MEXICO CITY, May 7 — The giant rocket of the world's biggest solid rocket motor reenactment was a fiery success. On the outskirts of the Wañusota Mountains Thursday,便面 the revival of the United Nations test program, a 35-foot-tall, 18-ton rocket was successfully launched.

It was the first full-scale test of the rocket since extensive modifications in a busy state that caused the cancellation of the shuttle's mission to January.

OFFICIALS of Morton-Thiokol Inc., the rocket builder, and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said Thursday that simulations with preliminary indications of success, but they convene.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — The National Union of Mineworkers, which has been blocking talks with the government for six months over wages, has ended its strike.

The miners have accepted a new wage offer and have agreed to return to work. The union said it has reached an agreement with the government on a new contract.

"We have reached a deal on the demand for a minimum wage," said national union leader Sipho Seepe. "The other demands, such as housing, education and health care, will be addressed through the wage agreement."

The miners have been on strike since November 2018, demanding higher wages and better working conditions.

Grant will aid UI research on rural women

By Anne Keulin

A $20,000 grant from the Rockwell Foundation will allow 12 non-funded rural women and men to study and work on issues facing them.

Priscilla Morgan, chair of the Program, said the money will allow the group to "study women, to show what women want to do, to show what classes are needed." The group will focus on women's roles and responsibilities in rural areas.

The grant will be used to support workshops and meetings with the women, and Morgan said the group hopes to raise money for additional workshops.

"This is a very important issue," she said. "It's something that needs to be studied and understood."

Coup attempt leader known for macho lifestyle, bravado

MANILA, Philippines — It was in 1986, the military revolt that toppled Ferdinand Marcos as president of the Philippines, the oil crisis and the fall of the Berlin Wall that were followed by a media blitz promoting the image of Rev. Gregorio Honasan, a young officer in the Philippine Marines.

The image was created by the military, with help from Rev. John Fletcher, the pastor of the Marble House Baptist Church in suburban Honolulu, who helped to organize a series of visits to the Philippines by members of the Church of Mormon, who would become Marcos’ top lieutenants.

Honasan was the leader of the coup, and his image was created by the military to promote his image as a leader of the military coup against Marcos, who was ousted from power in February 1986.

THE CEREMONY AT Ft. Bonifacio was an indication, his political analysts said, of how Marcos was able to use the military coup against Marcos.

The commander of the 4th Marine Division, Ramos, described for the military coup against Marcos.

Marcos, who was in control of the islands of Mindanao to stand guard against the new Marine battalion, Ramos assailed the coup after the Marines how rebel troops starte d the fire in an uprising that toppled then-President Ferdinand Marcos and brought Aquino to power.

Aquino asserted in an interview last year and her family, "we have no way to redress the wrongs of the armed forces of the Philippines."

The military coup against Marcos was also known to be a threat to the Marcos regime.

Hamburger Hill is the latest example of a Vietnam war film. Although it has all the earmarks of a standard war picture, its treatment of the war situation is a departure from the norm.

Hamburger Hill is a tale about the 1st Battalion, 7th Infantry, 196th Light Infantry Brigade, fighting an enemy that is always ready to fight. The story follows the soldiers as they struggle to survive in the face of constant danger.

The film begins with the soldiers preparing to attack a hill that is held by the enemy. The soldiers are led by a captain who is determined to take the hill at any cost. The battle is fierce, and many soldiers are killed or wounded.

As the soldiers continue to fight, they begin to realize that the enemy is not as weak as they thought. They are forced to retreat, and the captain is killed in the process.

The soldiers continue to fight, but they are ultimately defeated. The hill is taken by the enemy, and the soldiers are forced to retreat.

The film ends with the soldiers being evacuated from the battlefield. They are left to wonder what will happen next.

Overall, Hamburger Hill is a powerful and intense film that offers a different view of the war in Vietnam. It is a film that will leave you thinking about the costs of war and the importance of peace.

UI dance troupe will have 1987 gala

By B. Gordon

It's hard to believe that the 1987 Dance Gala will have already made two tours of Iowa's universities and high schools and also included an exciting and successful tour in Canada this past July.

The UI Dance Department has been touring for the past two years under the direction of4. Karen King. "We're having a pretty dynamic program," she recently said, "and we've never been so energetic before!"

The 1987 Dance Gala will feature two works for the event. "A Prairie Music Sampler," featured at the UI Dance Gala in 1986, is offering a deal that'll keep on paying for the department's long-term aspirations. The popular, exuberant graph of a European folk-tinged and country lightweight sing-along numbers to help establish a festival atmosphere.

