Regents pass ballot boost

Easy passage of proposal expected at Wednesday meeting

By Karen Schurman

The proposed $10 increase in tuition to be paid by all students enrolled at the University of Iowa would be a major victory for the regents. The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy.

The regents have proposed a 2% increase in tuition for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.

The regents have also approved a new proposal to increase the tuition by 2% for each of the next four years. This is the first time the regents have proposed a tuition increase in four years.

The proposal is expected to be approved by the regents on Wednesday, and the proposal's passage is expected to be easy. The regents have already voted to increase tuition in the past, and the proposal is expected to be approved by a large margin.
Injured golfer may call it quits for season

Golfer Lee Trevino of Amarillo, Texas, told the Dallas Morning News in the latest issue that he plans to quit the tour after this season because of a back injury that he has suffered for the past three years.

Trevino said he has been plagued by back problems since he was a teenager. He underwent surgery last year to repair a disk herniation and has not played well since then.

He said he has been considering retirement for several years, but he has been hesitant to announce it publicly.

Trevino, 49, is a four-time winner of the Masters Tournament and a two-time winner of the U.S. Open. He also won the 1984 PGA Championship.

He has been one of the most popular players on the tour, known for his flamboyant style and his love of the game.

Trevino plans to continue to play in some select tournaments and events, but he said he will not compete in the regular tour schedule.

"I've been thinking about it for a long time," Trevino said. "I've been trying to come to grips with the fact that I can't play at the level I used to.

"I don't want to be a burden on the tour, but I also don't want to have to watch every move the other players make."

Despite his back problems, Trevino said he still enjoys playing golf and plans to continue to teach and coach the game.

"I'll still be around the golf course," he said. "I'll be around to watch the young guys and to help them improve their game."

Trevino said he plans to remain active in the golf community and hopes to continue to inspire others to play and enjoy the game.

He said he will continue to support causes and charities that are meaningful to him.

"I want to give back to the game," he said. "I want to make sure that future generations have the same opportunities that I had."
New drug halts habits of constant shoppers

Dean Alexander

The Daily Iowan

Competitive shoppers who can't control urges to spend and discover that their purchases are running their lives may be able to get help through a drug being tested at the University of Iowa.

"In thetwotothreeyears,we've hadpositiveoutcomes,results,saidDonaldBlack,ACPProfessorofPharmacywholesaid leadingthestudy.

The drug,Provestra,holds the promise of being an effective and safe answer in combating obsessive shopping behaviors,accordingtotests,theymaycreateunhealthy behaviors.

Provestrais the chemical in the brain's reward system that instigates constant shoppers.

"Provestrahas proven to be effective in combating compulsive shopping behavior in patients in the study. In addition to reducing the amount of money spent, it reduces the amount of time spent in stores in overall as well.

"Many of the patients have had the disorder for 10 to 30 years,"Blacksaid."These people have marital problems ranging from arguments as well as legal problems.

"Black said that at the patient's request,he allows them to keep their shopping habits under control,these other problems work

JulieCoyner,aconsumer at UI,has noticed an ciddirable behavior that others may find troubling.

"Having a drug such as Provestra,which is designed to interact with that singular aspect of compulsive shopping,can have an impact on treatment and counseling may have

For some people,medical management is the only option available and Provestra is not a cure for all healthcare providers.

Black said a tabletof Two

Health Dystrophy,1211

wearing the drug for 160

weeks to complete. At that time,patients will be asked if they want to continue on the drug or if they want to try something else.

"If I had to take Provestra, I wouldn't do it,"she said."I'm not really into it, I don't think anything of it for the row.

"In a placebo,there is a tablet of Two

Health Dystrophy,1211

wearing the drug for 160

weeks to complete. At that time,patients will be asked if they want to continue on the drug or if they want to try something else.

"If I had to take Provestra, I wouldn't do it,"she said."I'm not really into it, I don't think anything of it for the row.

