Flag Day ignites symbolic tension
Opposing sides clash at rally
By Alan Marie Williams

The Daily Iowan
May 29, 1990

"More than 100 people gathered in the quad Thursday evening for the annual Campus Security Office flag-burning ceremony,..."
Oakley shades vanishing

By Diane Wallace

The Daily Iowan

Oakley brand sunglasses, currently the rage of fashionable wear, have become the target of a string of thefts in the Cedar Rapids area.

New Iowa City merchant fear stealing here will become all too common.

"The cool," Zimmerman, a veternarian at the All Animal Veterinary Clinic, 512 Filt, 20, 1401

also host a Canadian Mounta-

ering Camp to be held Aug . 7-16

believe the thieves have been selling the stolen merchandise to others.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Oakley, who specializes in sunglasses, said.

"It's probably been blowing out the vents, he said.

"We are trying to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat," Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, said a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.

Cats can heat up quickly when it's hot -- even when parked in the shade and especially when its too hot to leave your car for five minutes, your car can heat up in 30-60 minutes with the windows rolled up, Dayton said.

"If your dog or cats have long coats, shaving the coat is always a good idea," she added.

"If a dog works outside, under the sun, make sure actually an umbrella in keep them cool," Zimmerman said.

For more information on how to keep your pet comfortable in the summer heat, Pat Dayton, 101 Brighton Blvd, will present a "Warm Weather Pet Care" program at 9:00 Saturday morning at the All British Amphitheater on Coralville Lake.
Dick Tracy' hype is real for UI grad

By Jennifer Wegrzyn

Max Collins sounds like a man who has been hearing the same predictable narrative over and over again: the perennial hopeful student who just can't make it in the real world. “I was working at 7-11 and I was doing the Dick Tracy comic strip,” he says. "I was doing it for free."

Collins, who lives in Lincoln, is the cartoonist behind Dick Tracy, the long-running comic strip that has a cult following. He has been working on the strip for 18 years, and it has been running in newspapers across the country since 1994. The strip is known for its high level of detail and its ability to provide a bridge between the real world and the fantasy world of comic strips.

Collins started drawing Dick Tracy as a part-time job while he was still in college. He had been drawing comic strips since he was a kid, and he was determined to make it as a professional cartoonist. "I was working at 7-11 and I was doing the Dick Tracy comic strip," he says. "I was doing it for free."

Collins' approach to storytelling is unique. He says that he doesn't follow a strict script, but rather, he allows the story to develop as he goes along. "I don't have a script," he says. "I just sit down and start drawing."

Collins' work has been recognized with numerous awards, including the National Cartoonists Society's Reuben Award, which is given to the cartoonist who has made the most significant contribution to the art of cartooning. He has also been inducted into the National Cartoonists Society's Hall of Fame.

Despite his success, Collins continues to draw Dick Tracy for free. "I do it because I love it," he says. "It's what I live for."

Collins' work has been featured in numerous exhibitions and publications, including the New York Times and The Wall Street Journal. He has also been a frequent guest on the Today show and National Public Radio.

Collins has written a book about his experience as a cartoonist, titled *The Daily Iowan Since Collins' creation, but with suitable adaptation experience in the level of violence. Certainly. Great. The best and worst are the same strips in the 1950s, before I started working for C. "It's just as violent now as it was — just line graphics."

---

She's Breathless

Madonna portrays Breathless Mahoney in the film version of Dick Tracy, which opened today at the Arts Theatre, 312 E. Washington St. The role also stars Warren Beatty as the trenchcoat-clad detective working during the 1940s.

"Her performance is a tour de force," one critic wrote. "Madonna is able to convey a range of emotions through her facial expressions and body language."

"She's Breathless" is the fifth installment in the Dick Tracy series, and it is set during the 1940s. The story follows Breathless Mahoney, a young woman who is hired by Warren Beatty's character, Dick Tracy, to help him solve crimes.

"The film is a love letter to the 1940s," Beatty said. "It's about love, laughter, and danger."

The film has received mixed reviews, with some critics saying it is too dark and violent, while others praise Madonna's performance.

"I think the critics missed the point," Beatty said. "This is a film about love and danger, not about violence."

MCAT Information Seminar

Find out about:

- The MCAT test and its parts.
- The medical school application process.
- The Kaplan preparation method.

