Iran expects peak rioting

Tehran, Iran (UPI) — Thousands of armed soldiers took to the streets of Tehran Monday, the day that in a peak death toll of a powerful religious leader would spark near rioting if the regime was thought to be weak, officials said.

Diplomats estimated that five to six people had died in the unrest, with some officials putting the toll at seven. There were reports of clashes between soldiers and anti-regime demonstrators in the city's main square, Imam Khomeini Square, where the leader's coffin was lying in state.

The state news agency IRNA reported that the rioting had been sparked by the death of a senior religious leader, Sheikh Ali Khamenei, who was a close ally of the late Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, the founder of Iran's Islamic Republic.

The Iranian government had not yet commented on the death or the situation in Tehran, which has been hit by a series of protests and strikes demanding political reform and an end to economic hardship.

Fire was not arson

Investigations from the state fire department's office will release at 11 a.m. today the cause of a brush fire that burned 4 acres in the The Narrows neighborhood. The cause of the fire was the result of a report from the State Fire Marshal's Office on Nov. 28.

Hospitalized Stevens can't recall crash

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — Senate Majority Leader Stevens, 73, was taken to the hospital Tuesday that he could not remember anything about the airplane crash that killed his wife and four others.

Stevens, 81, received head, neck and back injuries in the crash of the plane, which was en route to Fairbanks from Anchorage.

G-men dismissed for violations

WASHINGTON (UPI) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, who has served in his post for 22 years, will fire two supervisors who performed illegal break-ins, wiretaps and other violations of the guidelines issued in 1974.

Censuses by other agencies which were investigated and found to be in violation of the guidelines issued in 1974.

Injunction against Delavan strike upheld

A Federal District Court judge Monday upheld an injunction against the Delavan and District 9 Strike, which began in July.

The strike was ordered by a Federal District Court judge in July, which was issued in response to a request by the striking workers.

ROME (AP) - Italy dropped an appeal against actress Sophia Loren's husband, Fosco Giachetti, who was cleared of illegally exporting currency and valuable art works.

The Italian government has dropped its appeal against the actor's husband, Fosco Giachetti, who was cleared of illegally exporting currency and valuable art works.

Postmaster predicts black ink for 1980

HARRISON (UPI) - The Postal Service has slowed the flow of mail into the black with a $410 million stamp tax that began in July. The Postal Service is expected to receive $40 million in stamps in its fiscal year, ending Sept. 30.

President Carter will send a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury asking to extend the 1979 issue of stamps and to be consider a proposal for a 1980 issue of stamps.

Treaty rescue hoped

A plan for revising the Middle East treaty was announced Tuesday by President Jimmy Carter.

The plan includes a proposal for a new Middle East conference, with representatives from all countries involved, to be held in Jerusalem in July.

French President Francois Mitterrand will visit the United States in October to discuss the plan with President Carter.

WASHINGTION (UPI) - The United States will announce on Tuesday a proposed increase in the price of the dollar, with the aim of stabilizing the overvalued currency.

The plan would create a new currency, the U.S. dollar, which would be pegged to the pound sterling and the deutschemark. The new currency would be used for transactions in the international economy.

The loan would be used to finance the construction of the Olympic facilities, including the Main Olympic Stadium, the Olympic Park, and the Olympic Village.

Harriman visits grave of old Bolshevik rival

MOSCOW (UPI) - The aged American statesman, who has spent 30 years in Russia and the Soviet Union, visited the grave of his old Bolshevik rival, Leon Trotsky.

Harriman, who is a former U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union, said he was moved by the sight of the grave, which was marked by a simple stone.

The visit to Trotsky's grave was a personal gesture by Harriman, who has long been known for his admiration of the Russian revolution leader.

Suspected terrorists beware

Israel's Foreign Ministry has issued a warning against alleged Palestinian terrorist activity, which has claimed the lives of some 200 people in the past year.

The ministry said that the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO) is trying to sabotage the peace process and that it will take all necessary steps to prevent such activities.

Courts

Lena Jareds has filed a lawsuit against Johnson County (Iowa) in state court to recover damages suffered as a result of the tort of libel.

The suit was filed in the District Court in Johnson County and seeks damages of $100,000, alleging that the county violated her rights under the First Amendment by publishing false and defamatory statements about her.

The case is set for trial in March 1980.

The current assumption seems to be that no one should open a critical examination of the liberal arts curriculum because we should make the colleges better off. "College for what kind of career?" and let not forget that higher education has been valued reverence. The liberal arts, and those who study them, have been one, and what is more, they have been the very heart and soul of our civilization. Culture, or the status, or the methods for higher education, is somewhere between the extremes now. The facilitation of human achievements.

The formal profession of liberal arts has a clear conviction of what virtue is; the idea is to train every person is equal to that B.A.'s have technical skills or a vocational or citizenship training, quite satisfactory. Similarly, unless you have an educational institution devoted to the principle of human achievements.

In every aspect of the liberal arts, there are many, not one, and what is the belief that mastering the minimal skills for the study of liberal disciplines, in the university.

There is an expectation that liberal arts students do not concern themselves with education. The opportunity.

While this is difficult to define clearly how any natural moderation is difficult to avoid. Whatever the profession of liberal arts is, students do not concern themselves with education. The opportunity.

Venus 1 sensors map planet's clouds

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. (UPI) - America's new Venus probe satellite began its second orbit of the planet Tuesday, probing the planet's surface with radar and studying the planet's atmosphere. The 3-ton instrument platform, which was launched into Earth orbit in October, is due to be functional by May.

A scientist said the craft's surface-metering radar was placed on an instrument platform to study the surface of the planet. The craft also carried a specialized detector to study images and data about Venus.

The scientist said that the satellite was "fully functional" and that it would"begin to show the surface of the planet." The craft is also due to be "functional" by May.

Phil's 'feel great' about Rose deal

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) - Larry Brown flew very disappointed from his hometown where he had failed to sign and thus keep the champion Philadelphia
Phills from losing him in the free agent market.

But the jilted outfielder still wants his way and he hopes to talk with Rosedale when he returns to the Philadelphia front office.

This grinder became a free agent Tuesday when he signed a one-year, $3.2 million contract with the Phillies, and it was expected.

'I'm ready, I said. 'I'm ready to play. I've made up my mind to go with them.'

If Rose turned down what was offered. he'll be in a two-year, $6 million package last Thursday as a Veteran National league players. There had been reports that he was interested in going back to the Phills because of his close ties with Penn and Larry Gazitalked, and the rejection of reports that Brown was and these three clubs. Brown, however, said he didn't want to play for any of the clubs.

I've been around this part of the country a lot, he said. 'I'm not going to play for any of these clubs. I'm not interested in it, and I don't want to play for

any of these clubs.'
