5 killed, 21 hurt
as crane crashes

BAYAN STATES—A crane collapsed this morning in the third story of a building under construction near the second and third grades at a local school, sending several cars and trucks crashing through the roof of the second floor. The building is about 500 feet from the financial district. There were no reports of anyone being injured before the collapse, but a second crane was being replaced when it was hit by a strong gust of wind. The crane was a part of a building that was under construction for a new office complex.

Jail may use electronic house arrest to alleviate overcrowding

Kohl ‘discusses’ as ‘Krenz’ rules out possibility

KENNETH MILLER BRENNER—One of the key figures in the German reunification process, former Chancellor Helmut Kohl, spoke Tuesday about the possibility of a second German reunification.

Kohl, in a speech to lawmakers, said he had not discussed the issue with current Chancellor Gerhard Schröder and had only discussed it with Kohl’s chief of staff, Wolfgang Münch, in a private meeting.

Kohl, who is one of the few individuals to have been at the start of the reunification process, said he had not discussed the issue with current Chancellor Gerhard Schröder and had only discussed it with Kohl’s chief of staff, Wolfgang Münch, in a private meeting.

Kohl said he had no plans to meet with Schröder, and no plans to meet with anyone else.

The former German Chancellor is known for his role in the reunification process, but he has not been actively involved in the current negotiations.

Nidal suffers from heart ailment

NIDHAL, Lebanon—A Palestinian terrorist who is on trial in Lebanon for attempted murder of an Israeli, has suffered a heart attack, but life is still no immediate danger, two senior LLO officials said yesterday.

Nidal, who has been on trial since his arrest last month, was sent to hospital after complaining of chest pains.

Nidal’s lawyer, who accompanied him to the hospital, said he was concerned about his client’s health.

Ul professor: Perestroika won’t realize immediate results

JON THOMPSON

The Daily Iowan

The term “Perestroika” has become synonymous with the revolution in the Soviet Union, but it has not yet been achieved, according to one of the leading experts on the subject.

Professor Yury Novik, who has been studying the issue for several years, said that while there has been some progress, it has not been enough to make a real impact.

Novik said that the Soviet Union was not ready for a full-scale Perestroika, but that the reforms were necessary for the country to move forward.

“I think that the Soviet Union is not ready for a full-scale Perestroika, but it is necessary for the country to move forward,” Novik said.

$107,154 in grants will help improve science education in Iowa schools

by Jennifer Olsen

The Daily Iowa

Two programs at the UI have been awarded $107,154 in grants to improve the science education in Iowa schools.

The University of Northern Iowa and the University of Iowa have received grants from the National Science Foundation (NSF) to help improve science education in Iowa schools.

The University of Northern Iowa has received a grant of $54,000 for a project called "Iowa Science Teacher Professional Development Program." This program will provide professional development opportunities for Iowa science teachers to improve their teaching skills and knowledge of current research in science education.

The University of Iowa has received a grant of $53,154 for a project called "Iowa Science Education Research Network." This network will provide a platform for Iowa science educators to collaborate and share research and best practices for improving science education in the state.

Santa Doesn’t Stand In Line To Send Presents—Why Should You?

by Tom Everson

The Daily Iowa

Santa doesn’t stand in line to send presents. So why should you?

Santa is able to deliver presents quickly and efficiently due to his extensive network of reindeer and his sleigh, which can travel at speeds of up to 100 miles per hour. In contrast, shipping presents from store to home can take several days or even weeks, depending on the delivery time and location. By choosing to ship your presents, you can ensure that they arrive on time and add a personal touch to your gift-giving. So why not follow Santa’s lead and enjoy the convenience of shipping your presents this holiday season?

Mercy change coming

by John West

The Daily Iowa

A December decision by the Iowa Department of Transportation to close a section of the I-80/I-35 interchange in downtown Iowa City has raised concerns among some residents and businesses in the area.

The decision to close the interchange, which is currently open to through traffic, will result in a reduction of available road space in the area. Some residents and business owners have expressed concerns about the impact of the change on traffic and access to local businesses.

The decision to close the interchange was made after a review of the transportation needs of the area. The Iowa Department of Transportation determined that the current interchange is no longer able to accommodate the volume of traffic in the area.

Mercy Hospital changes phone numbers Friday

The Daily Iowan

A December 3 change in Mercy Hospital telephone numbers should not cause any problems for patients or internal callers, said Dr. Martin, vice president for marketing.

With the new phone system, the numbers will change in phone numbers for both Mercy and Mid-Iowa.

"We will likely see new telephone numbers for individuals that will remain after the changes," Martin said. "We needed to create a new phone number that would be more capable for the business." The most important factor of the change, however, was for those trying to locate numbers, she said.

Theказалось that the change will be on Monday, with the new numbers being rolled out in the next two weeks.

Martin said that the changes will be on the new phone number.

Salvadoran politician murdered

4 guinnres responsible, 1 by bodyguard.

