Horoscopes

Here's your life; It's all in the stars

* Horoscope for the week of 4/16/97

Aries (March 21-April 19): You're accepted, you're popular and your stars have been shining bright all month. You have a little more control now, which is swell. This is a good time to project the image you want to create - the one that should be good. Mercury is going direct, so follow the same route as parachutes.

Taurus (April 20-May 20): That wonderful wave is still rolling in, which means you have not stopped sailing, and its name is Destiny. Your star is still rising, as the moon in Taurus continues to increase the intensity of your emotions and your inner well-being.

Gemini (May 21-June 21): Don't ask how you feel, because you don't know yourself. Your star is still on the wane, and TA knows you're cheating in your homework. If you're still looking for an answer, your inner self knows the anxiety, and it's about to come to fruition.

Cancer (June 22-July 22): People are feeling more secure now, and your star is rising, but everyone goes through hard times. You're still having a good time, but we all have our little hangups.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22): Reality that wasn't possible for you earlier is now. Everyone knows you can.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): You're in a rather eclectic mood. You're not sure where you want to go, but you've been watching the same people for so long, it's time for a change. Your star will be rising, but you'll still feel a little empty.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): You've been the apple of everyone's eye for a while, and that's just fine. Everything seems to be coming together at the right moment. Your star is rising, and you're feeling good.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): It's hard to say anything about you because everyone is watching you. Your star is rising, and you're feeling good.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Your spirits are usually high, but there's a little anxiety, which is swell. This is a good time for you to take charge. You're still feeling a little empty, but your star is rising.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): You'll solidify your position, and everyone will be aware of it. Your star is rising, but you'll still feel a little empty.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Your stars are still shining bright. You've been watching the same people for so long, it's time for a change. Your star is rising, and you're feeling good.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20): You're good enough, you're smart enough, but diggins are enough for me. This is a good time for you to make a decision. Your star is rising, and you're feeling good.

NOTE: If your birthday is this week, you'll start having an interesting time because there will be more beans and a little Chinitz. Whatever you do, stay away from lean products and people named Curtis.
New UIHC eye clinic among 'premier institutions in world'

Chad Graham
The Daily Iowan

The UI Hospital and Clinics' new $50 million eye institute has opened next to the new pavilion on the corner of Gilbert and College streets on March 31 at 12:31 p.m. The institute is the largest eye clinic in the region.

The institute is a joint venture between the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics and the Iowa Lions Eye Institute. It is one of only three in the world that offers subspecialty care in all 12 subspecialties.

"The institute has the potential to be one of the premier eye institutes in the world," said Matthew A. Weingeist, head of the UIHC vision institute.

UIHC has to downsize and maybe let some people go because it is not getting enough money from patients and insurance companies," said Brian Dedrick, 29, of Coralville, a 1996 UI computer science graduate who was hired by the new facility.

"I think it's a great opportunity for people who want to be in medicine, but they don't come to see us until they're older. We have the opportunity to see them before they get old and do something about it," said Dedrick.

Playball!

Sunday was baseball's opening day and through the chorus of the first pitch from each mound it seemed so many springs had indeed symbolized the beginning of a new season. Something intangible had stirred within the fans. The eager excitement of the season was being felt by all. From the stands to the fields, the atmosphere was electric. The game had returned, and with it, the spirit of the sport.

Jamey Pregen

A lesson from America's game

The Wilson baseball was simple, as was the game itself. Men played baseball because it was fun, and everyone knew that you could not be good at the game unless you knew how to enjoy it. As the first pitch was thrown and the ball sailed through the air, the crowd erupted in cheers. It was a moment of pure joy, a moment that would last for eternity.

Birds, bees, and the Iowa legislature

Kim Painter

Birds and bees are always good, simply because they can communicate in a way that we can understand. They are misunderstood, but they are not afraid of being themselves. They are honest and open, and that is something we can all learn from.

Symbolic slavery

Slavery persists in the United States as racist atti-

dudes and traditions. It is a part of our history and it is a part of who we are as a nation. We cannot ignore it or pretend that it is not happening today. We must face it head on and work towards eradicating it from our society.

May we never lose the blessing of that truth. When the weather is fine, when the sun is shining, and when we are happy, we are free. Let us cherish this freedom and never take it for granted.

May we find the courage to shout "I have a dream!" and never be afraid to stand up for what we believe in.

May we never stop fighting for justice and equality. Let us be the change we want to see in the world.

May we never lose sight of the importance of education. Let us value knowledge and strive to make learning accessible to all.

May we always be guided by love and compassion. Let us be kind to one another and work towards creating a world where everyone is valued.

May we never forget the lessons of history. Let us learn from our past and work towards a brighter future.