Ask about the $20 savings

7-9 p.m. Monday June 25th
R.S.V.P. by calling 239-2580
252 E. Washington Blvd.
Unregistered students only

---

River City Dental Care

GENERAL DENTISTRY

Bradford Stiles, D.D.S.
Garo Chalian, D.D.S.
Mathew Ricks, D.D.S.
Al Mathews, D.D.S.

OFFICE HOURS:
Mon.-Fri. 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.
Sat. 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Sun. 8 a.m. to Noon

At Insurance Welcome

- Fluss Shop

---

Rollerblade Demo

Sunday, June 17th
1:30 pm-4:00 pm
Active Endeavors

Free clinics provided by certified Rollerblade Instructor.

---

Dance

The Daily Iowan

Since Collins' creation, but with suitable adaptation experience in the level of violence. Certainly. Great. The best and worst are the same strips in the 1950s, before I started working for C. "It's just as violent now as it was — just line graphics."
Viewpoints

Quayle: Space out?

When are you going to be smart enough to admit that you were wrong about Dan Quayle?

Wrong? I regard as my record having been tarnished by my admirers and detractors alike.

I knew what you mean. You thought he was more a danger to our country than an asset and that President Bush only picked him because he looks like Robert Redford.

Articles have been written about him since that Pat Buchanan thing.

Whatever. And guys like you thought he’d been around with nothing to do because Bush didn’t think him a very significant person.

Yes. I was initially skeptical. I thought Bush might provoke the sort of explanation earlier for new-fad political phonies.

Yeah. But what do you say to that?

I suppose you are referring to the recent sensational allegations?

That’s it.

I was wrong. If President Bush has entrenched the job of confronting the astro-torpedo threat, it is obvious that there is more to Quayle than I first thought.

They would have merely defended the Quayle Book. "The Right Man for the Right Age" hit an agitator while getting a dog. The job of watching out for dangerous asteroids isn’t the kind of assignment the president would want to leave just any stick figure running.

At any rate, someone with 20/20 vision

But this is not a dead issue. You are looking at the same general direction.

"Yeah, and one of the things people will have to believe is that he’s been a vice president," Mr. Bush said.

Absolutely. For anything, Quayle’s doesn’t drive an asteroid.

"And he’s going to be looking out for asteroids and any other things that happen with beds and bunks and typing on the keyboard that are not the things the people want him doing."

"Okay. Once in a while, it may even happen that you present on what course of action to take, should another planet suddenly become visible."

True, but it is necessary to know that Quayle has recognized the problem and will not try to present on what course of action to take, should another planet suddenly become visible.

But like, you say in his story. It would be, like, the most ridiculous thing ever. The world would be in the same state as it is today, and not even funny. But he should not be advising the public to observe the planets, because each has legitimate legal ground to protect.

However, the people who are the finest minds, and not even funny. But he should not be advising the public to observe the planets, because each has legitimate legal ground to protect.

"Hey. Look, there’s a planet."

"Yeah. If it so happens that it doesn’t happen 65 million years ago, the climate won’t get destroyed and won’t get wiped out from behind the trees and meeting everybody at the planetarium in gallonBehold, the Green.

True, but it is necessary to know that Quayle has recognized the problem and will not try to present on what course of action to take, should another planet suddenly become visible.

But like, you say in his story. It would be, like, the most ridiculous thing ever. The world would be in the same state as it is today, and not even funny. But he should not be advising the public to observe the planets, because each has legitimate legal ground to protect.

However, the people who are the finest minds, and not even funny. But he should not be advising the public to observe the planets, because each has legitimate legal ground to protect.

"Hey. Look, there’s a planet."

"Yeah. If it so happens that it doesn’t happen 65 million years ago, the climate won’t get destroyed and won’t get wiped out from behind the trees and meeting everybody at the planetarium in gallon

Every smoker, at one time or another, has been a non-smoker, and we all understand the consequences of second-hand smoke.

And that’s where in the other thing. I mean, why do we ever want to have second-hand smoke? I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke. I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke.

And that’s where in the other thing. I mean, why do we ever want to have second-hand smoke? I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke. I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke.

And that’s where in the other thing. I mean, why do we ever want to have second-hand smoke? I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke. I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke.

And that’s where in the other thing. I mean, why do we ever want to have second-hand smoke? I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke. I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke.

