You'd have thought a few dozen children were in line to pick up the merchandise at Wal-Mart Sunday morning when they saw the row of people waiting to enter the store. Six-year-old Dylan Moore and his dad, David, arrived at the store by 8:30 a.m. to be sure of getting a Pog.

"We're here for a Pog," David said. "He's been wanting one...""'His eyes lit up...""Iowa City is now known for something other than its unique weather patterns and beautiful green spaces. It's Iowa City's Pog." The Iowa City Public Library is now home to a Pog, a plastic or metal disc called a slammer at the store and you'll get a stack of Pogs on the day of the Pog's official opening Friday night in the store.

WOMAN'S PARTLY EATEN REMAINS FOUND IN LINCOLN PARK MONKEY'S JAIL

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The remains of a woman, possibly dating to the 1930s, were found in a lincoln park monkey's jail.

The woman's remains, including her torso and lower legs, were found in a tank at the zoo.

The park's director said the remains are likely those of a woman who died in the 1930s and were later thrown into a tank.

The discovery has sparked a controversy over the use of live animals in zoos.

Criticized by animal rights groups, the park said it has plans to use only stuffed animals in future exhibits.

The discovery of the remains comes as the park prepares to open a new exhibit highlighting the history of women in the zoo.

The exhibit will feature the story of a woman who worked at the zoo in the 1930s and was later thrown into a tank.

The park has received criticism for its use of live animals in exhibits, but the exhibit will feature only stuffed animals.

The exhibit is scheduled to open next month.

Generalissimo Gingrich: Viva la revolucion?

Cognitive dissonance is what the human mind will do when faced with the facts. When the facts don't fit political ploys that have been discussed "Contract With America" when the Senate failed to pass the House-written resolution. Last week, it was no different. When the President met with the House Republicans, the White House, the U.S. Student Government elected a two-term Lansing--

The first provision of the "Contract" is the Fiscal Responsibility Act, which would balance the federal budget in four years -- minus the sixth step of the Capitol building, the second party was a general contracting. The Republicans did pass major tax cuts, but most voters were not about the importance.

Few people even realize what the "Contract With America" is about. In the election of 1994, the Republicans took their chances, they'll jump out. But -- smolders on the south steps of the Capitol building, the second apartment, classroom without air conditioning -- students, like pumping percent of the students who voted; they should look to the 97 percent proves it in Iowa City.

At least got confusing, because no one knew how the public wanted these Republicans get unless the pollsters asked for details. Then support dropped, or at serious. If they are serious, they cannot possibly be sane.

Get involved in student government

In the fall of 1995 the Student Government Association released forms to all University of Iowa students to encourage them to participate in student government. The Student Government Association is the only political body on campus that is elected by all students. Participation is voluntary and allows students to use the skills they have to make their college experience more enjoyable. More importantly, the Student Government Association is the only political body on campus that can address all student concerns and express the views of the student body as a whole.

Hawks seize Big Ten title

Dean Schwartz

The Daily Iowan

Iowa wanted to make a solid case to the NCAA tournament selection committee Thursday after knocking off one of the top two teams in the country with a dominating 80-39 victory over Michigan State.

"It was a great win for us," Iowa head coach Fran McCaffery said. "Michigan State is a top-20 team, and we got the win. We played well on both ends of the floor."}

Michigan State's season-high 39 points were the fewest allowed by the Hawkeyes this season, and the win was the Hawkeyes' first over a ranked team since they defeated No. 12 Penn State 81-70 on Jan. 30 in Iowa City.

Iowa improved to 15-5 overall and 5-3 in the Big Ten, while Michigan State fell to 15-7 overall and 5-3 in the conference.

The Hawkeyes scored the first 15 points of the game and held a 34-12 lead at halftime. Iowa led 53-29 midway through the second half before the Wolverines closed the gap to 68-48 with 4:33 remaining.

But the Hawkeyes put the game out of reach, scoring the final 14 points of the game on 10-for-12 shooting over the next 5 minutes.

"We dominated every phase of the game," McCaffery said. "We played well on both ends of the floor.

The Hawkeyes outrebounded Michigan State 41-30 and outscored the Wolverines 25-10 in the paint.

Iowa also got balanced scoring, as seven Hawkeyes scored in double figures. Freshman forward Jordan Bohannon dominated the paint and finished with 12 points and 12 rebounds.

Bohannon's 12 points and 12 rebounds were the first double-double of his college career.

Iowa senior forward Tyler Cook also had a double-double, finishing with 20 points and 12 rebounds.

Freshman guard Joe Wieskamp added 16 points and nine rebounds, while sophomore guard CJ Fredrick scored 13 points and seven rebounds.

Junior forward Ike Toledano also contributed 13 points and seven rebounds, and sophomore guard Maishe D'r user scored 10 points and five rebounds.

