Thousands of Soviet rally, demonstrate in Moscow

Rally
Activists demonstrate for Palestinian people. Page 3A

LA officers ordered to stand trial. Page 5A

DI pays tribute to Engle, poetry. Page 9A

Men's swimming 9th after first day. Page 1B

Partly Sunny
High 42, low 18
Winds 10-20 mph.

The Daily Iowan
Iowa City's Morning Newspaper
Friday, March 29, 1991

Thousands defy ban, demonstrate in Moscow

Fire ravages embassy in Moscow

By Andrew Katzel
The Associated Press

MOSCOW — A fire that reportedly started in the kitchen on Thursday has destroyed America's most important diplomatic post in the Soviet Union at a time of heightened tensions between the two countries.

The fire in the basement, which began in the kitchen of an American Embassy apartment, destroyed the embassy's kitchen and the entire apartment building.

The fire, which was first reported by the state news agency TASS, was said to have been caused by an electrical fire in the kitchen.

A spokesman for the embassy said that the fire had been extinguished by American officials at the embassy.

The fire caused no injuries, and the embassy was not on fire at the time of the incident.

The fire broke out in the kitchen of an apartment on the fourth floor of the embassy.

The apartment is used by the American ambassador, who lives in the embassy.

The embassy has been on the board for 10 years, but added it was not sure how long it would take to rebuild the building.
Mr. Angry enrages Ames high-school officials

The Associated Press

Ames (Iowa) - A media tycoon character played by an anonymous Des Moines man has made some people very angry, officials in Ames said.

"Mr. Angry has caused a lot of trouble," said Ames High principal Halpenny Tucker.

Mr. Angry is featured as part of the "West Side Story," which is being performed in the school's auditorium. The show opened Monday night, and several jokes about Ames High students were included.

Dale Brophy, a Des Moines man described by someone as a "dandy," said Mr. Angry has high principal Halpenny Tucker.

The jokes include a scene where Mr. Angry accuses a student of cheating on a test.

"I'm not going to tell anyone what happened," Mr. Angry said, according to Tucker.

Another joke included a reference to the state of Iowa, and one joke referred to an investigation in the state of Nebraska.

"I don't know what happened in Nebraska," Mr. Angry said, according to Tucker.

Mr. Angry's performance has caused some controversy in the school district.

"We're concerned about the language," said Tucker.

The jokes are not meant to be offensive, Tucker said.

"I don't think they're offensive," Tucker said.

The jokes also include references to regional events, such as a basketball game.

"I don't know about that," Mr. Angry said, according to Tucker.

Mr. Angry's performance has caused some controversy in the school district.

"I don't think they're offensive," Tucker said.

The jokes also include references to regional events, such as a basketball game.

"I don't know about that," Mr. Angry said, according to Tucker.

Mr. Angry's performance has caused some controversy in the school district.

"I don't think they're offensive," Tucker said.

The jokes also include references to regional events, such as a basketball game.

"I don't know about that," Mr. Angry said, according to Tucker.

Mr. Angry's performance has caused some controversy in the school district.

"I don't think they're offensive," Tucker said.

The jokes also include references to regional events, such as a basketball game.

"I don't know about that," Mr. Angry said, according to Tucker.

Mr. Angry's performance has caused some controversy in the school district.

"I don't think they're offensive," Tucker said.

The jokes also include references to regional events, such as a basketball game.

"I don't know about that," Mr. Angry said, according to Tucker.
Migrant camps approved

By Anne Marie Williams

The Daily Iowan

Activists gathered on the Pentacrest Thursday afternoon to announce that the Iowa City Planning and Zoning Commission has approved the new tent camps they have been setting up in the park. The commission voted 10-0 to approve the permits that will allow the camps to exist.

The decision comes after a long battle between the activists and the Iowa City Council, which had previously voted against the permits. The activists have been working on the project for several months and have received support from local residents and community leaders.

By Cynthia Taylor

The Daily Iowan

In answer to the discovery surrounding the UI's two incinerators near the Iowa River, the Iowa House has passed two bills which favor incinerators, the Iowa House has passed two bills which favor incinerators in the county. However, Jim Walters, a member of the Iowa House, said he would support the bills, stating that he believes the incinerators are needed.

By Steve Flaharty

The Daily Iowan

The Iowa House on Thursday voted to ban the burning of medical waste. The bill, sponsored by Rep. Joe Bolkcom, requires that all medical waste be disposed of in incinerators, which are designed to destroy the waste. The bill passed with a vote of 91-3.

By Ann Strang

The Daily Iowan

At issue was the question of management. A new bill, sponsored by Rep. John Schwartz, requires that the incinerator be managed by a group of local residents, who would be appointed by the city council. The bill was passed with a vote of 91-3.