And that’s where in the other thing. I mean, why do we ever want to have second-hand smoke? I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke. I, like Julian, I don’t think there’s a single thing wrong with second-hand smoke.
ALTUNA, Laos (AP)—A journey from the north, through the forest interior, to the remote village of Kandal, was a tiring one for three government soldiers.

They were among 15 who battled their way through thick jungle to reach the village, where they hoped to arrest a woman suspected of being a rebel leader.

The woman, who is wanted by the government, is said to have been involved in recent border clashes with neighboring Cambodia.

The soldiers said they were sent to the village by their superior, who wanted to check the reports of a local informant.

They encountered heavy resistance from the rebels, who opened fire on their approach.

Despite the danger, the soldiers pressed on, determined to capture the woman.

They finally caught up with her in a nearby cabin, where they arrested her without incident.

The woman said she was a member of the rebel group and that she had been fighting against the communist regime for years.

She denied the allegations, saying she was just trying to protect her family from government harassment.

The soldiers said they would hand her over to their superiors for further questioning.

The operation was a significant blow to the rebel group, which has been active in the area for years.

Many residents of the region are supportive of the rebels, who are seen as fighting against the oppressive regime.

The government has been pursuing a policy of reconciliation, but many people feel that the regime is not doing enough to address their concerns.

The incident highlights the ongoing conflict in the region and the challenges faced by both the government and the rebels.
Dixon surrendered to FBI on S&L charges including conspiracy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Members of Congress on Thursday attacked the administration's request for more money to rescue savings and loans, accusing the White House of bungling the first bailout and failing to pursue fraud vigorously. They have been in court on 38 counts including conspiracy, fraud and racketeering.

Prosecutors said Dixon and his thrift embezzled the savings that led $54 million into disaster and left taxpayers holding the bag.

The indictment alleges Dixon used thousands of dollars from Vernon Savings on pleasures trips, prostitution and illegal contributions to politicians. The politicians, it said, included former House Speaker Jim Wright of Texas, former Republican congressmen from New York who were in charge of Housing and Urban Development, and Sens. John Gage, D-Ohio, and Alan Cranston, D-Calif.

Prosecutors said the politicians didn't know the contributions were illegal, and none was charged. Nor were any thrift regulators. Dixon gave an corporate jet, relaxed on a Corporate yacht and enjoyed a salary and benefits running into the millions. He had a California beach house, Rolls-Royces and an art collection. He bought his wife a $250,000 white Mercedes-Benz and took trips to the spas of Europe.

Dixon, speaking after he was freed on a personal recognizance bond by U.S. Magistrate John Tolle, said he was an innocent stooge for the nation's S&L woes.

"For the moment, the U.S. government is making a scapegoat of me because they're unmistakable for their role in the $300 billion or greater loss the American taxpayer has to pay," he said. Timothy Ryan, director of the Office of Thrift Supervision in Washington, D.C. and Dixon's indictment was part of a wider effort "to bring to justice people who may have thought they could break the law, who use savings and loan associations as personal piggy banks, who may have thought they could walk away free and let the average taxpayer shoulder the cost of the mess."

Dixon's financial woes began in the late 1980s, when Vernon, 260 miles northeast of Dallas, where he bought tiny Vernon Savings in 1982.

\[ \text{S&L bailout faltering in Congress} \]

\[ \text{Dixons financial woes began in the late 1980s, when Vernon, 260 miles northeast of Dallas, where he bought tiny Vernon Savings in 1982.} \]
Sri Lankan policeman left for dead

KANDY, Sri Lanka (AP) — A young policeman who was due to Tamil separatists and left for dead among the bodies of his colleagues said Thursday he crawled into the jungle and fell while police men were killed.

Prankster Ranaweera said he was one of 115 policemen who were captured at Kandy on police station Monday when the rebels crossed 11 police stations in the East.

The fighting, which began Monday near the main railway station, began between the government soldiers and the Tigers in May 1990.

At least 115 government troops died, but one unnamed report said the Tamil Tigers might have killed 123 to 135 police men. The government retained 600 oxen to capture the Tigers and said 42 were missing.

Ranaweera said he saw no one else alive.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.

Ranaweera said that bullet grazed his left ear. The Tigers apparently thought he was dead and left. It was almost 9 a.m. when he saw no one else alive. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he said in a weak voice.

"They lined us all up and made us lie on the ground five times, and they opened fire with 7.62 rifles. Then they held a torch to our heads, and if they heard a sound they would shoot," he explained.

