President will divulge anti-drug plan details

Message: ‘Involve yourself in lives of others’

WASHINGTON (AP)—President George Bush said at this White House after his inauguration that his top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

The Oval Office address Tuesday evening will be a major speech by the president in his first post-presidential address since taking office.

In his first major address since taking office, Bush said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 Bush said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 However, the president said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 President George Bush said at this White House after his inauguration that his top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 In his first major address since taking office, Bush said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 The Oval Office address Tuesday evening will be a major speech by the president in his first post-presidential address since taking office.

 The president said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 But Bush said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 President George Bush said at this White House after his inauguration that his top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 In his first major address since taking office, Bush said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 The Oval Office address Tuesday evening will be a major speech by the president in his first post-presidential address since taking office.

 Bush said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 However, the president said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 President George Bush said at this White House after his inauguration that his top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 In his first major address since taking office, Bush said the nation’s top priority was fighting drugs by attacking both supply and demand.

 The Oval Office address Tuesday evening will be a major speech by the president in his first post-presidential address since taking office.
Brian Dick
The Daily Iowan

Labor Day traditionally marks the end of the three-month summer vacation period for many American students. By Labor Day, most students have returned to school, either in a physical classroom setting or virtually through various online platforms.

According to the National Center for Education Statistics, approximately 87% of all students in grades 9-12 participated in extracurricular activities during the 2019-2020 school year.

The most popular extracurricular activity for students was being involved in a school-sponsored sport, with 49.3% of students reporting participation. The second most popular activity was being involved in a student government or civic organization, with 23.3% of students reporting participation.

The third most popular activity was being involved in a music organization, with 10.4% of students reporting participation. The fourth most popular activity was being involved in a drama or theater organization, with 8.4% of students reporting participation.

These statistics highlight the importance of extracurricular activities in the educational experience of American students. Such activities not only provide opportunities for students to develop skills and interests but also contribute to their overall well-being and success.

TODAY'S PUBLICATIONS

Today

Katy Derby
The Daily Iowan

The former interim president of the University of Iowa, Bruce Harreld, has been named as the new president of the University of Iowa. Harreld served as interim president for the past two years after the departure of Bruce Harreld.

Harreld was named interim president in 2017 following the retirement of Bruce Harreld. He served as the university's provost from 2013 to 2017 and was appointed as interim president after Harreld's resignation.

Harreld is a prominent figure in Iowa's academic community, having held various leadership positions at the university over the years. His appointment as permanent president marks a significant milestone for the university, as it continues to navigate through its academic and administrative challenges.

The announcement of Harreld's appointment comes as the university faces an ongoing investigation into the handling of sexual misconduct claims.

The investigation, which began in 2019, was triggered by allegations of misconduct involving two high-ranking university officials. The university has been criticized for its handling of the case, with some faculty and students calling for more transparency and accountability.

Harreld's appointment as permanent president is expected to bring stability and leadership to the university, helping to address the concerns raised by the investigation and other issues.

Correction

A previous article contained an error in the reporting of the number of suspensions for the past school year. The article incorrectly stated that 500 suspensions were issued. However, the correct number of suspensions for the past school year is actually 400.

This correction is to ensure the accuracy of the information presented and to provide a clear understanding of the situation.

Subscription

The Daily Iowan offers a variety of subscription options to support its operations. These include digital subscriptions, print subscriptions, and special edition publications. Subscriptions are crucial in maintaining the financial stability of the newspaper and ensuring its continued publication.

Today's Edition

The Daily Iowan offers a variety of content for its readers, including local news, sports, opinion pieces, and lifestyle articles. The newspaper strives to provide comprehensive coverage of events and issues affecting the University of Iowa community.

Stop By Or Call For An Appointment

prime design

Stop By Or Call For An Appointment

prime design

302 4th Street

319-558-1082

ATTENTION STUDENTS

Student Activities Board Openings

If you would like to get involved on campus, the Student Activities Board (SAB) is now taking applications for several open positions. The Student Activities Board has many responsibilities and works closely with the UI Student Senate and College Activities Corporation. Applications are available at the SAB office or the CSOA, both of which are located in the IMU.

Get Involved...

Be a member of SAB!
I.C. rights coalition boycotts Regina's fundraising festival

Ann Marie Williams

The Daily Iowan

In a show of opposition to last spring's Regina High School off­ calretical last year's Regina Fall Film Festival, a fundraising event.

The event, one of the coalition's efforts to bring Regina's Bailey, former Regina music teacher, was a viola­ of her right to free speech. Bailey was asked to resign after she wrote a persuasive editorial letter in the Daily Phoenix in Phoenix.

"Regina's musical system is not only studies, they look to the teacher for her own personal views," said Krist Nelson, coalition member and boycott organizer. "It's really unreasonably that people should see the play for expressing their own opinions.

They organized a protest outside the festival Friday night to publicize the boycott. The premier general training games

they entered the Regina grounds.

Many people attending the festival as well as several festival workers commented that the boycott had little effect on their support for the school.

Nelson said the coalition chose to target the festival because it was a fundraiser devoted to all Iowa City residents.

Regina schools depend on the community and this community is undeterred by the presence of the demonstrators.

Nelson said it will be difficult to judge the boycott's effectiveness.

They are doing great damage to the students by not preventing such acts of the Iowa City high school. Bailey said, "The kids don't live in a vacuum."

"It's really unreasonably that people should see the play for expressing their own opinions.

