House abortion decision sparks debate

House votes to override veto of abortion ban

Jim Altieres
Associated Press
WASHINGTON — House Republicans voted Tuesday to override President Clinton's veto of a bill that bans a form of late abortion.

The apparent lack of sufficient support in the Senate makes it unlikely the action will become law, but the vote on the so-called partial-birth abortion bill will succeed. However, the House vote sent a strong message to the chamber.

Police take steps to build community relations

Talks of increased communica tions between police and citizens shouldered aside the shooting death of Tony White, and issues that had already been started to close the gap between police and citizens.

The Citizens Police Academy, that is in its third year, is a unique program which is already producing results.

Meetings related to the academy and different citizens groups will feature a number of different events and the Iowa State University will sponsor a seminar on the subject.

The seminar will be held at

"We talk about as many aspects from the community that give people a better idea of what Johnson County Deputy Sheriff Sheryl Shipp said familiarizes us with department.

We reach back to the officers and we also spend four hours riding along with officers.

The revisions in the academy will also include a tour of the Johnson County Jail. Each academy member will spend four hours in the jail and each of the academy's 40 members will work with different officers.

The academy was intended to be a response to the community's growing concern over the issue of race.

"This project was always meant to develop a dialogue between the two sides of the issue," said one participant.

The project is also designed to help citizens and police to better understand each other.

Jackson's sword comes off as a character who is focused on his work and is determined to protect his family. The story is well-written, with a good balance of action and emotion. The characters are well-developed, and the plot is engaging. Overall, it was a satisfying read.

Semantics of Latino Heritage Month

To the Editor:

In your paper, there was an article about the "Heritage Month" (SL Oct. 18, "Holiday article celebrates the following month") that must be read. It seems like the "Heritage Month" was celebrated at the University of Iowa. In fact, my UNI and Iowa's heritage month was the first year we celebrated "Latino" Heritage Month. Before that, we only celebrated Hispanic Heritage Month.

I thought the article was very interesting and informative. I hope more people will celebrate "Latino" Heritage Month.

Corporate Media Scam

To the Editor:

Have you noticed "Michael Totten" talking on the local news about the future of the U.S. military? Totten is known as the "liberal media's" go-to expert. He is clearly a conservative and not an observer. However, he is not alone; the liberal media usually have a conservative or a neutral observer on each point of view.

Alumni will fight for Lambda Chi Alpha

To the Editor:

I read the commentary on the directed analysis of the OTI last week with great interest. I was briefly a member of Lambda Chi Alpha and am concerned about the direction of the fraternity.

I hope to be able to provide some observations. The alumni have a significant role in the governance of the university. They are elected by the university and are responsible for evaluating the performance of the student body. The alumni are also responsible for providing a voice for the graduates of the university.

I believe that the alumni should have a greater role in the decision-making process of the university. The alumni should be involved in the selection of the president and other key positions.

Sincerely,

Scientific skepticism for Natural Law Party

To the Editor:

I read the article on "Scientific skepticism for Natural Law Party" with great interest. I agree with the author's view that the Natural Law Party is not a legitimate organization.

The author states that the Natural Law Party is not a legitimate organization because it is not based on scientific principles. I agree with this view. The Natural Law Party is based on theosophy, which is a philosophy that is not based on scientific principles.

I believe that the Natural Law Party should not be given a platform to spread its ideas. The author's view that the Natural Law Party is not a legitimate organization is correct.

Sincerely,

Rohypnol headline contradicts the information

To the Editor:

When a woman is assaulted and raped, it is not her fault. It is not her fault if she has been drinking or using drugs, nor is it her fault if she has become involved in a dating or romantic relationship.

The meaning behind this kind of assault is that the woman was胁迫ed, is not a crime, a crime that not one person deserves.

The concept of "rape crisis line" is not to be used against a person; they are always able to protect themselves. The point is to provide them with a sense of power or drugs — in other words. It is not to keep them up, it is to make them more accessible to keep them safe.

Sincerely,

Clinton revs up Pacific Northwest bus tour

Robert Burns

Associated Press

TACOMA, Wash. — President Clinton kicked off a three-day, cross-country trip by addressing workers at Boeing Co. in Seattle on Thursday.

In the speech, Clinton said economic recovery would come only if the nation reduced the federal budget deficit, which has hit a record level.

"We need to strengthen the economy of this nation," Clinton said. "We need to get our fiscal house in order, and we're on the way to doing it."

Clinton talked about the importance of the budget deficit in his re-election effort, saying it was a key issue in his 1992 campaign.

IBM grants benefits to same-sex partners

From Ramtin\n
NEW YORK — IBM on Thursday became one of the largest companies to extend health benefits to the partners of its homosexual employees, and said that its policy will be expanded to other benefits.

According to Commerce Grand, a spokeswoman for the company, IBM now offers health-benefits to same-sex partners, a move that is expected to cost the company about $20 million in health care costs annually. The policy will also be extended to other benefits, such as life and disability insurance.

The decision by IBM is seen as a major step forward for gay rights advocates, who have been pushing for similar policies at other large companies.

The move by IBM is also expected to set a precedent for other companies to follow suit.

