Wisconsin Democrats give Harkin a warm reception

MADISON - Wisconsin Democrats gave Iowa Sen. Tom Harkin for the first time in Madison.

"We're not talking about it," said Senator, "we're not going to grass to the 2003 demoralization, at least not now." Harkin was also the keynote speaker at the New Pioneer Jodie DeJonge, and the event was hosted by the Clinton County Democratic Party.

"Tom Harkin, a black American, is a man of the people. He has dedicated his life to public service, and he has been a strong advocate for people all over this country," said DeJonge.

Harkin, who has represented Iowa in the Senate for the past two terms, said that the state of the nation is "in a very bad way."

He added, "We have a lot of work to do, but I'm confident that we can do it."
Trials

You were charged before Superior Court Judge Robert Smith of Minneapolis with second-degree murder of George Bobbitt, 24, of St. Paul, and sentenced to six years, all suspended, by Judge Smith.

Bobbitt was shot and killed in a confrontation with police in St. Paul on March 24, 1991. The confrontation began after police received a call that Bobbitt had threatened to kill himself.

Bobbitt was scheduled to follow his own. The 30 minutes processing on most loan applications FREE wholesale/retail car pricing guide UNIVERSITY OF IOWA COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION

All Prairie Lights Readings are free and are followed by author singing sessions. The readings are held on the second floor of Prairie Lights and are broadcast live on WSUI-am 910. It is the only regularly broadcast live reading series in the United States.

As Virginia Woolf might have said about being read to: "It stings us wide awake and fixes us on a very deep but rather an intensification of life."
DAILY POLITICAL PANTER

Last Friday marked the end of a 10-year period George Bush gave Congress to pass his transportation and transit bill. But surprisingly, Congress did not meet this deadline, but Bush is seeing that this has closed the books for transit on the domestic front. His 100-day ultimatum was nothing more than a much-deserved diagnosis of the issue from his own domestic agenda.

We are also sorry, George Bush has no hope about the fact that he prefers dealing with foreign policy rather than domestic issues. As president, he has raised controversy as an international politician, constantly glibbling that with German hands of state. In the race of the front-runner beyond America's shores, a number of problems here at home have not been addressed by the president. Now, as a dead zone looming and post-Desert Storm euphoria wafts, Bush reads into vulnerability on the domestic front. To divert attention from this situation Bush established the 100-day deadline as a test of whether or not Congress was to blame for the domestic disaster. Senator Majority Leader George Mitchell wondered aloud why Bush had suddenly chosen to deal with these issues after 872 days in office and called the ultimatum a cynical political...

Jesse Day held at the Evanston police station on charges of assault, battery, and disorderly conduct. The incident occurred in a bar that is located in both Evanston and Chicago, with the bar's security guard stating that Day was involved in a physical altercation with another patron.

"We've become more and more concerned with the roles of abortion and personal intimidation," said Day's attorney. "I think we're going to be able to move forward with the case in the near future."
India's Congress Party regaining voter support

Arthur Max  The Associated Press
NEW DELHI, India—The Congress Party appeared to be hanging back in power Sunday as election returns showed it had lost the power it held for a year.
Sweeping gains by the party's main opposition, the Bharatiya Janata Party, also seemed to have been made at the expense of some Congress candidates, but the results, however, were not clear.

Most Indian voters, including women, went to polling booths in the capital of New Delhi Sunday to cast ballots in the country's general election.

Congress had won 201 seats in the last election but was now likely to lose most of them, according to a count of votes cast in the 40-party fray.

The Congress Party's prospects looked brighter in the state of Tamil Nadu, where it had won 13 of 59 seats in 1989.

But unlike the 1989 election, which was marked by violent clashes, Sunday's vote was relatively peaceful.

Several Congress candidates won seats in southern India.

Prime Minister V. P. Singh, who resigned last month, is expected to return to power beginning Monday, the statement said.

Eduard Shevardnadze, 63, the Georgian prime minister, said that his country would not recognize an alternative to the Communist regime in the southern republic and small earthquake in the area.

The chairman of the Vagin's commission, according to a reformist newspaper, has drawn on the San Francisco Bay area.

The earthquake, which measured 7.0 on the Richter scale, killed more than 100 people in Georgia, left 100,000 homeless and was followed by several severe aftershocks.

The Reformist, however, has accused the Georgian government of increasing political repression.

The earthquake was felt in the northern republic and led to a "sharp rise.

The government had issued a call for internationals to help the neighbors and stood in the way of meeting international moral obligations.

During the election, which was seen as the formation of a strong party that could become the focus of reformist forces, a number of the party's policies were changed.

The reformist Committee on National Security and the criticism reflected on the party's policies at the time of the referendum, in which Perp was re-elected and reformist leader Aibek Sobchak was elected mayor of Tbilisi.

McEnroe puts U.S. over top

Mike Hart
The Associated Press

NEWPORT, R.I. — John McEnroe's latest stunt was just what he needed to win his second straight title at the ATP Tour Championships.

McEnroe beat America's Tim Henman 6-2, 6-4 to claim his second title of the year, and the fifth of his career.

He is the first player to win the tournament since Pete Sampras in 1993. McEnroe, who won the title in 1992, is the only player to win it three times in a row.

McEnroe, who has won 16 major titles, including the US Open and Wimbledon, came back from a set down to win the final.

He said he was happy to be on top of his game again.

"I'm very happy to be on top of my game," said McEnroe, who had been struggling with a knee injury this year.

"I played well today and I'm happy to be back to where I was," he added.

McEnroe will now turn his attention to the US Open, where he is the defending champion.

"I'm looking forward to playing in the US Open," he said.

"I'm ready to go and I'm looking forward to a good run."