The gala is a yearly event put on by the Department of Dance. "We're trying to promote our future goal of being a regional dance group," said faculty member Nathan Bell and music director Tom Nothnagle himself as an individual artist.

U1 sports are to lowans what heroin is to drug addicts — an initially pleasurable, mind-numbing indulgence that slowly but inevitably turns the brain to a puddle of cerebral gelatinous goo.

Schools

The opening celebration of UI football season Wednesday made me wonder if this university is really prepared to learn and compete. I was not aware that UI had a team with fans who had class standing at Madison Ave. at 9 a.m. When I showed up, a much harder team was playing and then was followed by several boring speeches. I then found out that UI has a team with fans who had class standing at Madison Ave. at 9 a.m. This is good enough to be a part of a traditional mascot.

1. For one, let's not appreciate any of the fans who have class standing at Madison Ave. at 9 a.m.UI's running back, for example, is the reason for this. The University of Wisconsin Press Richard Remington's and the UI administration's list of students who are not on campus is an example of a false start in the history of UI being a football team.

Wrong Choice to the Editor

UI is seeking a new Holden Nightbarker. The city's losing interest in and the council's reading of the editorial page has increased significantly. The UI administration's list of students who are not on campus is an example of a false start in the history of UI being a football team. But UI is not a football team.

Bomb ruled out as cause of fire in AIDS carriers' house

KIRKWOOD, Ia.—A Kirkwood, Iowa, police investigation of the house fire that killed four people early Thursday was fast-paced, thorough and unusual because the 10-year-old victims all were AIDS carriers.

Fire investigator Scott York said the fire, which destroyed the home and killed the four children and a 10-year-old boy who was sitting in the car, was ruled out as an AIDS-related fire.

York said while the children's ages were unusual, the fire was not, and the children had no known ties with other AIDS-related fires in the area or across the country.

York said the fire was the second in Kirkwood this month, and the city's seventh fire in a two-month span.

The victims were Mark Thomas, 10, Clifford Thomas, 7, Jana Thomas, 4, and Joyce Thomas, 3, all from Kirkwood. The boy, Dan Thomas, 10, was not a member of the family.

York said the call came in at 6:25 a.m. Thursday. Firefighters arrived at the home at 6:30 a.m.

York said the children's mother, Karen Thomas, 27, and father, Ray Thomas, 30, were not home at the time of the fire.

York said the fire was not classified as suspicious and no reason was given for the fire being ruled out as AIDS-related.

York said the children were the only people in the home when the fire started.

York said it was not known whether the children had AIDS when they died.

No ‘foggie’ weather ahead for Gophers’ running game

By Nate Sager

The Daily Iowan

The University of Minnesota running back Dana McCourt will take on the University of Iowa this weekend in the Big Ten Conference football game.

McCourt, who has been an outstanding running back for the Gophers, has been a key player in their recent success.

In the University’s 56-10 victory over Iowa State last week, McCourt rushed for 152 yards and three touchdowns, leading the Gophers to their first win of the season.

This week, McCourt will face a tough challenge in Iowa’s record-setting quarterback, Kirk Ferentz. The Gophers will need McCourt to continue his strong performance if they hope to defeat the Hawkeyes.

McCourt has been a consistent performer for the Gophers, averaging 7.5 yards per carry on the season. His speed and agility have made him a valuable asset to the team.

The Gophers will need to keep an eye on McCourt and the rest of the Iowa offense to have a chance at victory this weekend.

Tennishers Capitalized on Iowa’s inability to move the ball, scoring the final 69-68 yards in four minutes, 34 seconds. At the close (and yes, it’s a close) of regulation, N. O. B. L. kicked the winning field goal.

I was just thinking about doing my best to make them richer, even if it takes a little longer, but I’m not going to make them worse. I’m not going to make them worse. I’m not going to make them worse.

Although the Hawkeye defense broke down in the end of the game, Fry believes problems plagued the nerving game.

Tennis: Women’s

The Daily Iowan

The University of Iowa’s women’s tennis team was defeated by the University of Tennessee, 3-2.

The Hawkeyes’ hopes of winning a conference championship were dashed by the Volunteers, who came from behind to win a crucial third set.

“Tennis has been a big part of my life,” said Hawkeye head coach Jess Graff. “I’ve been coaching for a long time, and it’s been a great experience for me.”

Davis finishes 2nd in world meet

Farrington Davis took second Thursday in the 100-yard dash and fifth Friday in the 200 for the Hawkeyes, finished second Friday in the finals of the World Track and Field Championships in Fukuoka, Japan.

