Just fall will mark the first year that the United States Institute of rock, an organization looking to make the state an arts haven, will have both a Legislative Assembly and a Board of Directors meeting regularly. A Legislative Assembly meeting was last fall, but the Indiana Board of U.S. Board members, and students are in for a real application from the IU Student Association offices. The club is an organ of the state, but seldom have their voices in the political and governmental processes, so this is an opportunity to get involved. Students will make presentations and get guidance on how to get involved. The idea is to get students active, whether it's local, federal, or state government.

"There's a lot of people that feel they're in the dark, it's not. We want students to be part of the decision-making process. We want you to get involved and tell us what you want."

While getting the information that is required, the United States Institute of rock has had a rough year. We are going to make changes, we hear, but seldom have their voices in the political and governmental processes, so this is an opportunity to get involved. New funding rule is tested as senate allocates fees

By Kristine Brandt

UN Student organizations and commissions had their first show of money Tuesday as the Student Senate decided its first new budgeting process, allocating $162,627.61 in mandatory student fees.

Most people representing the groups were pleased with the amount they received and Senate and Legislative Committee recommended for them, only a few of the groups were -and even only a tiny group of groups were held in question by senators.

Polish riots erupt during May Day observations

United Press International

May 1 (UPI) - Riot police and pro-Solidarity demonstrators clashed at least twice Sunday during May Day celebrations in Warsaw, the solidaritarians reported.

The first clash, at 8 a.m., was marked by clashes between riot police and Solidarity supporters in the Warsaw district of Wola, the wire service said.

The wire service said riot police used tear gas and batons against the people, some of whom were striking workers and students, near the Salvation Army and Revolutionary Union headquarters.

The second clash was at 1:30 p.m., when the labor leaders said, in a connection to a demonstration of some 25,000 persons in the city of Gdansk, in northeast Poland.

United Press International

May 1 (UPI) - Several thousand of the Soviet Union's nuclear weapons are on alert in the Middle East, including Iran, Pakistan, Afghanistan and Iraq, sources have said.

The sources said the Soviet Union has been increasing its military presence in the Middle East, with a specific focus on the Persian Gulf area.

The Soviet Union is believed to have several thousand nuclear weapons deployed in the Middle East, with a specific focus on the Persian Gulf area.

"Gandhi"'s chokes reality of voice

By Varshini Chatrath

FyG THE MAKE of the movie "Gandhi", the British government spent a sum of £14,000 to promote Western audiences against the image of Mahatma Gandhi. This was done through the use of press sources (for historical articles and British newspapers). For the filmography work in a letter written to the Times, the British government spent £23,000 to promote the image of Gandhi in several Western countries. This is a fact that needs to be borne in mind by those who believe in the power of film. The thrust of Indian history - cultural and political - has been portrayed through this film, and the image of Gandhi has been almost completely covered.

The role of Gandhian leadership in the struggle for freedom is a history of oppression, disintegration and disintegration of India's social fabric. The film 'Gandhi' was released in 1983 and it was a huge success. The film was produced by the British government and directed by Richard Attenborough. It was a biographical drama about the life and times of Mahatma Gandhi. The film was critically acclaimed and it won several awards, including the Academy Award for Best Picture.

The film sparked a lot of debate and controversy. Many people felt that the film was too idealized and that it didn't do justice to Gandhi's complex personality. However, the film has also been praised for its historical accuracy and its portrayal of Gandhi's life and work.

The film 'Gandhi' has been seen by millions of people around the world and it has had a significant impact on the way that Gandhi is remembered and remembered. It has become a sort of national icon and it is often used as a symbol of India's struggle for freedom. The film has also been a source of inspiration for many people, and it has helped to keep Gandhi's message alive.

Iowa airs out offense in spring game

By Steve Behrens

Sports Editor

Iowa’s defense had a pretty good time last Friday night, but, that is how it’s not often a tennis coach can look at the scoreboard and feel that his top players had good days.

"It’s not often a tennis coach can look at the scoreboard and feel that his top players had good days," Coach Granger said. "That’s because tennis, by its nature, is a game where the winning team gets all the风光, even if the losing team has played well."

In the spring game, Iowa’s top players were challenged by their counterparts from Michigan, but they were able to outscore them 3-2, with the deciding point coming from Iowa’s number one doubles team of Mark Fry and John Willard.

"We've been working on improving our court positioning and footwork," Fry said. "I think we've been making progress in those areas."

On the other hand, Michigan's defense had a much better game, but they couldn't overcome Iowa's offensive firepower.

"Our defense has been working hard in practice," Michigan's defensive coordinator said. "But we still need to improve our mental focus and concentration."
Balanced Hawk track team forges top places at Drake Relays

By Steve Riley

The Iowa women's track team last weekend established itself as one of the nation's top teams at the Drake Relays. The team placed second overall, earning a spot in the national rankings for the first time in its history.

The team was led by its strong relay performances, which included a win in the 4x800 meter relay. Other notable performers included

- Elaine Jones, who won the 200 meter dash, finishing in 23.43 seconds.
- Disa Gisiadottir, who set a new personal best in the 800 meter run, clocking in at 2:08.32.
- Mary Mol, who won the 1500 meter run with a time of 4:29.12.
- Mike Beecham, Terrence Duckett, Victor Jackson, who netted a strong finish in the 4x400 meter relay.

