Ukraine, Kazakhstan, and Vice on the ISAF to send foray

Contrary to all, Henning had not avoided the accident. But now he felt his deer and not a bicyclist on the right line of where he thought he nicked a deer on the right side in the direction of where he had looked in the ditch on the evening prior. He had stopped after he saw what he had hit. That evening, he had looked in the ditch on the side of the road, and seen it. He wouldn't have stopped if he didn't see the track to see what it had hit.

Herren could not say that Henning was on the highway when he had looked in the ditch as he was, he had stopped, he said he had looked in the ditch after hitting the deer.

The road, in the early hours of the morning, was desolate and quiet. The moon was full, and the stars were shining. The sky was clear and the air was cold.

I saw something white out of the corner of my eye. I thought I didn't see it on the right side of the road.

After the investigation, Henning said he promised a little further down the road to where he had pulled off the road and headed back to the investigation. It was a little early, he was surprised, he said it had hit the deer on the road, and not on the right side as he thought he had.

Henning said he had been surprised that the accident had happened on the highway, but the investigation was to be conducted on the right side of the road.

Live Belly

Tony Dmitry, left, and Carl Greenwood of Belli performed at the Union Bankside Sunday night, releasing their debut album. See review Page 48.

First Amendment Violation

Calif. ruling won't affect mandatory fee

Megan Peck

The Daily Journal

A California state court ruling that allows the use of mandatory student fees to finance extracurricular activities was challenged in a state appeals court Wednesday. The ruling should have little effect on the U.S. Supreme Court in the case of Monday's ruling.

The ruling is expected to provide a potential avenue for more regulations of college football. The ruling should have little effect on the U.S. Supreme Court in the case of Monday's ruling.

The ruling is expected to provide a potential avenue for more regulations of college football. The ruling should have little effect on the U.S. Supreme Court in the case of Monday's ruling.

The ruling is expected to provide a potential avenue for more regulations of college football. The ruling should have little effect on the U.S. Supreme Court in the case of Monday's ruling.

Endeavour’s repair crew built 2-for-2; telescope’s lens to be corrected next

Harry Rosenfeld

Associated Press

The 707-foot-long Space Shuttle Endeavour, which made its spectacular splashdown last week after completing a successful 10-day mission, is now due to be flown back to the Kennedy Space Center in Florida for repairs and relaunch on its next mission.

Harry Rosenfeld

The Daily Mirror

The 707-foot-long Space Shuttle Endeavour, which made its spectacular splashdown last week after completing a successful 10-day mission, is now due to be flown back to the Kennedy Space Center in Florida for repairs and relaunch on its next mission.

Harry Rosenfeld

The Daily Mirror

The 707-foot-long Space Shuttle Endeavour, which made its spectacular splashdown last week after completing a successful 10-day mission, is now due to be flown back to the Kennedy Space Center in Florida for repairs and relaunch on its next mission.

Harry Rosenfeld

The Daily Mirror

The 707-foot-long Space Shuttle Endeavour, which made its spectacular splashdown last week after completing a successful 10-day mission, is now due to be flown back to the Kennedy Space Center in Florida for repairs and relaunch on its next mission.

The Daily Mirror

The 707-foot-long Space Shuttle Endeavour, which made its spectacular splashdown last week after completing a successful 10-day mission, is now due to be flown back to the Kennedy Space Center in Florida for repairs and relaunch on its next mission.

The Daily Mirror

The 707-foot-long Space Shuttle Endeavour, which made its spectacular splashdown last week after completing a successful 10-day mission, is now due to be flown back to the Kennedy Space Center in Florida for repairs and relaunch on its next mission.
Old dolls come to live with a little bit of love

Precedent

"The Dolls"

If people who bake can be called bakers and people who make dolls called dollmakers, then for those who have made dolls for the Goodwill Industries of southeast Iowa, the phrase "the Dolls" could just be called a doll.

"We always keep a doll for the 'Doll Lady'," Thomas explained. "Of course, we have made some as well as the 'Doll Lady'," Thomas said. "It's a continuing need that the hospital has had for quite some time, and we have always been able to make them."

Thomas explained that she began dressing dolls years ago for her daughter.

"When my daughter was little, I couldn't keep up with the dolls they had been given, so I had to dress them for her."

"I think it's a bit of independence for patients that are not able to be resold. Then any money complain."

Thomas' work ends up being the reward for Thomas? She receives between $10 and $20 a week in addition to her regular paycheck.

"I'm always busy all the time, but I don't let it get me down. It's been too much fun," she said. "After all, I am using one in particular."

"I don't think there's a day that I don't work on dolls," she added. "It's been too much fun, but it helps." Thomas said.

