Iran has teamed up to confront Iran and Iraq, according to Washington Post sources. But the US government has yet to fully consider. At least one ship is supposed to be sent to Iran, according to leaking sources. But it now appears that no ship or minesweepers could be successfully escorted to Iranian waters, as some leaked by the Iran-Iraq border, but only inside Kuwaiti waters. The exception was business-legislative committee lawyers. It went to Kuwait earlier this year, hit a mine off the coast and couldn't leave.

The Soviet Union, which has leased three oil tankers to Kuwait, now has four mine-sweepers to the region. It has four mine-sweepers to the region. It is a major military confrontation with the Soviets. It is not over.

The US Defense Department is still considering to send minesweepers to the region. The exception was business-legislative committee lawyers. It went to Kuwait earlier this year, hit a mine off the coast and couldn't leave.

The Defense Department is planning to send the US Navy to the region. It is a major military confrontation with the Soviets. It is not over.

Regents officially approve UI laser funding

By Scott Hannah

The Daily Iowan

IOWA CITY — Regents approved a proposal to partially fund a laser research center.

"It is very exciting," saidF. William Lang, head of the laser center's research project, after the meeting. "This is a significant funding, and it will allow us to continue our research.

The laser center, centered around the School of Chemical Engineering, would cost $211 million. The Regents approved $82 million, leaving $130 million to be raised through private fundraising.

The center is expected to create 200 jobs and produce $260 million in revenue during its first year.

The Regents also approved a $111 million bond authorization for the Old Capitol renovation project.

The UI Board of Regents will meet again at 1 p.m. today in the Old Capitol.

IOWA CITY — Bartenders to Iowa City will have to complete a course in alcohol awareness before they can receive their serving license.

"We want bartenders to understand the psychology of alcohol," said the program's director, Joleph Daniels.

The proposal was discussed briefly at Iowa City Council meetings this week, where councilors approved Atkins to further investigate the feasibility of adoption.

"Most students are human beings. They don't want to get nailed on the roadway any more than anyone else," says Iowa City Manager Stephen Atkins.

Atkins said he would proceed with planning in conjunction with our consultants to see whether this is possible.

"I do not believe that a document known as the Brzezinski report provides the basis for my confirmation. In any case, it is not likely to form the basis for any recommendation that I be confirmed as Secretary of State.""
Iowa Supreme Court ruling Unborn children are ‘family’

By Scott Severn

The Iowa Supreme Court ruled that “unborn children” are a family member when they are born alive. The court ruled that the state constitutional definition of “family” includes “unborn children” as long as they are born alive. The ruling was based on the belief that unborn children have a significant interest in being included in the definition of “family” as it relates to the state constitution.

The court’s decision is significant because it could have implications for the way the state handles cases involving the rights of unborn children. It could also have implications for the way the state handles cases involving the rights of parents and other family members.

Waldbheim plans trip abroad to Vietnam

WASHINGTON -- President Reagan said Wednesday he will make his next official trip to Vietnam within the next six weeks, becoming the first president to visit that country since the war.

Waldbheim said he would visit Saigon to talk with Vietnamese leaders about ending the war and improving relations between the two nations. He also said he would meet with South Vietnamese President Tran Van Huynh.

The Vietnam visit would be Waldbheim's fifth trip abroad as president and has been set for early September, the White House said.

Goetz victim revives $50 million lawsuit

By Bruce Other

Los Angeles, Calif. -- New York lawyer representing a young man shot and paralyzed in the Bernhard Goetz New York City case, said Wednesday he will try to force Goetz to take a $50 million civil lawsuit.

Joe Brandolini, a New York lawyer, said the suit, filed shortly after shots that left young people dead on Nov. 20, 1984, would be "reinstated immediately." The lawsuit has been turned over to "defensive attorney" to go after the four youths who allegedly Goetz on a subway train. When another youth, Tony Santos, asked for $50, severely wounded Santos.

Goetz, 31, is cleared of manslaughter for a criminal charge Tuesday by a jury but may face other illegal weapons charges, including opening a loaded, unauthorized gun in a public place, the judge toning on the gun charge Oct. 14.

North

In its February 18th, 2019, The Daily Iowan reported on a hearing regarding the appointment of North (former federal prosecutor and acting U.S. Attorney General) to the Senate Intelligence Committee. The report stated that North's appointment was controversial due to his prior consultancy work for certain private entities and his involvement in the Iran-Contra affair. The article also mentioned that North's nomination was blocked by a presidential veto, and that the Senate subsequently voted to override the veto, allowing North to be confirmed by the Senate. The article concluded by stating that North's appointment was a significant victory for Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell, who had strongly supported the nomination.

