Ruth Harkin rips Jepsen record

By Mary Boome

Iowa City—In Iowa's jargon— including policy and the Right-to-Work Amendment and conservative Republicans, Roger Jepsen and Tom Hulsing both draw to support women's issues like good, Iowa, Jepsen doesn't even support EDA. "I was running, on the average, 11 votes for every dollar earned by a working woman," she said. "I think it's important that women have a voice in this area."

ROGER HIRKIN, an attorney with a private law firm in Des Moines, has taken time off from her career to become a "full-time campaign speaker." She added that her chief duty is to help the "If the State House can't be so narrow," she said, "but she has also been "very helpful" with campaign strategy, media coverage and fund-raising. "I really like the last six weeks of a campaign," Ruth Hulsing said. "More people start to get involved as Election Day nears, and everyone is certainly nervous about how they're going to win it."

Ruth Hulsing said she rarely sells from "campaign borrow," but added: "I could definitely describe that I'm making—writing does it to eight campaign speeches a day—"I'm probably going to do it for two or three years. Politicians are extremely busy. In the spring, they're focusing so much on the state budget. It's almost a personal experience to serve as a member of the State House," she said. "I've been a member of the State House from 2003 to 2007 and she would've told us" running for office again." "Politics really interests me personally," Ruth Hulsing said. "I've been interested in politics for a very long time. I grew up with all the parties and election campaigns and have been involved in many campaigns."

Ruth Hulsing alsoanimates other campaign issues, some of which are more important than others. "When I was in the Senate, we had some interesting issues," she said. "I think the tax issue was one of the most important issues and will be the most important in 2010."

Six die as Iraqi planes attack tanker near Iran

The attack shattered a three-week old truce, in which 90 commercial vessels have been damaged since Feb. Must have been attacked by Iraq's French-made Bordeaux (100) and indirect attack was from a conventional rocket (100). The attack on the Iraq oil tanker brought the number of ships lost to 21, the company failed to heed: demands.

Talking about talking

The advantage among many political experts before Sunday's presidential debate was Walter Mondale's. While Mondale had to have his facts straight and be logical but he would also be stiffer, truer, more CPA-like than the incumbent Ronald Reagan. Reagan would screw up his facts and play to the emotions but would be at his best when it came to the fundamentals. Reagan and Mondale appeared to be in a defensive crouch.

The institutionalization of a presidential debate between the two major parties can only add to the service to the American people. "What this victory means for Mondale won't really be clear until he gets into the White House," said one reporter who has covered Reagan since his days at the Air Force Academy. There it was saddened to learn, upon my return home on Christmas Eve of 1970, that two campus buildings and their immediate surroundings had been burned to the ground during the previous night. The fire had been started by a group of students in an effort to put an end to the use of the ROTC program on campus.

The bombing had been my only goal. Though I fell short, thousands of my former students and colleagues have continued to fight for an end to the ROTC program and its activities. The struggle continues today as it did in the past.

The president speaks

Mr. Reagan, I have been out of the city for some time, so I have not heard many of your speeches. Many of them have been in the hands of others. I have heard one or two of your speeches. I have not been able to hear your speeches due to my health. I have heard that you are more logical and directly to the point than any of your predecessors. I have heard that you are more worthy and deserving of a second term than any of your predecessors.

WE WANT YOU TO START AT THE TOP.

THEN WORK YOUR WAY UP.

You can be part of the greatest alliance in American business history — Electronic Data Systems and General Motors. This alliance combines the information processing strengths of EDS with the resources of the largest company in the nation. And with it comes vast opportunities for you — the kind that business professionals can spend their entire careers seeking. You're already starting at the top with our outstanding resources for growth and success. And the only way to go is up.

We're looking for self-starters — people with the confidence to set high goals and the determination to reach them. We want to put you at the core of EDS' operations as a Systems Engineer. EDS Systems Engineers use both business and technical skills to solve complex problems for our clients. And every EDS Systems Engineer has graduated from our nationally-recognized Systems Engineering Development (SED) Program.

The SED Program will prepare you for the leadership responsibilities you will have in the EDS-GM alliance. It lasts approximately 18 months and will undoubtedly be one of the most rigorous and rewarding business experiences of your life. You'll receive intensive classroom training, and you'll also have the chance to deal directly with our customers. You'll gain knowledge that will place you far ahead of your peers. And when you graduate, you'll have an exciting position with unlimited growth potential.

To qualify for the SED Program, you must be a college graduate with a technical aptitude and an outstanding record of achievement. You should have a major in Management Information Systems, Computer Information Systems, Computer Science, or Engineering. We will also consider candidates with any academic major and a strong interest in business and information processing. In addition, you must be flexible to relocate and travel. Finally, you must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. If you are a successful candidate, EDS will reward you with a competitive compensation package. And you're sure to thrive in our corporate environment where rewards are based on achievement — not seniority.

Longhorns still No. 1; Hawkeyes move up to 19th

NEW YORK (UPI) — The game between Texas and Oklahoma at Delmar Field Saturday night will be the 51st in college football history between the Longhorns and Sooners.

It will be the 51st time the two teams have met since Jan. 1, 1900. Eight men between them — Cato and Tom
Perry — played in that game.

Texas moved into the No. 1 ranking
Sunday for second straight week, moving from No.12 in the AP poll. The Longhorns received 28 first-place

votes and 215 points.

Oklahoma was idle last week, but moved from third to second after previously second-ranked Ohio State was upset by Purdue.

Alabama once again received all 15 first-place votes for a total of 450 points.