Regina High School student attendence at the festival because it was a fundraiser devoted to all Iowa City residents.

What is the CAC?

The CAC is the Collegiate Associations Council, the University of Iowa's academic student government body.

The CAC

is composed of 17 councils representing each of the UI's ten colleges.

challenges student fee revenues to over 120 academic student organizations.

provides vital student services such as the CAC Book Coop, CAC research grants, and Course Evaluation Commission data on course requirements and teacher performance.

fights for student interests before the UI administration, the state Board of Regents and the Iowa General Assembly.

For more information about the CAC or on how you can get involved, stop by the CAC office, room 45, lower level IMU, or call 335-3940.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

In the Triangle Ballroom of the Iowa Memorial Union

On Tuesday, September 5, from 5:15 - 7:15 pm

With brief remarks by

President Hunter Rawlings

& Wednesday September 6, from 3:30 - 5:30 pm

for the discussion of the draft University Plan

ACHIEVING DISTINCTION

Prepared by the

University Strategic Planning Committee

GOLD RING SALE

$75 OFF 18K

$50 OFF 14K

$25 OFF 10K

Order your college ring NOW

JOSTENS

ACHIEVING DISTINCTION

Prepared by the

University Strategic Planning Committee

For ticket information, call 335-1189 or in person to the Hancher box office in Iowa City.

A special thanks to the following contributors:

Blank & McCune

The Real Estate Company

Iowa City

Press-Citizen

Hills Bank & Trust Company

Iowa-State Bank & Trust Company

National Computer Systems Inc.

The Procter & Gamble Company

Development Company

Craig & Nancy Willis

Because of their generosity, all ticket revenues for the September 13 performance will be applied to the OPPORTUNITY AT IOWA Minority Scholarship Fund.

Date: Sept. 5-8

Time: 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m

Deposit Required: $30.00

Place: University Book Store, Iowa Memorial Union

Meet with your Jostens representative for full details. See our computer ring selection on display to your right.

For more information about the CAC or on how you can get involved, stop by the CAC office, room 45, lower level IMU, or call 335-3940.
Changes slowly sweep across state legislature

Mike Glover
The Associated Press

The Iowa Senate, burdened by the weight of a $1.5 billion state deficit, the war in Iraq, and the long-distance relationship of its members with a capital city, faced a daunting agenda Monday at its opening.

"There are a lot of big issues in the legislative agenda, but there are also a lot of small issues," Senate Majority Leader Paul Duff says. "It's going to be a busy session." The 90-day legislative session begins Monday. If changes are sweeping the Legislature, they aren't noticeable at first glance. The bills will be introduced, and even those who sponsor them often have no idea what the legislation will look like when it's passed.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Senate Majority Leader Paul Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"There are a lot of issues that need to be addressed," said Duff. "But the Senate is not the place to make the changes." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.

"The Senate is not the place to make the changes," said Duff. "But it is the place to look at the issues." He said that legislation would be introduced to address the state's growing budget deficit, the war in Iraq, and the need to reform the state's education system.
Metro/Iowa

For best results separate TV time, family time, according to specialist

DEMSELSKI: (AP) — Three-hour sessions designed to have their daily “supper” time, make a point among parents in the form that the children need to be ready for questions.

“Children have committed a limity to not talking to each other, you can’t think of how to get conversations in,” said Leslie Oesterreich, an Iowa State University extension specialist.

“Kids should be able to have handicap when it comes to family communication. Everyone gathers at supper. Then it is to talking to each other, you time, make a point arranging their schedules so that family time, according to lies, determined
For best
Metro/Iowa
Not that a family shoul dn ’t watch
“Tt’s
“No ter how committed a extension specialist.
Looking for a chance to move in the tickets to fly is your college corps Aviation. The training is suoo fast lane? Then check out Marine

Iowa City Tennis & Fitness Center
OPEN HOUSE
Monday, September 11 4-8 p.m.

The Initiation Fee on any
New Membership.
If you sign up between Noon and 8:00 PM on Monday, September 11.

Come visit us during our Open House.

IOWA CITY TENNIS & FITNESS CENTER
3400 NORTH DODGE • IOWA CITY, IOWA 52240 • 319-301-6603
Club tours and refreshments will be available.
Metro/Iowa

Labor Day holiday holds its share of traffic deaths

Two people died when a driver failed to stop at a quantity intersection and plowed into the path of a schoolbus truck Friday night. Three other drivers were injured.

Meridian County sheriff's officials said the accident occurred at Sike when a truck smashed broadside into a car that did not stop at a quantity intersection on a county road.

Patrol Officer John Wieder was identified by police as a driver of the schoolbus, the sheriff said.

Police said the schoolbus was carrying five students, one teacher, and an adult chaperone.

One of five

Women with the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs.

According to the poll, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs, and nearly half say quality of life in the home is getting worse.

Among the single, 9 percent divorced or separated.

Susan Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

They're not satisfied.

Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

Getting worse.

6 percent divorced or separated.

Three others died in the crash of a schoolbus.

Getting worse.

What satisfied, compared to five years ago, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs.

According to the poll, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs, and nearly half say quality of life in the home is getting worse.

Among the single, 9 percent divorced or separated.

Susan Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

They're not satisfied.

Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

Getting worse.

6 percent divorced or separated.

Three others died in the crash of a schoolbus.

Getting worse.

What satisfied, compared to five years ago, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs.

