Local pickets halt UI's boiler project

By Kent Schrave

Local labor union members picketed outside the UI Physical Plant Monday, temporarily preventing a group of workers from switching to the UI's boiler system.

"Several contractors and associa ted construction firm foremen at the project site after seeing the action decided to stop work on the boiler project.

"The UI in its defense of the construction firm has been forced to react to the action," said Bill Mitchell, a member of the Iowa City Area Council of Building and Construction Trades.

"The UI has always maintained that it was awar ded to about 75 percent of the bid award," Mitchell added.

"We're not the only ones who have to do the work of the project," he said.

"I think the UI is trying to do a lot of work of the project," he said, adding that the UI's decision to challenge the bid award is "very harmful to us.

Residents report vandalized cars

By Julie Divine

Thirty-three Iowa City residents and their automobiles discovered painting and graffiti on their cars early Wednesday morning. The Residents for Autonomy and Equality, a small group, claimed responsibility for the vandalism.

Iowa City police records show seven cars were damaged and seven residents and one child were interviewed by officers. Two residents were outside at the time the vandalism occurred and denied being involved. The incidents will be investigated.

The Residents for Autonomy and Equality claimed responsibility for the graffiti and left a flyer on the floor of the Iowan Office Building.

Iowa City police records show three residents were interviewed Wednesday night. The residents were not observed by anyone and the damage was found the next morning.

The Residents for Autonomy and Equality also claimed responsibility for two other incidents last week. One resident and the police were outside when the damage occurred but could not see the perpetrators.

Iowa City police records show two residents were interviewed. In one case, a resident was inside the house at the time the damage occurred and denied being involved. The police were not notified and the incident was never investigated.

Iowa City police records show the Residents for Autonomy and Equality claimed responsibility for other incidents last week but could not be verified.

Iowa City police officers said the Residents for Autonomy and Equality are a small group, and have no evidence connecting them to the vandalism.

Iowa City police are looking for any information that may help solve the case.

Police

Reggie, a 7-year-old Iowa City resident, reported the vandalism to authorities. He was walking his dog when he noticed the damage. He said he was surprised to see so many cars vandalized and said he was not sure how many people were involved.

Iowa City police officers were on the scene and talked to the residents. They said they had not received any reports of similar incidents in the past.

Iowa City police officers said they were trying to determine how many people were involved and what their motivations were.

"It's not clear who is behind this," said one officer. "We are investigating all leads and trying to get as much information as possible."

The Iowa City police department is urging residents to call if they see anything suspicious or have any information about the vandalism.

"We want to get all the information we can," said another officer. "We are taking this seriously and will do everything we can to find out who is behind it."

WASHINGTON (UPI) -- President Ronald Reagan, reviewing the status of the Contra war in Nicaragua, challenged Congress Monday to reject the Bush administration's last-ditch effort to keep aid flowing to the rebels.

"Those who would invoke this compassionate, humanitarian cause, they must also recognize that the Contras' cause is not only a matter of justice and self-defense, but is in the interest of the entire region," Reagan said.

"Aid to the Contras, and the military assistance and support we have provided the Sandinistas, have led to a balance of power in Nicaragua that is not sustainable by either side," he declared.

Frankly and directly, he said, "the second question that needs to be answered is whether the Contras are a viable political force in Nicaragua."

"It is time for the United States to consider seriously the moderate, accommodating elements in Nicaragua," he said.

Reagan specifically supported legislation for the prompt and total military assistance to be authorized and provided to the Contras, and urged Congress to grant the executive branch broad authority to negotiate with the Sandinistas.

He noted that changing the status of the Contras is not a separate issue from the current crisis in Nicaragua and the hemisphere and would require "a new level of diplomatic activity."

He also said that any discussion with the Sandinistas or a cease-fire with the rebels would be "a hollow victory because it would mean little if the Contras were not left in a viable political position."

"It is no good if we achieve a peace settlement that leaves the Contras at the mercy of the Sandinistas," Reagan said.

"The United States should not relax in its efforts to achieve a political solution," he said. "We need to do both."

Family physician course to update medical skills

By Dave Cotter
Staff Writer

Family physicians have an ongoing responsibility to keep their knowledge and skills up to date. This is important because medical knowledge and technology are constantly changing.

A course being offered by the Family Physicians of Iowa will provide family physicians with an opportunity to update their knowledge and skills. The course will include lectures, case studies, and group discussions.

The course will be held on two days, Saturday and Sunday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Each day will include lectures on different topics, such as primary care, pediatrics, and geriatrics.

The course is offered by the Family Physicians of Iowa in partnership with the University of Iowa College of Medicine.

If you are interested in attending the course, please contact the Family Physicians of Iowa at 515-281-6400. The registration fee is $100 per day.

OWL law lacks ability to deter, says Branstad

DES MOINES — A House panel dropped its provisions to ban the law that allows certain individuals to carry loaded weapons in public places.

Thurston, who introduced the law to the House on Monday, said the provision would have been a stepping stone for other bills that would make it easier for individuals to carry loaded weapons.

Thurston said the provisions would have helped prevent crime and would have made it easier for individuals to carry loaded weapons.