Black said that patients who have completed the study and are taken off the drug are suffering a relapse in compulsive behavior which may also be attributed to the placebo effect and gives the study's lasting impact.

"That's the most exciting part of the study,"she said."It's also amazing that we've been able to show the real drug.

"So we're going to be able to test the hypotheses of what we think is the mechanism for the placebo effect and give the study's lasting impact.

"That's the most exciting part of the study,"she said."It's also amazing that we've been able to show the real drug.

"So we're going to be able to test the hypotheses of what we think is the mechanism for the placebo effect and give the study's lasting impact.

"That's the most exciting part of the study,"she said."It's also amazing that we've been able to show the real drug.

"So we're going to be able to test the hypotheses of what we think is the mechanism for the placebo effect and give

the study's lasting impact.
Accused man retires guilty plea to murders

Cedar Falls Paper Co. - A man who pleaded guilty to three murder counts in two states is due next week in court to be sentenced under the "three strikes" law in Minnesota for his role in the deaths of three people in Iowa.

Prosecutors are expected to ask the judge to sentence him to a total of 75 years in state prison.

DEFENSE

The defense will argue that the law is unconstitutional and that the man received ineffective assistance of counsel.

The man is scheduled to be sentenced on Oct. 12.

\[ \text{Sentence:} \quad 	ext{30 years in prison.} \]

Accused of perjury

The trial of a top government official accused of perjury ended this past week with a mistrial.

The official is accused of lying about his business relationships with a key witness in the investigation of the 1995 explosion at the federal building in Oklahoma City.

The trial will be rescheduled for a later date.

\[ \text{Verdict:} \quad \text{Mistrial.} \]

\[ \text{Sentence:} \quad \text{None.} \]
Israel, Jordan pen ground-breaking peace accord

JERUSALEM (AP) — Jordan and Israel signed a draft treaty Monday that could lead to full peace and normal relations between the world's longest-running foes.

The accord, reached after an all-night session that resolved the final issues over water rights and borders, was expected to be quickly ratified by the Jordanian and Israeli legislatures. The Israeli Cabinet approved it without hours after it was signed.

Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin of Israel called it a "historically unique moment" and said he hoped a full-fledged treaty would be signed by the end of next week.

Israel and Jordan signed a non-belligerency pact in Washington July 25 and, since then, have been working to resolve differences that stood in the way of a full-fledged peace treaty.

"I believe this peace is an important achievement," a weary Rabin told reporters in Jerusalem after returning from Monday's ceremony and the overnight meetings in Jordan. "I think it will also have repercussions where Syria and the Palestinians are concerned."

Peace talks with Syria have lagged over Damascus' demand that Israel relinquish the Golan Heights captured in the 1967 Middle East War. Polls show most Israelis oppose giving up the Golan.

Monday's accord, signed by Rabin and Prime Minister Abdul Salam Majali of Jordan, came after a rocky week for peace talks with the Palestinians.

Israel suspended negotiations with the PLO after Islamic militants kidnapped an Israeli soldier. The soldier was killed by his captors Friday as Israeli commandos stormed their hideout, but talks will resume today in Cairo, Egypt. "Clinton said he was 'delighted' by the developments in Amman, adding, 'This agreement reminds us that moderation and reason are prevailing.'"

"Jordan is only the second Arab country to make peace with Israel," Clinton said. "Egypt broke ranks to do so in 1979. It is time for the Palestinians to do the same."

President Bill Clinton received the full accord in the Oval Office Monday afternoon and said he would seek Senate approval for a peace treaty. He said he would meet with the prime ministers after their meeting in Washington Tuesday.

It was not immediately clear if the accord would have a role in Clinton's re-election campaign. The president indicated there was no political component to the deal.

"It is a historic event. It is a hopeful event," Clinton said. "Jordan is a beleaguered country and we do appreciate the steps they have taken today."
Iowa

Igor

ignorse

Monday, hours after a mob torched Aristide faces a major challenge in preaching anew for reconciliation and one man was killed in the battle the military, including cutting Aristide, who spoke from the front steps of the palace. About 5,000 Haitians gathered at the palace to hear a commemoration address for the death of Haiti's founding father, Jean-Jacques Dessalines.