By Steve Flaharty

The Daily Iowan

A new bill, sponsored by Rep. Joe Bolkcom, requires that all medical waste be disposed of in incinerators, which are designed to destroy the waste. The bill passed with a vote of 91-3.

By Steve Flaharty

The Daily Iowan

A new bill, sponsored by Rep. Joe Bolkcom, requires that all medical waste be disposed of in incinerators, which are designed to destroy the waste. The bill passed with a vote of 91-3.

Palestinian backers rally on Pentacrest

By Joe Bolkcom

The Daily Iowan

Activists gathered on the Pentacrest Thursday afternoon to announce that the Iowa City Planning and Zoning Commission has approved the new tent camps they have been setting up in the park. The commission voted 10-0 to approve the permits that will allow the camps to exist.

The decision comes after a long battle between the activists and the Iowa City Council, which had previously voted against the permits. The activists have been working on the project for several months and have received support from local residents and community leaders.

By Chris Polaskas

The Daily Iowan

Concern covers the ever-present issue of pesticides and for this reason it is very important to be aware of the rules and regulations that are in place.

Pesticide use causes stir at board meeting

By Chris Polaskas

The Daily Iowan

Concern covers the ever-present issue of pesticides and for this reason it is very important to be aware of the rules and regulations that are in place.

House passes strict regulatory bills on incinerators

By Cynthia Taylor

The Daily Iowan

In answer to the discovery surrounding the UI's two incinerators near the Iowa River, the Iowa House has passed two bills which favor incinerators, the Iowa House has passed two bills which favor incinerators in the county. However, Jim Walters, a member of the Iowa House, said he would support the bills, stating that he believes the incinerators are needed.

By Steve Flaharty

The Daily Iowan

The Iowa House on Thursday voted to ban the burning of medical waste. The bill, sponsored by Rep. Joe Bolkcom, requires that all medical waste be disposed of in incinerators, which are designed to destroy the waste. The bill passed with a vote of 91-3.

By Ann Strang

The Daily Iowan

At issue was the question of management. A new bill, sponsored by Rep. John Schwartz, requires that the incinerator be managed by a group of local residents, who would be appointed by the city council. The bill was passed with a vote of 91-3.

By Steve Flaharty

The Daily Iowan

A new bill, sponsored by Rep. Joe Bolkcom, requires that all medical waste be disposed of in incinerators, which are designed to destroy the waste. The bill passed with a vote of 91-3.

By Steve Flaharty

The Daily Iowan

A new bill, sponsored by Rep. Joe Bolkcom, requires that all medical waste be disposed of in incinerators, which are designed to destroy the waste. The bill passed with a vote of 91-3.

By Steve Flaharty

The Daily Iowan

A new bill, sponsored by Rep. Joe Bolkcom, requires that all medical waste be disposed of in incinerators, which are designed to destroy the waste. The bill passed with a vote of 91-3.
Don't get stuck with your apartment this summer...
Advertise your sublet in
The Daily Iowan
Apartment Hunter's Guide
Let 29,000 University of Iowa students know that your apartment is available. The Daily Iowan will publish the Apartment Hunter's Guide on Friday, April 5. Copy deadline is Tuesday, April 3 at 5 pm.

UI library's leaky roof ruins over 800 books

By Chris Peterson
The Daily Iowan
Over 800 books at the UI Main Library have been damaged in the past week, thanks in a combination of rainy weather and heavy reading.

William Stern, coordinator of Housing and Facilities for the UI, has estimated that over 700 books have been damaged by the roof. With the roof still leaking, the books will remain in the library.

"We've had leaks for over 15 years," he said. "This is a typical problem for any building with a flat roof."

The leaks are usually repaired in the late spring of each year, he said. When winter begins, the cold weather causes the gutters to freeze. The water cannot drain into the gutters and damage the books. Those books are more difficult to repair when the weather is warmer and rain occurs again in the spring.

Destruction caused by old age has been the main cause of books in the bad condition, said James Christian, director of the UI Physical Plant. "People have problems with the book, and the book becomes unrepairable."

The roof was scheduled for major repairs a couple of years ago, but for several reasons the work was never done, he said. "The project was delayed because of funding problems," he said.

The roof is not funded by a large sheet of clear plastic, which is used to drain water away from books and into water-tight plans on the roof.

Stern said the arrangement has caused many "unnecessary" problems. "It really makes approaching the maintenance and trying to ease the collection very awkward," he said.

Cathy Larson, UI Libraries, said each leak must be taken off the shelf, lifted by hand and dried. While drying books must be continually checked to make sure the work is done properly, Larson said.

"It's a very labor-intensive pro-

Animal welfare discussed at IC Public Library

By John P. Waterhouse
The Daily Iowan
Animal welfare and the role of animal rights were discussed at the Iowa City Public Library last night.