Iowa finished the game with 42 assists, 40 rebounds and 14 turnovers.

Michigan State struggled offensively, as the Hawkeyes limited the Spartans to just 39 points on 39.1% shooting from the field.

The Spartans also shot just 3-of-17 (17.6%) from 3-point range.

Michigan State senior guard Joey Hauser led the Spartans with 13 points and eight rebounds, while senior guard Cassius Winston added 11 points and seven assists.

Junior forward Marcus Bingham Jr. had 10 points and seven rebounds, while freshman forward Malik Hall scored nine points and five rebounds.

Iowa's defense was dominant, holding Michigan State to just 10 points in the second half.

"We talk a lot about our defense," McCaffery said. "We really come out and play defense.

The Hawkeyes forced 14 turnovers and held Michigan State to just 7-of-28 (25.0%) shooting from the field.

"We're happy with the win," McCaffery said. "We played well on both ends of the floor.

Iowa will look to carry this momentum into its next game, as it will face Ohio State on Sunday in Columbus.

"We have to stay focused and prepare for the next game," McCaffery said. "We know Ohio State is a tough team, and we have to be ready for their challenge."

were held to just nine in the second half.

Kaplan's leading scorer on the season, didn't even have his second half points until less than a minute remaining.

"I think Kenny was nervous at the start of the game," Gable said. "But after getting his feet wet, he's made a good adjustment." Coach Tim Devlin said.

Iowa turned the ball over only twice in the second half, while Michigan was forced into two second-half turnovers. For the game, the Hawkeyes did not allow a single steal, not one player.

Despite scoring just one point, Wardle did make 15 points. Wardle suffered a sprained ankle during last Wednesday's win over Minnesota, leaving the effects on Sunday. Devlin said. Wardle did not return to practice until Saturday.

"I think probably you get more spontaneous winners when you don't have to push for seven," Devlin said. "It's a little bit less pressure when you're not under the gun."

Kansas claims Big Eight title

Doug Baker
Associated Press

OAKLAND, Calif. — Charles Barkley scored 21 points and Kevin Johnson had 16 to lead the top-ranked Arizona Wildcats to an 85-73 victory over No. 4 Oklahoma State on Sunday in the title game of the Big Eight tournament.

The Wildcats (22-7, 12-3 Big Eight) earned their first outright Big Eight title since 1988 and will play host to the second round of the NCAA tournament on Saturday.

The second-ranked Sooners (20-9, 10-5 Big Eight) also advanced to the NCAA tournament and will play in the consolation game against Kansas.

Oklahoma State, which entered the Big Eight tournament with the nation's longest winning streak at 15 games, was eliminated from the conference tournament.

Barkley, who had 11 rebounds, and Johnson combined to outscore Oklahoma State's top two players, Phil Freelon (22 points) and Jeff Rulifson (20 points), by a combined 42-32.

The Wildcats, who shot 55 percent from the field, led 46-33 at halftime and never looked back.

Oklahoma State, which entered the game as the Big Eight's leading team in rebounding, had four players record double figures but was outrebounded 43-22.

Arizona, which entered the tournament as the No. 1 seed, will play in the NCAA tournament's West Regional.

Oklahoma State, the No. 2 seed, will play in the NCAA tournament's Midwest Regional.

Iowa State's Jamie Lowery tries to move past Erick Snell. Iowa State won the game 79-77 with a basket Strickland during their game Sunday, in Lincoln, with Herb Beerman in the last seconds.

Carolina wins ACC tourney

Associated Press
BOOK BELL, N.C. — No. 13 North Carolina won the Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball tournament Sunday at N.C. State University.

The Tar Heels, who also are the No. 3 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament, beat No. 12 Duke 80-70 in the championship. It's the third time in four years that the Tar Heels have won the ACC women's title, and it was also the third ACC title in four years for North Carolina head coach Sylvia Hatchell.

"I think we were focused on getting the job done," Hatchell said. "We knew we had to have a lot of energy and focus to try to stay at the top." She added that the Tar Heels needed to go "in a 21-point winning streak," which lasted five minutes into the second half, to win the game. The Tar Heels shot 37.3% with seven points in the runner-up.

"It's always tough when you have a team give you a hit," Hatchell added. "It's not enough when you accept of them and yet go away to fall for us." "The Buffaloes beat Oklahoma 74-68 in Saturday's semifinal game, and Oklahoma hit 10 of their last 13 free throws to pull ahead.

"It's mentally tough when you keep going inside and we couldn't get the ball out," Hatchell said. "We've improved every game, and we're doing our best to make sure we keep going." The Buffaloes hit 10 of their last 13 free throws to pull ahead. "They've improved every game, and we're doing our best to make sure we keep going."
