Woman evades attacked engineer

By Greg Miller
Staff Writer

An Iowa City woman was allegedly assaulted by a man near the 900 block of Market Street on Wednesday, according to Iowa City police reports. The woman was struck in the head with a baseball bat and fled into a nearby building.

The man is described as a white male, approximately 6 feet 2 inches tall, weighing approximately 225 pounds, with brown hair and blue eyes. He was last seen wearing a white t-shirt and black pants.

The woman told police the man did not have a weapon.

A resident on N. Second St., 21, of St. Brown St., was charged with 10th-degree assault and public indecency according to the report. The resident was released from custody.

The Iowa City Police Department is investigating the case and anyone with information is encouraged to contact them.

Police clash with workers

LIMA, Peru - President Fernando De la Rúa has declared a state of emergency in Lima and ordered troops to stop this week's violent clashes between government workers and striking police. The order was announced after a day of violent protests that left at least 20 people dead.

Dozens of workers were injured, and at least five police officers were killed in the violence, which erupted after the government announced plans to reform the pension system.

The protests began Monday, when thousands of workers took to the streets to demand better working conditions and higher salaries. The government announced plans to cut back on social programs and raise taxes on several sectors, sparking outrage among workers.

ISRAEL AND PEACE

WE AFFIRM OUR SUPPORT FOR THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND RECOGNIZE ITS RIGHT TO LIVE WITHIN SECURE AND RECOGNIZED BOUNDARIES FREE FROM THREAT OR ACT OF FORCE. WE FEEL THAT IT IS ESSENTIAL FOR THE CONGRESS AND THE ADMINISTRATION TO CONTINUE THE BIPARTISAN POLICIES WHICH ENHANCE THE ECONOMIC STABILITY AND THE MILITARY SECURITY OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL. THESE POLICIES ARE CLEARLY BENEFICIAL TO BOTH AMERICANS AND ISRAELIS.

IN LIGHT OF THIS CONSENSUS, WE COMMENDATE THE NOVEMBER 29, 1947, UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTION WHICH RESULTED IN THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE JEWISH STATE. WE REGRET THE CONTINUED REJECTION OF THIS HISTORIC ACT BY ALL OF ISRAEL'S NEIGHBORS EXCEPT EGYPT.

UNQUESTIONABLY THE PALESTINIAN PEOPLE HAVE CERTAIN INalienable RIGHTS AND WE SUPPORT NEGOTIATIONS WITH PALESTINIAN REPRESENTATIVES WHO OPENLY ACKNOWLEDGE THE LEGITIMACY OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL. WE FEEL THAT THIS CONDITION IS THE ESSENTIAL PREREQUISITE TO SINCERE NEGOTIATIONS DESIGNED TO GUARANTEE PALESTINIAN RIGHTS WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY SECURING ISRAELI BORDERS.

A GENUINE PEACE BETWEEN ISRAEL AND HER NEIGHBORS MUST ENCOMPASS FULL DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS, THE END OF HOSTILE PROPAGANDA, AND THE TERMINATION OF POLITICAL AND MILITARY WARFARE. THESE OBJECTIVES CAN ONLY BE ATTAINED THROUGH MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING AND RESPECT BY ALL PEOPLES WHO LIVE IN THIS TROUBLING REGION. WHEN THESE GOALS ARE REALIZED, ISRAEL AND HER NEIGHBORS WILL HAVE A CHANCE TO LIVE IN PEACE.

Soviet lawmakers ratify '85 budget

The Soviet Parliament Wednesday unanimously approved the late summer plan, including an increased defense budget, all the more necessary after a series of diplomatic setbacks.

"The laws of the U.S.S.R. on the defense and budget, with the view toward the results and achievements realized by the nation, have been adopted unanimously," the official Pravda reported.

The plan, which increases the armed forces' share of the budget by 10.4 percent, was adopted by a vote of 3,672-1.

The U.S.S.R. has in the past been reluctant to engage in defense talks and in past years has shied away from the issue.

Kudos for the student

To the student: Kudos for the student! For an article about the population in front of the Emma Goldman house, the student has done a great job of bringing people who obviously care about the subject. I want to offer my support in the future, the student's work is important and will continue to have a great impact on the community. The student's research and writing has provided valuable insights into the challenges facing the homeless population and has helped to raise awareness about the issue. Thank you for your dedication and hard work.