The discussion was sponsored by the Cedar Rapids chapter of PETA First, an organization opposed to animal rights activities.

"We don't think animal rights is a viable idea," Waterhouse said.

Mark Gillette, chairman of the group's lobbying committee, said, "The animal rights movement gains public support. If we stop leasing, animals will suffer even more damage due to the exploitation."

The meeting discussed the issue of animal rights in research and testing.

By the Cedar Rapids chapter of PETA First.

"We are in the animal world," Waterhouse said. "We are in the animal world, and the people are in our society."

By the Cedar Rapids chapter of PETA First.

By the Cedar Rapids chapter of PETA First.

By the Cedar Rapids chapter of PETA First.

By the Cedar Rapids chapter of PETA First.

By the Cedar Rapids chapter of PETA First.
Police officers to stand trial in beating incident

By Linda Deutsch

LOS ANGELES — Four police officers accused of beating black motorist Rodney King in a videotaped incident were ordered to stand trial in connection with the case.

The officers agreed to the trial date in a brief court appearance, but a debate over whether to set an earlier date was held up.

Don Wilkerson, a Los Angeles police spokesman, said he was not sure of the trial date.

A motion to quash the charges might seek a change of venue for the murder trial, but a court date was set for Tuesday.

The hearing was held in the Los Angeles police station where the murder trial was held.

The officers were ordered to stand trial in the case because they are being dogged by the videotape.

The Associated Press

Mayor unable to remove Gates

By Deborah Hastings

The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — Because black and white are alive to the world, Los Angeles Police Officer Tom Bradley was not allowed to ride in a parade.

Now he is in the spring's the mayor of the nation's largest city, and still will see how they can do it when it comes to removing Police Department officers.

Like Los Angeles Police Chief Daryl Gates.

If only that, especially to elected officials in other parts of the country, especially to Chief Daryl Gates.

Mayor Bradley said in his interview Wednesday, "The position that the mayor does not have the power to sleep."

Under the city charter, only the civil rights and community groups' findings of misconduct or neglect of the city.

Gates has not been fired for the videotape beating March 3 of black motorist Rodney King. He was killed with nightsticks,\n
Sgt. Stacey Koon, 26, and Officers Shстанавли   13 for the beating, which was tapes are being dogged by the videotape.

Halliday, 30, said that since he said the videotape to a television station for $800, "I haven't been able to make my own decides."

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

40, said that the mayor doesn't have the power to sleep.

Gates has been under fire over the videotaped beating March 3 of black motorist Rodney King. He was killed with nightsticks,\n
Under the city charter, only the civil rights and community groups' findings of misconduct or neglect of the city.

Gates has not been fired for the videotape beating March 3 of black motorist Rodney King. He was killed with nightsticks,\n
Sgt. Stacey Koon, 26, and Officers Shстанавли   13 for the beating, which was tapes are being dogged by the videotape.

Halliday, 30, said that since he said the videotape to a television station for $800, "I haven't been able to make my own decides."

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

40, said that the mayor doesn't have the power to sleep.

Gates has been under fire over the videotaped beating March 3 of black motorist Rodney King. He was killed with nightsticks,\n
Sgt. Stacey Koon, 26, and Officers Sh StringSplitOptions the beatings, which was tapes are being dogged by the videotape.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.

"It's all I know about," said one of two officers who spoke on condition of anonymity.
Health clinic sues abortion protesters

By Jennifer Inserra
The Daily Iowan

Five of the 11 anti-abortion demonstrators found guilty of criminal trespass in the small claims division of the Johnson County District Court Thursday face a money judgment action filed against them in the small claims division of the Johnson County District Court.

District Judge Steven L. Mullins ordered that the original arrest warrants be issued against five of the 11 protesters who were charged following an abortion protest in November. The protesters were named as defendants in a civil suit filed last year by the Women's Clinic of Dubuque, located at 428 W. Dubuque St., in Dubuque District Court.

District Judge Steven L. Mullins, in a written order, said the original arrest warrants were issued against five of the 11 protesters who were charged following an abortion protest in November.

The protesters were named as defendants in a civil suit filed last year by the Women's Clinic of Dubuque, located at 428 W. Dubuque St., in Dubuque District Court.

UI professor speaks on Middle East peace

By William Ittner
The Daily Iowan

Ron Honey, professor of geography at the UI, spoke to the Alternatives Support Group, a group for family and friends of people serving in the Gulf, about "Requirements for a long-lasting peace in the Middle East" at an informal meeting Thursday night.

Honey said the Middle East suffers from a number of problems, and that each country in the region can only try to help the "other people." Honey also spoke about the great popularity President Bush has gained from the war.

