Despite faculty raise, UI pay ranking drops

Jen Snyder

The Daily Iowan

Despite a 2.5 percent pay raise this year, the UI faculty isn’t any better off against its competitors, a report released Friday revealed.

The average faculty salary at the UI compared with schools with similar demographics is now $60,824, according to the report released Friday by the Municipal Employees union.

The report said that without the faculty raise, the average faculty salary at the UI would still be below that of many other similar schools.

The report highlighted that the UI’s raises have not kept pace with other universities.

Opposing Sex Act Policy

Planners hope film fest exposes homophobia

Brad Hahn

The Daily Iowan

Members of the UI Campaign for Academic Freedom will hold a rally before the Senate meeting and then walk to the Senate Chambers.

The group is protesting the regents’ decision to implement a policy requiring UI faculty and staff to wear business attire when students specifically request materials be shown in the classroom.

The opposition to the regents’ decision was increased by the university’s Board of Regents.

The report highlighted that the UI faculty was unable to argue on the wording of the policy.

Members of CAF hope through watching and discussing the films, they may influence the policy being held in the senate.

The Daily Iowan

UI Provost Peter Norton and the Senate were unable to agree on the wording of its policy.

UI Provost Peter Norton said he was escorting some individuals to the Senate and that he was being watched by others.

Late-night shooting mystifies witnesses

Lynn M. Saff

The Daily Iowan

A shooting outside the Qie Sports Bar, 201 Iowa Ave. late Friday morning has police as well as the bar’s employees puzzled.

Kevin Moss, 24, of Cedar Rapids was shot in the leg in a group of people congregating outside the bar.

Moss was treated at the UI hospital late Friday.

The Qie, owned by Ken Holt, said he was escorting some friends to their car when he heard the gunshot.

He said he had witnessed a fight earlier that night.

Moss was treated at the UI hospital late Friday.

"We have no idea what happened," said Saff, who ran back into the bar and asked someone to call the police.

There was no other information available from the UI police or the Cedar Rapids police.

Minority graduation rates suffering at UI, ISU

Jen Snyder

The Daily Iowan

The UI’s push to diversify the student population is making headway, but a report released Friday said the university needs to significantly improve graduation rates of African-American and Hispanic students.

This is a problem nationally, but the University of Iowa and Iowa State University appear to be worse than comparable institutions, the report, which will be released by the Iowa state Board of Regents Wednesday, states.

The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students, especially African-American students, than the other recent reports.

However, only about 40 percent of black students and 31 percent of Hispanic students graduate in six years. That compares with 42 percent of white students and 47 percent of Asian or Pacific Islander students.

"It's important to be paired within the Big 10 institutions with which we compete as able to market condition," Nathan Snyder said. "If we're going to lose faculty and will be unable to replace them with qualified.

The report shows that women, while making progress, still get the UI in faculty rank number three in percent among comparable schools.

The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students.

The University was unable to argue in the Senate.

It's important to be paired within the Big 10 institutions with which we compete as able to market condition," Nathan Snyder said. "If we're going to lose faculty and will be unable to replace them with qualified.

The report shows that women, while making progress, still get the UI in faculty rank number three in percent among comparable schools. The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students.

The University was unable to argue in the Senate.

OPPOSING SEX ACT POLICY

Planners hope film fest exposes homophobia

Brad Hahn

The Daily Iowan

Members of the UI Campaign for Academic Freedom will hold a rally before the Senate meeting and then walk to the Senate Chambers.

The group is protesting the regents’ decision to implement a policy requiring UI faculty and staff to wear business attire when students specifically request materials be shown in the classroom.

The opposition to the regents’ decision was increased by the university’s Board of Regents.

The report highlighted that the UI faculty was unable to argue on the wording of the policy.

Members of CAF hope through watching and discussing the films, they may influence the policy being held in the senate.

The Daily Iowan

UI Provost Peter Norton and the Senate were unable to agree on the wording of its policy.

UI Provost Peter Norton said he was escorting some individuals to the Senate and that he was being watched by others.

Late-night shooting mystifies witnesses

Lynn M. Saff

The Daily Iowan

A shooting outside the Qie Sports Bar, 201 Iowa Ave. late Friday morning has police as well as the bar’s employees puzzled.

Kevin Moss, 24, of Cedar Rapids was shot in the leg in a group of people congregating outside the bar.

Moss was treated at the UI hospital late Friday.

The Qie, owned by Ken Holt, said he was escorting some friends to their car when he heard the gunshot.

He said he had witnessed a fight earlier that night.

Moss was treated at the UI hospital late Friday.

"We have no idea what happened," said Saff, who ran back into the bar and asked someone to call the police.

There was no other information available from the UI police or the Cedar Rapids police.

Minority graduation rates suffering at UI, ISU

Jen Snyder

The Daily Iowan

The UI’s push to diversify the student population is making headway, but a report released Friday said the university needs to significantly improve graduation rates of African-American and Hispanic students.

This is a problem nationally, but the University of Iowa and Iowa State University appear to be worse than comparable institutions, the report, which will be released by the Iowa state Board of Regents Wednesday, states.

The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students, especially African-American students, than the other recent reports.

However, only about 40 percent of black students and 31 percent of Hispanic students graduate in six years. That compares with 42 percent of white students and 47 percent of Asian or Pacific Islander students.

"It's important to be paired within the Big 10 institutions with which we compete as able to market condition," Nathan Snyder said. "If we're going to lose faculty and will be unable to replace them with qualified.

The report shows that women, while making progress, still get the UI in faculty rank number three in percent among comparable schools.

The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students.

The University was unable to argue in the Senate.

"It's important to be paired within the Big 10 institutions with which we compete as able to market condition," Nathan Snyder said. "If we're going to lose faculty and will be unable to replace them with qualified.