Dole voted Senate majority leader

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Sen. Robert Dole, a long-time Senator with presedential ambitions, was elected Senate majority leader Monday night, replacing retiring Sen. Bob Dole, a 51-year-old three-term veteran from Kansas and the Senate's second-longest serving Democrat. Dole, a three-term senior Senator from Kansas, had been a strong contender for the leadership position. Sen. Dole won the leadership race in a little-known, secret election held in the Old Senate Chamber Monday night. The vote was 82-75, according to Sen. James McCaskill of Idaho, who confirmed the result.

Ruckelshaus steps down from EPA post

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Many govern­ment officials were surprised Wednesday by the resignation of Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Anne Burford. EPA Administrator Anne Burford said on Wednesday that she would resign effective Friday. The resignation comes after a series of accusations of mismanagement, political influence, and Whelan, who was a staunch environmentalist, will not be replaced.

NFL round-up

It doesn’t really matter,” he said. “The last four or five weeks we’ve been in the same situation and got out of it and got in trouble this week.”

The Redskins played well but lost their last two games to the Lions and Giants. Coach Joe Gibbs said that although he doesn’t have any specific plans, the team will try to get back on track.

The Pittsburgh Steelers, the defending Super Bowl champions, have a tough task ahead of them as they try to win their third straight division title.

Hawaii safety Miano beats the odds to become an NFL player

HONOLULU (AP) — Five years after being told his days of playing football were over, Richard Miano has achieved a dream — signing with the Dallas Cowboys.

Although he was not drafted, the Hawaii defensive back that played three years at the University of Hawaii has earned a spot on the Cowboys’ roster.

“Just having the opportunity to sign with the Cowboys means a lot to me,” Miano said. “It’s a dream come true.”

Redskins still in NFL playoff hunt as they prepare for 3-10 Vikings

The Washington Redskins, 7-7, have a lot to play for in their game against the 3-10 Minnesota Vikings. The Redskins need a win to keep their playoff hopes alive.

The Vikings, on the other hand, are playing for pride and hoping to avoid a winless season.

“Every game is important,” said Redskins coach Joe Gibbs. “We’re playing for a chance at the playoffs and we’re not gonna take this game lightly.”

The characters are a nasty bunch, often unfeeling and self-serving. The dialogue is often stilted, the actors overwrought, and the pacing slow. Yet the film is a case that requires serious investigation. It is a film that explores themes of corruption, power, and justice, and it does so with a sense of humor and a willingness to tackle sensitive issues.

Garner's performance is strong throughout, especially in his portrayal of the sleazy cocktail lounge owner. His character is a complex and flawed individual, and Garner brings depth and nuance to the role. The other actors - Kidder, LaRue, and Stern - also shine in their respective parts.

Overall, "Glitter Dome" is a well-crafted film that offers a unique perspective on the glamour and excess of Hollywood. It is a film that is worth watching for its themes and its performances, and it is sure to be remembered as a classic of the genre.

Repolitcized rock ‘n’ roll may fall on deaf ears

In the late 1960s, rock music was seen as a serious political statement. However, in recent years, rock music has become more mainstream and less politically charged. This has led some music critics to argue that rock music is losing its political edge.

The second category of critical political statements by rock musicians is exemplified by John Mellencamp’s album “Lonesome Power.” The title song of this album is a typical Hollywood model and a parody of New Right patriotism, and it is an example of the kind of statement rock music can be divided up into.

Perhaps rather than looking at the fact that political messages are there in rock ‘n’ roll music, it is the way these messages are being used which is important. Are they political messages, or are they being co-opted by right-wing jingoists? Are they being used, or are they being co-opted by right-wing jingoists? Is there such a thing as a repoliticization of rock music? Anthony DeCurtis pointed to such a revival in a Village Voice essay in 1984. And even in college sports, where American groups which are generally considered as such, there are cases where rock performers are being co-opted, or at least not making a political statement.

Fluxus philosophy is rooted in the belief of anti-history.

Solo dance theater comes to UI

By John Greave

Like a fast-paced trial lawyer, Ken Friedman proved there was no escape from the flux of 1960s art at the Art Building Tuesday night. Friedman is an associate professor of history at the University of Iowa and founder of the Fluxus Archive, which is housed in the library.

Friedman explained that Fluxus emerged somewhat because of the movement's desire to challenge the status quo. Fluxus was a movement that was anti-art, anti-history, and anti-society. Friedman compared the movement to a butterfly, because it changes everything it comes in contact with.

...many Fluxus members prefer obscurity to notoriety, and, most importantly, Fluxus philosophy is rooted in the belief of anti-history.