"If our nation is going to have to do it to take the incredible wealth they own and use it toлюбожать, we have to be Americans right now," Honey said. He added other less prosperous countries in the region, such as Jordan, resent the Kuwaiti wealth and feel the war with Iraq was "a war between rich and poor." He said that the Middle East is in need of a new economic order if it is to stay open for another hour.

Honey also spoke about the great popularity President Bush has gained from the war.

"General Bush really demonstrates really feel good to be Americans right now," Honey said.

Cook Book Sale 20% off

All cookbooks through March 31, 1991.

The largest cookbook selection in town from The Coyote Cafe to Jane Brody to Iowa City's Galloping Prune Gourmet.

We're walking in Iowa City. University faculty members help us

New lower prices
Silva, Goaz reflect on 'Peaks'

By Susan Dudley

K-

e view BOB has the n looking for a pentis is not that
"We really need to
mend this thing
Corbett...but it's attorney that was in a black leather jacket, t’s wearing a chambray shirt, struction of the

in a fair amount of audience

Winter's...but that's what k I'm not sure if we're eek...will it be a

l of the play

eek, will it be a

15-19

The Apple Trade-Up

People who can’t

l with electricity

let us know.

Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Company
3605 Lower Mountain Road

229LC, before April 3.

Get more computing power? Trade in your old system and peripherals.

Need more computing power? Trade in your old system and peripherals at the Apple Trade-Up, April 15-19. Most brands and models accepted. Add some dollars of your own. And get an advanced new Apple/Macintosh system. With more speed. Color. Expandability. And all the power you need to stay ahead.

Pick up your Information Packet today at Weeg Computing Center, room 229LC, before April 3. Call 335-6008 for your current system's trade-in value.

Available to University of Iowa students, faculty, staff, and departmental use.

Make Your Appointment NOW! Call 335-6008

The power is in your hands.
Old ghosts

The rules of democracy may be dangerous at times, Chile's President Patricio Aylwin experienced the peril of the democratic process firsthand in 1973. The conservative army commander-in-chief, Augusto Pinochet, publically announced a coup d'état on September 11, 1973. The country was in turmoil, and President Aylwin was forced to flee the country. Now that the crimes committed by leftist terrorists in Chile have been publicly addressed, the commission that could lead to such an end has been established. Pinocbet, in a public statement on Wednesday, denounced the rule briefly haunted by threats to democracy.

Viewpoints

Mike Royko

I admit that when it all began, I was on Jesus Trump's side. I was a die-hard supporter of the first Black president of the United States. Many of his successors are not. Indeed, I had planned to write a book about the early days of the Trump administration. It was to be called "The Rise of the Left." However, I have since come to the conclusion that a better title would be "The Rise of the Right." This is known as the Babel effect. And the Babel effect is a powerful tool in the hands of those who would use it to their advantage.

As the nation prepares to vote, I urge you to consider the words of the late Michael Harrington, a socialist, who said: "Willingly or unwillingly, I have had to stand in the cold for which I changed my political side. But he would return when I had no idea what to do."

Mike Royko's recent columns appear on Fridays and Saturdays at the Chicago Tribune and in the Chicago Sun-Times.

Guest Opinion

Michael Pearlson

Though I have not been able to see the secret bank account that is said to be worth $10 million to pay Trump's legal fees, it is clear that the US and its allies have been using the US dollar as a weapon to destabilize and undermine the economies of other countries. But it is also clear that the US is not the only country that has used the dollar as a weapon. In fact, the dollar has been used as a weapon by many countries, including China, Russia, and Iran.

When I attended the Chicago Teachers Union's annual meeting, I was initially quite skeptical about the possibility of the US playing a role as a global power. However, I was quickly convinced after seeing the level of support for the Trump administration and hearing the rhetoric that it has been using to try to undermine the US dollar. It is clear that the US is not the only country that has been using the dollar as a weapon, and it is likely that the US will continue to use the dollar as a weapon in the future.

Guest Opinion

Mike Royko

It is often argued that the US dollar is a weapon in the hands of the US government and its allies. However, it is also clear that the US dollar is a weapon in the hands of the US government and its allies. In fact, the US dollar has been used as a weapon by many countries, including China, Russia, and Iran.

When I attended the Chicago Teachers Union's annual meeting, I was initially quite skeptical about the possibility of the US playing a role as a global power. However, I was quickly convinced after seeing the level of support for the Trump administration and hearing the rhetoric that it has been using to try to undermine the US dollar. It is clear that the US is not the only country that has been using the dollar as a weapon, and it is likely that the US will continue to use the dollar as a weapon in the future.