In a brief speech Monday at the National Palace, Aristide, who faces a second-and perhaps more serious—challenge in reconciling the military, including cutting Aristide, who spoke from the front steps of the palace. About 5,000 Haitians gathered at the palace to hear a commemoration address for the death of Haiti's founding father, Jean-Jacques Dessalines.

Then Duperval offered Aristide a chance to restore domestic order and respect for law and order. The streets were quiet, and the military, including cutting Aristide, who spoke from the front steps of the palace, was called off.

In a brief speech Monday at the National Palace, Aristide, who faces a second and perhaps more serious challenge in reconciling the military, including cutting Aristide, who spoke from the front steps of the palace, was called off.

Agrimonia, one of Haiti's richest families, was looted.

Haitians crowd the iron fence around the National Palace in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, Monday in an attempt to see President Jean-Bertrand Aristide, who spoke from the front steps of the palace. About 5,000 Haitians gathered at the palace to hear a commemoration address for the death of Haiti's founding father, Jean-Jacques Dessalines.

Agrimonia, one of Haiti's richest families, was looted.

The military had tried to topple Aristide.

Gonaives, including one belonging to Duperval's mother and another rumored to spread that the army families, was looted.

In a brief speech Monday at the National Palace, Aristide, who faces a second and perhaps more serious challenge in reconciling the military, including cutting Aristide, who spoke from the front steps of the palace, was called off.

A grain depot owned by Francois Duperval's normal

A grain depot owned by Francois Duperval's normal

A grain depot owned by Francois Duperval's normal

A grain depot owned by Francois Duperval's normal

...
EXPLOSION
 Continued from Page 1A
 explosion occurred. "I see a huge ball of fire, and it was kind of all around where the fireball was. It went right straight up about 100 feet," he told the Waterloo Courier.
 Jeff Whitaker, manager of Whitsner Foods, heard the blast from his office nearby. "I looked out at the window and it was a huge bonfire and a huge fire. It just exploded. The fire was just like, everything," he said. "I got out," Whitaker said.
 But Bright, the president of Whitaker Foods, said he and other people in the plant was over to talk to rescuers.
 "I could see at least six bodies underneath the rubble, and we were down there trying to get people out." Bright said.
 Whitaker said Bruin's serving breakfast and was popular with three-shift workers at the plant by Dean & Co. plant.
 Police said three killed were Joseph Joseph Weber, 44, Fred Arthur Richardson, 61, and Diane Apfel, 50 - all of Water­ loo, James Conley, 41, of Evans­ ville, Iowa; and Monica Vernier, 23, of Cedar Falls. Allen Memo­ rial Hospital officials said Dale Holien, 51, of Waterloo was in fair condition and Jan Christensen, 27, of Waterloo, co-owner of the bar, was in critical condition. The hospital said three of the dead were killed instantly and the other two died on scene or at the hospital.
 TUTUION
 Continued from Page 1A
 to increase the tuition, Lehmans said. A petition has been circulated asking for an increase in tuition. "Lehman said it may be submitted at the meeting.
 Holding the regents and the uni­ versity accountable for their spend­ing of money raised from tuition increase is vital, Lehmans said. They've pretty much decided to pass the increase - so how are the students going to see the US bill for the money the way they have promised? Are we really going to see building renovations or will that just keep getting held off until the next year?"
 The mandatory fee raise should cause more disruption than the increase itself, she said. The mandatory fee is going to pay for spending the money the way students would have liked. Lehmans said.
 "I do think the students is a better budgetary over than it has been in the past years, but there are also a lot of things that have to be paid for that money," Hendricks said. "I don't know what the legislature spending attitudes will be."
 The regents will also request $237,200 to establish 150 scholar­ ships for out-of-state American indi­ viduals whose tribes have historical ties to Iowa. The scholarships also make up the difference between in-state and non­state tuition costs for students offering over all tuition costs.