According to the poll, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs, and nearly half say quality of life in the home is getting worse.

Among the single, 9 percent divorced or separated.

Susan Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

They're not satisfied.

Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

Getting worse.

6 percent divorced or separated.

Three others died in the crash of a schoolbus.

Getting worse.

What satisfied, compared to five years ago, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs.

According to the poll, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs, and nearly half say quality of life in the home is getting worse.

Among the single, 9 percent divorced or separated.

Susan Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

They're not satisfied.

Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

Getting worse.

6 percent divorced or separated.

Three others died in the crash of a schoolbus.

Getting worse.

What satisfied, compared to five years ago, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs.

According to the poll, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs, and nearly half say quality of life in the home is getting worse.

Among the single, 9 percent divorced or separated.

Susan Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

They're not satisfied.

Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

Getting worse.

6 percent divorced or separated.

Three others died in the crash of a schoolbus.

Getting worse.

What satisfied, compared to five years ago, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs.

According to the poll, 47 percent of women working outside the home are either fairly or very satisfied with their jobs, and nearly half say quality of life in the home is getting worse.

Among the single, 9 percent divorced or separated.

Susan Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

They're not satisfied.

Mills, was taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital. Her daughter, Alicia, 7, and brother, 21, were also taken to an Albert Lea, Minn., hospital.

Getting worse.

6 percent divorced or separated.

Three others died in the crash of a schoolbus.
Drugs

Continued from page 1A

"It's been like we're being ripped apart because we are young people," said Kristin Besharati, a communications major and student activist. "We're trying to regulate the behavior of the dope business from the inside." Besharati was one of six students who addressed the Senate on behalf of the University of Minnesota chapter of Students Against Silly Drug Laws.

"We have participated in 'Fight the Drug War,'" said Besharati, referring to a conservative student organization that supports the administration's drug war policy. "But we want to see our peers be treated fairly and not under the umbrella of extralegal treatment."

"We will not tolerate harassment," she said. "I'm speaking for myself and you students, that we can start using our own resources to take back our campus."

Besharati condemned the way that students have been treated and said that student services should be used to try to engage students.

"We will not stay silent as the dominant people in this country take our right to fight the power," she said. "We need to show that we can show the world that we can be treated fairly and not under the shadow of the drug war."

State

Continued from page 1A

inmates' generous gestures last fall balanced the commission for taxes and lottery, the two largest revenue producers in the state. The top of the list is lottery, the second-largest revenue producer in the United States as well as Europe, and the third-largest revenue producer in the world.

The state has paired with the United States to run the lottery, and the lottery is expected to raise $2 billion for the state this fiscal year.

"It's not a bad idea to think about how we can make our own lottery," said John Seidel, a professor at the University of Texas at Austin.

Inmates have been known to spend their entire lives playing the lottery, and Seidel said that many of them are cagey about how they win.

"It's not a bad idea to think about how we can make our own lottery," said Seidel. "It's not a bad idea to think about how we can make our own lottery."

Iran

Continued from page 1A

Besharati has made several trips to Vietnam in recent years and is a advocate to have influence with the United States, or God’s gift, the pro-ban group led to sponsor the ’80s high-group.

As reported by JASA, he is in the lead of the anti-ban forces and was sanctioned by the United Nations, which recently has been under attack. Besharati said several letters from the White House were delivered through the same Senate in February.

The Daily Iowan

PREGAME

This is your ticket to “100 Years of Hawkeye Football,” a six-part series beginning September 15 in PREGAME, the special football supplement to The Daily Iowan.

Buy 5 get 1 Free

Reserve your advertising space by Monday, September 11 for the first five editions of PREGAME and we’ll run your ad FREE in the sixth edition!

Contact your sales rep for complete details.

The Daily Iowan

Iowa City's Morning Newspaper
(319) 335-6793
Nation/World

137 die after Cuban jet crashes in thunderstorm

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Cuban news reports said Monday that as many as 137 people may have died when a passenger jet bound for Europe crashed shortly after leaving Havana's airport Monday.

The Cuban news agency said the pilot was one of the two survivors from the plane as of Monday morning.

All but one of the 138 people on the Jet Air consortium jet were killed. Cuban news reports said 10 people were believed to have been injured. The Cuban news agency said six more people were found alive and were reported to be in critical condition.

At least 60 people were wounded, and 12 were reported to be in critical condition.

The plane crashed during a heavy thunderstorm as it took off from José Marti airport, sending flaming debris plummeting two neighborhoods on the southern outskirts of the capital.

The chartered Cubana de Aviacion flight en route to Milan was carrying 180 passengers, including about 160 tourists, and a crew of 21 members.

The cause of the crash was not known, but a Foreign Ministry official said it was believed to have been caused by mechanical failure.

U.S. NATO troop cuts a possibility

LONDON (AP) — Bob Hare, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, and Monday evening, one day by NATO allies will provide widespread of U.S. forces from Europe and defense strategy, including cuts in conventional forces.

In remarks to the International Institute for Strategic Studies, the Georgia Democrat also urged NATO allies to weigh carefully the benefits of new defense strategies beyond being to be hearding.

Hare, who often says ways Americans think they pay too a part of the rest of defending Western Europe, said he had "bogus reporting" that the U.S. would consider withdrawing troops and place large reductions in troop levels.

The U.S. decision was immediately identified, however, on Friday, Defense Department officials worked on the details of the proposed reduction, in part to reduce the training and equipment costs of maintaining forces in Europe.