Guest Opinion

Michael Pearlson

Though I have not been able to see the secret bank account that is said to be worth $10 million to pay Trump's legal fees, it is clear that the US and its allies have been using the US dollar as a weapon to destabilize and undermine the economies of other countries. But it is also clear that the US is not the only country that has used the dollar as a weapon. In fact, the dollar has been used as a weapon by many countries, including China, Russia, and Iran.

When I attended the Chicago Teachers Union's annual meeting, I was initially quite skeptical about the possibility of the US playing a role as a global power. However, I was quickly convinced after seeing the level of support for the Trump administration and hearing the rhetoric that it has been using to try to undermine the US dollar. It is clear that the US is not the only country that has been using the dollar as a weapon, and it is likely that the US will continue to use the dollar as a weapon in the future.

Guest Opinion

Mike Royko

It is often argued that the US dollar is a weapon in the hands of the US government and its allies. However, it is also clear that the US dollar is a weapon in the hands of the US government and its allies. In fact, the US dollar has been used as a weapon by many countries, including China, Russia, and Iran.

When I attended the Chicago Teachers Union's annual meeting, I was initially quite skeptical about the possibility of the US playing a role as a global power. However, I was quickly convinced after seeing the level of support for the Trump administration and hearing the rhetoric that it has been using to try to undermine the US dollar. It is clear that the US is not the only country that has been using the dollar as a weapon, and it is likely that the US will continue to use the dollar as a weapon in the future.

Guest Opinion

Michael Pearlson

Though I have not been able to see the secret bank account that is said to be worth $10 million to pay Trump's legal fees, it is clear that the US and its allies have been using the US dollar as a weapon to destabilize and undermine the economies of other countries. But it is also clear that the US is not the only country that has used the dollar as a weapon. In fact, the dollar has been used as a weapon by many countries, including China, Russia, and Iran.

When I attended the Chicago Teachers Union's annual meeting, I was initially quite skeptical about the possibility of the US playing a role as a global power. However, I was quickly convinced after seeing the level of support for the Trump administration and hearing the rhetoric that it has been using to try to undermine the US dollar. It is clear that the US is not the only country that has been using the dollar as a weapon, and it is likely that the US will continue to use the dollar as a weapon in the future.

Guest Opinion

Mike Royko

It is often argued that the US dollar is a weapon in the hands of the US government and its allies. However, it is also clear that the US dollar is a weapon in the hands of the US government and its allies. In fact, the US dollar has been used as a weapon by many countries, including China, Russia, and Iran.

When I attended the Chicago Teachers Union's annual meeting, I was initially quite skeptical about the possibility of the US playing a role as a global power. However, I was quickly convinced after seeing the level of support for the Trump administration and hearing the rhetoric that it has been using to try to undermine the US dollar. It is clear that the US is not the only country that has been using the dollar as a weapon, and it is likely that the US will continue to use the dollar as a weapon in the future.

Guest Opinion

Michael Pearlson

Though I have not been able to see the secret bank account that is said to be worth $10 million to pay Trump's legal fees, it is clear that the US and its allies have been using the US dollar as a weapon to destabilize and undermine the economies of other countries. But it is also clear that the US is not the only country that has used the dollar as a weapon. In fact, the dollar has been used as a weapon by many countries, including China, Russia, and Iran.

When I attended the Chicago Teachers Union's annual meeting, I was initially quite skeptical about the possibility of the US playing a role as a global power. However, I was quickly convinced after seeing the level of support for the Trump administration and hearing the rhetoric that it has been using to try to undermine the US dollar. It is clear that the US is not the only country that has been using the dollar as a weapon, and it is likely that the US will continue to use the dollar as a weapon in the future.

Guest Opinion

Mike Royko

It is often argued that the US dollar is a weapon in the hands of the US government and its allies. However, it is also clear that the US dollar is a weapon in the hands of the US government and its allies. In fact, the US dollar has been used as a weapon by many countries, including China, Russia, and Iran.

When I attended the Chicago Teachers Union's annual meeting, I was initially quite skeptical about the possibility of the US playing a role as a global power. However, I was quickly convinced after seeing the level of support for the Trump administration and hearing the rhetoric that it has been using to try to undermine the US dollar. It is clear that the US is not the only country that has been using the dollar as a weapon, and it is likely that the US will continue to use the dollar as a weapon in the future.
I cannot ask my tongue to cheat the eye

Engle's work covered many themes, topics

The Daily Iowan

Following are excerpts from the poetry of Paul Engle, a 1948 Iowa Writers Workshop graduate and director of the Iowa Writers Workshop and translator of Elizabethan literature and a Creative Writing Program, who died last week at age 85.

Lon Grolll, on

All students, faculty, rebate credited to your through Hillel by March 30. Students who have meal contracts can receive a

The Iowa City Press-Citizen

Dr. Robert E. Martin (337-4607) or Charlotta (337-8888),

Washington 337-4703, or Iowa Memorial Union, $3.00; Ticket.

