported $820,400 in improvements for the SUMC for the year 1976.

The president's personal friend, said that the president had a two-year payment, in 1977; and $1,227.29 in back taxes on improvements.

The president has not responded to the tax notice, who did not challenge the federal income taxes. The president's chief executive, said that the president had used the lower valuation figure on his federal tax return. The president's personal friend, however, said that, based on the lower valuation figure for depreciation, the president had used the lower valuation figure in his tax returns.

that it doesn't happen again."

"It was just a matter of time," said Walter Kessler, who had been the group's leader since its founding in 1981.

For 15 years, Kessler has been organizing memorial services in Dealey Plaza to commemorate the assassination of John F. Kennedy. This year, the service was planned downtown at the Kennedy Memorial.

"Remember, Dallas has grown an awful lot," said Kessler.

Although the county Democratic Party plans a brief service today, the Kennedy Memorial was kept empty each year at the noon service pronounced dead. The room was hung empty for the same time it was necessary for emergency care.

Michigan State's Eddie Commings has taken a new approach this season. "I'm not being malicious against anyone," Commings said. "I'm just saying that's the basic thing that's going on. I've always been that way. I've been a winner all my life. If you can't win, you can't play."

Involving the coach's decision to play the quarterback who has been accused of recruiting violations, Commings said, "I wasn't being malicious against anyone. Yanks show interest in free agent John

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees have expressed interest in free agent pitcher Catfish Hunter, according to a source close to the pitcher.

The Yankees have shown interest in adding a veteran pitcher to their rotation, and Hunter, who is 35 years old, fits the profile. The source said the Yankees are considering a multi-year deal for Hunter, who has been a fixture in the American League for many years.

Hunter, who has won 190 games and struck out 2,342 batters in his career, is a free agent for the first time since 1974 when he was traded from the San Francisco Giants to the Oakland Athletics. He has been known for his powerful fastball and changeup, which have helped him to become one of the most dominant pitchers in the league.

The Yankees are hoping to add Hunter to their rotation to give them more depth and experience. They are currently in talks with several other free agents, including pitcher Dennis Martinez, who has also expressed interest in joining the Yankees.

The Yankees have a strong pitching lineup, but have been looking to add another arm to their rotation in case of injuries or poor performances. Hunter could be a great addition to their team and could help them make a push for the playoffs.
Iowa women cagers in tournament action

Coach Lee Johnson takes on one of the bitterest of the Big Ten when Iowa women's basketball team will engage the University of Michiganensors Saturday evening at the Pale. Pale will mean a third place finish in the conference race.

The Hawkeyes, after dropping a heartbreaker, 67-66,决定了 the little known but excellent Michigan, will face Minnesota Saturday in a 2:00 p.m. contest Friday. Michigan is very good and a favorite to win the conference.

The Hawkeyes have been running hot and cold this season. They are as good as anyone in the conference but have struggled in the Big Ten.

Gymnasts squads to Midwest Open

The Iowa men's and women's gymnastics teams will both travel to the Midwest Open meet this weekend. Both teams will compete in both the men's and women's meets.

Coach Tom Harper's men are coming off a fine win over Indiana and are favored to win the meet this weekend. Harper's team has been very competitive this season.

Killian warns against political demonstrations

LEON (1979) - Lord Killian, president of the International Olympic Committee, has warned that political demonstrations during the Olympic Games are not desirable.

"We want to say categorically that the IOC wishes nothing more than a peaceful Olympics," Killian said.

"However, if anything is done to disrupt the Olympic Games, the IOC will take action to prevent it, if necessary, by force."

Killian also said that if any demonstrations are carried out in the Olympic village, they will not be allowed.

Spinks ticketed, again

DETROIT (UPI) - Former world lightweight champion Leon Spinks has been involved in a car crash, police said. Spinks, who is scheduled to engage 214-pounder Betty Jenkins in the Michigan Invitational last Tuesday and Thursday, had an accident involving an auto and truck on the northern city limits.

Spinks, who is the Chicago Bears' defensive end and tackle, is expected to be ticketed again after this accident.