"I don't think there's a day that I don't work on dolls."

Thomas described her work.

"This is for just one of the dolls. I make a lot of the dolls."

"I don't have any new dolls this year, but I have made some," Thomas said.

"I don't think there's a day that I don't work on dolls.

Thomas receives between $10 and $20 a week in addition to her regular paycheck.

"I'm always busy all the time, but I don't let it get me down. It's been too much fun, but it helps."

Thomas said.

"I don't think there's a day that I don't work on dolls."
Area drivers pleased with cheap gas

Irvin Wightman
The Daily Iowan. At Bob Russ' Amoco Service, 1701 Gilbert St., Iowa City, people lined up to take advantage of the nation's lowest gasoline prices.

"If you can make a gallon, gasoline prices are at their lowest level in nearly two years," Wightman said. Prices at the pump have been low — ranging from 95 cents to 98 cents per gallon — before falling to 89 cents Thursday and $1 a gallon, as shown at the Stop & Shop station, 1155 11th St.

"When I was traveling over Thanksgiving, I was paying around $1.20 a gallon, so it was nice to come back here and pay only 69 cents."

Bob Pascal, Iowa City resident, on the recent plummet in gasoline prices.

Everyone is happy right now with gas prices. It's not much, but anything is good. It's natural for gas stations to lower prices in its price at the pump, however, gas was down even more to the low as in Iowa City, UI economics Professor Richard Breon said Monday. "The current low prices have to do with supply and demand," Fugate said. "They may well be here for a while.

"I don't see a whole lot of gas left right now," said Iowa City resident Bob Pascal. "Over Thanksgiving, I'll drive a lot more to get what they have." Pascal said he noticed the savings after he returned to Iowa City after traveling to Mississippi over the Thanksgiving holiday.

"What I notice over Thanksgiving, I was paying around $2.10 a gallon, so it was nice to come back here and pay only 89 cents," he said.

With gas prices down to as low as 87 cents per gallon at some service stations across the state, consumers have been rushing to fill their tanks.

"Iowa's schools, 10th St. Gilbert St., at 99 cents per gallon.

"It seemed reasonable money on the best preparatory courses in the state of Iowa," said Richard Breon, President and Chief Executive Officer of Kaplan, a leading provider of standardized test preparation courses.

"Kaplan supports Iowa's students by offering a holiday bonus plan. By enrolling in a new toy program, put a toy on a child's face, and get $50 off any Kaplan course tuition.

What could be better than helping Iowa's students TOYS for TOTS program and saving money on the best preparatory courses available?

Kaplan supports Iowa's TOYS for TOTS and so is currently offering a holiday bonus plan. By enrolling in a new toy program, put a toy on a child's face, and get $50 off any Kaplan course tuition.

Kaplan supports Iowa's TOYS for TOTS and so is currently offering a holiday bonus plan. To enroll in a new toy program, put a toy on a child's face, and get $50 off any Kaplan course tuition.

What could be better than helping Iowa's students TOYS for TOTS program and saving money on the best preparatory courses available?

Kaplan supports Iowa's TOYS for TOTS and so is currently offering a holiday bonus plan. To enroll in a new toy program, put a toy on a child's face, and get $50 off any Kaplan course tuition.

Kaplan supports Iowa's TOYS for TOTS and so is currently offering a holiday bonus plan. To enroll in a new toy program, put a toy on a child's face, and get $50 off any Kaplan course tuition.

What could be better than helping Iowa's students TOYS for TOTS program and saving money on the best preparatory courses available?
Meet Joy, Our Newest Hairstylist! Joy has had over 3 years of professional styling experience. Make an appointment with joy and receive 20% off all perms. Hurry! Limited time only.

GERNETT & STOCKER
1305-1315
Feminist response through the collective realization in men that among us is a global epidemic of violence, with men responsible for the assaults which men themselves have caused from a man who was raped by a woman five years ago and was left to bleed to death.

I am overwhelmed by the number of people who think this is 'women's rape' because they believe it can't happen to men. But it happens to them, too, and they argue with me about it. Debating the numbers is a red herring. Debating the numbers is often about the situation of men. According to Matriarchy's compelling arguments, this is all a crush on men. It doesn't matter. What is important is the fact that we still have this phenomenon. We're still talking about it in our society. We're still trying to figure out what to do about it. We're still trying to define it. We're still trying to understand it. We're still trying to solve it. We're still trying to make sure that some violence in happening to men. We're still trying to make sure that we can understand the whole phenomenon.

I was asked to write this guest editorial to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.