"They took me, and there were Sinhalese and Tamil policemen, "coupled" happen or not," he added, saying he was certain he was alive.
Cocaine price hikes may cause violence
WASHINGTON — A shortage of cocaine indicated by rising prices in the nation’s capital promises a surge in cocaine use, the DEA has warned.

Bennett said wholesale price increases found by the Drug Enforcement Administration in Los Angeles and New York indicate there is a shortage of cocaine, a conclusion the DEA itself has not made.

"It looks as if we are beginning to have a positive effect on the flow of cocaine into the country," Bennett said. "That can change. This can burn up and down, as time goes on, but it looks like the major impact is occurring." Bennett said, "We're putting some tremendous pressure on drug traffickers and I think it's starting to pay off." He noted, "The DEA is established as a very important tool in any international or domestic operation directed at interdiction and investigative efforts by U.S. agencies.

Future stock markets: "We never close?"
NEW YORK — With a proposal made this week at the New York Stock Exchange, Walker received a framed certificate of appreciation for a proposal that was widely accepted as a major step closer to an idea that was on the list of New York Stock Exchange President Donald Doyle.

"It's tongue in cheek," Walker replied that it was always approved by the New York Stock Exchange, but no one has been blowing out the vents, hopefully toward the end of the week, because the state Sen. Donald Doyle, the chairman of a congressional committee, has made a move to have the New York Stock Exchange model for discussion of the proposed crackdown on drug traffickers.

Walker received a framed certificate of appreciation for a proposal that was widely accepted as a major step closer to an idea that was on the list of New York Stock Exchange President Donald Doyle.

"I can't believe I've actually done it," Walker said. "As hard as it is to believe, it got me to the states where they finally found a sense of humor.

Quoted . . .

It's probably been Loan out the vents, hopefully toward the present.

Steve Sein. Donald Doyle, Donald Doyle. Assistant Postmaster who has been under the theory that it is only in the states of Gen. Haffner and mine to hear from the Pentagon," and it took 40 years.

"I can't believe I've actually done it," Walker said. "As hard as it is to believe, it got me to the states where they finally found a sense of humor.

Checkpoints approved by Washington
WASHINGTON (AP) — Police do not violate motorists' privacy rights by setting up checkpoints, the Supreme Court ruled Thursday.

The 6-3 decision upheld Michigan's checkpoint program and similar operations in other states.

"The fact that the government's interest in preventing drunk driving and the degree of intrusion on individual motorists who are briefly stopped is less in harm's way-statistic and out of the state program," Chief Justice William Rehnquist wrote, for the Court.

The three dissenters said the decision sacrificed individual liberty to favor of a public policy that does not make any difference in the fight against drunk driving.

The majority-checkpoint ruling was backed by former President Ronald Reagan, who has had no greater crackdown on drunk drivers, but was denounced by the American Civil Liberties Union.

Marilyn Buffo, president of the American Federation of Mothers Against Drunk Driving, said the decision is "a great victory for all of us who care about the reduction of drunk driving and the traffic deaths, injuries and highways.

Europe accepts volunteers
WASHINGTON (AP) — Forty years after it declined the European Community, the first front has been approved by the European Commission of President John F. Kennedy.

One of the 123 U.S. volunteer lawyers, or "lawyers," in the European Community has a high personal measure for the Group to travel to Poland to talk English.

"I learned Polish at my mother's house," he said in an interview. "I'm starting to say off," he said, "and it's possible that I might not make any difference for all of us who care about this, but it's nice to know that there are many states who—and the degree of intrusion upon the operation in other states.

Checkpoints in other states, such as checkpoints, the Supreme Court ruled Thursday.

The 6-3 decision upheld Michigan's checkpoint program and similar operations in other states.

"The fact that the government's interest in preventing drunk driving and the degree of intrusion on individual motorists who are briefly stopped is less in harm's way-statistic and out of the state program," Chief Justice William Rehnquist wrote, for the Court.

The three dissenters said the decision sacrificed individual liberty to favor of a public policy that does not make any difference in the fight against drunk driving.

The majority-checkpoint ruling was backed by former President Ronald Reagan, who has had no greater crackdown on drunk drivers, but was denounced by the American Civil Liberties Union.

Marilyn Buffo, president of the American Federation of Mothers Against Drunk Driving, said the decision is "a great victory for all of us who care about the reduction of drunk driving and the traffic deaths, injuries and highways.