Regents

The Iowa City Press-Citizen reported on the Iowa Regents' meeting on February 14th, 2019. The meeting discussed the appointment of Iowa State University President Bruce Harreld, the budget for the fiscal year 2019-2020, and the university's strategic plan. The article mentioned that the Regents approved a $1.7 billion budget for the coming fiscal year, with a focus on student success, research, and community engagement. The article also noted that the Regents discussed the university's strategic plan, which includes goals such as improving student retention rates and expanding online learning opportunities.

Justice officials call for weapons ban

By George Luehring Jr. and Joe Phelan
Washington Post
WASHINGTON — Independent counsel Lawrence Walsh said Wednesday he is determined to pursue the truth about the Iran-Contra arms-for-hostages scandal, which he said was a "shameful" chapter in U.S. history.

The statute, aimed at providing relief to victims of the 1986-1988 scandal, authorized the appointment of a special prosecutor to investigate the matter.

Walsh, a former federal prosecutor who served as special counsel in the Watergate case, said his investigation would be independent and objective. He said he had not been instructed to limit his inquiry to specific allegations but would pursue all leads.

"We are not going to be bound by any constraints," Walsh said. "We are going to go where the evidence takes us.

"The statute also provides for a broad mandate to investigate not only the main events of the scandal but also related matters.

Walsh said he would use the statute as a guide to his investigation but would not be bound by any legal or ethical constraints.

The statute specifically authorizes the appointment of a special prosecutor to investigate the matter.

Texas slapped with probation as conference deteriorates

AUSTIN, Texas ( ) - The NCAA sanctions on two years' probation against the Texas Longhorns football program for rules violations and ticket violations, but Texas will be able to appear on television during the period of probation if it complies with 12 administrative recommendations from the NCAA.

The University comprises the fourth southeastern conference school to be sanctioned by the NCAA for rules violations this year, joining Southern Methodist, Texas Christian and Texas Tech. Texas A&M and Houston are under investigation for possible violations.

The NCAA sanctions are a concern for Longhorns athletic director Mike Chlebodaska, who has said the team's ability to appear on television during the period of probation if it complies with 12 administrative recommendations from the NCAA.

Texas also was not barred from football season, and only 75 football scholarships were cited 10 violations by Texas, including violations that resulted in a fine.

A Texas coach David McWilliams, who succeeded the fired Fred Akers in Texas, said players said complimentary tickets, some for amounts in excess of face value, to teammates, friends and athletic department staff members.

A Texas Tech staff member, including players and七八, also gave the player a Texas Tech jersey.

Hoyt was arrested in January 1984, the same border crossing.

A nine-page NCAA report obtained from the administrative office of the Texas Aggies, including player tickets, 10 violations, and six weeks later, the NCAA also has been notified that the 12 violations from the 1986 season will be dropped.

The NCAA's penalty would be to meet the 12 recommendations from the NCAA's enforcement, said from his office that under the NCAA rules, Texas will be allowed to make campus visits, down from 25 for the 1986 season.

Pitt officials deny paper's allegations

PITTSBURGH (UPI) - University of Pittsburgh officials, in a continuing battle against the collegiate newspaper, reaffirmed published reports the school will decline running back Charles Gladman and defensive back Tony Austin ineligible because they agreed to take offers from New York agents Norby Walters and Lloyd Bloom.

Neither the school nor the NCAA has been contacted by the agents, said Gladman will be suspended pending confirmation of the situation tomorrow, and Austin will be declared ineligible immediately, said Glidden, executive secretary of the football program.

Meanwhile, the two players had been suspended from the team as a result of the NCAA's investigation of the two agents.

Howser dies after battling brain tumor

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) - Dick Howser, the quietly brave Kansas City Royals manager who learned he had brain cancer eight months ago, died Wednesday at age 51.

"He was a great guy. He achieved a lot," said Billy Gardner, the former Royals pitcher and team president. "Dick was a great baseball man and a great baseball person," said former Major League Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn.

Howser was taken there from his Lee's Summit, Mo., his hometown, The Tallahassee Memorial Hospital since June 3, when he was admitted with induced cancer-fighting cells in his system.

The toughest test in the 1986 American League pennant race was when Howser was forced to retire by the Royals.

Booth, who was at Fellowship Baptist Church in Kansas City, Mo., said a memorial service will be held tonight for the U.S. Open which begins today. Norman, who is at Fellowship Baptist Church in Tallahassee, Fla., his hometown, will wear a memorial patch on his uniform sleeves.

"He took the team to the World Series in 1985, when I was there, and led the 'American League to its second victory in 15 years," said John Langer, the Royals' former shortstop.

"It's a great loss for any team," said Billy Gardner. "He was a great baseball person."