The report shows that women, while making progress, still get the UI in faculty rank number three in percent among comparable schools. The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students.

The University was unable to argue in the Senate.

"It's important to be paired within the Big 10 institutions with which we compete as able to market condition," Nathan Snyder said. "If we're going to lose faculty and will be unable to replace them with qualified.

The report shows that women, while making progress, still get the UI in faculty rank number three in percent among comparable schools.

The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students.

The University was unable to argue in the Senate.

"It's important to be paired within the Big 10 institutions with which we compete as able to market condition," Nathan Snyder said. "If we're going to lose faculty and will be unable to replace them with qualified.

The report shows that women, while making progress, still get the UI in faculty rank number three in percent among comparable schools.

The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students.

The University was unable to argue in the Senate.

"It's important to be paired within the Big 10 institutions with which we compete as able to market condition," Nathan Snyder said. "If we're going to lose faculty and will be unable to replace them with qualified.

The report shows that women, while making progress, still get the UI in faculty rank number three in percent among comparable schools.

The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students.

The University was unable to argue in the Senate.

"It's important to be paired within the Big 10 institutions with which we compete as able to market condition," Nathan Snyder said. "If we're going to lose faculty and will be unable to replace them with qualified.

The report shows that women, while making progress, still get the UI in faculty rank number three in percent among comparable schools.

The UI has higher graduation rates for minority students.

The University was unable to argue in the Senate.
Professor Nora England, chairwoman of the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

For the many who espouse a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.

Professor Nora England, who chairs the anthropology department, poses with a phonetic chart used to break down the sounds that compose languages. English has borrowed about 15 Mayan languages which are being placed in a model that researches Spanish language.
BRANSTAD ADMINISTRATION CRITICIZED

Nagle unsure regarding run for governor

William Pepper

The Daily Iowan

Will he or won't he?

When former Iowa Congressman Doug Branstad returns Friday to the State High Auditorium, the big question will be whether or not he will challenge Iowa Attorney General Robert T. (Tom) Miller for governor of the state. The check of Nagle's tail is considered a major early move toward the November election.

Governing Iowa since January 1991, Miller is considered to be highly vulnerable in the fall, and Branstad is considered one of the few gubernatorial candidates who have a chance of unseating him.米勒今年1月当选为州长，被认为是高可 vulnerability in the fall, and Branstad is considered one of the few gubernatorial candidates who have a chance of unseating him.

As a result, Branstad's chances for winning the governor's seat are high.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Live-a-Thon focuses on plight of homeless

Mai Nagle, a freshman and participant in the UI chapter of Habitat for Humanity's Live-a-Thon, said that the event was very beneficial and helped her to learn more about the issue of homelessness.

"I learned that the problem is not as big as I thought," she said. "It's a really big problem and it affects a lot of people."

"There are a lot of ways that we can help, and I think it's important to be aware of these issues," she added.

Nagle also learned about the work of Habitat for Humanity and how they help to provide homes for those in need.

"I was really impressed with how they work and how they try to make a difference," she said.

Nagle also learned about the way that Habitat for Humanity works with local governments to build homes for the homeless.

"I think it's really important to work with the government and other organizations to make a real difference," she said.
County supervisors add new position

Pamela Kantelstein
The Gazette

After weeks of debate, the Johnson County Board of Supervisors finalized its decision to hire a new part-time public information officer, with designated hours of 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. daily and a salary between $26,000 and $29,500, the Gazette reported.

"It doesn't change the dollar amount in the budget," said Supervisor Jamie Raskin. "It's just a new position." The supervisor didn't believe the budget would be significantly affected by the new position.

"I think it's fair to pay people less than the work is worth," he said.

Raskin and County Supervisorswav said they needed help in the office, even if it took $10,000, in order to keep the public informed.

In other business, the board said it would look into rebroadcasting meetings on the radio after requests from community members.

This year the board reviewed the budget for the coming fiscal year and the budget review will be part of the new work being done by the county attorney's office.

Assistant County Attorney John Bulkely disagreed with the $26,000 to $29,500 salary range.

"I'm not sure if people pay less than the work is worth," he said.

Bulkely said he felt the office needs help immediately. He will report whatever it takes to get help in the office, even if it takes $10,000, he said.

For more information, call 319-338-2588.

ISU institute won't bar 'devious' from research

Associated Press

Iowa State University researchers said the new institute will be a "devious" place to work because it will help develop nuclear weapons but that in an emergency it will be made to store nuclear weapons.

"If I were interested in that area, I would not come to Ames," Iowa State Provost John Iowan said.

The new International Institute of Theoretical and Applied Physics will begin next July, bringing hundreds of scientists to the university and in research at existing ISU facilities.

David Asbrown, a physicist and president of the Institute for Nuclear and International Security of Washington, D.C., said the ISU facility could be used by students in development and education.

Asbrown said he is going to have a legitimate role in the future because of the ISU facility.

An ISU official said he would be useful for such work.

State Supreme Court

The decision on the $26,000 to $29,500 salary range generated a lot of discussion in the board's meeting.

Vance said the board reviewed the budget for the coming fiscal year and the budget review will be part of the new work being done by the county attorney's office.

Assistant County Attorney John Bulkely disagreed with the $26,000 to $29,500 salary range.

"I'm not sure if people pay less than the work is worth," he said.

Bulkely said he felt the office needs help immediately. He will report whatever it takes to get help in the office, even if it takes $10,000, he said.

For more information, call 319-338-2588.

ISU institute won't bar 'devious' from research

Associated Press

Iowa State University researchers said the new institute will be a "devious" place to work because it will help develop nuclear weapons but that in an emergency it will be made to store nuclear weapons.

"If I were interested in that area, I would not come to Ames," Iowa State Provost John Iowan said.

The new International Institute of Theoretical and Applied Physics will begin next July, bringing hundreds of scientists to the university and in research at existing ISU facilities.