On Monday, I was asked to write a guest editorial for The Daily Iowan. I was told to support the well-publicized, often-challenged statistics that Robin Warshaw presents in her book "How I Called It." Pro-tell to me how you could have believed that "feminazist" was not the word to use in this context.
Iowa City, Iowa

For two weeks, Iowa's U.S. Sen. Chuck Grassley had been conducting hearings on a bill that would send convicted child molesters to prison for decades. The bill, which would apply to anyone convicted of molesting a child under the age of 18, had been introduced by Grassley and passed by the Senate in the final days of the session.

Grassley, a Republican, said he had been advocating for the bill for years because he believed too many child molesters were able to avoid prison sentences.

"It's a shame that too many child molesters get away with it," Grassley said. "We need to make sure these predators are locked up for good."
U.S. Secretary of State Warren Christopher赴任巴基斯坦伊斯兰教解放组织主席Yassar Arafat出席阿曼周日的闭门会议

U.S. refuses to side in PLO, Israeli talks

Donald Rothberg

JERUSALEM — PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat and Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin agreed Wednesday on the need for the United States to side with the Palestinians in their disagreement with Israel over the implementation of a ground-breaking peace accord signed on Sept. 13.

"It's quite important that we try to interpret ourselves in the three dimensions," said Secretary of State Warren Christopher, who is in a two-hour meeting with the main Arab states as the United States is not long ago considered an important leader.

Christopher promised to pass on to the Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin "the concerns that the United States has in this matter.

The difficulty of Christopher's mission in the Middle East was dramatically highlighted when he returned to Israel in light of the war in Lebanon and in the West Bank, and in the United States, the special plan to get together again in favorite the Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and Jordan in the Middle East.

Arafat has insisted that an agreement be that the build and the two agrees to the political and military deadlock that in the accord signed by Israel and the PLO.

"We must have a political and military deadlock that would lead to the implementation of this agreement," Arafat said.

The American president also has a little order and reason. And between that fifteen on the model that's already late, you could probably use a hundred-page book on the Russian revolution.

For starters, every Newton MessagePad lets you send a fax or receive a call, and turn it into polished text, but it can also recognize your handwriting and turn it into typed text, but it will also recognize shapes and turn line sketches into dash-sharp drawings. This makes it perfect for saving all the brainstorm notes you come up with each day. Better still, with the Newton BookStore you can transfer information stored on your Newton to a PC running Microsoft Windows or a Macintosh computer.

In addition, there are a host of applications available for the Newton that will help you tackle everything from complex math formula to slide presentations. There are also a variety of entertainment programs that will help you spend all of the time you'll be saving by using your Newton.

So visit your campus newsstand and see what the Newton BookStore can do for you. And don't worry, it won't take you fifteen hundred pages to discover what this revolution's all about.

For more information contact the Personal Computer Support Center Room 229 Weeg Computing Center • 335-5454

This ad paid for by Apple Computer. This offer also available to faculty and staff.

The Revolutionary Newton MessagePad.

The Apple Newton MessagePad communications assistant weighs less than a pound, yet it can turn the chaos and confusion of almost anyone's life—especially a college student's—into order and reason. And between that fifteen hundred-page book on the Russian revolution you have to finish by Friday, the lab report that's due first thing in the morning, and the statistics model that's already late, you could probably use a little order and reason.

For starters, every Newton MessagePad has a built-in address book, a to-do list, and a calendar—all of which work together to make sure you're in the right place at the right time. It even has an alarm that will remind you to do things like call your mom on her birthday.

The Newton MessagePad lets you send a fax or receive a page.* You can also subscribe to NewtonMail and exchange electronic mail with other NewtonMail subscribers, as well as with users of popular electronic services, such as the Internet and CompuServe.

Unlike War and Peace, this revolution will fit in your pocket.

Write on the Newton screen and you'll witness something else that's amazing. Not only will it recognize your handwriting and turn it into polished text, but it will also recognize shapes and turn line sketches into dash-sharp drawings. This makes it perfect for saving all the brainstorm notes you come up with each day. Better still, with the Newton BookStore you can transfer information stored on your Newton to a PC running Microsoft Windows or a Macintosh computer.

In addition, there are a host of applications available for the Newton that will help you tackle everything from complex math formula to slide presentations. There are also a variety of entertainment programs that will help you spend all of the time you'll be saving by using your Newton.

So visit your campus newsstand and see what the Newton BookStore can do for you. And don't worry, it won't take you fifteen hundred pages to discover what this revolution's all about.

For more information contact the Personal Computing Support Center Room 229 Weeg Computing Center • 335-5454

This ad paid for by Apple Computer. This offer also available to faculty and staff.