Belgian athlete of the Soviet Union won the gold by pulling away in the final 10 meters. Davis, 20, has set both American and world junior records in the 100, which he ran in 10.10 at the Olympics in Los Angeles. He never loses a race.

Richardson signs contract with Bears

CHICAGO (UPI) — Hardnosed linebacker Mike Richardson has signed to terms on a two-year contract with the Chicago Bears. Richardson, 24, and his agent, Allen Brezler, met with Bears' general manager Jerry Kramer on Tuesday, and an agreement was reached at 4 p.m.

Financial terms of the contract were undisclosed, but Richardson reportedly will earn somewhere between $150,000 and $200,000.

Richardson, a two-time All-American defensive end at Indiana University, was one of the team's top five returning defensive players and a first-round choice of the Bears last month.

Noonan ends contract dispute with Dallas

IOWA CITY — Defensive end Dan Noonan, the University of Iowa's first-round pick, ended a bitter holdout dispute on Monday by signing a one-year contract with the Chicago Bears.

Noonan, who weighed 285 pounds and ran a 5.0-second 40-yard dash at the NFL Draft, signed a contract Monday with the Bears after a physical examination. He will join the Bears' Taipei Tuesday.

Northwestern has the right to hold him in this year's draft and is expected to eventually replace 14-year veteran John Dutton, another Northwestern product, at left tackle.

Navratilova gets back on winning track

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (UPI) — Top-seeded Martina Navratilova defeated second-seeded Martina Navratilova 6-4, 6-3, 6-3 in the final of the US Open Monday.

Navratilova, who won her first Grand Slam title in 1978, was ranked No. 1 in the world this summer. She had not won a major title in over two years.

Raiders top Dallas 34-10 as Cowboys amass errors

By Mike Thomas
United Press International

IVING, Texas —認為 Mason broke open the game with a 44-yard touchdown run and the Dallas defense faced five pass Sunday night to put a 59-10 exhibition victory over the Dallas Cowboys. The Cowboys scored against the mistake-prone Cowboys, who had scored 0-70 on the opening play of the first quarter.

Both teams are 0-0-0 with the provisional game tumbling. The Cowboys have scored only two touchdowns in their last six outings. The Raiders defense had a third string, allowed into the line on closed-end in the fourth quarter and was blocked back by the Dallas defense. But Mason recovered the fumble, drilled through a hole and ran 40 yards for the score that made it 5-0.

LIONEL WASHINGTON added a touchdown by returning a blocked punt 11 yards, with fine timing left in the game. Hekken Adams ran 75 yards on a great return.

Marvin Allen had scored the Raider first touchdown on the opening play of the second quarter, leaping over from the 2-yard line for the 2-point kick after Los Angeles linebacker Jerry Robinson intercepted a pass at the Dallas 17. Chris Full added third-quarter touch down.

Dallas lost points came on a second-period field goal of 26 yards by Tom Hall and 6-yard touchdown run by Gerald White with 1:10 left in the game.

Robinson, Vance McIvor and Lamar Hayes were intercepted by the Raiders defense. White rushed for 64 yards on 17 carries against backup Steve Pellicone in the second half.

Ranger Flotter started quarterback for the Raiders in the third quarter, completing 5 of 13 passes for 46 yards. White, who had thrown no pass, was successful on 3 of 4 attempts for 100 yards.

NFLPA may consider strike

By Bill Walsh
Associated Press

WASHINGTON — The national labor relations board on Thursday will hear the NFL Players' Association's complaint about the NFL's failure to negotiate a new contract.

The NFLPA has accused the NFL of engaging in "posturing and rhetoric." The union gave its mandatory notice that it will walkout if a contract isn't signed by Aug. 14.

By then, seven weeks of the 1982 season will be under way.

"The NFLPA believes that the NFL has violated the antitrust laws and its duty to bargain in good faith by failing to negotiate a new collective bargaining agreement," the NFLPA said in its complaint.

The labor board, which has the power to order the parties to negotiate, will consider the complaint at a hearing Thursday.

The NFLPA said it will consider a deadline for a strike if a new contract isn't signed by Aug. 14.

"The NFLPA is ready to take a stand now," said Marvin, the executive director of the NFLPA.

"We will act if the NFL does not act," he said.

The NFL's contract expires at the end of the regular season, which is scheduled to begin Aug. 30.

"The NFLPA wants to protect the rights of its members," Marvin said.

"We are ready to take action to protect their rights," he said.

The NFLPA has threatened to strike if a new contract isn't signed by Aug. 14.

"We are prepared to strike if the NFL does not act," Marvin said.

"We will not allow the NFL to undermine the rights of our members," he said.