David Asbrown, a physicist and president of the Institute for Nuclear and International Security of Washington, D.C., said the ISU facility could be used by students in development and education.

Asbrown said he is going to have a legitimate role in the future because of the ISU facility.

An ISU official said he would be useful for such work.

State Supreme Court

The decision on the $26,000 to $29,500 salary range generated a lot of discussion in the board's meeting.

Vance said the board reviewed the budget for the coming fiscal year and the budget review will be part of the new work being done by the county attorney's office.

Assistant County Attorney John Bulkely disagreed with the $26,000 to $29,500 salary range.

"I'm not sure if people pay less than the work is worth," he said.

Bulkely said he felt the office needs help immediately. He will report whatever it takes to get help in the office, even if it takes $10,000, he said.

For more information, call 319-338-2588.

ISU institute won't bar 'devious' from research

Associated Press

Iowa State University researchers said the new institute will be a "devious" place to work because it will help develop nuclear weapons but that in an emergency it will be made to store nuclear weapons.

"If I were interested in that area, I would not come to Ames," Iowa State Provost John Iowan said.

The new International Institute of Theoretical and Applied Physics will begin next July, bringing hundreds of scientists to the university and in research at existing ISU facilities.

David Asbrown, a physicist and president of the Institute for Nuclear and International Security of Washington, D.C., said the ISU facility could be used by students in development and education.

Asbrown said he is going to have a legitimate role in the future because of the ISU facility.

An ISU official said he would be useful for such work.
NAFTA foes within striking distance

By Jim McFarlane
WASHINGTON — Few of the hundreds of students who showed up for a noon-hour rally in Lafayette Park in support of President George W. Bush's free-trade agreements were willing to admit that America is in the midst of a battle for its very soul.

"It's not a battle for our soul, it's a battle for our survival," said one student who chose to remain anonymous.

But many of those who gathered in the plaza outside the South Court Annex of the White House agreed that the battle is one that cannot be won.

"We're not going to win this battle," said one student who wished to remain anonymous. "But we're going to fight for our rights."
Northside, Bluffwood discussion prompts The Editor

Northside and Bluffwood neighborhood associations have posted a public notice concerning the future plans of the Northside Neighborhood Association and a request to residents to discuss these plans at the next association meeting. The neighborhood associations are encouraging residents to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association.

Northside residents are encouraged to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association. The meeting is scheduled for the next Tuesday evening at the community center. Residents are encouraged to attend and voice their concerns and ideas.

LETTERS

Northside, Bluffwood discussion prompts

To the Editor:

Residents of Northside and Bluffwood neighborhoods have expressed their concerns about the future plans of the Northside Neighborhood Association and have requested input from residents at the next association meeting. The neighborhood associations are encouraging residents to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association.

Northside residents are encouraged to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association. The meeting is scheduled for the next Tuesday evening at the community center. Residents are encouraged to attend and voice their concerns and ideas.

No conflict

The editor of the Daily News, Armin K. A. Neumann, has stated that there is no conflict of interest regarding the article. The Daily News has confirmed that the article is based on reliable sources and was written in a manner that is free from bias. The article has been reviewed by the Daily News editorial board and was approved for publication.

Northside, Bluffwood discussion prompts

To the Editor:

Residents of Northside and Bluffwood neighborhoods have expressed their concerns about the future plans of the Northside Neighborhood Association and have requested input from residents at the next association meeting. The neighborhood associations are encouraging residents to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association.

Northside residents are encouraged to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association. The meeting is scheduled for the next Tuesday evening at the community center. Residents are encouraged to attend and voice their concerns and ideas.

No conflict

The editor of the Daily News, Armin K. A. Neumann, has stated that there is no conflict of interest regarding the article. The Daily News has confirmed that the article is based on reliable sources and was written in a manner that is free from bias. The article has been reviewed by the Daily News editorial board and was approved for publication.

Northside, Bluffwood discussion prompts

To the Editor:

Residents of Northside and Bluffwood neighborhoods have expressed their concerns about the future plans of the Northside Neighborhood Association and have requested input from residents at the next association meeting. The neighborhood associations are encouraging residents to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association.

Northside residents are encouraged to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association. The meeting is scheduled for the next Tuesday evening at the community center. Residents are encouraged to attend and voice their concerns and ideas.

No conflict

The editor of the Daily News, Armin K. A. Neumann, has stated that there is no conflict of interest regarding the article. The Daily News has confirmed that the article is based on reliable sources and was written in a manner that is free from bias. The article has been reviewed by the Daily News editorial board and was approved for publication.

Northside, Bluffwood discussion prompts

To the Editor:

Residents of Northside and Bluffwood neighborhoods have expressed their concerns about the future plans of the Northside Neighborhood Association and have requested input from residents at the next association meeting. The neighborhood associations are encouraging residents to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association.

Northside residents are encouraged to attend the meeting to discuss the future plans and provide input on the direction of the Northside Neighborhood Association. The meeting is scheduled for the next Tuesday evening at the community center. Residents are encouraged to attend and voice their concerns and ideas.

No conflict

The editor of the Daily News, Armin K. A. Neumann, has stated that there is no conflict of interest regarding the article. The Daily News has confirmed that the article is based on reliable sources and was written in a manner that is free from bias. The article has been reviewed by the Daily News editorial board and was approved for publication.
Boundaries for free expression vary

I've often asked myself how I can disagree with the current drive among black Americans and others to stop defining themselves as a black man or black woman, as such an opinion essentially is. "Don't worry, my vio-

ence is only a misdemeanor gun." In reference to the recent sequestrial of three black youths on the murder of a white man, I do not think they plan on seeing,

For more information or to join the discussion, this will be an ideal time for free expression.