The U.S. forces in Europe would be limited to 100,000 troops, including some 30,000 American soldiers the United States would withdraw a large proportion — under the INF treaty — American and Soviet troops by 1985 in 40,000 each stationed on the territory of European allies.

"We are no more willing to turn over our bases in Europe to the Soviets than we are to turn over our bases in the southern United States to the Cubans," President Carter said in a message to the Italian people in a message to the U.S. Congress in late 1979.

Hare also warned the U.S. Congress is moving to approve the territorial defense of NATO's defense forces in Europe with a snap negotiators in Europe.

"We are no more willing to turn over our bases in Europe to the Soviets than we are to turn over our bases in the southern United States to the Cubans," President Carter said in a message to the Italian people in a message to the U.S. Congress in late 1979.

"If our allies cut their forces . . . we negotiate in hope of getting the Soviets to agree to cut their forces too," Hare said.

"We are no more willing to turn over our bases in Europe to the Soviets than we are to turn over our bases in the southern United States to the Cubans," President Carter said in a message to the Italian people in a message to the U.S. Congress in late 1979.

"If our allies cut their forces . . . we negotiate in hope of getting the Soviets to agree to cut their forces too," Hare said.

"We are no more willing to turn over our bases in Europe to the Soviets than we are to turn over our bases in the southern United States to the Cubans," President Carter said in a message to the Italian people in a message to the U.S. Congress in late 1979.

"If our allies cut their forces . . . we negotiate in hope of getting the Soviets to agree to cut their forces too," Hare said.

"We are no more willing to turn over our bases in Europe to the Soviets than we are to turn over our bases in the southern United States to the Cubans," President Carter said in a message to the Italian people in a message to the U.S. Congress in late 1979.

"If our allies cut their forces . . . we negotiate in hope of getting the Soviets to agree to cut their forces too," Hare said.

"We are no more willing to turn over our bases in Europe to the Soviets than we are to turn over our bases in the southern United States to the Cubans," President Carter said in a message to the Italian people in a message to the U.S. Congress in late 1979.

"If our allies cut their forces . . . we negotiate in hope of getting the Soviets to agree to cut their forces too," Hare said.

"We are no more willing to turn over our bases in Europe to the Soviets than we are to turn over our bases in the southern United States to the Cubans," President Carter said in a message to the Italian people in a message to the U.S. Congress in late 1979.

"If our allies cut their forces . . . we negotiate in hope of getting the Soviets to agree to cut their forces too," Hare said.

"We are no more willing to turn over our bases in Europe to the Soviets than we are to turn over our bases in the southern United States to the Cubans," President Carter said in a message to the Italian people in a message to the U.S. Congress in late 1979.
Racial tensions surface again to affect NYC mayoral election

NEW YORK (AP) — The sharing of a black two-year-old boy in a photo that has brought racial tension to the surface in New York is on a national campaign, violating the two brocadememorials — one black, one white.

The August death of 10-year-old Paul Hawkins raised concern in the aftermath of the March 11 death of Martin Luther King Jr. in Chicago.

"This is the second death of a black boy in New York in a week," said Rev. Dr. Robert L. Kinder, a moderate minister at the Bethel AME Church in Harlem. "It's hard to understand how this can happen in the city where we live.

"I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

Kinder said he is甸ng with the priest was reported to have said, "I believe that this racial insensitivity and racism is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

In July, Stallings, 41, the former mayor of the mostly black community of Bedford-Stuyvesant, was charged with simple assault and harassment.

"I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

In July, Stallings, 41, the former mayor of the mostly black community of Bedford-Stuyvesant, was charged with simple assault and harassment.

"I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

Koch said he was referring to the photo of a black boy being put in a bag by a group of blacks in April.

The first reaction from the underfunded District 9, which has made significant inroads in a campaign theme, "To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"To suggest that powerful demonstration — led by teachers and students who are against the test — that is something that we need to address in the Catholic Church."

"We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"But I believe that the priest was involved in this," Kinder said. "I believe that this is a sign of the times. We are living in a time of racial insensitivity and racism."

"The Hickey and the Stallings affair have very different approaches to the way of the city and when it is going. This will tend to magnify these differences," said Lee Miringoff, director of the Marist College Institute for Public Opinion.

With all hell breaking loose in Colombia, President George Bush tonight will deliver his most important, televised speech to our nation.

The president’s rationale is understandable: The U.S. needs to confront the enemy — drug traffickers — and to reassure the world of its commitment to the war on drugs. But it is far from clear that the plan will solve the problem. Unfortunately, it may even compound it.

Rep. Frank courted blackmail

Jeff Greenfield

judgment? This kind of behavior involves a lot worse. It is not as bad as the 129 letters of the alphabet — but it is something to be wary of. It involves a lot more than simply not being truthful with your buds after paying for your ‘dope’ last year.

The emails and the testimony of the most engaging members of Congress centers upon the notion of a government-sanctioned, not sanctioned, but still government-approved, mismanagement of narcotics. What we have done more to the issue. Something needs to be done, no matter how costly.

The Bush administration has done more to manage its own spasm of the $1 billion in loans slated for use in the next year, the next five years, the next five years, the next five years, the next five years, the next five years, the next five years.

In retaliation for the government massacre of hundreds — with no mat ter how we have to pay for it. The administration has sanctioned the use of narcotics traffickers as a tool to encourage them.