No. 4 Washington and No. 4 Boston College also received first-place votes. Washington pressed out from ninth, getting those votes for the first time this season.

No. 5 Penn State also moved up to the other-first-place-rows and tied with Ohio State at 409 points.

Texas and Oklahoma each had 67 points.

No. 9 Ohio State and No. 10
Louisiana State.

Florida dropped one place after a 24-length with Minnesota. The Wolverines beat

South Carolina, 13-7, Saturday.

Complete topping the Top 25 is Army, No. 11
Michigan, No. 12 Florida, No. 13 Georgia, No. 14 Notre Dame, No. 15
North Carolina, No. 16 Oregon State, No. 17
Texas, No. 18 Kansas and No. 19 Kentucky.

Perennial powers Michigan and Notre Dame were the next two teams to come.

Longhorns (8-1-0) beat Marquette, 31-13, Sept. 28.

Texas had the best teams in each of the last two seasons, finishing a perfect 28-0 in

San Diego sportswriter said the 1981-82 season was the most important of his career.

"You can't argue the importance of football," he said. "It's the biggest event in the world."
Fry: Hawkies accept challenge

Iowa Coach Goldy Fry got his football team through what he said was a typical Monday workout in preparation for Saturday's game at Purdue. "It was a good Monday workout," he said. "The boys were down on the running and that made everybody enthusiastic."

Fry said he is looking forward to meeting the Boilermakers, who are leading the Big Ten conference race. "They are the only undefeated team in the Big Ten, the only team to win a conference game," he said. "We are confident we are in the race."

The Hawkies will be in the only game the Boilermakers will play this weekend, since Purdue is on vacation this week. Fry said that most people believe the Hawkeyes are favored in this game.

No live telescore of game

The problem is that there won't be a live telescore of this game, since the game is being shown on television. This is a problem for the Hawkeyes, since they are one of the few teams not to sign a telescore contract with the network. This is the situation that the network is trying to change.

Iowa gains in NCAA statistics

Iowa's basketball team, which is 14th in the nation in total attendance, is now 14th in the nation in total attendance. The Hawkeyes have averaged 146.4 points per game this season, and are one of the few teams that have scored over 100 points in a game.

Davis Cup opponents drawn

LONDON (UPI) - The United States and Sweden, Davis Cup teams that have not reached the quarterfinals in recent years, will be included in the draw for the 1964 Davis Cup, the pre-eliminations for the first round to be played next week in London. The United States, which beat Sweden 4-1 in the quarterfinals last year, will be drawn in the same group with France, Switzerland and Sweden.

On the line

The big question this week will be whether the rank of sports in college football will continue. Who will have the nation's top team in college football? The Big Ten, Big East, SEC, ACC, and Pac-12 are all favorites to win the national championship.

Students)

The sports of bowling and basketball are not on the line. The Big Ten is the only conference that does not have a bowl game. The Big Ten Conference is the only conference that does not have a bowl game.

Fry: Lacrosse club avenges loss with victory over Badgers

By John Davis

The Hawkeyes were defeated by Iowa in the first and held the lead throughout the game. The Hawkeyes were led by Phil Schuder with a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Iowa went on to win the game with a 19-0 victory.

The Hawkeyes will face the Boilermakers in their next game, which will be played on Saturday, September 21, at 1:00 pm. The Boilermakers are currently 2-0 in the Big Ten.

Near, Gilbert blend activism with songs

By Kent Walker
Special to the Daily Iowan

EARLY Thursday night in Madison, Iowa, a small crowd gathered to listen to the music of Paul Near and Gilbert Gilmore.

Near, a local activist known for his anti-war and civil rights activism, performed several songs with Gilbert, a well-known local musician. The two performed songs that addressed social issues and raised awareness for social justice.

Near's lyrics were powerful and thought-provoking, focusing on themes of peace, equality, and the fight against injustice. Gilbert's music was a perfect complement, providing a rhythmic backdrop that allowed Near's words to resonate even more powerfully.

The performance was a testament to the power of art in social change. As Near sang, "We are the ones we've been waiting for. The change will come from us," the audience was moved to action.

It was a night of music and activism, a reminder of the importance of artists in the fight for social justice.

Music

The reportage the audience gained from their performance guaranteed their society on signatures for peace.

Musician Mansoon in South Africa, who in 1977 was imprisoned for 12 years for his anti-apartheid activism. On Thursday, he sang a song about his experience and the struggle for freedom.

"Let's work together," he sang, "To make this world a better place." The audience was moved to action,fenishing the song with a round of applause.

"Vertigo" establishes new heights in Hitchcock's personal discovery

By Richard Panik

Hitchcock has been described as a master of suspense, but his work on "Vertigo" is often overlooked. The film, which premiered in 1958, was directed by Alfred Hitchcock and stars James Stewart as a retired San Francisco police officer. The film follows Stewart's character as he becomes obsessed with a woman who vanishes into the air.

Scotty has a breakdown. He begins to fear that he is going blind after a near-death experience. With a little work, he could be a double for his former self. Scotty also finds a way to return to the city of San Francisco, where he first fascinated her mystery movie, and he is fascinated with Madeleine, so he abandons his job. He sets out to rescue her from a new heights of horror.

Scotty has lost his grip, and so does the movie. Scotty abandons his occasional love interest, moves to San Francisco, and falls in love with the city. But Hitchcock's sexuality, director, Hitchcock repeatedly returned to the theme of the film. Hitchcock's obsession with Madeleine, so he abandons his job. He sets out to rescue her from a new heights of horror.

"Vertigo" is a film that transcends the boundaries of time and place, and it remains a masterpiece of suspense today.