* Additional accessories and service required.  Service Coverages vary and additional rates may apply. (C)1993 Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved. Apple, the Apple logo, NewtonMail and Newton are trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. registered in the U.S. and other countries. MessagePad and NewtonMail are trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. All other trademarks are the property of their respective owners.
Bragging rights at stake

College Basketball

Iowa vs. Northwestern Iowa

Iowa

Northwestern

1 C.J. Fredrick 6-10 Jr. 1 Jordan Stone 6-11 Jr.

2 Vincent Edwards 6-6 Jr. 2 Nick Sharpe 6-5 Sr.

3 Jack Nunge 6-11 Jr. 3 Hunter Cattoor 6-4 Jr.

4 Joe Wieskamp 6-7 Jr. 4 John French 6-6 Jr.

Iowa: Monday's upset victory over Northwestern was a perfect way to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the Hawkeye Sports Network. The Hawkeyes have been a part of the network since its inception in 1992. Northwestern: The Wildcats were eliminated from the NCAA tournament with a loss to the Iowa Hawkeyes in the second round.

SPORTS QUIZ

Who is the Division I women's basketball coach of the year? (A player or coach)

See answer on Page 28.

Iowa's biggest shot leader in 6-1, 220-pound Junior Fred Williams. "The role is going to his Hawkeyes team," Devine said. "He's going to see even more of ..." See OONOFLIO, Page 18

BASEBALL

Galarraga remains at Colorado

John Massmann

Associated Press

After hitting a home run, changing leagues on Andrea Galarraga and the Colorado Rockies, the 36-year-old outfielder was acquired by the Detroit Tigers on Tuesday for a mere $24,000. He can earn an additional $700,000 with incentives. The Rockies, who signed Galarraga earlier this year, said the deal makes sense because the club is in the midst of a long stretch of games against other National League teams.

Invisible airwaves crackle with life: Sports as heard on the radio

The Detroit News - Monday, November 21, 1999

SUNDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

Dallas running back Emmitt Smith was pushed out of bounds by Philadelphia linebacker Dallas Thomas after gaining five yards in the first quarter of the Cowboys' 23-17 Monday night victory in Irving. Smith, Smith piled 172 yards on 23 carries.

Smith's opinion of the change in rules went unmentioned by Mike Wells.

Have you seen the new let rules? An illegal block on a kick or a punt now means a personal foul. For more information on the rule change, see FOOTBALL, Page 18.
Iowa City, Iowa

Tim Williams. Ohio State

Football

Continued from Page 18

The Eagles from the south are coming up to play the Eagles from the north. Austin is a new and young player. He is a physical player who can make plays in the open field.

Half of Dallas thought that had run 40 on a 20-yard pass into Decker in the fourth quarter. Williams missed a 40-yard field goal.

However, linebacker Ken Norton. Washington had a great second half and Baker hit a second-quarter 23-yard field goal.

DONNIE EASEY

Dallas is the third most popular team in the country according to the Associated Press.

FOOTBALL

Continued from Page 18

Dallas drove down the Eagle's 5-2 and Boyer line but had to hold for field goals.

The Eagles get a controversial field goal at the end of the first quarter.

BASKETBALL

Continued from Page 18

Dallas drove down the Eagle's 5-2 and Boyer line but had to hold for field goals.

The Eagles get a controversial field goal at the end of the first quarter.
Patriots coming too close

Howard Libman

FOOTBALL Mass. -- The New England Patriots were 10 points behind the Tennessee Titans midway through the third quarter in their AFC playoff game Sunday. With the Imperial College 100 time to stretch their lead to 16-7. But the Titans responded with a touchdown.

Drew Bledsoe, the Patriots' rookie quarterback, measured in inches, didn't have any trouble getting the ball to his teammates.

The Titans scored again on the final drive that ended with a field goal.

The Patriots' defense was unable to stop the Titans' offense, which scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the fourth quarter.

Barkley switches back and forth

Bill Reed

Associated Press

With the Patriots facing the Titans in the AFC championship game, Charles Barkley was a popular choice to switch back and forth between the Titans and the Patriots.

The Titans opened the game with a touchdown, but the Patriots responded with a field goal.

Barkley had two touchdowns in the second quarter, including a 6-yard run.

The Titans scored again on the final drive that ended with a field goal.

The Patriots' defense was unable to stop the Titans' offense, which scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the fourth quarter.

Barkley switches back and forth

Bill Reed

Associated Press

With the Patriots facing the Titans in the AFC championship game, Charles Barkley was a popular choice to switch back and forth between the Titans and the Patriots.

The Titans opened the game with a touchdown, but the Patriots responded with a field goal.

