Cholesterol drug reduces stroke risk

The Daily Iowan

Researchers at the UI College of Medicine and UI Hospitals and Clinics have found that a cholesterol-lowering drug may reduce the risk of strokes and heart attacks.

The drug Lovastatin slows or reduces the building of plaque in the arterial walls of people with moderately elevated cholesterol levels, according to the researchers.

The Daily Iowan

The second major benefit of this drug is that it allows physicians to measure small differences in plaque build-up in the arteries over time and name the response to treatment, Corson said.

In atherosclerosis, cholesterol and fat, known as plaque, collect in the arteries and can cause heart attacks and strokes, the researchers said. The drug Lovastatin reduced the level of bad cholesterol and early death in the country, respectively.

The drug also is important for letting people know more about the U.S. military, Vanderhoef said. "It's nice to remember the people who have served in the military and demonstrated a minimum of 10 years of community service to Iowa City, Cedarville or Johnson County.

The Veterans Affairs Medical Center also has activities planned for its patients, and Annie Taffe, spokesperson for the medical center, said, "It's a special day for veterans." She said, "They get a special meal and a number of events. We get a lot of different people who visit the medical center.

In addition, the center has an avenue of flags on Veterans Day. It's the second annual flag. "They're in memory of all the veterans throughout the day," Taffe said. "It's really beautiful."

Phoenix plans for new baseball stadium

Paul Davenport
Associated Press

PHOENIX — Phoenix franchise owner Jerry Colangelo said Monday that he is building a stadium to attract a major league baseball team, emphasizing "anomalously delicate" signals that they’ve had two teams since.

"For the entire nation, which would have a noticeable roof and grass, depend in Maricopa County entering a quarter-cent sales tax increase for up to seven years, Colangelo said.

Baseball has not officially established an expansion timeline. It has no commitment to add teams, whether in Phoenix or anywhere else, but a spending tantalizing signals, Colangelo said citing the proposed realignment of the American and National leagues this division realignment each.

Bob figi, the Milwaukee Brewers owner who chairs the ruling executive council, has said and there aren’t any plans to expand.

Colangelo said he wants to present a proposal to owners by year’s end and that he would like the county to tentatively enact the tax by early December. In anticipation of baseball's last round of expansion, the state legislature in 1989 authorized the county to enact the tax increase, but only after a franchise is awarded.

"It’s the policy, it’s not sports, timing is everything," Colangelo said. "It appears means major league baseball, now in the time to move." County Board of Supervisors Chairman Jim "Moe" Rodgman said Colangelo's wants more outside America West Arena, later was controversial about whether to move, but tentatively enact the tax increase but said Colangelo's timeline was flawed.

In Phoenix, county and city sales taxes combined, including a 1/2 percent increase approved by Phoenix that takes effect Dec. 1. The Dial Corp, a Phoenix-based corporation whose products include Brock sheep and Dial soap, would be the lead investor, Colangelo said. Dial soap would be the lead investor.

"It is a part of any compromise. Dial is also a part owner of the team."
Holtz hopes to turn the tables

Florida State freshman place kicker Scott Bentley celebrates a successful field goal Oct. 2. Bentley was recruited by both Notre Dame and the Seminoles, who play each other Saturday.

"It's Lou's element. No. 1, he's underdog and he wins. No. 2, he's got an extra week to get ready. And No. 3, they're a team without a weakness," he said.

"Florida State is the most impressive team I've ever coached against," he said.

"They're a team without a weakness and they're a team on a mission. They're capable of beating anybody in the country by 40 points," Holtz added.

Holtz's only win over Bowden was in the 1972 Peach Bowl when N.C. State defeated Florida State 43-7. Holtz was a graduate assistant under Bowden in 1970.

"We're not the most competitive team in the world," Bowden said. "But I still haven't forgotten that game."

"We're more of a roll-the-sleeves-up kind of guy. But they've got great athletes this one has on offense makes me a better quarterback," Holtz said.

"I'm sure he still hasn't forgotten that game," Bowden said.

"But I still have five children at the house, and that's all they needed on the field. They didn't need any more backup," Bowden said.

"They're very similar in many ways," the younger Holtz said. "They're both fundamental, technique coaches who stress fundamentals and tackling."

"Coach Bowden is more laid back and relaxed, while coach Holtz is more of a go-getter. He's got more experience behind size and strength over finesse."

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — The Irish don't look good for second-ranked Notre Dame in Saturday's showdown against No. 1 Florida.

And it's not just because Florida State leads the nation in笺 haben defense (44.5) and scoring defense (2.2). The Seminoles have also been playing for their professional careers.

"The defending national champs have a lot of adrenaline on their side," said Ohio State defensive end James Dunn.

Florida State's defense could provide a real problem for Notre Dame's offense. The Seminoles possess perhaps the strongest pass rush in the country, with defensive ends Cass Trent and Jarrad Davis leading the way.

"We're not worried about their offense. We're focused on our offensive game plan," said Ohio State quarterback Troy Smith.

The Seminoles have allowed just 14 points in their last two games and are currently ranked No. 9 in the Associated Press poll.

Ohio State, on the other hand, has struggled offensively, averaging just 10.5 points per game in its last two contests.

Notre Dame's defense, led by linebacker Ryan Kerrigan and cornerback Dee Milliner, is trying to stop a Seminoles offense that averages 38.6 points per game.

"They're a great team, but we're not worried about them," said
Ohio State coach Jim Tressel.

The Buckeyes are coming off a 35-21 win over Maryland last week, but they are also dealing with injuries to their running back and quarterback positions.

"We have some concerns about our running game," said
Tressel. "But we're confident in our passing game."
Philadelphia takes Perry

Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA - The Philadelphia Eagles claimed tackle William "Refrigerator" Perry Wednesday in an effort to bolster their shaky run defense. The Chicago Bears wanted the 355-pound lineman Tuesday after nine years with the team. He was fourth among active men with 43 tackles, including eight this year. He took a break in March and returned to practice Monday.

"I think he has to help us under the circumstances," Kotite said. "We're glad to get him."

"I was convinced someone else would get to him. We certainly need help inside."

"He was an all-time favorite to play in short-yardage situations on the Bears out of Clemens in the first round of the 1986 NFL draft."

Check Daly averaged 17.7 points and added four free-throw attempts in the 1995-96 season. He signed a two-year, $1.5 million deal to return.

The Board of Governors is expected to vote this week on a plan that would give the worst team a 3-in-4 chance of winning the first overall pick in the 1995-96 season.

The current odds are 1-in-200 for the worst team and 1-in-48 for the best team.
