Dole's C.R. speech reflects more conservative stance

Mark Brinker
The Daily Iowan

Iowa Senator Majority Leader and Republican presidential hopeful Bob Dole dropped by Cedar Rapids this weekend to talk a little about education and immigration, and a lot about his qualifications to be president.

"I would not have this great privilege to speak to all of you on one plane," Dole said in his letter to Iowa orca. Dole said it was not what he was doing in Iowa but his letter to the crowd. Dole said it was not what he was doing in Iowa but his letter to the crowd.

"We're going to get out of here and let you all know how great your state is," Dole said. "I think you're doing a wonderful job of shutting it down. If you don't have all the money you should have, that's fine. We can't take care of that here in the world."

Dole also proposed a system for parents who want to send their children to private schools, the school of their choice, why is it that we have to use our income Americans? Dole asked. The video highlighted Dole as a star for parents who want to send their children to private schools.

I share your concern about rising water and sewer bills. That is why I fought to see the following provisions enacted:
• 20% downpayment instead of borrowing every dollar saving taxpayers $24 million
• Requiring that new growth will pay for the new plant.
• Reducing the minimum charge.
• Implementing a sponsored water conservation program.

CALAGA, Philippines (AP) — At least 169 people, mostly women and children, were killed and 8-year-old baby was washed away by Typhoon Angela, which lashed the northern Philippines with heavy winds and widespread whiteout conditions.

The official death toll rose to dozens, with more than 500 injured and at least 100,000 homeless. Officials said several thousand others were still unaccounted for.

President Joseph Estrada ordered the evacuation of more than 500,000 people from the typhoon's path.

"If peace is achieved, NATO will be reduced to a mere theatre for the U.S. and the Allies," the article said.

Columbia returns home

Columbia, the $1.4 billion spacecraft that carried the first woman into space, returned to Earth with a successful landing after a narrow mission, the first successful landing of a space shuttle since the Challenger disaster last year.

The spacecraft, which had been in orbit for more than a month, was carrying the first woman into space, in an attempt to return to Earth successfully.

The spacecraft landed at the Kennedy Space Center, Florida, after traveling more than 5 million miles.

The spacecraft had been launched into orbit on July 19 with the last mission of the Space Shuttle Challenger.

Onboard were three astronauts: Kenneth Bowersox, from Alabama; William McCool, from Virginia; and Laurel Clark, from Texas.

The spacecraft was launched on March 11, but it had to be rescued by a space shuttle after problems were discovered with the mission.

Congressional leaders had known the spacecraft was under control, but it was clear that the spacecraft had problems.

The spacecraft landed safely, and the astronauts were welcomed home by their families.

What's wrong with students' judgment?

Incredibly poor student judgment has been a common theme in several recent local stories. An instance that demonstrates the difference between right and wrong, as well as a shameful irresponsibility, is the case where Matthew Gardeus died of an alcohol-related accident.

The unfortunate organization has handed down a ban for the use of alcohol on campus, a well-meaning measure, which could come as no surprise once next year’s class comes in. Students often criticize the university’s restrictions, but an amazing example of incredibly irresponsible behavior is witnessed by the #Fraternity42 movement.

Stephanie Wilbur’s article is a state of shock and distress for many. She makes the point that it is not necessary to have alcohol in college. However, her argument is not convincing. The national organization has handed down a lawsuit and a ban against the fraternity. Therefore, it is almost certain that they will be able to do so.

The national organization has handed down a lawsuit and a ban against the fraternity. Therefore, it is almost certain that they will be able to do so.

We all blame someone for women's images.

I am writing in response to the article by Stephanie Wilbur. The idea of some people who produce images of the way women should look is not new. Women have come to dominate our lives. They have come to dominate our lives. Our image of women has been shaped by a society that perpetuates the idea that men are the ones who are in control. They are the ones who are allowed to judge women by their looks, their bodies, and their personalities. Women are not allowed to judge men in the same way. Women are not allowed to judge men in the same way. Women are not allowed to judge men in the same way.

There is a point in 19th century where, in fact, there was a real revolution in the way we relate to one another. We have the same priority in the modern dream of a significant other. It's not just financial. Romance-inducing services, for example, are dependent on technology. Whereas our parents are living in a world without the Internet, people are living in a world with the Internet. And in the same vein, people are living in a world of technology. Whereas our parents are living in a world without the Internet, people are living in a world of technology.

Love in the '90s: Online and singles ads

By the year 2000, half of all college women will have used the Internet for online dating. They may have always been searching for a connection, but now they are finding it online. They are now sharing their feelings and understanding about their feelings with the world. It's not about the formula that two people had in common. It's about the formula that two people had in common. It's not about the formula that two people had in common. It's not about the formula that two people had in common.

Personal relationships have the same priority in the modern dream of a significant other. It's not just financial. Romance-inducing services, for example, are dependent on technology. Whereas our parents are living in a world without the Internet, people are living in a world of technology.

Just ask KISS

KISS is a very popular band in the 1970s. They were very successful and had a lot of hits. They were a band that was very much in the public eye. They were a band that was very much in the public eye. They were a band that was very much in the public eye. They were a band that was very much in the public eye.

People find that they just aren't satisfied with something else. They are looking for something else. They are looking for something else. They are looking for something else. They are looking for something else.

The point is that KISS is a band that was very much in the public eye. They were a band that was very much in the public eye. They were a band that was very much in the public eye. They were a band that was very much in the public eye.

Romance-inducing services, for example, are dependent on technology. Whereas our parents are living in a world without the Internet, people are living in a world of technology.

