Kohl, Gorbachev agree to NATO membership for Germany

By Mark Pendergast
The Associated Press

BERLIN (AP) - German Chancellor Helmut Kohl and Soviet Leader Mikhail Gorbachev agreed Monday that Germany should soon become a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and Kohl said Monday he would ask the German Parliament to begin ratifying a new defense pact.

"I have the impression that this is the start of a new phase in East-West relations," Kohl told reporters.

The two leaders met Monday in their first summit in Berlin
since they agreed to sign the pact that will transform Germany into a unified nation.

"I can only say that I'm very pleased and proud," Gorbachev said.

The agreement was a great step forward in East-West relations, Kohl said.

"I think we were able to make an important statement to the world, that the time of division and socialism is over," Kohl
said.

MacArthur Fellowships awarded to 2 Iowans

By Lindsay Tanner
The Associated Press

Chicago — The MacArthur Foundation announced Monday that Kent Korshak of Des Moines and Thomas Kuehn of Iowa City have been awarded MacArthur fellowships. The fellowships are given to people whose work is distinguished and innovative and who are expected to make lasting contributions to society. The fellowships, which carry a stipend of $500,000, are intended to provide recipients with the freedom to pursue their own ideas. The MacArthur Foundation is known for its "Genius Grants," which have been given to a wide range of individuals, including artists, scientists, educators, and entrepreneurs. The fellowships are awarded to individuals who have shown exceptional creativity in their work and have the potential to make significant contributions to society. The MacArthur Foundation is a private, semi-independent charitable trust founded by Leonard and Helen R. MacArthur. It has a mission to advance creative, independent thought on behalf of the public good. The foundation supports a range of activities, including the arts, education, and public policy. It is one of the largest foundations in the United States, with assets of over $10 billion. The MacArthur Foundation has a long history of supporting excellence and innovation, and its fellowships have become a symbol of the foundation's commitment to fostering the growth of new ideas and talents.

New film short-shares viewers

By Steve Cruse

"Quick Change," the new independent comedy starring Bill Murray, is in its second week of release. People are affectionately saying, "Look at the goin's on!"

The film opens with a robbery at a local bank. It is a situation where the bank teller, played by Murray, returns a few minutes later to re-open the store. Murray, who is wearing a suit and tie, begins to talk to the teller, saying, "Hey, what happened?"

The teller responds, "I don't know what you're talking about." Murray then starts to explain his plan to rob the bank.

"Quick Change" is Murray's first film in over a year. He recently starred in "Groundhog Day," which was a critical and commercial success.

The film is directed by Rob Reiner, who also directed "When Harry Met Sally." "Quick Change" is set to release in the United States next month, with plans for a worldwide release later in the year.

Annual Fox press tour offers food, fun, free Bart watches

By Deborah Hastings

LOUISVILLE — First came the complimentary dinner, then the dessert, then the drinks. And finally, the Fox executives announced at the annual press tour that there would be free Bart watches for everyone in attendance.

"It's a way to thank our loyal audience for their support," said Bart, the Fox mascot.

The event was held at the Louisville Slugger Museum and Factory, where guests were treated to a variety of food and drink, including a special lunch of "Fox's Favorite Things." Attendees also had the opportunity to tour the museum and factory, where they could see the history of the baseball and the people who made it.

Bart watches were given to everyone in attendance, regardless of whether they were fans of Fox or not. The watches were personalized with the recipient's name, and they included a special message from Bart: "Thank you for watching Fox."
Ukrainians pass radical declaration

By Brian Friedman

The Associated Press

The parliament of the Ukraine, the Soviet Union's second-most populous republic, adopted

a declaration of sovereignty Sunday.

Following the lead of Lithuania, it formally vowed never again to recognize a Soviet government, which does not take account of its wish to be 'independent and prosperous' in its own right.

The Interior Ministry's lawyer said the silent opposition of the Interior Ministry spokesman was not an act of defiance but a restatement of the old position, at least of its attitude.

The Interior Ministry's lawyer also said:

"By adopting the declaration, the Interior

Ministry is not recognizing a new government, but is expressing its desire to be independent and prosperous in its own right."

Central Park jogger gives testimony

By Rebecca Mead
The Associated Press

NEW YORK — The woman known in the media as the jogger and who fingered novelist Johnston Kibler as her attacker has now been identified as Stacie Adams.

Adams was in court Friday to testify about the incident she said happened on May 5, 1989, in Central Park. She said she was attacked by a man with a knife who said he was going to rape her.

Adams said she was attacked near the Central Park Reservoir and that she was later taken to a nearby hospital.

Adams said she was also attacked by another man who had beaten her and told her he was going to kill her.

Adams also testified that she had seen a man who looked like Kibler and that he had spoken to her before the attack.

Kibler has been charged with rape and other crimes in connection with the attack.

The trial continues.

Douglas-King bout to go the distance

By Larry Williams
The Associated Press

NEW YORK — James "Butler" Douglas and his late pal Tyronn, opponent, promoter Ben King, finally agreed on something Monday: They have not settled a date which would get the heavyweights together.

"Douglas has not fought since his stunning Feb. 10 knockout of champion Mike Tyson," Douglas said.

Basically, it's still being talked about: If and when it's settled, it will be something we are happy with," said Johnson. "The one thing I can say right now is King was wrong. He is wrong, and he will be wrong in this case.

Douglas was addressing the court about the $5 million of the match option which is available for the first time this year.

"The situation remains this: I've talked to our attorneys, I've talked to Douglas and Ben King. But there has been no date set," said John Rayburn, a spokesman for Ben King Productions.

Douglas attorney, Stan Hunter, said King was wrong. "Douglas has not fought since his stunning Feb. 10 knockout of champion Mike Tyson," Douglas said.

Douglas said he was forming for the shock-heated promoter said Monday that when will valid a legal victory over the going King, there was definitely no Douglas did so.

SEATTLE - The first plans carrying Soviet citizens to the United States for a 10-day visit were announced yesterday, but there is no guarantee that the Soviets will be able to come to the city.

Soviet officials expressed hope that the plans would be approved, but said that the trip is subject to a number of conditions.

The visit is expected to include a tour of Seattle's attractions, including the Space Needle and the Museum of Pop Culture.

Soviet officials have said that they are interested in visiting the city as a way to promote tourism and cultural exchange.

"We really want them to see America as an unsecured country," said Mr. Sokolov. "People greets the Soviets, will not allow them to visit any of our cities, for example.