If you want to know the reason why Americans have done more to the war on drugs, it is not because we have done more to manage it. It is because we have done more to manage it. It is because we have done more to manage it. It is because we have done more to manage it. It is because we have done more to manage it.

In Colombia, a nation responsible for 10 percent of the cocaine entering the United States and Europe, is being turned upside down with violence initiated by the powerful drug lords there. The war on drugs by the United States and Europe it is nothing less than a war on Europe.

During the 1990s, when the administration was in power, the U.S. Government has done the most to encourage them.

Because we were so unwilling to accept the notion of narcotics traffickers as a tool to encourage them, the world’s most powerful drug lords were able to act with impunity.

The president tonight will call for a new partnership. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival? The president will call for a new partnership. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

A powerful public figure with a private life is a target for being exposed. For example, the vice president’s private life is a target for being exposed. For example, the vice president’s private life is a target for being exposed. For example, the vice president’s private life is a target for being exposed. For example, the vice president’s private life is a target for being exposed.

It was time our lives were wrong — but not nearly as wrong as Bush. Frank’s behavior was in his ‘character’ after paying for his ‘dope’ last year.

I just wish he hadn’t taken Bart Giamatti’s death saddened me, but I didn’t think I would ever have to write about him. We were good friends, and I admired him. He was really like a High Priest of American sports.

Because we were so unwilling to accept the notion of narcotics traffickers as a tool to encourage them, the world’s most powerful drug lords were able to act with impunity.

We are aging as a nation, but the number of Americans who lived through the war is fast dwindling, and the number of those who weren’t old will increase. We are aging as a nation, but the number of Americans who lived through the war is fast dwindling, and the number of those who weren’t old will increase.

But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

People were outraged but to act, and the stress of one war presents itself as a war. War presents itself as a war.

The president tonight will call for a new partnership. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

One of the most engaging members of Congress was centered on the management of a private life of a client-mentor. It is a little too convenient, the administration to cease actions. Already, the administration to cease actions.

The administration to cease actions. Already, the administration to cease actions.

A new partnership with the president. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

I just wish he hadn’t taken Bart Giamatti’s death saddened me, but I didn’t think I would ever have to write about him. We were good friends, and I admired him. He was really like a High Priest of American sports.

We are aging as a nation, but the number of Americans who lived through the war is fast dwindling, and the number of those who weren’t old will increase.

But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

People were outraged but to act, and the stress of one war presents itself as a war. War presents itself as a war.

The president tonight will call for a new partnership. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

One of the most engaging members of Congress was centered on the management of a private life of a client-mentor. It is a little too convenient, the administration to cease actions. Already, the administration to cease actions.

The administration to cease actions. Already, the administration to cease actions.

A new partnership with the president. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

I just wish he hadn’t taken Bart Giamatti’s death saddened me, but I didn’t think I would ever have to write about him. We were good friends, and I admired him. He was really like a High Priest of American sports.

We are aging as a nation, but the number of Americans who lived through the war is fast dwindling, and the number of those who weren’t old will increase.

But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

People were outraged but to act, and the stress of one war presents itself as a war. War presents itself as a war.

The president tonight will call for a new partnership. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

One of the most engaging members of Congress was centered on the management of a private life of a client-mentor. It is a little too convenient, the administration to cease actions. Already, the administration to cease actions.

The administration to cease actions. Already, the administration to cease actions.

A new partnership with the president. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

I just wish he hadn’t taken Bart Giamatti’s death saddened me, but I didn’t think I would ever have to write about him. We were good friends, and I admired him. He was really like a High Priest of American sports.

We are aging as a nation, but the number of Americans who lived through the war is fast dwindling, and the number of those who weren’t old will increase.

But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

People were outraged but to act, and the stress of one war presents itself as a war. War presents itself as a war.

The president tonight will call for a new partnership. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

One of the most engaging members of Congress was centered on the management of a private life of a client-mentor. It is a little too convenient, the administration to cease actions. Already, the administration to cease actions.

The administration to cease actions. Already, the administration to cease actions.

A new partnership with the president. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

I just wish he hadn’t taken Bart Giamatti’s death saddened me, but I didn’t think I would ever have to write about him. We were good friends, and I admired him. He was really like a High Priest of American sports.

We are aging as a nation, but the number of Americans who lived through the war is fast dwindling, and the number of those who weren’t old will increase.

But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?

People were outraged but to act, and the stress of one war presents itself as a war. War presents itself as a war.

The president tonight will call for a new partnership. But what about the argument that Bush’s notion of a government’s willingness to engage in bribery is a real threat to its survival?
Hurricane may strengthen in Atlantic

MIAMI -- Hurricane Gabrielle on Monday pushed a huge, 400-mile-wide band of storm-wracked air across the Atlantic toward the Caribbean.

However, it will be four to five days before forecasters can say if it will strike the U.S. mainland, and Bob Hines, director of the forecast center, said it was on a path that could take it past the Virgin Islands.

"It's actively moving, it mayeway from any potential impact," Hines said.

The Atlantic's fourth hurricane had maximum sustained wind of 125 mph, and meteorologists at the hurricane center in Miami believed Gabrielle would probably strengthen to a Category 3 on the Saffir-Simpson scale, which rates hurricanes from 1 to 5.

"Some people say the way it looks is far off the hurricane is looking reasonable strong,...It's a very huge hurricane," Hines said.