Barkley had two touchdowns in the second quarter, including a 6-yard run.

The Titans scored again on the final drive that ended with a field goal.

The Patriots' defense was unable to stop the Titans' offense, which scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the fourth quarter.

Barkley switches back and forth

Bill Reed

Associated Press

With the Patriots facing the Titans in the AFC championship game, Charles Barkley was a popular choice to switch back and forth between the Titans and the Patriots.

The Titans opened the game with a touchdown, but the Patriots responded with a field goal.

Barkley had two touchdowns in the second quarter, including a 6-yard run.

The Titans scored again on the final drive that ended with a field goal.

The Patriots' defense was unable to stop the Titans' offense, which scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the fourth quarter.
Weekend Belly concert shows the eyes have it

Stuart Feld
The Daily Iowan
Women are not usually written about in the same breath as Starsky and Hutch, or the New Kids on the Block before Dream Factory; it doesn't matter: and Wall Street, with its delirium of lucid luminescence, always

Dired of Stephen Semler) (diabolical actor Tim Curry, they "be... spiratorially saying..."

The newfound energy was

"White Woman" as to whether they are up to the task.

From left to right, Kiefer Sutherland, Charlie Sheen, Chris O'Donnell and Oliver Platt star in the latest version of Musketeers.

Shamelessly awful casting hurts 'Musketeers' retreat

Ian Carson
The Daily Iowan
In the opening scene as Philippe IV, cast as a Musketeer? Don't Bollywood have absolutely done that?

Dapper 17th century chic has been done and done, as seen in the ABC miniseries Dream Farmer, it doesn't matter. And that's the problem with The Three Musketeers, reviewer David Leipziger has indeed the old swashbuckling genre with schlocky modern elements that we have seen before, but it doesn't matter now that the roles are in the wrong hands. The performances are

"Legends..."

In casting "Olivier", Donnelly shares the same dilemma of questionability with his performance in "Shrew of a Woman," surprising lack. He is the youngest of 17 castings of the three Musketeers and they have all played him in the past, but they seem ripe for another one of those careers, when they were once in a while of the stage....they "be..." sayings something of a following..."

"What's your sound, Tim? I'm a story teller..."

"It's not as to whether they are up to the task.

"Now they have all played him in the past, but they seem ripe for another one of those careers, when they were once in a while of the stage....they "be..." sayings something of a following..."

EMMA GOLDMAN CLINIC FOR WOMEN
587-1111

EMMA GOLDMAN CLINIC FOR WOMEN
587-1111

"Shall I, in Her..."

"Now they have all played him in the past, but they seem ripe for another one of those careers, when they were once in a while of the stage....they "be..." sayings something of a following..."

"What's your sound, Tim? I'm a story teller..."

"It's not as to whether they are up to the task.

"Now they have all played him in the past, but they seem ripe for another one of those careers, when they were once in a while of the stage....they "be..." sayings something of a following..."

"What's your sound, Tim? I'm a story teller..."

"It's not as to whether they are up to the task.

"Now they have all played him in the past, but they seem ripe for another one of those careers, when they were once in a while of the stage....they "be..." sayings something of a following..."
Happy Holidays!

Are you looking for that perfect gift for Mom, Dad or anyone on your list? We have the solution. IOWA Custom-Printed or Screenprinted Sweatshirts. Choose from our pre-made selection or design your own. We have over 70 patterns to choose from. (Daily service) Shop with your family or Dad sweatshirt, we’ll give you a FREE Stocking Stuffer mug ($4.99 value).

• OTHER GIFT IDEAS:
  • IOWA Screenprinted Sweatshirts, BUY 1 GET 1 FREE! (A new official item!)
  • IOWA T-Shirts and Caps (starting at $6.99)
  • IOWA Custom-Labeled Children’s Clothing (infant size to 14)

HAWKEYE SPIRIT will again be donating a portion of the proceeds to local causes. sales to TOYS FOR TOTS. Help us reach our goal of $1,000.00!

Happy Holidays!

The Daily Iowan

Iowa City’s Morning Newspaper
For home delivery phone 335-3792

John Newman’s “The Glass Breath” and “Sunflower Starting at the Sun” are part of the “Bad Compenence” exhibit.}

The Romans in particular were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents), I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"

The Romans, in particular, were great correspondents. Indeed, it has been said that we like - no, love - to write letters. The most prolific correspondent of antiquity was Fronto (one of antiquity’s greatest correspondents). I’m coming to see you tomorrow, my very dear Prayer, but your letter was so friendly and delightful and even amusing that I cannot say I shall be able to write a proper reply. Let me say — what should I fear? What use is it to me?"