Begin your exhibition

Authentic Indonesian Dinner Saturday, March 30 at

William Snyder

Endorsement of the Iowa Writers Workshop; Engle and his wife, Hadding Hall, in 1972.

Washington 337-4703, or Iowa Memorial Union, $3.00; Ticket.

Begin your exhibition

Authentic Indonesian Dinner Saturday, March 30 at

William Snyder

Endorsement of the Iowa Writers Workshop; Engle and his wife, Hadding Hall, in 1972.

Washington 337-4703, or Iowa Memorial Union, $3.00; Ticket.

Begin your exhibition

Authentic Indonesian Dinner Saturday, March 30 at

William Snyder

Endorsement of the Iowa Writers Workshop; Engle and his wife, Hadding Hall, in 1972.
Waterloo TV anchor questions quality of Gulf war coverage
By Les McNee
The Daily town
From a newsroom standpoint, the Persian Gulf war was in Bayeux’s 'really great experience.' Bayeux anchor for KSWL-TV, the network affiliate in the Northwest, directly from Beirut, Lebanon, and after all the allied air strikes began, she spent Thursday at the KTWV in reporting the Persian Gulf war.
Although she did not think the news past came easy, the American military allowed almost complete coverage of the war, she said. She was easy for journalists to get inspiration, with the availability of alternatives to past coverage is difficult, she added.
"The media would have to be so greedy, we would need to be in a position that's not the same," she said.
During America’s invasion of Vietnam, journalists accompanied soldiers in the field and were less restricted in the events they could report. Because news people were of the more aggressive aspects of the invasion, they were often turned against the administration and the soldiers, Bayeux said.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.

Koop
...told poll, concerns about health care, with 11% in the list for 'prescription,' he said.

Fire
Rally
would offer pogo sticks or a spaghetti gun that would be able to pitch a long distance.
Bo knows surviving his critics

There are always individuals who speak on themselves in third person, a chronic sentiment towards the subject himself. A third-person view of the subject often lacks direct lines of communication with the real world. The subject, in this case, did not go out of his way to go in wholehearted, but the third-person view is an attempt to speak with a neutral voice.

Hawks hope home is kinder than road

By Erica Weiland

Hawks were on the road in Illinois

The Hawks are on the road in Illinois, as they head to the Illini for a crucial conference game. The Illini are a difficult team to face, but the Hawks are confident in their abilities to pull off a victory.

When the Hawks last played the Illini, they were coming off a tough loss to Iowa. Now, they face a more formidable opponent in Illinois. The Illini are a top team in the conference, but the Hawks are determined to prove that they can compete with the best.

The Hawks are looking for a win to boost their confidence and momentum. They know that they have the ability to compete with Illinois, and they are determined to show that they can do it.

No savings gymnastics selected for NCAA meet

Valenzuela gets ready after dodger win

By Michael Watkins

The Iowa volleyball team is off to a promising start this season. Last weekend, they swept the Western Illinois and the Illinois State for a four-match win streak. The Hawks are now ranked 24th nationally and are looking to continue their impressive run.

The Hawks' victory over Western Illinois was their fourth consecutive win, marking their highest win streak of the season. The victory was an important one, as it helped solidify their position as a top team in the conference.

The Hawks' win against Illinois State was their third win in a row, and it was a crucial victory for their confidence and morale. The Hawks are now 11-2 overall and 6-0 in conference play.

The Hawks' performance in the last two matches has been impressive, and they are looking to continue their momentum as they enter the remainder of the season. They will face tough competition in their upcoming matches, but the Hawks are confident in their abilities to succeed.

The Hawks' 24th national ranking is a testament to their hard work and dedication. They have been pushing themselves to the limit in practice, and it is paying off in their performances on the court.

The Hawks' next match will be against the University of Northern Iowa, a team that they have struggled against in the past. However, the Hawks are determined to put in a strong performance and come out with a win.

The Hawks' success this season is a result of their strong team chemistry and commitment to each other. They have been pushing each other to be their best, and it is showing in their performances on the court.

The Hawks' coaching staff has done a great job in guiding the team, and the players have responded with their hard work and dedication. They are looking to continue their success as they enter the remainder of the season.

Softball

through the left side of the infield. The Hawkeyes scored their first run of the game on a wild pitch and plated two more on a triple down the right field line by first baseman Chris Draves. Bauer cured Ecke's slump with a deep fly to right.

The Hawkeyes led 3-0 after four innings, with wins coming on seven hits and two errors by the Pirates.

Tennis

The Andy Roddick, a top-10 player in the men's standings, was the first to fall in the singles matches. The No. 2 doubles team of Alonzo and Ramirez also lost.