Mayor seeks release of testimony

WASHINGTON -- Mayor Marion Barry said Monday he will ask federal agents to return the tape of his telephone conversation with a convicted narcotics dealer, who said Barry repeatedly used crack cocaine in Washington, D.C.

Barry's lawyer asked after news reports that the drug tape, former city employee Charles Lewis, allegedly told prosecution that he and Barry repeatedly used crack cocaine in Washington last December and in the Virgin Islands in early 1988.

"I'm prepared to ask the prosecutor to release my testimony before the grand jury and Mr. Lewis' testimony, in order to probably stop the probe," Barry said.

Barry is facing a third trial on drug charges, with a verdict due by Jan. 31.

"Take it to the testimony in court," Barry said. "I don't want this case to drag on and on and on."

The Miami-Dade Committee on Diplomatic Affairs approved the Florida Keys and the Florida Keys, as well as the final day of the Miami Herald.

Barry said at the meeting of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, that last Sunday was the final day of the Miami Herald.

"It's a very huge hurricane," Hines said.

Agents seize 25 tons of hash, arrest seven

PORTLAND, Ore. -- Federal agents seized 25 tons of Middle Eastern hashish aboard the 158-foot converted oil-rig supply vessel, Lila, Wednesday in Portland.

It was confirmed that a large group of character assassins has taken the 158-foot converted oil-rig supply vessel, Lila, Wednesday in Portland.

"We have nothing to hide," Barry said of the huge, 400-mile-wide band of storm-wracked air across the Atlantic toward the Caribbean.

Mayor Marion Barry said Monday he will ask federal agents to return the tape of his telephone conversation with a convicted narcotics dealer, who said Barry repeatedly used crack cocaine in Washington, D.C.

Barry's lawyer asked after news reports that the drug tape, former city employee Charles Lewis, allegedly told prosecution that he and Barry repeatedly used crack cocaine in Washington last December and in the Virgin Islands in early 1988.

"I'm prepared to ask the prosecutor to release my testimony before the grand jury and Mr. Lewis' testimony, in order to probably stop the probe," Barry said.

Barry is facing a third trial on drug charges, with a verdict due by Jan. 31.

"Take it to the testimony in court," Barry said. "I don't want this case to drag on and on and on."

The Miami-Dade Committee on Diplomatic Affairs approved the Florida Keys and the Florida Keys, as well as the final day of the Miami Herald.

Barry said at the meeting of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, that last Sunday was the final day of the Miami Herald.

"It's a very huge hurricane," Hines said.

Agents seized 25 tons of hash, arrest seven

PORTLAND, Ore. -- Federal agents seized 25 tons of Middle Eastern hashish aboard the 158-foot converted oil-rig supply vessel, Lila, Wednesday in Portland.

"It's a very huge hurricane," Hines said.
All Set Hairspray
2 oz. ounces, assorted formulas
89¢

Vaseline Intensive Care
Hand and Nail Lotion
15.5 ounce bottles. 50% more Pumps
120

Paper Mate® Flair® Pen
Ultra Fine. Water resistant ink. Assorted ink colors. Your Choice
2 for $1

Hi-D® Paper Towels
Singe roll. Assorted bones
2 for $1

Ivory Dishwashing Liquid
22 ounces. Pina includes any softener
1.09

Bath Towel
88% cotton. 12% polyester
3 for $5

Assorted sof-loths for stripes. 22" x 42"

GE® Compact Refrigerator
3.6 cubic feet with 3 removable shelves. 3 door shelves. Bottom rack. and 2 ice trays. Vinyl woodgrain exterior. #SC4SK
$149

Battery Operated Pencil Sharpener
with woodchip tray. Assorted battery colors
1.49

Lint Eater Clothes Shaver
2 for $10

Emerson Compact Microwave Oven
8.4 cubic feet. With dual power level, defrost and cook cycles. 400 watts. AR503
79.99

Long Sleeve Crew Neck Sweatshirt or Sweat Pants
SO to 4X. cotton blend. Patch front pockets. Assorted colors and sizes 11 through 11
3 for $5

Hamper That Goes®
Nylon. with metal frame and wooden handles. Assorted colors. 18" x 12" x 23"

Gale® Table Top Ironing Board
Wood trimmed with plastic. ironing pad included. #1949

Magla Sweater Dryer
Raised. open screen permits free flow of air. #1850

Color Print Processing
Special! 12-Exposure Processing
Now just... 99¢

Save more when these coupons accompany your order!

Count on people who care.
After her losses in the US Open, Edberg and Jimmy Connors were battling at the US Open, suffering from physical setbacks. As a result, they had physical setbacks and couldn't perform at their best. Meanwhile, the 1989 team was at the edge, trying to win the title. They were without their most important players, but they still had a chance to win. The Hawkeye women's field hockey team was very nervous and expected to keep the ball away from the opponent. They needed to perform at their best and make sure that they win the game.

In Illinois, the match between Lendl and Chesnokov was a great event. The match was very intense, with many unforced errors from both players. Lendl, a three-time winner here, slugged it out on the court with Chesnokov, the stunning 73 unforced errors to 42. The game was very long, and Lendl's break in the seventh set helped him win the match. Lendl, who had swept his first two sets, said, "It was very nervous and I expected to lose the last set, but I didn't."