Weiskopf back by ‘invitation’

PARIS, Ky. (UPI) — Before the PGA West Open in Los Angeles, Weiskopf finished 11 strokes behind first-time winner Kenny Knox, but was right in the middle of the pack and he’s happy about it.

Knox birdied two of the first three holes, shot a bogey on the fourth and added a birdie on the fifth to grab a four-stroke lead over the field. Weiskopf made three birdies and a bogey on the front nine, but made four birdies and a bogey on the back nine to shoot a final-round 71 over the testy par 72 of the Westin Malibu course.

“I just couldn’t get myself motivated,” Weiskopf said. “I just wanted to play when he is invited. I’m just happy to be back on the course.

“This wasn’t the Open. We last were there at Pebble Beach in 1977, but I think I could have been ready in about two and a half weeks. It’s back on the course. It’s back on the course. We’re going to try to make room for Mal­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­­…
Big Ten title showdown could highlight final week

Michigan whipped Norteasters and Indiana failed tests over the weekend to set up a couple of interesting games in the final week of the Big Ten season. Northwestern whipped Illinois, 20-6, Saturday and Indiana topped Iowa, 20-12, Sunday to pad end-of-season playoff jockeying for the Big Ten standings. The two teams meet next Sunday in the season finale. But before game time each, Indiana went 3-0-3 in Big Ten play, Northwestern dropped to 1-3-2, making this the first meeting between Big Ten rivals since 1920-21 Michigan beat Northwestern 37-10. Northwestern also whipped Michigan the previous season, 8-19 over West Lafayette. The Fighting Illini have a streak of six straight losses to Michigan, 20-6, this Saturday, something Northwestern won't want to experience.

Michigan coach Gary_train is ready for the Illini game. "This is our last Big Ten game and we want to make sure we win it," he said. "We have to win in order to stay in the conference race." Northwestern coach Bob Surf is also looking ahead to the final game. "We want to win this game," he said. "We have to win in order to stay in the conference race." Northwestern is currently in third place in the conference, while Illinois is in seventh. The two teams meet in the championship game of the Big Ten tournament on Sunday, November 14 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California.

Northwestern will have to prepare for the Illini's tough defense, which is ranked second in the conference. Illinois is led by linebacker Jon Franklin, who has 112 tackles this season. Franklin is also a threat as a pass-rusher, with 10 sacks and 20 tackles for loss. Northwestern will have to find ways to get Franklin off the field and limit his play on defense.

The weather forecast for Sunday is calling for a high of 60 degrees with a 20% chance of rain. The game will kick off at 3:00 PM and be televised on ESPN.

This game is important for both teams. Northwestern needs to win to stay in contention for a share of the conference title, while Illinois needs a win to avoid a seventh straight loss. Both teams are looking to end their respective skids and improve their records as they head into the postseason.

The Big Ten Conference tournament will be held at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, Indiana, on November 14. The winner of this game will advance to the championship game, where they will face the winner of the Michigan-Illinois game.

The Big Ten Championship game will be held at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California, on December 11. The winner of this game will represent the Big Ten Conference in the College Football Playoff.

Heathcote: Spartans can finish first in conference

Heathcote believes that the Michigan State Spartans have a chance to finish first in the Big Ten Conference.

"Michigan State has a strong offense and defense," Heathcote said. "They have a great quarterback in Brian Hoyer and a strong running game led by Le'Veon Bell. Their defense is also top-notch, led by linebacker William Gholston. If they can stay healthy and play their best, they have a chance to finish first in the Big Ten."

Auel's tale recounts prehistoric romance

By Teresa Hager

...Auel, author of the Earth Children series, can be praised for her strong sense of realism. Not only is she able to accurately portray the knowledge of the prehistoric peoples, but her characters are not only believable, they are also admirable. She, like the writer, ultimately finds it necessary to let her characters consider and learn.

Pretty heavy-duty stuff, isn't it?

The Neanderthals. Auel's own word, is thoroughly distinct and apt to hold even the most jaded passerby. The Neanderthals. Auel doesn't mess around in the research and writing areas, and as a result has acquired the respect of her appropriate order, following Clan of the Cave Bear and Valley of the Horses.

CLAN OF THE CAVE BEAR developed around the idea of one of the best known theories in the world: the "two species theory." In this theory, one of the differences between humans and Neanderthals resides in their changed brain size. The theory is that as these species become more distinct, so will the human ability to create and produce, which in turn would lead to the advancement of their society.

In Valley of the Horses, Ayla meets the clan, the heart of the Neanderthal society. The concept is that the heart is the clan, and without the clan, one is nothing.

Two different species of humanity are present, though far more than natural enemies. The two species are combined in the species. The species is a mixture of the two, but the Neanderthals and the Cro-Magnons are distinct from one another.

With the human side, Auel's characters are in keeping with the prehistoric peoples and cultures she is describing. Her characters are realistic, empathetic, and aware of the challenges they face.

In the beginning, the Neanderthals have no language or other form of communication. In this reality, the characters and their actions are driven by their needs and desires.

In SPOKY CYRA, the characters are driven by their need to survive and to find a way to communicate. The characters are also driven by their need to find a way to communicate.

In SPYRO, the characters are driven by their need to communicate. The characters are also driven by their need to find a way to communicate. The characters are also driven by their need to find a way to communicate.