Israels mourns slain leader

JERUSALEM — Hundreds of thousands of Israelis, many wearing many white flowers, silently flocked to Rabin's funeral Friday. It was a final salute to the assassinated prime minister, remembered at home and abroad as a man of peace.

The procession of mourning fans filled all the streets and security at a cordoned-in Knesset where the service was held was tight. The police said at least 300,000 people turned out.

Even in Jerusalem, which has come to represent a divided country, the mood of mourning was strong. A mob of thousands gathered outside the Knesset, where Rabin's coffin lay on display.

Sherman, Hawkeyes hit bottom in defeat

Chris Siddor
The Daily Iowan

Iowa defeated Tennessee 79-58 on Tuesday night in a game that was expected to be a showcase for the Hawkeyes, who have struggled in recent weeks.

"We knew it was going to be a tough game," said senior forward Tyler Cook. "But we didn't expect to lose by that much.

Iowa's Diane DeMiro cut the lead in the first half when she received a pass from Iowa's guard Alvin Purdy and put Iowa ahead 38-34 with 2:55 left. The Hawkeyes scored 14 unanswered points during the game.

"I am proud of my team," said Iowa head coach Lisa Bluder. "They came out and played tough, and I think they will learn from this loss.

The Hawkeyes now play host to the University of Illinois on Saturday at 2 p.m. in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

"We are looking forward to the game against Illinois," said senior guardVenue Annen. "We want to make sure we don't have another letdown like we did against Tennessee.

Iowa's basketball team is struggling to find its footing after a rough start to the season.

"I think guys are a little down," said Iowa head coach Lisa Bluder. "We have to come out of the game needing 83 yards to become bowl eligible, but we're struggling to get by Ohio State.

But a two-game losing streak, including Saturday's 31-20 loss to Penn State, wasn't enough to keep Iowa from finding its footing. The Hawkeyes are now at home to face the University of Illinois on Saturday at 2 p.m. in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

The score was 28-10 in favor of the Black and Gold, with 14 points coming from seniors and 14 points coming from juniors.

The game was played in front of a nearly empty stadium, with only a handful of spectators in attendance. The score was close throughout the game, with both teams putting up a fierce fight. The Black and Gold managed to pull ahead in the last quarter, securing their victory.

eligibility to participation in exhibition games.

Dave said, "We've had a lot of fun this season with our young players out." Last Saturday's intersquad scrimmage was appropriately named the Gold game (142-1), but Dave and his players believe the Black and Gold had the edge.

"Today was good fun in a light-hearted manner," Dave said. "We tried to put them in a rhythm as far as a stepping-stone into the exhibition games." Dave said the Black and Gold's mascot, "Big Ben," was a hit with the fans, who seemed to enjoy the game as much as the players.

"I think it was a good evening," Dave said. "We are looking forward to our first real game in our schedule and we're excited about it." Dave emphasized the importance of the Black and Gold's performance in these exhibition games.

Village 79, Proctor 56

At New Rare McNee, Proctor's effusive white shirt had been replaced by a black one. The game was on the line, and the Eagles were down by eight points. Despite the deficit, Proctor's offense was clicking, and the Eagles were driving the ball downfield. But on third down, Proctor's pass was intercepted by a diving defender, and the Eagles' hopes for a comeback were dashed.

The final narrative of the game earned the Miami Heat their first-ever title. The team won four games and defeated the Cleveland Cavaliers to win the NBA championship. The Heat's coast-to-coast dominance set the stage for the next round of the playoffs.

Bears fall to big play in OT

The Bears offense was stifled by a strong Browns defense, leading to a 24-10 loss. The game was defined by a key interception late in the fourth quarter, which the Browns returned for a touchdown.

Manning leads Bears to 24-10 win

By halftime, the Bears were down 10-0. But Peyton Manning led the Bears back onto the field, driving them 80 yards for a touchdown. The game was tied once again, and the Bears took the lead with a field goal in the third quarter. However, the Browns responded with a touchdown to tie the game back up. The Bears then closed out the game with a game-winning field goal, securing their victory.

Bears 16, Colts 10

A balanced offensive performance helped the Bears to victory over the Indianapolis Colts. The Bears scored two touchdowns and a field goal, while the Colts managed only a field goal in response. The game ended with a fumble by the Colts' quarterback, giving the Bears the win.

Bears 7, Patriots 6

In a closely contested game, the Bears emerged victorious with a late touchdown by wide receiver Markus Wheaton. The Patriots mounted a late rally, but the Bears' defense held steady, securing the win.

Questions plague Big Ten leaders

By Wayne Dras

Ohio State coach Gary Barnett said, "I have no idea how they scored three points for 100 yards and a TD before playing the second half of the season." He then added, "I'll be happy if we can win just one game." The Buckeyes dropped to 5-0 and lost to Northwestern 10-21.

Northwestern's 17 points came in the fourth quarter on a 44-yard field goal by Brian Krueger with 3:02 left in the game. The Wildcats won their third straight game, while the Buckeyes have lost consecutive games for the first time since the 1988 season.

Northwestern quarterback Todd Reesing threw three touchdown passes, two of which came against Ohio State's secondary in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats (5-1) climbed one notch in the AP poll to 17th, further solidifying their status as the Big Ten's most dangerous team.

Ohio State (6-1) dropped to 17th in the AP poll and 20th in the Coaches' Poll. The Buckeyes' six-game winning streak ended with a 21-10 loss to Northwestern.

Junior captain Lynn Dustin said, "We have a pretty good story here and talk about moving on." George Joneas, who returned following a knee injury and rushed for 113 yards as the starting quarterback, said, "You can't ask for much more." He led the Buffaloes to a field goal in the second half.
