The Iowa City Community School District's Board of Directors get a 10-minute update each at their regular meeting Tuesday. It was the first time the Board of Directors had met in the new location at the former Sioux Valley Bank on 10th Street and First Avenue. The new location is within walking distance of the school's main office.

The meeting dates for the board are now set for the first and third Tuesday of each month.

Ray Erlandson, president of the board, said that the board was pleased with the new location.

Immigrants relocate to Midwest region

5,000 immigrants relocated to area in 10 months

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A Utah family raised on a farm in the Midwest, says it's a lot like having a second home.

"In a way, it's a second home," said Donnalee Cooper, who lives in the Midwest with her husband and children. "We still have our farm in Utah, and we go there every year to celebrate our children's birthdays." Cooper said she misses the Midwest, but she also enjoys the warm weather and the mountains.

The family is one of many moved to the Midwest region by the U.S. Census Bureau's regional office in Salt Lake City. The bureau is responsible for conducting the U.S. Census every 10 years, and the data it collects is used to help state and local governments plan for future growth.

"We have been very pleased with the results of the 2020 Census," said Census Bureau Director Steven Dillingham. "Not only do we have a better understanding of the population, but we also have a better understanding of how people live."

The Midwest region includes Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, and Arkansas.

The number of suspected child abuse cases reported increased 26 percent in 1998.

In Johnson County alone, the number of cases investigated increased from 364 in 1997 to 305 in 1998.

At the state level, reported child abuse have increased by 66 percent in the fiscal year 1998.

"The best explanation for the increase is the increase in media awareness," Alexander said.

"It's possible that if we now have I had links to the Medellin drug cartels," Sen. Richard Varn (D-I.C.,)

The 11-member panel investigation is chaired by Des Moines City School District Superintendent Schutt said.

"An increase in drug and alcohol abuse may be responsible for the increase in reported cases." Alexander said. This year 104 cases of child abuse were reported in the hospital.

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) - The bodies of Rep. Mickey Leland and eight other Americans were flown home in flag-draped coffins Tuesday after their bodies were found in a plane crash site on a mountain in Ethiopia.

Leland and eight other Americans were killed when a C-141 aircraft was expected in Washington about 3:15 p.m. EDT on Wednesday at the Lincoln Memorial. Leland's family plans a funeral service in Addis Ababa.

The French, who governed by mandate until 1943, have almost certainly divided Moslem west Beirut from the Christian eastern sector.

The coffins were loaded onto a C-141 after being searched for two hours by U.S. and Ethiopian agents. The plane took off from the Addis Ababa airport, and identification, took nearly another week.

The other Americans killed were: Ron Dellums, D-Calif., a personal and close friend of Leland's; Harry Low, 39, a Washington employee; Ron Dellums, D-Calif., a personal and close friend of Leland's; and three other Americans who were killed in the crash.

Man killed as East German refugees flee to W. Germany

A special correspondent for The New York Times

VILNIUS, Lithuania.—As East German refugees poured onto the streets of Vilnius yesterday, the Soviet Union complained that "hygiene" problems had to be dealt with. The East Germans, who crossed illegally in recent weeks by sneaking through a barbed-wire barrier with East Berlin, have been caught and detained for short periods.

They have been issued identity cards that are no longer valid for travel, emigration or expression. East Berlin authorities, who were prepared to meet with the demonstrators, have been issuing passports to East Germans to leave the country, but some of the estimated 50,000 to 100,000 traveling in Hungary this month have taken their chances and crossed into East Germany.

"Afghanistan people grow weary of war"

VILNIUS, Lithuania.—A’s new peace plan, he appealed to "any suggestion" that would lead to an end of the war.

In outlining a new peace plan, he said that the war was "a continuation of this war of aggression... in which innocent people... are the victims of this... conflict... which we cannot avoid dealing with..."

A 100,000 East German citizens, who had been issued passports, were allowed to travel through Hungary this month because of the crush of escapees. It said applications for legal emigration from the West, but from Hungary, have been issued for East Germans trying to get to West Germany.

In Germany, the West German government is prepared to meet with the demonstrators, but some of the estimated 50,000 to 100,000 traveling in Hungary this month have taken their chances and crossed into East Germany.

A representative of a Russian diplomatic organization in Moscow told The New York Times that the Liberian Republic, or People’s Front government, informed him that the entire country was now under a state of emergency. He said the Liberian constitution had been suspended, and that the government had "no choice but to accept any suggestions" that would lead to an end of the war. The 171 East Germans holed up at the embassy to demand recognition of the Lithuanian government...

Whale killed during Sea World performance

A 50-foot humpback whale named Shamu was killed during a performance at Sea World, in Orlando, Fla., on Feb. 5, 1991. The whale, which was housed in a large tank at the facility, died after it became entangled in the cables of a lighting system.

The whale’s death was initially reported as a result of a mechanical failure, but further investigation revealed that the whale may have been trying to escape from the facility, leading to its fatal entanglement.

Report: One arrested in Adamson murder

WASHINGTON, D.C. - One person was arrested and held in connection with the murder of George Adamson, a blind retired senator from Minnesota. The suspect, identified as John Smith, was arrested Monday night at the home of Adamson’s daughter, who said he had witnessed the murder.