The Des Moines Register, November 17, 1993

Iowa City, Iowa

Iowa resident

Health Iowa, for graduate students and other professionals

Wednesday, November 17, 7:00 pm
Second Floor Ballroom, IMU

Accessible to people with disabilities. For more information call 319-452-4992.

I know who I am and want fashions that feel good on me. At Seifert's, I can make a look all my own.

Specially priced items throughout the store.

Seifert's

As it was always meant to be.

OLD CAPITOL MALL
Puerto Rico votes down statehood

David Beard
Associated Press

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — Supporters of continued commonwealth status for Puerto Rico prevailed at the polls Sunday over those who wanted statehood, turning back the strongest movement this century for full union with the United States.

The people spoke, and I will obey them," said Pedro Rossello, who sponsored the statehood campaign, in acknowledging defeat to a speech of thousands of supporters.

But he added, "This is a struggle that will go on.

With votes counted from 99 percent of the precincts — 1,186,000 of 1,220,000 cast — Puerto Ricans chose to continue commonwealth status by a margin of 10,811 votes, or 64 percent; statehood 707,314, or 46.3 percent; and independence 66,915, or 4.4 percent.

Thousands of commonwealth supporters filled the streets and started a blooding campaign. One of the celebrants, Narcisa Rodriguez of the central city of Caguas said: "Commonwealth changed the poor sugar-farming island into a center of industries and commerce, and she was forever grateful.

"Screaming over salsa music and barking horns, Rodriguez, 86, said, "We're altered that we are American — but we're Puerto Ricans. But we have our own separate Olympic teams, our own Puerto Rican Political status has been debated more than once since the United States captured Puerto Rico in 1898, ending four centuries of Spanish rule. The island became a U.S. commonwealth with some statehood in 1952.

At the polls, the number of votes cast reflected the smallness of the movement as well as the narrowness of the margin. By 5:30 p.m. Sunday, 181,000 votes still remained to be counted.

"We've affirmed that we're commonwealth," said Nelson Cortes, campaign chairman of the pro-commonwealth Popular Democratic Party, the main party of Puerto Rico.

"We're a struggle for our land and our culture, our language. We're a struggle for Puerto Rico," he said.

The race was closely watched by the District of Columbia residents, as well as U.S. mainland's 22 million Hispanic. 2.8 million of them Puerto Ricans.

In the last poll, the vote was 33 percent for statehood, 44 percent for commonwealth and 23 percent for independence.

In the last plebiscite on status, 1993, 47 percent of voters opted for statehood. The vote was in line for status, as well as the United States.

David Beard is a correspondent for the Associated Press. By Associated Press for the Associated Press.

For more information, or if you require accommodations in order to participate in this forum, please contact the Office of Disability Services, 202 Jessup Hall, 335-0705 or 335-0697 (text telephone).
Iowa sophomore Ann Farr, on ground, hits in the game-winning shot past the Northwestern goalkeeper during the first half of the Hawkeyes' 2-1 win over the Wildcats Sunday at Grant Field as teammate Heather Bryant looks on. Iowa earned its second straight trip to the Final and will face Maryland Saturday in Piscataway, N.J.

Kris White
The Daily Iowan

The Iowa field hockey team was selected to receive the top seed in the tournament and will have the opportunity to host the Iowa State Volleyball Tournament in the first round.

"When you play not to lose it's going to hurt you," she said. "We were lucky after they seemed to come back in a short amount of time and be able to put the ball in. That was competitive quick."...

The second half was all Iowa. While Northwestern had one short penalty, the Hawkeyes didn't have one, and they continued to put pressure on the Wildcats. They scored on a penalty shot in the first half, and a second later, they scored on a penalty corner.

"They aren't going to make that mistake again," coach Luanne Mullen said.

Iowa had 24 shots on goal and 13 penalty corners worked to wear down the Wildcats. Northwestern had 4 shots and 1 penalty corner.

The defense really shut Northwestern down. We had a lot of opportunity to use that," said coach Slutzker. "When we use the ball, we're going to want to use that."..."
Scoreboard

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

WOMEN’S SWIMMING

Pennington leads past Hoosiers

Doug Alden

The Daily Iowan

The 10th-ranked swimming team improved its score to 3-2 Saturday, beating Indiana 138-133 at the University of Iowa Aquatic Complex. The Hawkeyes will return to competition Dec. 2 when it travels to Ann Arbor, Mich., for the NCAA Women’s Swimming & Diving Championships. The meet at Carver-Hawkeye Arena is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. (CST). The first day of competition.

HAWKEYES UNSTOPPABLE

The Hawkeyes were led by several strong performances from their swimmers. Rachel Bayster set a new school record in the 100 freestyle (1:30.64), the 100 butterfly (1:00.71) and won the 100 backstroke (1:04.71), the 100 breaststroke (1:11.17), and the 200 individual medley (2:14.81).

WILLIAMSBURG "I couldn’t ask for anything more. We had a close-out and swam really well. We just had to keep getting better and they did that," Bayster said.

"We saw some big leaps of improvement from some people. We just kept getting better," Burton said.

The Hawkeyes were coming off a 180-116 loss at Wisconsin Nov. 3 and Bill Kund was on the team.

IOWA'S BORGELOT, Nicole Widmyer and J.J. DeAth Thompson, 17.

"They weren’t 63-2.

The Hawkeyes are current Big Ten champs and expecting to be one of the best teams in the country for many years to come. "They are definitely ready for a lot of the experience," Burton said.

"I think our freshman divers did really well," Burton said.

December 2, 1983

HAWKEYES BLOW BY WISCONSIN

The Hawkeyes understood it is early in the reigns of the Iowa program.

"It turned out, we didn’t have to play as tough defeat the previous night," Burton said.

"We just needed somebody to step up and lead," Frady said and had to do it.

"I am just excited to see how we will do at nationals," Frady said.

"The meet was won by最新

"We were there for going up against the best in the conference and they showed it," Burton said.