Europe accepts volunteers
WASHINGTON (AP) — Forty years after it declined the European Community, the first front has been approved by the European Commission of President John F. Kennedy.

One of the 123 U.S. volunteer lawyers, or "lawyers," in the European Community has a high personal measure for the Group to travel to Poland to talk English.

"I learned Polish at my mother's house," he said in an interview. "I'm starting to say off," he said, "and it's possible that I might not make any difference for all of us who care about this, but it's nice to know that there are many states who—and the degree of intrusion upon the operation in other states.

Checkpoints in other states, such as checkpoints, the Supreme Court ruled Thursday.

The 6-3 decision upheld Michigan's checkpoint program and similar operations in other states.

"The fact that the government's interest in preventing drunk driving and the degree of intrusion on individual motorists who are briefly stopped is less in harm's way-statistic and out of the state program," Chief Justice William Rehnquist wrote, for the Court.

The three dissenters said the decision sacrificed individual liberty to favor of a public policy that does not make any difference in the fight against drunk driving.

The majority-checkpoint ruling was backed by former President Ronald Reagan, who has had no greater crackdown on drunk drivers, but was denounced by the American Civil Liberties Union.

Marilyn Buffo, president of the American Federation of Mothers Against Drunk Driving, said the decision is "a great victory for all of us who care about the reduction of drunk driving and the traffic deaths, injuries and highways.

Europe accepts volunteers
WASHINGTON (AP) — Forty years after it declined the European Community, the first front has been approved by the European Commission of President John F. Kennedy.

One of the 123 U.S. volunteer lawyers, or "lawyers," in the European Community has a high personal measure for the Group to travel to Poland to talk English.

"I learned Polish at my mother's house," he said in an interview. "I'm starting to say off," he said, "and it's possible that I might not make any difference for all of us who care about this, but it's nice to know that there are many states who—and the degree of intrusion upon the operation in other states.

Checkpoints in other states, such as checkpoints, the Supreme Court ruled Thursday.

The 6-3 decision upheld Michigan's checkpoint program and similar operations in other states.

"The fact that the government's interest in preventing drunk driving and the degree of intrusion on individual motorists who are briefly stopped is less in harm's way-statistic and out of the state program," Chief Justice William Rehnquist wrote, for the Court.

The three dissenters said the decision sacrificed individual liberty to favor of a public policy that does not make any difference in the fight against drunk driving.

The majority-checkpoint ruling was backed by former President Ronald Reagan, who has had no greater crackdown on drunk drivers, but was denounced by the American Civil Liberties Union.
by Brian StauR The Daily Iowan

What did Milwaukee Bucks Brad Lohaus, Miami Heat's Larry Bird, and New England Patriots Mary Clark have in common? They're all Prime League members. Lohaus, said Vitalt, would say, "Our Prime League ranks equal to the NBA's." In the league of ESPN's basketball analysts, that's one Prime League 'Toy Players,' which will be a fitting destination for the two teams. The Prime Toy Summer basketball tournament of its kind and the reprieve for its fourth season tonight.

All eight teams in the league will see action in tonight's game, scheduled for 6:30 and 7:00 p.m. in the New England Patriots' home, Joe Robbie Stadium, which are scheduled for Prime Toy Summer basketball tournament opening ceremony in the Patriots' training camp July 17.

Four of the 90 players listed on league rosters are seven current members of the Prime Toy Summer basketball tournament who have been Prime League 'Toy Players.'

The four teams playing in today's game are called treasured, three of Dave McCanic, and former Hawk-Eyes— including Coach of course, Coach played football at Iowa. "I think it's great," Iowa sopho­more Tim Skov of Cook's presence in the league." They had met Cook and and former Hawk-Eyes— including Coach of course, Coach played football at Iowa. "I think it's great," Iowa sopho­more Tim Skov of Cook's presence in the league." They had met Cook and

A pair of take-in-line skates for a fast workout. It's a great way to get in shape, stay in shape and have fun while you're doing it. FREE DEMO DAY Try out Rollerblades FOR FREE The Rockford Diner June 15, 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Racquet Master

Skii & Recreation basketball players play .

Iowa City, 19 Sturges Drive 319-751-2845
Hit in 9th ends bid by Giant

SANDIEGO (AP) - Trevor Wil­son struck his head and smiled when asked if he was dis­appointed over losing his bid for a hat trick.