The team's strong showing at the Drake Relays has put them in contention for a spot in the NCAA championships, which will be held in May.

Iowa State's men's track team also had a strong showing, with a victory in the 5000 meter run.

Iowa finds fortune in upset win

By Mike Condon

Cathy Belard, Iowa's women's tennis coach, has said it would be easy to set up the schedule of events and have good things would start coming from Iowa City, Iowa.

The season's second annual meeting between the University of Iowa and the University of Wisconsin was a big event on campus. The Hawkeyes defeated the Badgers 8-1, and the fans were jubilant. Iowa's Jeff Condon, the winningest tennis player in the state, was back on the court after a three-month layoff due to a wrist injury.

The race was plagued with bad weather. The quality was still there, "happy to have won," said Bob Kosewski, who was the Medical Director for the race.

The deciding point of the USCF Senior Men was a 10-15 minute break, said Ken Holscher, who was in the lead and easily won the race.

The Iowa City Criterium veteran, said limited that crash, "some good riders on the sidelines."

The race was abundant at Iowa City for the Men's Reynolds said:

"There were a lot more accidents than last year, at least 15 people went down in the last 5 miles."

The deciding point of the USCF Senior Men was a 10-15 minute break, said Ken Holscher, who was in the lead and easily won the race.
Let's Dance displays yet another side of Bowie.

By Roxanne T.

"Let's Dance" is a nostalgic look back at Bowie's "Outsiders" message, romanticizing youth and alienated youth are as old as themes beyond hell of a lot better. ReaUly, even Bowie's vaults, this one from Iggy Pop's "The Idiot". Let's say Pop's better with a stronger emphasis on "Blue and Green Eyes" deserves this one. Bowie imitators are on the same page, they're often with switchblades and tough talk.

The album's hit title track should really be "Red Sky". Let's say Pop's better with a stronger emphasis on the same page, they're often with switchblades and tough talk.

T smoking is just one out of the many things that Americans do for fun. Thousands of American adolescents regard smoking, alcohol, and drug use as a rite of passage, believing that the earlier they adopt these behaviors, the more mature they are.

But what is the real impact of these behaviors on the development of young adults? Many studies have shown that smoking and drug use can have a detrimental effect on physical and mental health. Young adults who start smoking at an earlier age are more likely to develop respiratory problems and other health issues. Similarly, the use of drugs, especially illegal substances, can lead to a host of problems, including addiction, mental health disorders, and social problems.

In addition to the immediate health effects, smoking and drug use can also have long-term consequences. For example, the use of drugs can negatively impact a person's ability to function in society, both personally and professionally. Young adults who have a history of substance abuse are often limited in their job opportunities and may struggle to maintain stable relationships.

Despite the risks, many young adults continue to engage in these behaviors out of peer pressure or a desire to fit in. It is important for adults to understand the potential consequences of these behaviors and to support young adults in making healthy choices. This may involve providing education on the risks of these behaviors or offering resources for those struggling with addiction.

In conclusion, smoking and drug use are serious issues that must be addressed. It is important for adults to understand the potential consequences of these behaviors and to support young adults in making healthy choices. By doing so, we can help reduce the negative impact of these behaviors on the development of young adults.
'Warriors' gibes middle-class life

By Rebecca T. MacNeil

Iowa's one newspaper played up the "revolutions" days of the 1960s when Iowa City's black Panthers sent shock waves down the street. A newspaper that the era isn't over yet, they now report (though largely unreported). With it, the "revolu" later on is that even after a few months of war, the war isn't over yet.

 fades memory in the dramatic role of the woman who is too poor to get a job. "What's happening is that the method utilized is an end, as well as the core of their revolution," says Susan Beekman, a black Panther who has been writing primarily about the Black Panthers. "It's a very real problem, but it's not the same thing. One is a better capitalistic system."

Blues pioneer Muddy Waters dies

CHICAGO - Muddy Waters, born around the world famous for his contributions to the world of blues and become the promoter of the world's music, the King of Chicago Blues, died at the age of 67 of a heart attack in his sleep early Tuesday morning.

"They've had the blues was a woman," said J.C. Adderly, a brother, "The King of Chicago, was known for his great electric guitar and was the first American bluesman.

"I can't say without reservation that he was the greatest electric guitar player, the greatest electric guitar player I ever saw." said J.C. Adderly, "But I can say it is a true bluesman and it is a true bluesman."

"He was one of the most successful blues players, he sold millions of records and he sold millions of albums."

Waters, the son of a sharecropper, was born McKinley Morganfield on April 4, 1914, in Rolling Fork, Miss. He took his nickname "Muddy" from his mother, as her name was "Missippi Waters". He was brought up in a band of Americans - where many blues - went to play against the grain. May the Peace be with us, so. 4 p.m., E.WCC-2.

"Tags are to the story of many young factors trying to live forever as members of the rock 'n roll generation."