"We have some big leaps of improvement from some people. We just kept getting better," Burton said.

"The Hawkeyes were coming off a 180-116 loss at Wisconsin Nov. 3 and Bill Kund was on the team.

IOWA'S BORGELOT, Nicole Widmyer and J.J. DeAth Thompson, 17.

"They weren’t 63-2.

The Hawkeyes are current Big Ten champs and expecting to be one of the best teams in the country for many years to come. "They are definitely ready for a lot of the experience," Burton said.

"I think our freshman divers did really well," Burton said.

December 2, 1983

HAWKEYES BLOW BY WISCONSIN

The Hawkeyes understood it is early in the reigns of the Iowa program.

"It turned out, we didn’t have to play as tough defeat the previous night," Burton said.

"We just needed somebody to step up and lead," Frady said and had to do it.

"I am just excited to see how we will do at nationals," Frady said.

"The meet was won by最新

"We were there for going up against the best in the conference and they showed it," Burton said.

"We have some big leaps of improvement from some people. We just kept getting better," Burton said.

"The Hawkeyes were coming off a 180-116 loss at Wisconsin Nov. 3 and Bill Kund was on the team.

IOWA'S BORGELOT, Nicole Widmyer and J.J. DeAth Thompson, 17.

"They weren’t 63-2.

The Hawkeyes are current Big Ten champs and expecting to be one of the best teams in the country for many years to come. "They are definitely ready for a lot of the experience," Burton said.

"I think our freshman divers did really well," Burton said.

December 2, 1983

HAWKEYES BLOW BY WISCONSIN

The Hawkeyes understood it is early in the reigns of the Iowa program.

"It turned out, we didn’t have to play as tough defeat the previous night," Burton said.

"We just needed somebody to step up and lead," Frady said and had to do it.

"I am just excited to see how we will do at nationals," Frady said.

"The meet was won by最新

"We were there for going up against the best in the conference and they showed it," Burton said.

"We have some big leaps of improvement from some people. We just kept getting better," Burton said.

"The Hawkeyes were coming off a 180-116 loss at Wisconsin Nov. 3 and Bill Kund was on the team.

IOWA'S BORGELOT, Nicole Widmyer and J.J. DeAth Thompson, 17.

"They weren’t 63-2.

The Hawkeyes are current Big Ten champs and expecting to be one of the best teams in the country for many years to come. "They are definitely ready for a lot of the experience," Burton said.

"I think our freshman divers did really well," Burton said.

December 2, 1983

HAWKEYES BLOW BY WISCONSIN

The Hawkeyes understood it is early in the reigns of the Iowa program.

"It turned out, we didn’t have to play as tough defeat the previous night," Burton said.

"We just needed somebody to step up and lead," Frady said and had to do it.

"I am just excited to see how we will do at nationals," Frady said.

"The meet was won by最新

"We were there for going up against the best in the conference and they showed it," Burton said.

"We have some big leaps of improvement from some people. We just kept getting better," Burton said.

"The Hawkeyes were coming off a 180-116 loss at Wisconsin Nov. 3 and Bill Kund was on the team.

IOWA'S BORGELOT, Nicole Widmyer and J.J. DeAth Thompson, 17.

"They weren’t 63-2.

The Hawkeyes are current Big Ten champs and expecting to be one of the best teams in the country for many years to come. "They are definitely ready for a lot of the experience," Burton said.

"I think our freshman divers did really well," Burton said.

December 2, 1983

HAWKEYES BLOW BY WISCONSIN

The Hawkeyes understood it is early in the reigns of the Iowa program.

"It turned out, we didn’t have to play as tough defeat the previous night," Burton said.

"We just needed somebody to step up and lead," Frady said and had to do it.

"I am just excited to see how we will do at nationals," Frady said.

"The meet was won by最新

"We were there for going up against the best in the conference and they showed it," Burton said.

"We have some big leaps of improvement from some people. We just kept getting better," Burton said.

"The Hawkeyes were coming off a 180-116 loss at Wisconsin Nov. 3 and Bill Kund was on the team.

IOWA'S BORGELOT, Nicole Widmyer and J.J. DeAth Thompson, 17.

"They weren’t 63-2.

The Hawkeyes are current Big Ten champs and expecting to be one of the best teams in the country for many years to come. "They are definitely ready for a lot of the experience," Burton said.

"I think our freshman divers did really well," Burton said.

December 2, 1983

HAWKEYES BLOW BY WISCONSIN

The Hawkeyes understood it is early in the reigns of the Iowa program.

"It turned out, we didn’t have to play as tough defeat the previous night," Burton said.

"We just needed somebody to step up and lead," Frady said and had to do it.

"I am just excited to see how we will do at nationals," Frady said.

"The meet was won by最新

"We were there for going up against the best in the conference and they showed it," Burton said.

"We have some big leaps of improvement from some people. We just kept getting better," Burton said.

"The Hawkeyes were coming off a 180-116 loss at Wisconsin Nov. 3 and Bill Kund was on the team.

IOWA'S BORGELOT, Nicole Widmyer and J.J. DeAth Thompson, 17.

"They weren’t 63-2.

The Hawkeyes are current Big Ten champs and expecting to be one of the best teams in the country for many years to come. "They are definitely ready for a lot of the experience," Burton said.

"I think our freshman divers did really well," Burton said.

December 2, 1983

HAWKEYES BLOW BY WISCONSIN

The Hawkeyes understood it is early in the reigns of the Iowa program.

"It turned out, we didn’t have to play as tough defeat the previous night," Burton said.

"We just needed somebody to step up and lead," Frady said and had to do it.

"I am just excited to see how we will do at nationals," Frady said.

"The meet was won by最新

"We were there for going up against the best in the conference and they showed it," Burton said.

"We have some big leaps of improvement from some people. We just kept getting better," Burton said.