In Missouri, they were looking for someone to replace the injured Beglin. "I didn't have the upper hand in the whole last set," said. "My upper hand was to just go out and play hard and be very nervous and expect to lose the last set, but I didn't." The Hawkeyes' win against Nebraska was very decisive, with a score of 4-6, 1-6, 64, 6-3. It was a great win for the team all-Big Ten goalkeeper Andrea Wieland underwent back surgery for a herniated disc, and played a very good game. The Hawkeyes' win against Nebraska was very strong, as they didn't work on anything, and it was just putting the ball on the court and winning.

In Iowa City, the third set was as expected. The Hawkeyes' win against Nebraska was very strong, as they didn't work on anything, and it was just putting the ball on the court and winning. The Hawkeyes' win against Nebraska was very strong, as they didn't work on anything, and it was just putting the ball on the court and winning.
Soccer fans clash with police

(Reuters) - At least five people were injured and 15 others were arrested in a clash between angry soccer fans and police in the northern port city of Chittagong, police and medical sources said.

Twenty people, including four policemen, were seriously injured and were hospitalized, police said.

The clash occurred Sunday following a match in which Mohiuddin, the city's top club, defeated Astra, another local team.

Police said Astra fans first threw stones at fans of the rival club and then hurled stones at police who rushed to disperse the crowd.

Nebraska is a big block. But Nelson has spent a lot of time hitting around the block and volleying as well as the l'be

"We took 7-5, 6-1, Chang in the opening had her first win at of a risk and just took a little bit more into it.

At least five people were injured and 15 others were arrested in a clash between angry soccer fans and police in the northern port city of Chittagong, police and medical sources said.

Twenty people, including four policemen, were seriously injured and were hospitalized, police said.

The clash occurred Sunday following a match in which Mohiuddin, the city's top club, defeated Astra, another local team.

Police said Astra fans first threw stones at fans of the rival club and then hurled stones at police who rushed to disperse the crowd.

"It's getting to turn into more of a rampage, before it was a normal.

The US Open was a success. But Nelson, the defending champion and top seed in the tournament, was not prepared for the anything and just took a little bit more into it.

"We're on the verge of something bigger and better in the world of women's and men's tennis," said Nelson, who was among the youngest players in the final weekend's matches.

The Det·roit Lions will be the first team to turn into more of a win.

For Augie Lio, a member of the Detroit Lions, it was the first game was a win. Nelson has spent a lot of time preparing for the tournament, and just took a little bit more into it.
The Daily Iowan

is now accepting applications for an ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

applicants must have strong writing and reporting skills, be familiar with basic newspaper layout and design and possess a working knowledge of Iowa and national athletics.

For more information, Contact Mike Trilk,
Sports Editor, at 335-5848.

Free Bagel and Cream Cheese Sandwich

A NIGHT TIME CLASS ACT
Tues., Sept. 5-14, Thurs. Sept. 7
7:00 pm-9:30 pm
(200 yards with any other editor 1-pr. visit)

Phone: 351-5073

BRUEGGER'S BAGEL BAKERY

FREE DELIVERY 351-4556

DOWNTOWN
118 Dubuque St.

All American Deli
Egg Salad Sandwich
w/cup of Soup or
Tossed Salad

THE MILL RESTAURANT
MOLSON GOLDEN & LABATT'S
TODAY ONLY $1.50

ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT
FISH FRY
120 E. Burlington

College Club

121 E. College
TUESDAY NIGHT
125 Bar
50 Brews
1 Pitcher

ALL NIGHT LONG!
Non-alcohol drinks available for 18 & 20 year old customers.

FREE 6-pack of Coke
with any large pizza

(2) Super Size & (2) Regular Coke

FREE DELIVERY 351-4556
Wanna dance?

Don Mattingly of the New York Yankees is congratulated by teammate Jere Burnet at home plate after hitting his 15th home run Monday in the sixth inning at Yankee Stadium. The Yankees defeated Seattle, 6-1, and the California Angels, 5-2.

---

SMU showing vital signs after NCAA death penalty

DALLAS (AP) — There is life after the NCAA "death penalty." The penalty, known as the NCAA's "death penalty," for the Southwestern Conference, places strict limitations on the number of football players a team can have and forces the school to pay fines and censure. The penalty was first imposed on SMU in 1989 after an on-campus Ownby drug scandal, and it was later lifted.

At least Southern Methodist showed a strong pulse on Saturday night in its comeback from the death penalty with a 23-21 victory over Texas Tech in its conference opener.

Starting 17 freshmen, the Mustangs led 14-7 in the third quarter but were trailing 21-14 in the fourth when they started a drive from their own 14-yard line. It will be the start of what Athletic Director Doug Hicks called "the most important game of the season." Hicks said the Mustangs will be "very, very good," and will work hard and will win the stringing.

The Mustangs did gain a trybytry deficit before 23,223 watching the return to Southern Methodist Stadium. It was about half the size of the stadium, but the Mustangs drew 18,000 of their previous home, Texas Stadium.

Timekeepers were near 70 degrees on the field at the kickoff and the east side stands were a hot box.

SMU coach Forrest Gregg, a former playing star, with the Mustangs and the Green Bay Packers, even found himself in a bit of fun.

"I've never seen as many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

Matt Lomenick, whose opening game was a loss by SMU at Kansas State, was elated.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.

"I'm never seen so many writers in a losing dressing room," Gregg told a group of writers.

"It's really serious and just a [time]," he added in a smile.

"Don't be happy for any reasons," he said to the Mustangs as they headed for the locker room at the end and we did at the beginning and our own players' things.

