Budget cuts impose major changes

Budget and Physical Facilities Coordinator William Sykes said, "We've had to reduce general expenditures in almost every department." The 3.25 percent statewide budget reduction rate about 8 percent from the library's operating R.S. million budget for personnel and advisory services. "We're rationing in every way," Sykes added.

Reductions spark controversy

Ann Riley, Daily Iowan

Students returning for the start of summer classes tomorrow will notice a thinner, trimmer UI. The number of classes, faculty and student services are just a few of the areas that are being cut under the state-wide UI budget reductions, said Dave Sykes, director of physical facility.

"We're going to have a significant impact on the university's operating budget," Sykes said. "The first round of cuts stemmed from the original fiscal year 1992 budget, presented by the UI to the state board of regents last June. UI President Hunter Rawlings presented the board with a list of those budgets, each indicating a reduction," Sykes said.

Before the 1981 and initial 1992 budgets were cut, UI president, Rawlings said, "we were spending in all areas-30 contracts workers and 40 professional and staff workers. Rawlings warned the board that the UI has a significant impact on the university and its operations, and determined how the cuts could best be implemented without major reductions to the UI.

The Hawkeye Hello will continue through Thursday.

Iowa City welcomes incoming students

Eric Detlefsen, Daily Iowan

The first annual Hawkeye Hello will be held for new UI students in the union this fall due to a key change in the UI libraries system's $6.3 million budget. Director Barbara Dewey said.

"We're stepping up activity to preserve the union - Kazakhstan President Nursultan Nazarbayev and central power - a woman welcomed to Amber Heath. No, it will not be the same. The 3.25 percent statewide budget reduction rate about 8 percent from the library's operating R.S. million budget for personnel and advisory services. "We're rationing in every way," Sykes added.

Laughlin: 'Where's our Yeltsin?'

The actor/director speaks Wednesday in Iowa City on the search for strong Democratic candidates.

Steve Cruse

The 1992 presidential election probably won't include any down-to-earth kinds of nuts-and-bolts patches, but it may have the next best thing: Billy Jack himself.

Tom Laughlin, who played karate-fingered peace advocate Billy Jack in a string of box office successes during the 1970s, will speak on campus Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom. The event is free and open to the public. The screening is at 7 p.m. and the Q & A follows.

Laughlin's goal, he says, is to lead national and local leftist candidates to enter the Democratic campaign.

"Yeltsin," he says. "My position is to show that there is another way and then have someone come out and stand for it.

"There in the USSR comes nine months and two days into the latest of the six presidential campaigns."

"I gave up on this country was loneliness, and that was the final straw in the country."

Iowa State Fair officials ask residents for funds

The foundation wants to raise $30,000 to help the fair repair its crown. We're just not going to let a little thing like that stop us.

Kathie Horn said. She saw artist A.J. Lutter.

This brings the total number of UI foundations and endowments to $7,264,871 from the revised fiscal year 1991 budget.

The fair has made many improvements in recent years, but it's not clear what weather the leadership is most interested in. The governor said it is in the state's best interest to cement ties with the Soviet Union, but said it's not clear whether the leadership is most interested in fast-moving events to make the visit productive.

We've had record attendance the last two years.

ARE YOU FED UP?

If you have been turned off by politics because you feel locked out of the political system ...
If you feel your vote has no meaning — at best a choice between Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee ...
If you feel government is insensitive to the urgent needs facing this country because it has become a government of professional insiders controlled by powerful lobbyists and monied special interest groups ...

NOW — FINALLY — THERE IS SOMETHING YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT.

Tom Laughlin, the star and creator of the Billy Jack films, has developed a series of remarkable reforms that will give citizens the ability to take government back from the political insiders and restore it to the American voter.

Mr. Laughlin’s exciting reforms give citizens — for the first time — direct control over their elected officials, and even more important, direct control over how their tax dollars will be spent.

If you would like to hear political ideas you have never heard from any Presidential candidate, if you would like to learn how to once again get political control over your elected representatives and financial control of your tax dollars, come and hear Mr. Laughlin’s exciting new ideas.
Army tries to avert mobilization

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia — The Yugoslav army ordered additional Croatian forces with tanks and strike planes to be on the border Monday, and Yugoslav news media reported at least seven people were killed in the fighting.

The federal presidency said Monday it is mobilizing additional forces to strengthen its security forces, amid other emergency signs that President Franjo Tudjman may be given the Yugoslavia army attacked outgunned Croats. Federal soldiers killed and wounded at least 40 people over the weekend, and at least 10 people were missing.

President Milan Milosevic said Monday he is mobilizing forces in the conflict with Serbs, who are demanding a statewide referendum on Serb independence. The Serbs want to make Serbia a more federal state, with more power over the Serb-dominated federal army.

The army is said to have driven its tanks and strike planes to the border Monday, but reports of fighting continued into the night. The army said it was ready to use more troops.

The army said it has mobilized 50,000 federal soldiers to deal with the Serbs. The army said it has ordered a special forces unit to the border.

The army has not said what it plans to do. But news reports said the army wants to mobilize forces immediately. The army said it is planning a major push with army backing in the next three days.

Lightning sparks fires in Montana's parks, forests

Landmarks in the Paradise Valley National Forest south of the Flathead River wereercicioing a 24-hour show when lightning strikes to the east of the river triggered a wildfire.

Voices of the forest were heard from the back of the crowd as the forest firefighters' spokesman said, "It's an amazing event, a wonderful event." But the forest fire was also a reminder of the destructive power of nature.

The residents of the forest area have been discussing the fire's impact on their lives. One resident said, "I've lived here for 20 years and this is the first time I've seen a fire like this." Another added, "It's a wake-up call to the importance of fire prevention and management."

Erickson: Elbow is no excuse

David Golenker

Baltimore — Mathias drain was still swollen late Wednesday but not enough to keep Orioles pitcher Dave Erickson out of Thursday’s game.

"It’s not a problem," Erickson said.

The left-hander will start against the Minnesota Twins in a game moved up two days because of the All-Star break.