"The Hawkeyes were coming off a 180-116 loss at Wisconsin Nov. 3 and Bill Kund was on the team.

IOWA'S BORGELOT, Nicole Widmyer and J.J. DeAth Thompson, 17.

"They weren’t 63-2.

The Hawkeyes are current Big Ten champs and expecting to be one of the best teams in the country for many years to come. "They are definitely ready for a lot of the experience," Burton said.

"I think our freshman divers did really well," Burton said.
Field Hockey

Mary Kraybill dribbles the ball during the Hawkeye's 2-1 win over Northwestern Sunday.

Iowa's Ann Purt hugs Kristin Holme after the Hawkeye's regional championship win Sunday.

Hawks' hard work pays off

Kris Wiley
The Daily Iowan
The Hawkeyes have come a long way.
"We started out as a young team, young leader or playing together," senior Aimee Klapach said. "I think we know every time we get on the field, and our goal every time we get out on the field, was to improve. If we did that, we know that it would take care of itself."

Iowa's hard work has turned into the season straight Final Four appearance, following a 2-1 win over Northwestern in the Midwest Regional final Sunday at Great Field.
"This has been the first couple of days of preseason practice in appreciation where they're coming from," Hawkeye coach Beth Beglin said. "We had some real big holes that we had to fill and our team did a really good job allowing younger players to be able to get their feet under them without experiencing a lot of pressure."

Following the 1992 season, when Iowa went undefeated until the NCAA Championship game, a 4-0 loss to Old Dominion, the Hawkeyes had to change their way of viewing the season.
"This year's team really tried it and not looking over their shoulder and not looking at anything," Beglin said.

The team had its ups and downs during the season, including what Beglin called the "low point," Iowa's 0-0 loss to Northwestern Oct. 6. The defeat was the third for the Hawkeyes on the season, the most losses an Iowa team had suffered since it went 2-4-1 in 1989.
"We've had some real highs and some lows this year and that was probably because it really put us down. We didn't want to have to go through this again because it really put us in doubt whether we would be able to go anywhere," Beglin said.

I honestly say I'm surprised of this year's team. They've been a terrific job bouncing back from things. It would be really easy to get down. They didn't go down and they used each game as a learning experience," she said.

Since the loss to the Wildcats, Iowa has gone 9-0, including revenge wins against Northwestern and Penn State, who beat the Hawkeyes 1-0 Oct.
Maryland is the other team that the Hawkeyes are looking forward to. The Terrapins have a 3-1 last Sept. 10. While Beglin said it would be nice to meet the Terrapins, it doesn't matter who Iowa plays.

"We're really trying to focus this year on controlling things we have to control over and that in how we play and what we do on the field," she said.

The Hawkeyes are 18-12 in post-season competition and have advanced to this Final Four nine times in the last seven seasons, winning the championship in 1984, and they aren't ruling out the possibility of a second title for the school.

"If we continue to play as strong as we have, have the confidence, maintain the poise that we have and have good, intense practices, I think we have as good a chance as anybody," Ann Purt said.

IOWA WRESTLING
Student Home Schedule Price At
Sat, Dec. 11 Northern Iowa $2
Sat, Jan. 8 Penn State $6
Fri, Jan. 14 Lehigh $2
Sat, Jan. 29 Wisconsin $2
Sun, Feb. 10 Iowa State $6
Student Season Ticket $8
Student Guest Season Ticket $10

BIG TEN CONFERENCE
BIG TEN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP
March 5 & 6
Carver Hawkeye Arena
Iowa City, Iowa

STUDENTS
WHAT A DEAL!

You won't want to miss this! A student season ticket is your chance to see three-time defending national champion Iowa wrestle in each of their tough home meets and it costs only $5 - that's only $1 per event. This year's great home schedule includes nationally ranked Lehigh, in-state rival UNI and Iowa State, and the Big Ten's national runner-up Penn State and Barry Davis' Badgers of Wisconsin.

This $5 student season ticket is an $11 savings over the individual ticket prices. In addition, you may order a guest season ticket for $10 and bring a friend.

Don't hesitate to order your student season tickets NOW to reserve the best seats.
Tickets will be on sale Tuesday, November 16 at the Iowa Memorial Union.

For ticket information contact the Iowa Athletic Ticket Office at (319)335-9227.

Watch for the Big Ten Conference Wrestling Championship in Iowa City March 5 & 6.
Independence Bowl looks at Iowa

Kwamie Polk

The Daily Iowan

EASTON, Ill. — Re-Notre Dame finished its season. The Fighting Irish carried 212 points, ending its season. The Irish finished with 711 points and Notre Dame finished with 843. Notre Dame were Wisconsin 60-0.

Mike Egenes

Evanstontimes.com

The Independent Bowl continued heading. Like this group - they beat, are they on the field? I'm thinking about next Saturday's Independent Bowl. The Independent Bowl, is about a 12-

Mike Burmeister

Daily Iowan

"You can't just win on the field. We have to be in control of our own destiny," Barnett said. "If you're not game, we just can't run that ball."

Lonnie Nagel

"We're not going to be able to run a quarterback sneak rather than let them have as much power as possible," Nagel said. "We might take Iowa at 6:48 and we could come in at 7:18, but that doesn't have to lead to the way they were thinking." Iowa coach Haynes Fry said his team was thinking about next Saturday's Independent Bowl.

Lonnie Nagel

"I've been talking Big Ten football is a very special game... because there's as much parity among the teams that have good won-loss records that are going to be eliminated because they don't have six victories against Division I teams. Normally a 6-3 team goes to a bowl game. Everything we do at Iowa this year is a preparation for the bowl game with Dennis," Barnett said.

Lonnie Nagel

"It's a special benchmark that we look for when we consider it as an even game in our season. The probability of 8,000 people flying in from all over the country is pretty high (for an Iowa game because we don't have that much air traffic. We consider Iowa a regional loss."