The new policy will affect about 30,000 IBM employees, who are married or in a committed relationship. The policy will also cover domestic partners, but only if they are not married.

Corporate leaders have been under pressure from shareholders and employees to extend benefits to same-sex partners. Some companies have already implemented similar policies, but IBM's move is considered a significant step forward.

The company has been criticized in the past for its stance on gay rights. In 2010, IBM was ranked last in a survey of gay-friendly companies

by the Human Rights Campaign, a group that promotes gay rights.

The move by IBM is seen as a milestone in the fight for gay rights. It is expected to be welcomed by many companies, which have been under pressure to extend benefits to same-sex partners.

The new policy is expected to come into effect in the next few months. IBM has not announced a specific date for the rollout of the new benefits.

U.S. boosts presence in Persian Gulf

Andrew Selsky (Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — The United States is boosting its military presence in the Persian Gulf region, according to officials in the Pentagon, in response to increased tensions in the area.

The officials said the United States would send an additional 3,000 troops to the region, bringing the total number of military personnel in the area to more than 30,000.

The move comes as tensions rise between the United States and Iran, with both countries accusing each other of threatening to use force.

In a statement, the United States

Department of Defense said it was expanding its military presence in the region to ensure the safety and security of American personnel and assets.

The officials said the increase in military personnel would include

How can anyone in this country overlook the names of those who have fought for employees' rights? Has anyone learned anything from the recent controversy over the White House复活节鸡蛋的象征意义？

The state health department ordered the eggs to be destroyed, but the controversy has raised questions about the role of government in controlling symbols and traditions.

"It's probably about the worst thing that could happen to the AIDS program," said James Howell, Florida Department spokesperson for the Florida Department of Health and Human Services. "We have been working very closely with the Florida Department of Health and Human Services to ensure that the eggs are handled in a way that protects the health of the public."

The White House has said it will work with the health department to make sure the eggs are disposed of properly. However, the controversy has raised questions about the role of government in controlling symbols and traditions.

Robert E. Reiter, assistant professor of political science at the University of Miami, wrote an article in the Miami Herald in which he argued that the postponement of the bill is a clear indication of the president's inability to make meaningful progress on the issue of terminally ill patients.

"It is time for the president to take a stand," Reiter wrote. "The American public is looking for leadership on this issue, and the president is not providing it."

But anti-abortion lawmakers argue that the bill would take away a woman's right to choose.

"I don't think it is the government's role to make decisions about when life begins and ends," said Rep. Pat Schroeder, D-Colo., who supported the postponement of the measure.

"The president has been clear that he supports the right to choose," Schroeder added. "But the bill would go too far and would interfere with the decisions of doctors and patients."

The postponement of the bill has given opponents of abortion another opportunity to argue that the president is not taking a clear stance on the issue.

"The president should be unequivocal in his support of the right to choose," said Rep. Chellie Pingree, D-Maine. "He can't waffle on this issue any longer."

However, the postponement has also given pro-life supporters another chance to argue that the president is not doing enough to protect the right to life.

"The president's position on abortion is weak," said Rep. James Traficant, D-Ohio. "He needs to be more forceful in his opposition to this bill."

The bill, which was introduced by Rep. James Sensenbrenner, R-Wis., would require doctors to report cases of illegal abortion to the Department of Health and Human Services.

The bill has drawn criticism from both sides of the aisle.

"The bill is an infringement on the privacy of women," said Rep. Nita Lowey, D-N.Y. "It is a clear violation of the reproductive rights of women."

Iowa is one of the more unusual hockey teams. The Hawkeyes have faced a number of challenges over the years, including a string of losses, and have continued to improve under new coach Jack Kramer.

A new part-time assistant coach, Beetwixt, will be hired to help with the hockey program. Beetwixt is a former Iowa hockey player who played on the team from 1978-81 and was a member of three NCAA Tournament teams.

The hockey program has struggled in recent years, winning just one game in 2019 and three games in 2020. However, the team has shown improvement in the last two seasons, with wins over the University of Minnesota and Michigan State.

The hockey program has been hit hard by injuries in recent years, with several players missing significant time.

Despite the challenges, the hockey program has continued to develop young talent and has shown promise for the future.

Hawks make sole homestand

The Iowa cross country teams will be able to do something this weekend that they've never been able to do for any other meet during the '96 season.

The Hawks have the Iowa Invitational on Saturday, Sept. 28, at Finkbine Golf Course. Both men and women will be competing, with the men running on an 8K starting at 11 a.m. and women on a 5K starting at 11:30 a.m.

Coach Rachel Strohman said that her team's goal is to race as a unit and to improve their times.

The Hawks have been working hard in practice, and Strohman said that she's confident in their ability to perform.

The Hawkeye men's team is coming off a successful meet at the NCAA Indoor Championships, where they finished fourth overall.

The Hawkeye women's team finished 17th at the meet.

The only race that counts is the one that counts at the NCAA Championships, which is the race that the Hawkeye men and women will be competing in this weekend.

Strohman said that the team is focused on improving their times and competing as a team.