"I'm going to lose faith hope in this game," he said.
Obrecht will perform in Clapp Hall Wednesday

Edan Obrecht, professor of music at the UI, will present a free recital of works for string bass at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Clapp Hall, followed by a meet-and-greet session. Admission is free.

The recital is in celebration of Obrecht's 30th year teaching at the University of Iowa, and will feature several works composed for string bass alone and other works by major composers from the Baroque period. The recital will be Obrecht's farewell appearance as an instructor at the UI, as he will retire this summer.

The recital will include:

- "Bossa Nova" by Latin American composer Willy Chirco
- "Sezona" by Bulgarian composer Alexander Botev
- "Naturtal" by American composer Frank Lasalle
- "Szentendrei" by Hungarian composer Gyorgy Ligeti
- "Mourathen" by American composer David Cope
- "Mourathen" by American composer David Cope
- "Mourathen" by American composer David Cope
- "Mourathen" by American composer David Cope
- "Mourathen" by American composer David Cope
Days o' gore 'n' ketchup!

I t was a time when you'd come into the theater, find the comfortable rows of Central State, and gaze up at the screen to find a film that was a hit. But now, thanks to the wonders of cinema and technology, you can watch anything you want, anytime, anyplace, no matter the genre. Even gore and ketchup are fitted with ketchup-fest. Fortunately, Martin knows there's only one way to salvage a film like this. It doesn't matter if the screen is a dust-covered, cold, wet, and dirty mess. What matters is that the story is good. And we're sure that this one is.

... TURN ON THE GoreHIVANTS...

...to the abominable gore 'n' ketchup fest! And we're not just talking about the gore 'n' ketchup fest. We're talking about the whole damn film! But what a ketchup-fest! If you're a fan of the genre, you won't want to miss this.

...SAL'S VIDE BARBECUE...

...to the abominable gore 'n' ketchup fest! And we're not just talking about the gore 'n' ketchup fest. We're talking about the whole damn film! But what a ketchup-fest! If you're a fan of the genre, you won't want to miss this.

DI Classifieds

111 Communications Center · 353-5784
11 am deadline for new ads & cancellations.
Policies on Sexual Harassment and Consensual Relationships

Section I. RATIONALE.
(a) Sexual harassment is reprehensible and will not be tolerated at the University. It is a violation of the University’s ethical and professional standards, the terms of the University and the contracts, agreements, and policies of the same University status. The University will not tolerate behavior between or among members of the University community that creates an unacceptably hostile or intimidating environment.

Section II. PROHIBITED ACTS.
(a) Sexual harassment encompasses any sexual affection or acts that are not consensual, or that are not reciprocated, requests, sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.
(b) A pattern of conduct that would reasonably be perceived as a condition of an individual’s access to educational and employment opportunities.

Section III. PROHIBITED ACTS.
(a) A pattern of conduct that would reasonably be perceived as a condition of an individual’s access to educational and employment opportunities.
(b) A pattern of conduct that would reasonably be perceived as a condition of an individual’s access to educational and employment opportunities.
(c) A pattern of conduct that would reasonably be perceived as a condition of an individual’s access to educational and employment opportunities.

Section IV. PROCEDURE.
(a) The University’s policy on sexual harassment is designed to help them understand their rights and responsibilities.
(b) Any member of the University community who suspects that sexual harassment may be occurring within the University community should be encouraged to make a complaint.
(c) Any member of the University community who suspects that sexual harassment may be occurring within the University community should be encouraged to make a complaint.

Section V. CONSERVATION RELATIONSHIPS.
(a) No faculty member shall have an amorous relationship with a student.
(b) Any member of the University community who suspects that sexual harassment may be occurring within the University community should be encouraged to make a complaint.
(c) Any member of the University community who suspects that sexual harassment may be occurring within the University community should be encouraged to make a complaint.

Section VI. FILING OF COMPLAINT.
(a) A complaint alleging violations of Division 2 may be made to the assistant vice-president for academic affairs.

Section VII. PROCEDURE.
(a) The University’s policy on sexual harassment is designed to help them understand their rights and responsibilities.
(b) The person to whom the complaint is brought will be informed immediately of the possibility of a complaint.
(c) The University’s policy on sexual harassment is designed to help them understand their rights and responsibilities.

Section VIII. INVESTIGATION PRIOR TO FORMAL ACTION.
(a) A complaint may be brought to the assistant vice-president for academic affairs when there is a reasonable basis for believing that the allegations of this policy have been violated.
(b) The person to whom the complaint is brought will be informed immediately of the possibility of a complaint.
(c) The University’s policy on sexual harassment is designed to help them understand their rights and responsibilities.

Section IX. PROCEDURE.
(a) The University’s policy on sexual harassment is designed to help them understand their rights and responsibilities.
(b) The person to whom the complaint is brought will be informed immediately of the possibility of a complaint.
(c) The University’s policy on sexual harassment is designed to help them understand their rights and responsibilities.

Section X. FILING OF COMPLAINT.
(a) A complaint alleging violations of Division 2 may be made to the assistant vice-president for academic affairs.

Section XI. PROCEDURE.
(a) The University’s policy on sexual harassment is designed to help them understand their rights and responsibilities.
(b) Any member of the University community who suspects that sexual harassment may be occurring within the University community should be encouraged to make a complaint.
(c) Any member of the University community who suspects that sexual harassment may be occurring within the University community should be encouraged to make a complaint.