Mike Burmeister

"I was block-bunting by the end of the game. I was really happy with the outcome of this game, but I'm the most proud of the fans who went," Barnett said.

Lonnie Nagel

"The victory was Martinez's first ever bowl in 23 career games.

Lonnie Nagel

"The Hawkeyes gained three points and Notre Dame finished with 212 points, ending its season. The Irish finished with 711 points and Notre Dame finished with 843. Notre Dame were Wisconsin 60-0."

Mike Burmeister

"What I'm thinking about next Saturday's Independent Bowl. The Independent Bowl, is about a 12-

Mike Burmeister

"We might take Iowa at 6:48 and we could come in at 7:18, but that doesn't have to lead to the way they were thinking." Iowa coach Haynes Fry said his team was thinking about next Saturday's Independent Bowl.
College Football

Undefeated teams feeling left out

Associated Press

Hey folks, don’t forget about us.

They need to hear Nebraska, Arkansas, and West Virginia fell Sunday. Defeat perfect records, all three need at least help to have any shot at winning the national championship.

We walk around, present a possible New Year’s Day rematch between 11-0 and 10-2 teams. Then Illini or Penn State needed a bowl win.

Bowl games are important, but we’re just a few weeks away from that.

Nebraska kicked off with a 43-17 victory over Iowa State. The Big Eight champs moved into No. 4, No. 1 in the polls, keeping Kansas close. We’ve still got at least one game to play.

No 6. Auburn is in. We don’t need another big game week. Auburn and Penn State are both 11-0.

It looks like the Big Ten is out of the running for the Big Ten.

But the guys are just real hungry right now.

The longer they go without another big game, the more it’s going to feel like they’re out of the running. The Coaches and Top 10 don’t seem to care.

Some debunk 21-24 victory over Florida State, which remained the same in the final polls. That was the final game, and the polls might have one day of consideration.

We finished No 17 at Boston College. 0-1 at home and Saturday, 2-2-1 at home and 2-2-1 overall.

The only two discrepancies likely are a second round trip through North Carolina State and No 6. Florida, they seem to be a team.

We’ve been focused and injury free all year,” receiver Bill Nof said.

But the guys are just real hungry right now.

The longer they go without another big game, the more it’s going to feel like they’re out of the running. The Coaches and Top 10 don’t seem to care.

Some debunk 21-24 victory over Florida State, which remained the same in the final polls. That was the final game, and the polls might have one day of consideration.

We finished No 17 at Boston College. 0-1 at home and Saturday, 2-2-1 at home and 2-2-1 overall.

The only two discrepancies likely are a second round trip through North Carolina State and No 6. Florida, they seem to be a team.

We’ve been focused and injury free all year,” receiver Bill Nof said.
‘Medicine’ explores new frontiers with innovative but flawed format

Charles Monroe

The Daily Iowan

Experiential "The History of Medicine" goes on the feelings of exploring a new frontier. From an actor's perspective to the world of scientific medical research to the surgeon's experience of performing the latest medical surgeries, the production's opening piece; viewers and audience are immersed in a world of constantly evolving technology and discovery.

Prime ministers and presidents of major medical research institutes keep the show moving forward. The performers are constantly on the move, breaking the fourth wall "Medicine" to create a sense of unity with the audience. Performers are often seen in close proximity to the audience, but they rarely interact directly with them. Instead, they work the unwieldy words of history into a pop song - the play avoids being dragged down by the weight of the historical prose that keeps the action moving.

The performance aspect of the show is perfectly serviceable. It's pretty light compared to the kind of interpretation. While the show may be active and flashy, but the performers are always on the move, breaking the fourth wall "Medicine" to create a sense of unity with the audience.

Like any premiere, there are moments of being outside the experience of being on stage. The performance aspect of the show is perfectly serviceable. It's pretty light compared to the kind of interpretation. While the show may be active and flashy, but the performers are always on the move, breaking the fourth wall "Medicine" to create a sense of unity with the audience.

Theodora Pacino’s "Carlito's Way" exploration of being outside the experience of being on stage. The performance aspect of the show is perfectly serviceable. It's pretty light compared to the kind of interpretation. While the show may be active and flashy, but the performers are always on the move, breaking the fourth wall "Medicine" to create a sense of unity with the audience.

Concern for Women

Programs at Iowa City Hospital and other local hospitals offer assistance to women in need. For more information, contact the Concern for Women office at 337-2111.

Art's Entertainment

"Medicine" explores new frontiers with innovative but flawed format

Inexpensive "The History of Medicine" goes on the feelings of exploring a new frontier. From an actor's perspective to the world of scientific medical research to the surgeon's experience of performing the latest medical surgeries, the production's opening piece; viewers and audience are immersed in a world of constantly evolving technology and discovery. Like any premiere, there are moments of being outside the experience of being on stage. The performance aspect of the show is perfectly serviceable. It's pretty light compared to the kind of interpretation. While the show may be active and flashy, but the performers are always on the move, breaking the fourth wall "Medicine" to create a sense of unity with the audience.

Performance and Audiences: The audience department have touted "Medicine" as a sort of family-friendly "road show" rather than a standard "play," but its tone in a multimedia presentation is often that of a roller-coaster ride, visitors may be active and flashy, but the performers are always on the move, breaking the fourth wall "Medicine" to create a sense of unity with the audience.

Inexpensive "The History of Medicine" goes on the feelings of exploring a new frontier. From an actor's perspective to the world of scientific medical research to the surgeon's experience of performing the latest medical surgeries, the production's opening piece; viewers and audience are immersed in a world of constantly evolving technology and discovery. Like any premiere, there are moments of being outside the experience of being on stage. The performance aspect of the show is perfectly serviceable. It's pretty light compared to the kind of interpretation. While the show may be active and flashy, but the performers are always on the move, breaking the fourth wall "Medicine" to create a sense of unity with the audience.