The Hawks have not won the Iowa Invitational since 1991, and Strohman said that the team is determined to change that.

Seminole crush Wolfpack, 51-17

RALEIGH, N.C. — That roofs-chow showdown of the improvement stark Jimmy Bowden was hoping for Thursday night, throwing two 56-yard passing passes to the winner of the Florida Tiffany, North Carolina 51-27.

Warrick Dunn rushed for 184 yards to complement Bowden and the Florida defense shut down its second straight opponent. The Seminoles also dominated the North Carolina Conference time out the Wolfpack for the fourth consecutive times, outscoring them 24-6 during that span.

N.C. State (2-2, 0-2) had lost in first two games since 1987.

Buddy threw for only 72 yards in a scoreless 44-7 victory over Duke 12 days ago, after suffering from a sore arm. The arrow was sharp again. Bowden passed for 251 yards and was named first team all-conference.

He completed 17-of-26 for 291 yards, 1 of 19 passing games in a row open for an 8-yard touchdown pass to quarterback Danny Wuerffel.

His 28-yard passing game is considering D.O. Green in the last play of the first quarter gave the Seminoles a 7-0 lead. The secret of Roger Thome is one of the best AL third basemen to come along in half a century. Brett was the league's only third baseman in 1989, and Thome is the only one to have driven in 100 runs this season. His stats say he's in the same class as the game's elite.

Thome's offense has been on a roll since he suffered a bout of wind up in July. He hit his eighth homer in nine games Wednesday night to pace a crucial tiebreaker in the eighth. After Williams' second homer of the game, runners scored on a broken play at the plate as the Indians added seven runs in the inning to keep the AL East leaders fuming. He's gone on a home run binge. He's even batting over .300 in July, which looked like it was impossible only three weeks ago.

He has thrived in the No. 3 spot in batting order, which looked like it was certain death in Detroit before they started putting him there.

The Orioles remained four and a half games back and had designs on catching Baltimore, which had made up a 10-9 deficit Thursday night for a 10-9 win, salvaging the finale of the twin bill. Of the 31 pitchers he threw 151 pitches he threw 151 pitches on April 29, 1986. Thome can go out as a five-time All-Star because he's a five-time selection. His fastball was clocked at 96 mph. The pitch count of 151 sounds a control problem, but it was just a matter of getting 14-15 outs and a few more for a complete game. It's hard work, but the rewards are worth it.

For his career, during the Detroit Tigers' 5-3 victory over the Kansas City Royals with a .314 average, 30 home runs and 110 RBI, Thome also has joined积极80 players to have hit 30 home runs and 100 RBI. He's got a .300 average in July, which looked like it was impossible only three weeks ago.

After frightening drop-off, ‘It’s Braves’ time’

ATLANTA — Three weeks ago, it looked as if the Atlanta Braves were on the way to running away with the National League East as they beat Chicago 5-1 in their opener of a three-game sweep of the Cubs.

After frightening drop-off, ‘It’s Braves’ time’.

Favre appeals status in drug abuse program

Misses His Freedom

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Brett Favre was not 100 percent Friday, but he said he will play Sunday.

Favre has missed the Packers' first two games after injuring his right ankle in the season opener. He did not practice Friday, and coach Mike Holmgren said Favre is questionable to play Sunday against Chicago.

"I'm feeling a little better today," Favre said. "I'm able to continue moving around, and he hopes to play.

Favre said he will not start if he does not feel well enough.

"I don't want to go out there and risk getting hurt again," Favre said.

Favre's availability is crucial for the Packers, who are 0-2 to start the season.

Green Bay Packers running back Edgar Bennett breaks away from the San Diego Chargers during a first-quarter touchdown Sunday, Sept. 15, in Green Bay, Wis.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Based on the Packers' postgame reports, Green Bay halfback Bennett might tough it out again in the year's next game.

He hurt his left ankle during Sunday's game against the San Diego Chargers and did not return.

Bennett, who scored Green Bay's first touchdown, was listed as questionable to play again.

"It looks like a sprain," Green Bay coach Mike Holmgren said, "but we'll find out more information tomorrow.

"We'll probably have a couple of days to decide whether he'll be out or not.

"I don't think it's anything serious, but we'll wait until tomorrow to see how he feels.

Bennett, who has 212 carries in five years, said he's had ankle problems before.

"I've had it before, but it's not too bad," he said. "I'll be ready to play when it's time.

"I think I'll be fine in the next game, but we'll see how it goes.

"I don't want to put myself in a situation where I can't play, so I'll do whatever I can to get ready."
Iowa volleyball looks to upset defending national champion Nebraska

"We were feeling pretty good about ourselves," Brent Favre said. "But when we woke up, we realized we were 0-4."

With Buffalo's Jim Kelly out of the lineup, either Alex Van Pelt (above) or Todd Collins will start Sunday against Dallas. The two have rotated the backup position so far this season.

The Cornhuskers, who have a 7-3 record into this weekend, are back to a place where they're used to being: on top.

"We're going back to a place where we're used to being," senior quarterback Tommie Frazier said. "It's a good feeling, I tell you.

"We're used to beating the top teams in the nation."