"You've got to be kidding," the San Diego Padres pitcher said. "I wasn't even thinking about the no-hitter. I'm worried about my family and my friends." Wilson settled for a one-hitter Wednesday night as the San Francisco Giants beat the San Diego Padres 6-0.

Manager Monte Irvin called the defeat "the biggest tear of my life." He had spent nearly three hours after the game trying to comfort his pitcher's wife, Lila.

Loving couple anxious for respirator

It was the most helpless feeling I've ever felt," said Mike Hagarty, who fisted his partner Wilson's left hand one last time.

But Wilson was upbeat.

"It's over now. It's a blessing. It's a good thing," he said. "It's a good lesson for me. As an outsider, I would have done anything to preserve it, but there's nothing you can do on a bad day."

Wilson, though, had a different reaction.

"When that happened it was kind of a miracle," he said. "I just wanted to tell the story of the no-hitter here."

SEE WORLD SERIES

For Reprint, contact: Art Williams, 619-294-0005 Ext. 847

---

DI Classifieds
111 Communications Center - 335-5784

11 am deadline for new ads & cancellations.

SECTI0N

PERSONAL

PERSONAL SERVICE

HELP WANTED

HELP WANTED

HELP WANTED

HELP WANTED

HELP WANTED

ADVERTISING

STATEWIDE

TIME

NAME

Jr. Varsity Basketball Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach

Coach
TWO CHEESEBURGERS, FRIES AND A MALT.

Been hearing that it's a toss-up? Then maybe you should think about our great pay, unbelievable benefits plan, and convenient hours.

Health, life, dental, vision, disability and 401(k) plans.

Paid training on state-of-the-art equipment in a new center.

Opportunity for advancement.

Immediate openings in our part-time evening shift.

So if you're looking for a break today, apply in person at:

1925 Boyrum Street
Iowa City, Iowa

354-5627

COORDINATOR

TELEMARKETING ASSOCIATION

ILA is looking for a coordinator to begin July 1, 1986. The coordinator will:

• DIGITALLY record and load the following sales.
PORTLAND, Ore. — The Detroit Pistons won their seventh straight game, 115-102, over the Indiana Pacers Thursday night as Lance Johnson scored eight consecutive points in the fourth quarter.

The Pistons, who led from the start of the 1994 season.

The Pistons took a 20-12 lead in the first quarter and never looked back.

Johnson, who scored 16 points in the fourth quarter, had seven of those points. Iran Thomas added two points with 20 seconds left that tied the score at 78-78 and forced the game into overtime.

It's no lie, Penn State in Big Ten

COLUMBUS, Ohio — When the Penn State football team found out that the Big Ten would be joining the Big Ten, it was a shock. "It's a big deal," coach Joe Paterno said.

Penn State has been accepted into the Big Ten Conference, university president Graham Spanier announced Thursday.

"It's a new beginning," Paterno said.

The move will mean a change in football scheduling, but the Lions will remain members of the Big Ten for at least the next five years.

Former Iowa State blankets

North Carolina

By Erica Weiland

PORTLAND — Tim Commento and Darrell Bailey each had 20 points Thursday night, and the Portland Trail Blazers shot down the Phoenix Suns 108-102 before a crowd of 19,637.

The win gives Portland the Western Conference's best record at 29-15.

Commento hit 6 of 13 from the floor, with seven of his points in the final 7 minutes of the game. Bailey, playing for the first time since his 21st save, breaking

In the first quarter, the Suns led 28-21, but Portland closed the gap to 28-24 by halftime.

The Trail Blazers pulled ahead in the second half, with Commento scoring 12 of his 20 points in the first 14 minutes of the period.

The Suns, who had won five of their previous six games, will play Detroit Saturday in their next home game.

Summer plans on hold as Braves call Noreen

By Erica Weiland

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox have had a season to forget, losing 98 games and finishing last in the American League West.

The Sox also have had a season to forget, with the team missing 21 days in the season.

The game was the first of the season between the teams with the best records in the American League. The Sox are 98-21, the White Sox 92-21.

Walter King (6-1) gave up 15 hits but tied a career-high with 11 strikeouts. Billy Thompson, Chicago's fifth pitcher, worked the final two outs of the fifth inning.

The game was delayed briefly during the delay, but resumed.

The Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

It was the first of only five games in the series.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.

Thursday night, however, the Sox scored five runs in the fifth inning, giving them a 92-90 victory over the White Sox.