Inexpensive "The History of Medicine" goes on the feelings of exploring a new frontier. From an actor's perspective to the world of scientific medical research to the surgeon's experience of performing the latest medical surgeries, the production's opening piece; viewers and audience are immersed in a world of constantly evolving technology and discovery. Like any premiere, there are moments of being outside the experience of being on stage. The performance aspect of the show is perfectly serviceable. It's pretty light compared to the kind of interpretation. While the show may be active and flashy, but the performers are always on the move, breaking the fourth wall "Medicine" to create a sense of unity with the audience.
Floundering, irritating 'Carlito's' dangles carrot, stymies De Palma fans

Ian Carroll and Ted Paulson
The Daily Iowan

Whoa! You wouldn't think Brian De Palma has been recently foundering in the backwash of the current film system's churning whirlpool of splattered 'Scumocracy' stone music and noisy video soundtracks, but he has come through again with their latest offering, 'Carlito's Way.'

Iowa City, Iowa - Monday, November 15, 1993

Flounder

The trouble is that we already have seen the crucial elements in 'Carlito's Way.'

Al Pacino stars in the new Brian De Palma film "Carlito's Way." The problem is that we already have seen the crucial elements in this movie. We know that Al Pacino's character, Carlito, is a hitman. We know that he has a problem with his conscience. We know that he is going to have to make a choice between his love for his wife, Maria, and his desire to continue his criminal lifestyle. And we know that he is going to have to face the consequences of his actions.

The film opens with Carlito and his wife, Maria, sitting on the deck of their luxurious yacht off the coast of Florida. Carlito is thinking about his past and his future. He is considering whether he should continue his life of crime or whether he should try to reform. He is remembering the time he killed a man in self-defense and the guilt that he felt. He is wondering if he can ever go back to his normal life.

Carlito makes a decision to go back to his normal life. He leaves his criminal empire and moves to Miami. He starts a new life with Maria. However, his past catches up to him. He is approached by a former colleague who wants him to come back to the criminal world. Carlito must decide whether to return to his old ways or stay true to his new life.

The film ends with Carlito and Maria sitting on the deck of their yacht, looking out over the ocean. They are together, but they are also apart. They are thinking about their past and their future. They are wondering what the future holds for them.

VODAPHONEDRAM

Oscar highlights issues of publicity's favoritism

John Cusak
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

Techno-industrial duo screaming through I.C.

Ian Carroll
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

The Union Bar and Grill offers a techno-bash Tuesday night with the Thrill Kill Kult, above, playing with opening band Masters of Loving Grace.

LENS TAPES

Taped September 11, 1992. Divided into multiple clips, notches, blackouts, and confusion, this is a window to the world of 'Carlito's Way.'

The Chicago Sun-Times reviewed the film favorably, giving it three and a half stars.

VODAPHONEDRAM

Oscar highlights issues of publicity's favoritism

John Cusak
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

Techno-industrial duo screaming through I.C.

Ian Carroll
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

The Union Bar and Grill offers a techno-bash Tuesday night with the Thrill Kill Kult, above, playing with opening band Masters of Loving Grace.

LENS TAPES

Taped September 11, 1992. Divided into multiple clips, notches, blackouts, and confusion, this is a window to the world of 'Carlito's Way.'

The Chicago Sun-Times reviewed the film favorably, giving it three and a half stars.

VODAPHONEDRAM

Oscar highlights issues of publicity's favoritism

John Cusak
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

Techno-industrial duo screaming through I.C.

Ian Carroll
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

The Union Bar and Grill offers a techno-bash Tuesday night with the Thrill Kill Kult, above, playing with opening band Masters of Loving Grace.

LENS TAPES

Taped September 11, 1992. Divided into multiple clips, notches, blackouts, and confusion, this is a window to the world of 'Carlito's Way.'

The Chicago Sun-Times reviewed the film favorably, giving it three and a half stars.

VODAPHONEDRAM

Oscar highlights issues of publicity's favoritism

John Cusak
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

Techno-industrial duo screaming through I.C.

Ian Carroll
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

The Union Bar and Grill offers a techno-bash Tuesday night with the Thrill Kill Kult, above, playing with opening band Masters of Loving Grace.

LENS TAPES

Taped September 11, 1992. Divided into multiple clips, notches, blackouts, and confusion, this is a window to the world of 'Carlito's Way.'

The Chicago Sun-Times reviewed the film favorably, giving it three and a half stars.

VODAPHONEDRAM

Oscar highlights issues of publicity's favoritism

John Cusak
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

Techno-industrial duo screaming through I.C.

Ian Carroll
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

The Union Bar and Grill offers a techno-bash Tuesday night with the Thrill Kill Kult, above, playing with opening band Masters of Loving Grace.

LENS TAPES

Taped September 11, 1992. Divided into multiple clips, notches, blackouts, and confusion, this is a window to the world of 'Carlito's Way.'

The Chicago Sun-Times reviewed the film favorably, giving it three and a half stars.

VODAPHONEDRAM

Oscar highlights issues of publicity's favoritism

John Cusak
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

Techno-industrial duo screaming through I.C.

Ian Carroll
The Daily Iowan

An alert for black-clad, shabbily dressed, beatniks with antediluvian travel trays strutting slowly in this little hole called Iowa City. With the Thrill Kill Kult above, above, opening with head-banging Masters of Loving Grace.

The Union Bar and Grill offers a techno-bash Tuesday night with the Thrill Kill Kult, above, playing with opening band Masters of Loving Grace.

LENS TAPES

Taped September 11, 1992. Divided into multiple clips, notches, blackouts, and confusion, this is a window to the world of 'Carlito's Way.'

The Chicago Sun-Times reviewed the film favorably, giving it three and a half stars.