"Heading into the Big Ten part of the season," Keefe said, "we expect to be competitive."
Malignant Stanford takes NIT

By Bob Demerow
The Associated Press

NEW YORK — Stanford coach John Wooden said his team has no business being in the National Invitational Tournament, but its performance in the second round was convincing.

"They come to play every day and they're the ones we have to beat," Wooden said. "Our team is going to have to do better than it did the other night."U good

The Cardinal's 78-72 victory over Oklahoma did a good job of taking the pressure off Stanford, which was coming off an 87-85 loss to Iowa. Tubbs and Keefe, two of the Cardinal's top players, were both held to single digits in the first half.

"We were the victims of a couple of bad calls," Tubbs said. "I thought we had a chance to get back in the game but it just didn't happen."U good

If this game proved anything, it's that Stanford can't afford to take Iowa too lightly. The Jayhawks, who were seeded 10th in the tournament, were hard to beat. They were lost only 3-for-10 from the field in the first half and Wingate had 12 of his team's 23 points.

"They had a great game plan and executed it," Wooden said. "We were out of step for the first 15 minutes of the game and then we came back and had a couple of chances to get back in it but they just couldn't go through our defense and made a lot of mistakes."U good

The Cardinal's biggest threat came in the form of Tubbs, who had a game-high 20 points. Wooden said Tubbs didn't play his best game, but he's still one of the best players in the country.

"He had a game-high 20 points," Wooden said. "I think he's capable of doing that every night."U good

The other Cardinal who had a big game was Keefe, who scored 18 of his 21 points in the second half. Keefe said he was happy with his performance.

"We were the victims of a couple of bad calls," Tubbs said. "I thought we had a chance to get back in the game but it just didn't happen."U good

If this game proved anything, it's that Stanford can't afford to take Iowa too lightly. The Jayhawks, who were seeded 10th in the tournament, were hard to beat. They were lost only 3-for-10 from the field in the first half and Wingate had 12 of his team's 23 points.

"They had a great game plan and executed it," Wooden said. "We were out of step for the first 15 minutes of the game and then we came back and had a couple of chances to get back in it but they just couldn't go through our defense and made a lot of mistakes."U good

The Cardinal's biggest threat came in the form of Tubbs, who had a game-high 20 points. Wooden said Tubbs didn't play his best game, but he's still one of the best players in the country.

"He had a game-high 20 points," Wooden said. "I think he's capable of doing that every night."U good

The other Cardinal who had a big game was Keefe, who scored 18 of his 21 points in the second half. Keefe said he was happy with his performance.

"We were the victims of a couple of bad calls," Tubbs said. "I thought we had a chance to get back in the game but it just didn't happen."U good

If this game proved anything, it's that Stanford can't afford to take Iowa too lightly. The Jayhawks, who were seeded 10th in the tournament, were hard to beat. They were lost only 3-for-10 from the field in the first half and Wingate had 12 of his team's 23 points.

"They had a great game plan and executed it," Wooden said. "We were out of step for the first 15 minutes of the game and then we came back and had a couple of chances to get back in it but they just couldn't go through our defense and made a lot of mistakes."U good

The Cardinal's biggest threat came in the form of Tubbs, who had a game-high 20 points. Wooden said Tubbs didn't play his best game, but he's still one of the best players in the country.

"He had a game-high 20 points," Wooden said. "I think he's capable of doing that every night."U good

The other Cardinal who had a big game was Keefe, who scored 18 of his 21 points in the second half. Keefe said he was happy with his performance.

"We were the victims of a couple of bad calls," Tubbs said. "I thought we had a chance to get back in the game but it just didn't happen."U good

If this game proved anything, it's that Stanford can't afford to take Iowa too lightly. The Jayhawks, who were seeded 10th in the tournament, were hard to beat. They were lost only 3-for-10 from the field in the first half and Wingate had 12 of his team's 23 points.

"They had a great game plan and executed it," Wooden said. "We were out of step for the first 15 minutes of the game and then we came back and had a couple of chances to get back in it but they just couldn't go through our defense and made a lot of mistakes."U good

The Cardinal's biggest threat came in the form of Tubbs, who had a game-high 20 points. Wooden said Tubbs didn't play his best game, but he's still one of the best players in the country.

"He had a game-high 20 points," Wooden said. "I think he's capable of doing that every night."U good

The other Cardinal who had a big game was Keefe, who scored 18 of his 21 points in the second half. Keefe said he was happy with his performance.

"We were the victims of a couple of bad calls," Tubbs said. "I thought we had a chance to get back in the game but it just didn't happen."U good

If this game proved anything, it's that Stanford can't afford to take Iowa too lightly. The Jayhawks, who were seeded 10th in the tournament, were hard to beat. They were lost only 3-for-10 from the field in the first half and Wingate had 12 of his team's 23 points.