RAISE YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS

USE LESS PLASTIC.

THE ONE CARD FOR CREDIT, CASH & CALLING

The AT&T Universal MasterCard. Call 1 800 438-8827 to apply.
Viewpoints

Searching for a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.

Politics

In search of a candidate

What do you think of the new university billing system?

Leah Harmon
Learning about life: semiotics and pigeons

Iowa City, Iowa

Searching for a candidate

When have all the real politicians gone? As the 1994 gubernatorial campaign drew to its final month, it was evident that voters had seen it all before. The television commercials were nothing new, and the slogans were a repeat of the past. The candidates themselves were old hats, much like the politicians they sought to replace.

The Iowa state legislature has been compared to a giant assembly of politicians, each one trying to make their mark. The result is a never-ending cycle of promises and failures. The voters have grown tired of the same old stories and are looking for something new.

With the campaign in full swing, the candidates are trying to make their messages heard. The Iowa Daily Iowan welcomes guest opinions; submissions should be typed and signed, and the Daily Iowan will publish only one letter per author per month.

In the meantime, the voters are searching for a candidate who can bring new ideas and new solutions to the problems facing Iowa.

Leah Harmon

Letters to the editor must be signed and must include phone numbers and addresses. The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit letters for length, style, clarity, and grammar.
TUESDAY. October 18. 1994

by Vivian Zeller

Student courage is necessary to forcefully promote the idea that people should not be killed for the sake of human safety. The courage of Vivian Zeller is necessary for the proposal to be made that those in danger of being killed are not actually in danger. The courage of Vivian Zeller is necessary for humanity to stand together in the face of danger.

Vivian Zeller, a student at Iowa State University, has been vocal in her opposition to the proposal to kill endangered species to protect humans. She understands that this is a difficult issue, but she believes that people need to stand up and speak out against it.

Vivian Zeller is a member of the Iowa Student Action Network, which has been actively working to promote this cause. She believes that people need to be educated about the issue and that they need to take action to protect endangered species.

Vivian Zeller is also a member of the Iowa Student Action Network's Iowa City chapter. She believes that it is important for students to be involved in the community and to be active in promoting positive change.

Vivian Zeller is a strong advocate for the protection of endangered species. She is dedicated to the cause and is willing to do whatever it takes to make a difference.

Vivian Zeller is an example of the courage and determination that is necessary to stand up for what is right. She is a inspiration to all of us who believe in the importance of protecting endangered species.

Vivian Zeller is a hero. She is a symbol of the power of courage and dedication. She is a reminder that even the smallest of actions can make a difference.

Vivian Zeller is a true hero. She is a reminder that anyone can make a difference. She is a hero to all of us who believe in the importance of protecting endangered species.

Vivian Zeller is a true hero. She is a reminder that anyone can make a difference. She is a hero to all of us who believe in the importance of protecting endangered species.
ANNOUNCING THE DISCOVER CARD
$25 NEW MEMBER REBATE.

(Hurry, it won’t be here for long.)

Apply for the Discover® Card by November 10.
Spend $75. Get $25 back*
NO Annual Fee.

WHERE TO GO TO GET IT:
Memorial Union, 9am - 5pm, Tuesday thru Thursday, October 18-20
Iowa's Jackson shoots for full recovery

Hawkeye veteran helps freshen up and adjust to college game

SPORTS QUIZ

How many consecutive years has the Big Ten held the highest average of home-game football attendance among conferences in the Big Ten network?

See answer on Page 28.

SPORTS BRIEFS

LOCAL

Iowa wrestling ranked No. 1.

The Iowa wrestling team was ranked No. 1 in the College Wrestling Coaches Association poll. The Hawkeyes were 11-3 last season and finished second in the NCAA championship to Oklahoma State. The Cornhuskers are ranked second.

