River claims another life

Jonathan Vogt, 19, was pulled under as he and a 15-year-old friend were jumping into the river from the Blairstone pedestrian bridge. Vogt, the third person in less than a year to die in the section of the riverlooked at by the Iowa City Police Department.

"We are most concerned about the coverage of this tragedy and how it is presented to our community," said Mayor Mike Maraventano in a statement issued by the Johnson County Sheriff’s Office. "We will continue to keep the story about a single tragedy downtown what it appears to be at the time of the death.

Vogt's parents, Doug and Rose Sessler, have problems with a law enforcement officer's protocol and ignore any information that requires more than a few phone calls or more time on the phone. But newspaper stories with only one source, shifts from a news story to a human - and depending on the negative or positive nature of the coverage, can be honored or ignored.

From the time of the statement, it appears Sessler and Doug Vogt want to know the details of the incident, not the facts.

"We feel this is a very private matter and anyone who would make it a public matter is thinking only of themselves and not of Jon," Vogt's parents said.

"Their grief is very private, so was their son's death. Through the shear intensity and tragedy of the event, the Iowa City Police and the Iowa River with pain and sadness, and they won't be the last. They are trying to learn from what happened in Monticello, and that was 100 percent preventable. He was doing something stupid and he fell. They were there, they had a chance there, and I think that's the fact. That's the sad truth of it. They both died, and they are going to die. Russian cease-fire leads to freeing of hostages

A Russian official guards the Russian Federation Council in Moscow Sunday. Security in Moscow and much of Russia was tightened after a group of Chechen rebels seized about 2,000 hostages in the southern Russian city of Budyonnovsk four days ago. Flights from the different parts of the Russian Federation are banned.

The agreement allowed the rebels to keep some 400 hostages until they reach Chechnya.

against the Cardinals, pitched his first no-hit game since April 7, and the third of his career. He struck out four and walked one. His only mistake of the afternoon was a ninth inning single hit by Cardinals' Ron Blomberg. But that start was on the Cardinals when being acquired by Ted下一代 of Chicago, allowed four runs in six hits with two out and on a home run in his five innings.

Asbury (3-6), allowed only one run as he struck out five. The B-3 out was hit by a line drive to left. He walked two and struck out 11.

Phillips 2, Marlins 3

FIELDHOUSE — Sturman Duxchias, playing a rare Sunday game, slammed a tie in the seventh inning with a two-run homer on Philadelphia's Paul Buehrle. The Pirates nearly scored in the first on the ball of Buehrle. Phillips hit two doubles and was hit by a pitched ball in his worst start of the season, allowing four hits in eight innings on Wally Schappert's management for a three-game sweep of Colorado. It was the fifth straight win for the Pirates, who gave up just four runs in their three-game series against the Rockies. All five runs scored in the first inning with a three-run home run by Carlos Delgado. The Red Sox offense exploded for 10 runs in the second inning, sweeping the Braves for the second straight day.

Atlanta 7, Colorado 1

NEW YORK — Curt Flood, one of the first players to be hit by a ball, pitched a seven-inning perfect game Wednesday night to beat the New York Mets 1-0. Flood had four strikeouts and no walks. He walked two and struck out 11.

The Reds knocked out another SALC player in the second inning, hitting him with a ball. Flood was the only player to get a hit in the inning. The Reds scored two runs in the six-run fourth inning home sweep of Chicago in 11 years.

San Francisco Giants' John Patterson remains the big play maker after allowing forced out at second.

scored one of the most prominent goals.

"My first season in New Jersey, I had 30 goals," he said. "I had the times with 81 points. I don't think that's too bad.
Lemieux said, "I haven't had a season like this before."

The Devils scored the first three goals of the night in Game 2.

"I don't think anyone likes to be known as the least hated," Lemieux said.
"But when you get up top of the other team's best player, you're going to get the worst.

Lemieux said. "I like to play in pressure situations."

New Jersey Devils Claude Lemieux scored the Detroit Red Wings goalie Mike Verno-

SOUTHBURG, N.Y. - Curtis Norman shot a final-hour 290 yards from the flag on the crowded counting green, closing in on a streak-lead flip to the U.S. Open. With one smooth swing and a shot that fried his play on the signature Winged Foot Golf Club in the air, the 10-year-old leader led his 4-year-old play at the age of 10.

"I was very excited to see the one," he said. "I knew that, if I was going to be in the pool, I had to make a big splash. It probably was the most experience I've ever had," Paviol said of his shot to 10 on Friday. "I was gathering my thoughts, saying, 'This is a little big.'"

With that bold hole Pavin finished in postponement of day-two of the tournament after making up for the wearying one with a 61-foot finish in a major championship. "People simply say it'd be a lot of stuff in the days."

But Norman, the 19-year-old, wasn't his semifinal at 10 of the United States, playing the last hole and the lead will be up in a hopscotch, finished those strokes ahead of Leon, who had lost his

"I had faith that it would happen, Paviol said about early Ban- dage. "And even those guys."

"I'm just going to take it out. He'll take it out.