"They had a great game plan and executed it," Wooden said. "We were out of step for the first 15 minutes of the game and then we came back and had a couple of chances to get back in it but they just couldn't go through our defense and made a lot of mistakes."U good

The Cardinal's biggest threat came in the form of Tubbs, who had a game-high 20 points. Wooden said Tubbs didn't play his best game, but he's still one of the best players in the country.

"He had a game-high 20 points," Wooden said. "I think he's capable of doing that every night."U good

The other Cardinal who had a big game was Keefe, who scored 18 of his 21 points in the second half. Keefe said he was happy with his performance.

"We were the victims of a couple of bad calls," Tubbs said. "I thought we had a chance to get back in the game but it just didn't happen."U good

If this game proved anything, it's that Stanford can't afford to take Iowa too lightly. The Jayhawks, who were seeded 10th in the tournament, were hard to beat. They were lost only 3-for-10 from the field in the first half and Wingate had 12 of his team's 23 points.

"They had a great game plan and executed it," Wooden said. "We were out of step for the first 15 minutes of the game and then we came back and had a couple of chances to get back in it but they just couldn't go through our defense and made a lot of mistakes."U good

The Cardinal's biggest threat came in the form of Tubbs, who had a game-high 20 points. Wooden said Tubbs didn't play his best game, but he's still one of the best players in the country.

"He had a game-high 20 points," Wooden said. "I think he's capable of doing that every night."U good

The other Cardinal who had a big game was Keefe, who scored 18 of his 21 points in the second half. Keefe said he was happy with his performance.

"We were the victims of a couple of bad calls," Tubbs said. "I thought we had a chance to get back in the game but it just didn't happen."U good

If this game proved anything, it's that Stanford can't afford to take Iowa too lightly. The Jayhawks, who were seeded 10th in the tournament, were hard to beat. They were lost only 3-for-10 from the field in the first half and Wingate had 12 of his team's 23 points.

"They had a great game plan and executed it," Wooden said. "We were out of step for the first 15 minutes of the game and then we came back and had a couple of chances to get back in it but they just couldn't go through our defense and made a lot of mistakes."U good

The Cardinal's biggest threat came in the form of Tubbs, who had a game-high 20 points. Wooden said Tubbs didn't play his best game, but he's still one of the best players in the country.

"He had a game-high 20 points," Wooden said. "I think he's capable of doing that every night."U good

The other Cardinal who had a big game was Keefe, who scored 18 of his 21 points in the second half. Keefe said he was happy with his performance.

"We were the victims of a couple of bad calls," Tubbs said. "I thought we had a chance to get back in the game but it just didn't happen."U good

If this game proved anything, it's that Stanford can't afford to take Iowa too lightly. The Jayhawks, who were seeded 10th in the tournament, were hard to beat. They were lost only 3-for-10 from the field in the first half and Wingate had 12 of his team's 23 points.

"They had a great game plan and executed it," Wooden said. "We were out of step for the first 15 minutes of the game and then we came back and had a couple of chances to get back in it but they just couldn't go through our defense and made a lot of mistakes."U good

The Cardinal's biggest threat came in the form of Tubbs, who had a game-high 20 points. Wooden said Tubbs didn't play his best game, but he's still one of the best players in the country.

"He had a game-high 20 points," Wooden said. "I think he's capable of doing that every night."U good

The other Cardinal who had a big game was Keefe, who scored 18 of his 21 points in the second half. Keefe said he was happy with his performance.
Barkey spits, NBA suspends

Philadelphia forward Charles Barkley has been suspended by the NBA for one game and fined $15,000 for spitting on a fan in a New York game Tuesday night.

Barkley has always been strong of those

The incident occurred in the first quarter of the game against the New York Knicks, and Barkley was ejected from the game.

This is not the first time Barkley has been suspended by the NBA. In 1990, he was suspended for spitting on a fan in a game against the Chicago Bulls.

Barkley was not available for comment after the game.
Let kids have their violent fun

Wahlberg denies torching hotel

The Associated Press

BLACK HILLS, S.D. - New Kids on the Block lead singer Donnie Wahlberg denied charges he stabbed vandals on a hotel carport with a T-Bird and put the T-bird on fire. Wahlberg, 21, was arrested Wednesday night and booked in Rapid City. He was released on $10,000 bond. Wahlberg faces charges of assault and vandalism.

Comic strip creator to take 9-month break

The Associated Press

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - The world-famous strip "Calvin and Hobbes," created by the late Bill Watterson, is taking a nine-month break.

Jimm's Journal

By Jim

As I am coming to the beginning of the year, it is the time to get the year off to a good start.

Crossword

Edited by Eugene T. Macluske

The Daily Iowan — Friday, March 29, 1991