Iowa returns eight of 11 starters from last year's Big Ten champions and two-time All-Americans and NCAA champions (including this season's No. 1) on the 13-member Iowa lineup.

Iowa senior Tia Jackson, who has been surgery is January, says she doesn't want to see the floor 'til I'm not close to 100 percent.' Last season the forward led the Hawkeyes with 16.9 points per game before her injury ended her season after Iowa's fourth game.

Iowa senior Tia Jackson, who has been surgery is January, says she doesn't want to see the floor 'til I'm not close to 100 percent.' Last season the forward led the Hawkeyes with 16.9 points per game before her injury ended her season after Iowa's fourth game.

Hawkeye forward Tia Jackson is doing well. The 1994-95 Iowa women's basketball team.
FRAZIER
Continued from Page 1 B

Iowa State trophy race today as he is one of the four women's basketball kicks into the field of Histon women's basketball and the national championship.

So far, continued success, was made of whether or not Frazier could lead the Huskers and who was odds on favorite for work extra hard," senior Antonia
Macklin said.

As Jackson said that she will feel year in 27 games, eight but he was combo guard.

"I've got to try to be a big more relaxed this year," Cloutier said. "I need to make smart decisions to help my transitions.

Cloutier averaged 4.0 points per average last year in 37 games, eight eight with the point at point

"We're not going to be the same team," southpaw Kari Roeing also said there were some aspects of her power she needed to get a grip on.

Roeing believes that her throwing improved over the off-season,

"I've been playing since July and I've progressed tremendously. It's because I've dedicated myself every day to it," she continued. "I hope that one day I'll be at 100 per cent. I want to put in any upsets and keep it up when the season is over, so that I'll together and practice to

"It's been a learning experience for me," Jackson said. "I took my career with Coach Stringer.

"I'm going to try to make the adjustment from high school to

This idea still hasn't kicked in with neat headquarters. Tom
(Continues)

But that shouldn't involve doing extra hard," senior Antonia
Macklin said.

"We've been playing since July and I've progressed tremendously. It's game's because I've dedicated myself every day to it," she continued. "I hope that one day I'll be at 100 percent. I want to put in any upsets and keep it up when
the season is over, so that I'll
together and practice to

"It's been a learning experience for me," Jackson said. "I took my career with Coach Stringer.

"I'm going to try to make the
adjustment from high school to

This idea still hasn't kicked in with
neat headquarters. Tom
(Continues)

But that shouldn't involve
doing extra hard," senior Antonia
Macklin said.

"We've been playing since July and I've progressed tremendously. It's game's because I've dedicated myself every day to it," she continued. "I hope that one day I'll be at 100 percent. I want to put in any upsets and keep it up when
the season is over, so that I'll
together and practice to

"It's been a learning experience for me," Jackson said. "I took my career with Coach Stringer.

"I'm going to try to make the
adjustment from high school to

This idea still hasn't kicked in with
neat headquarters. Tom
(Continues)

But that shouldn't involve
doing extra hard," senior Antonia
Macklin said.

"We've been playing since July and I've progressed tremendously. It's game's because I've dedicated myself every day to it," she continued. "I hope that one day I'll be at 100 percent. I want to put in any upsets and keep it up when
the season is over, so that I'll
together and practice to

"It's been a learning experience for me," Jackson said. "I took my career with Coach Stringer.

"I'm going to try to make the
adjustment from high school to

This idea still hasn't kicked in with
neat headquarters. Tom
(Continues)
Fry, QBs send signals

Patrick Reegan
The Daily Iowan

Iowa quarterback Corby Smith is helped off the field after sparing his right ankle during the Hawkeyes' 47-7 loss at Illinois. Smith vowed he would be ready to play Saturday against Michigan State.

"Out of sight!" — Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay got Iowa's best game of the season and was out of sight when he sustained a sprain last month.

"Out of sight!" — Corby Smith

Smith had a big day against Illinois, but he said he was still in a lot of pain.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.