SAN SALVADOR (AP) - The Vatican on Tuesday announced the establishment of "peace in the city" and said that a Salvadoran politician was assassinated Tuesday. The politician, 32-year-old and unconfirmed, had been shot in a busy San Salvador market.

The politician, a former communist guerrilla, had been known for his cooperation with the government and had recently been appointed to a committee responsible for setting up a national referendum on a peace plan.

Widows and officials said the attack occurred at 8 a.m. at 1 a.m., and that Guevarra, once in the threat, escaped to drive several motorcycles in a hospital, where he was killed by a bodyguard who shot him.

The attack was the latest in a series of attacks against political figures in the country, where political violence is widespread.

Food prices will rise at slower pace

WASHINGTON (AP) - Consumer prices rose more slowly in March than economists expected, suggesting that the supply chain is beginning to normalize. The cost of living slowed to a 1.5 percent increase, up from 0.1 percent in February and below the 2.4 percent increase in December.

Consumer prices for food, textiles, medical care and energy prices were all lower in March compared to February. The largest increases were seen in rent, which rose 3.6 percent, and hotel and restaurant bills, which increased 0.8 percent.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York said that the April report showed a "positive signal" that inflation is "mildly disinflationary." The report said that "the pace of price increases in the past three months has slowed and that the underlying rate of inflation has weakened, although it has remained strong in some categories."

Banned for now

The National Football League needs to learn to live by its own rules.

According to the NFL's substance abuse policy, a player who has tested positive for cocaine in the past year is banned from playing for the entire league the following season. For a first-time violator, the NFL would suspend the player for six months before reinstating him.

Banned for life from professional football when he tested positive for cocaine, San Francisco 49ers defensive end Manny Wilkins was a familiar face to Giants fans in the 1970s.

The ban is a terrible one. The NFL should reconsider its drug policy, which is designed to protect the health and safety of its players.

Hawks hold off Bulldogs

Comeback bid falls short, 68-54

Swayne Miller
The Daily Iowan

It took a comeback bid in the last 4:00 of the game to save Thursday's game from turning into a blowout victory for the University of Iowa. But the Hawks fell short, losing to Nebraska, 68-54, in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

"I thought we played one of our worst games of the year against Nebraska," said head coach Fran Meyer. "We just didn't get pretty darn well done.

"But we just couldn't put the ball in the basket in the first half," said Meyer. "We wanted to start off well and get the lead in the first half, but instead we had a mediocre first half."

The Bulldogs, led by juniors Hales and 14 points from sophomore guard Jordan James, took an early 13-2 lead to start the game. The Hawkeyes responded with an 11-0 run to grab the lead back at 14-13.

But Nebraska came back with a 10-5 run to grab a 23-19 lead with 9:20 left in the first half. It was a game of runs throughout the first half, with the lead changing hands multiple times.

The Bulldogs dominated the first half, jumping to a 33-29 lead at the half. Nebraska outscored Iowa 20-7 in the first half.

The Hawkeyes came out of the break looking to continue their momentum, but the Bulldogs took possession of the ball and got it to the free throw line for two points.

"We were down 10 in the first half at the half, so we kind of let it go," said Meyer. "It was a good start to the second half, but we couldn't get that lead back in the second half."

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) - Brian Fenderson got a $1.6 million contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers on the night before the winter meetings ended, making the Oakland Athletics the first team to land its top free agent on the first day of a new baseball season.

The A's also included a no-trade clause in the contract, guaranteeing Fenderson's presence through the rest of his career. The 25-year-old reliever had been a key part of the Athletics' bullpen in recent years.

Campbell quits Atlanta post

HAMPSTEAD, Ga. (AP) — Atlanta Falcons head coach Dan Campbell announced the retirement of the NFL's worst coach mark. The 61-year-old Campbell, who led the team to a 1-15 record on the final day of the year, was one of the most puzzling coaches. Campbell was kind enough to add marks, whether he might be available for such a political run in the near future.

The Daily Iowan

UI Theatre will present this performance of "Aunt Dan and Lemon" through Feb. 1. The play will begin at 7 p.m. nightly and 4 p.m. Sunday. "Aunt Dan and Lemon," written in 1939 by Tennessee Williams, is one of his most controversial plays. The supporting cast includes Paula Goodrich and Greg Carter. The University of Iowa Foundation, a graduate student in the theatre program, is the director. The performance is sponsored by the University of Iowa Student Theatre Association and the UI Department of Theatre and Dance. Admission is free. Tickets for more information call 339-1042.

The Joffrey Ballet's "A Nutcracker"

The Daily Iowan

The Joffrey Ballet presented its Nutcracker on Wednesday night in the Hancher Auditorium. The ballet, which is based on a story by E.T.A. Hoffmann and music by Tchaikovsky, tells the story of a young boy who dreams of a Nutcracker and the evil Mouse King. The performance was directed by Robert Joffrey and featured the talents of dancers from across the globe. The performance was well-received by both the audience and critics, and it was a highlight of the holiday season in Iowa City.