"I don’t have to take out eight or nine games, I just take out two games that weekend, but I still have other things to do." Kris Carter of Muscatine, a student at Loras College, said. "It’s quite convincing."

At one point a producer told him, "Do you have any idea how much money you could make if you did this?"

"Definitely not," said Dr. Lange.

"We check on this every couple of times," said the producer.

8A - The body of 21-year-old "Miki" Koontz, 17, shown in this undated file photo, was found slain Aug. 29, 1995. James Pennington, 21, who said he was a drug dealer whose leader, Arthur Turner, provided this account of the crime:

"I was going to keep her as a hostage again for her political beliefs. Backing her head back, Rodolian Clinton laughed. "There's a certain truth in that," he said. "This is the only way I wish I could have kept her alive."

After eight days in southern Europe, with a week spent visiting the historic cities of Athens in Greece, the little town of Delphi in Greece and Ephesus, she had returned to the United States. On the morning of August 12, she had to run some errands and her mother planned to attend a wedding. But first, she told her mother, she wanted to go to a beauty salon.

Outside town, near a sewage plant for the little town of Huntington, a woman was waiting. Fearing she was about to be arrested, he had begun to cry. "It was the last time her mother saw her," Turner said. At Warren's first trial, the woman's body was found. He was arrested two days later, on August 15. The body was found three days later, on August 17. The dead woman was presumed to be Warren's first victim. Warren was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison for conspiracy to distribute drugs.

... The Hawkeyes were matched up against with a team score of 287. High winds made it difficult for the 15th-seeded team to put up any kind of score.

Iowa's John Shaler was the second Iowa man to score a 57 on Sunday. He finished the tournament with a 223. Shaler finished 15th at the tournament.

Southern Methodist captured the team title with a three-day total of 662.

Head coach Bruce Presser said he was pleased with the Hawkeyes' performance, despite finishing 15th.

"... the final score was a reflection of the tournament weather. ..."
Syracuse banks on 2-3 zone

NEW YORK — Rick Pitino has been here before, and he has been through it all before. Pitino had been an assistant coach in the NCAA championship game, and he had been through a losing season. But this year, he said, is different.

"I don't know how it's going to feel," Pitino said. "But I know it's going to be a lot different." he said, "This is Jim Boeheim."

Hotel, eight blocks away.

Many times for putting her in that house with three of Boeheim's buddies, Boeheim said. After meeting. After "She's happy. But if it's something that makes her happy, then it's worth it."

And when Kentucky faces Syracuse tonight as a 14-point favorite, it's going to be a tough one to contend with. The Wildcats are facing the Orangemen's zone, and it's going to be a challenge.

But Boeheim said that he's not worried about his team. After all, they've been playing against the zone every day in practice. The zone has been a big part of their preparation for this season, and Boeheim is confident that his team can handle it.

"You can't be afraid of anything," Boeheim said. "You have to go out there and play the game."

And Boeheim is looking forward to tonight's game. After all, it's the NCAA tournament, and the Wildcats are looking to make a run at the championship.

"We're going to enjoy this," Boeheim said. "We're going to make the most of it."
Wolverines get best of Hawks

One of the University of Iowa softball teams goals for the 1996 season is to win the Big Ten Conference. After dropping two-of-three to the Wolverines over the weekend, Iowa will have to rely on one other team to knock the Wolverines out of the Big Ten Conference to reach that goal.

The two teams split a doubleheader in Ann Arbor Saturday and Michigan came from behind Wednesday, April 3, 1996, to win the second game.

"It's a good thing," Blevins said of her decision to walk to Michigan State Saturday, April 6, 1996.

The Wolverines are still in the Big Ten. Michigan now stands at 23-9, 2-1. The two teams will play again in the regular season.

Iowa got out to an early lead in the first all-American honors.

"Iowa got out to an early lead in the third inning of Game 1 on a Melissa Wielandt sacrifice fly, a pair of Bilbao RBI and a hit by Sara Griffin. The Hawkeyes were never really threatened. Bilbao was the winning pitcher, allowing three runs on two hits," Rydze said of his divers, "I'm proud of the first all-American honors.

Pauline Selena. Her family planned to observe the tradition by covering her black granite gravestone with white roses—her favorite, said her father, Alan Quintanilla. "To me, she's going to live on like she did," said Bailey Sanchez of Corpus Christi. "For our parents, it was hard for us. Our generation, we all remember and know exactly what she meant to us."

Selena Quintanilla Perez, the 33-year-old singer sometimes called the Madonna of Tejano, was shot to death on March 31, 1995, by her former president of her fan club. "It's a wound that will be there for the rest of our lives," Sanchez's father said.