"I'm happy with the way things are turning around. I'm just happy to be back in the game." - Quarterback Nick Gallay

Gallay said his big day was part of the reason he was happy with the way things were turning around. He had a big game against the Illini.
Guitarist living out a lasting love of music

Melanie Johnson

The Daily Iowan

Duke Robillard is a blues guitarist with six and a half decades of work behind him. He credits his longevity to a love of live music and the joy it brings.

“I’ve been a guitar player since 1964. I’m 74 years old and I’m still playing,” said Robillard.

Robillard’s career began in Chicago, where he first played with the legendary Sonny Boy Williamson.

“I was with Sonny Boy Williamson in Chicago at the Savoy Ballroom. It was a jam session and I played there for a long time,” Robillard said.

Robillard has since played with many of the greats in blues, including Muddy Waters, Howlin’ Wolf, and B.B. King.

“I’ve been playing with a lot of great musicians over the years. I’ve played with Muddy Waters, Howlin’ Wolf, and B.B. King,” Robillard said.

Robillard has released numerous albums throughout his career, and his music has been featured in films and TV shows.

“I’ve been featured on many soundtracks and TV shows. My music has been used in many movies and TV shows,” Robillard said.

Robillard continues to tour and perform at galleries, clubs, and festivals.

“I’m still playing and touring. I’m playing all the time,” Robillard said.

“The Art of Duke Robillard” is a collection of duets, featuring some of the greatest blues musicians of all time.

“I recorded this album with some of the greatest blues musicians. It’s a fun album to record,” Robillard said.

Robillard’s influence can be heard in the blues guitarists of today.

“I’ve influenced many young guitarists. I’ve taught many young guitarists,” Robillard said.

Robillard is also an avid collector of blues memorabilia.

“I’m a big collector of blues memorabilia. I have a lot of blues memorabilia in my collection,” Robillard said.

Robillard’s passion for blues has never waned.

“I still love playing blues. I still love the music,” Robillard said.

Robillard’s long career and dedication to the music have earned him recognition and respect from blues fans around the world.

“I’ve been recognized for my contributions to the blues. I’ve received many awards and honors,” Robillard said.

Robillard continues to play and inspire others with his music.

“I’m still playing and inspiring others with my music,” Robillard said.

Interview by Mattika Johnson

Edited by Lily Short

Crossword

ACROSS

1. A place for baking bread (5, 5)
2. A type of bread (3)
3. A type of bread (6)
4. A hairstyling technique (4)
5. An ingredient for bread (3)
6. A type of bread (4)
7. A type of bread (6)
8. A type of bread (5, 5)
9. A type of bread (3)
10. A type of bread (6)

DOWN

1. A type of bread (3)
2. A type of bread (6)
3. A type of bread (5, 5)
4. A type of bread (3)
5. A type of bread (6)
6. A type of bread (5, 5)
7. A type of bread (3)
8. A type of bread (6)
9. A type of bread (5, 5)
10. A type of bread (3)

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

ACROSS

1. A place for baking bread (5, 5) - Bakery
2. A type of bread (3) - Roll
3. A type of bread (6) - Baguette
4. A hairstyling technique (4) - Perm
5. An ingredient for bread (3) - Yeast
6. A type of bread (4) - French Bread
7. A type of bread (6) - Pita
8. A type of bread (5, 5) - Whole Wheat
9. A type of bread (3) - Breadstick
10. A type of bread (6) - Ciabatta

DOWN

1. A type of bread (3) - Scone
2. A type of bread (6) - Challah
3. A type of bread (5, 5) - Banana Bread
4. A type of bread (3) - Muffin
5. A type of bread (6) - Bagel
6. A type of bread (5, 5) - Cinnamon Roll
7. A type of bread (3) - Loaf
8. A type of bread (6) - Flan
9. A type of bread (5, 5) - English Muffin
10. A type of bread (3) - Pancake