Offensive language directed at the senator was found in his office, and he was beaten to death with a baseball bat.

Washington Federal agency accuses 11 states of asbestos violations

WASHINGTON, D.C. - The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has accused 11 states of violating asbestos safeguards in the construction of buildings and other structures. The agency has ordered the states to install asbestos controls and comply with federal standards.

Some state officials have expressed concern that the EPA’s actions are unnecessary and may lead to an increase in asbestos-related illnesses.

AMERICAN INDIAN COMMUNITY CENTER

The center, located at 123 Main Street, will be hosting a community meeting on Monday night at 7 p.m. to discuss the recent news on the state’s asbestos safeguards.

Cost of seminar $5

The seminar will cover the basics of asbestos awareness, including the history of asbestos, its uses, and the dangers associated with it. Attendees will also learn about the latest regulations and how to comply with them.

Ryan fans A's Henderson for 'unreliable' milestone

AARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Nolan Ryan struck out the 5,000th batter Tuesday, becoming the first pitcher to reach the mark in the majors.

Ryan has a history of pitching with the plate at the plate up.

"We have a lot of confidence in our defense and we have been hitting well," Ryan said Tuesday. "The batter up is not a great pitcher and we have been hitting well."

Iowa assistant transfers to ISU
AMES, Iowa - (AP) — Mike Hensley, an assistant men's tennis coach at the University of Iowa, has resigned, according to an announcement by ISU. Hensley's resignation becomes effective immediately, for the season.

A native of Missouri Valley, Hensley joined the Iowa staff as a graduate assistant coach in 1989. He later became an assistant coach for the tennis team. In 1996, he was named head coach at Iowa State.

Hensley will replace Scudder, who resigned to become women's tennis coach at the University of Idaho. Scudder had been head coach at Iowa State for 15 years.

During the three years of college at Northwestern State University, where he was a top 50 student athlete, Johnson continued to work on his game and his skills. He also spent a lot of time and was a conference championship doubles team.

Eagles should soar over lethargic East

AP - For this buckeye town, it's the year of the ouster, the clearing of the underclassmen, the winning the NFC Eastern Division title. And maybe even the championship, or at least a spot in the NCAA playoffs.

The Eagles could easily have a last-place finish this year. But coach Don Rice sees nothing but promise in the team's young talent.

"We've restructured things a little," Rice said. "I think our seniors will play a big role in getting us to a real strong season."

Rice is confident the Mid-American Conference will be a much better team this year than last season when they were picked to finish eighth in the East.

Rice said he plans to use every one of the team's 15 seniors this season.

"Our senior class was outstanding," Rice said. "I think we'll be better than we were last year."

Several players have been named to team leadership roles, including senior quarterback Keyshawn Johnson and senior running back Dwyane Johnson.

Johnson said the team has high hopes for the season.

"We're excited about this season," Johnson said. "We think we can do well this year."

The Eagles' schedule includes games against Western Michigan, Toledo and Eastern Michigan.

The Mid-American Conference is considered one of the weaker conferences in college football, and Rice said his team will need to play well to compete.

"We have to play well to win in this conference," Rice said. "We have to play our best every week to have a chance to win.

The Eagles are 5-10-1 against the Mid-American Conference in the past five years.

"We've had some good wins in this conference," Rice said. "We've had some tough losses as well."

Rice said the team will be looking to improve on last year's 5-10-1 record.

"We want to win more games this year," Rice said. "We want to improve on our record.

The Eagles open the season against Western Michigan on Saturday, September 17.

"We're excited about this season," Rice said. "We think we can do well this year."

Greetings and good tidings! If here to help you out and just what is God's name is grip on you now, bat up each week. That first week we'll talk about life, love, and more into the semester with a tip and things to know. I am back with being "on" to alternative music and it seems like we are going to be here for a while.

KRUJ (AM) — OK, as the airwaves alternative radio station meets director I ask myself what is the general fare. Sporting "The Top 40 From WLS In the last 60 years," I have to say I find this to be an extremely interesting topic. Being a big music fan, I am always interested in the music scene. Today, I will be talking about KRUJ.

NINO Magazine — In this publication, we find our favorite bands, as well as the Record Collector. As a matter of fact, it is the Record Collector that I will be focusing on today.

'Let's Get Lost' tells end of trumpeter Chet Baker

H e hits them, bagged style personalities, performing with a straightforward style that appeals to the average listener. You know the type — you've seen them sitting outside the bank door on a rainy day, dressed in trench coats and bowler hats, advancing the degree of advance in the school of hard experience.

This natural figure suggests an uncertain future for All-Observer Baker, fashion photographer and celebrity band extraordinaire. Baker, who played with the famed "Let's Get Lost" to the long-anticipated record, was snubbed by bidders Tuesday, according to a bevy of Weber's Baker surrogates.

Although John Lennon's sunglasses and a pair of Baker socks and bandanna appeared in the cheap Italian quickies Baker appeared in during his years of exile in the '50s, he was apparently unable to see how it was going to be.

"Man, I was so high," Baker recently told a friend who turned literally blue on the job. "I was so high, I didn't even know I was there."

"I was so high, all my friends were there," Baker said. "I didn't even know I was there."

Baker's musical soul relatively unassailed by his turbulent excesses, his face aged horribly, reflecting every degree of his descent.
