The Iowa River Corridor Trail project creates several construction seasons, Davidsen said.

"We have to do it in phases," says Hassick said.

"The Iowa River Corridor Trail project was pushed to 1999 because the amount needed to get to finish it all is one year, instead of two or three years ago." The money was always tight, both during their undergraduate years and now, he added.

"We are still doing both projects, putting something every year," said Davidsen.

Davidson said the trail was a key feature in the development of the Iowa River Corridor Trail project.

"I think those property owners were a little reluctant in part of that business," Hassick said.

Mondale to work for law firm after serving as U.S. ambassador to Japan

Minneapolis (AP) — Don’t expect Walter Mondale to be around building his throne now that he’s a pay-as-you-go "renter." The former U.S. ambassador to Japan, who spent four months in the Far East, will begin working Monday for the Minneapolis law firm of Winerman & Winerman.

Mondale’s wife, Joan, said her husband would continue his diplomatic work as he does until he retires next year. Mondale, who said he’ll work pro bono while he can, knows "the world looks askance at the idea of putting politics to rest that quickly, but I’m talking about cutting-edge technology."

The ambassadorship was Mondale’s final diplomatic job after 30 years in public life. He said he hadn’t planned to serve more than a two-year term, but would consider numerous offers to work on behalf of major corporate interests.

After three years in Japan, the former vice president and his wife, who are untroubled by the notion that they’re raising their three children and grandchildren, a couple of thousan-...
Police department adopts new burglary alarm, open-door policies

The Daily Iowan

Iowa City Police Department is upgrading its emergency communication system with local businesses to help officials at the University of Iowa, explaining the new burglar alarm system.

"The Iowa City Police Department is adopting a new system to alert businesses to an emergency," said Iowa City Police Officer Steven C. E. Johnson. "This system is designed to save lives and improve safety for everyone who uses it, and it will be used for the first time on December 15 at 8:33 p.m."

The system is being tested in two ways:

1. A test run at the University Book Store in Coralville, which is to be followed by a second test run at the Skaters' Alliance in Iowa City.

2. The Republic, the University's student newspaper, will be notified in an emergency.

The system was developed by the University of Iowa Rappahannock River Police Department. The University of Iowa will test the system and other businesses will be required to install it.

The system will send an emergency message to the University Book Store and to the Skaters' Alliance on December 15 at 8:33 p.m. The test run will include the following:

The University Book Store will receive an emergency message and will notify the University Police Department.

The Skaters' Alliance will receive an emergency message and will notify the Iowa City Police Department.

The test run will be monitored by the University of Iowa Rappahannock River Police Department.

The University of Iowa Rappahannock River Police Department will evaluate the test run and make recommendations for improvement.

The University of Iowa Rappahannock River Police Department will be responsible for maintaining the system and ensuring that all businesses have the ability to respond to an emergency.

The test run will be conducted in cooperation with the University of Iowa Rappahannock River Police Department.

Happy Holidays from TCI

TCL of Eastern Iowa, the cable provider associated with the cities of Coralville and Iowa City, recently gave the area its own version of a holiday gift, just in time for Hanukkah, and Christmas.

The current cable bill said simply, "TCI is pleased to announce that on Dec. 6, we will launch two new channels on your cable system:"

1. Cartoon Network, Channel 38. Have a safe and Happy Holiday Season.
2. Wheel of Fortune, Channel 16. Willow is a very small town.

"In your will, if you so desire, you may have the remainder of your estate .'

Jim Mesiner, TCI President and General Manager, says the cable operators want to thank their subscribers, who will?

"We promise to install in Iowa the technology of Fiber optics. The wonder technology. Guaranteed to last a lifetime. I have often been asked, 'What is Fiber optics?' Adding Animal Planet? It's a matter of economics.

"As you all know, Animal Planet is the channel that takes you into the world of the outdoors, the world of nature, the world of wildlife. And now, for the first time, you can see it in your own city.

"TCI is repositioning three popular and costly channels with one inexpensive one to offer its subscribers, who will?

"The first channel is the local channel, which is available for only $5 a month. The second channel is the local and network channels, which are available for only $5 a month. The third channel is the local and network channels, which are available for only $5 a month.

"In your will, you may have the remainder of your estate.

Jim Mesiner, TCI President and General Manager, says as they all have their differences, TCI will install fiber optics, and that they are now available in Iowa's major cities. We are looking forward to the future, which will bring a new era of service.

Under pressure from the Clion administration, Russell Udelman, director of the Iowa State University-based Population in Crisis Council, announces he is stepping down after four years.

The council, which is part of the University of Nebraska, says it will continue to operate despite knowledge of its own financial problems.

For years, it has been a source of pride for the university that it has been able to provide educational opportunities for students from all over the world.

But now, with the problems of the council, it is more than just a matter of pride.

The council has been forced to make some tough decisions, and it is not easy to know what to do next.

But the council remains committed to providing educational opportunities for students from all over the world.

And, as always, it will continue to work hard to provide those opportunities.
Hamblin beats the streets

Angie Hamblin used to play basketball and soccer for the Iowa City West girls' teams. She was a three-sport athlete, and her skills on the basketball court helped her earn a spot on the University of Iowa women's basketball team.

As a sophomore, Hamblin averaged 14.4 points per game and was named to the All-Big Ten team. She was also a four-year letterwinner and helped lead the Hawkeyes to the NCAA tournament.

After playing for four seasons at Iowa, Hamblin transferred to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She helped lead the Tar Heels to the NCAA championship in 2017, where she scored a career-high 22 points in the title game.

Hamblin's basketball career is just the latest chapter in her athletic career. She also played soccer and volleyball in high school, and was a three-sport athlete at Iowa.

But Hamblin's impact on the basketball court is just the beginning. She is also a talented singer and songwriter, and has released several albums over the years.

In addition to her music career, Hamblin is a successful motivational speaker and author. Her memoir, "The Girl with the Painted Face," was published in 2018 and became a best-seller.

Hamblin's story is one of determination and resilience. Despite facing numerous obstacles, she never gave up on her dreams of playing basketball at the highest level.

And now, as a successful musician, author and motivational speaker, Hamblin continues to inspire others to pursue their own dreams, no matter how impossible they may seem.

Hill leads way with double-double

Associated Press

TORONTO — Grant Hill thrives in the most difficult of roles for the Detroit Pistons — that of a leader in his 13th season. He did so in front of a sold-out crowd Thursday night at Air Canada Centre, where he scored 24 points on 10-of-12 shooting.

When we needed to make the shots, he was the one who stepped up, after leading with 21 points in 21 minutes of playing time — all in the second half — before leaving with 9:34 left to play.

Hill was the MVP in the Pistons' 119-89 win over the Toronto Raptors.

"I'm just happy for the guys that made it with me and fought with me," Hill said. "It's a very hard road, but we're on it."

BOSTON — Former Thunder forward Kendrick Perkins had 26 points and 14 rebounds in the second half to help the Oklahoma City Thunder pull away to a 127-107 victory over the Toronto Raptors.

Perkins also had 14 rebounds and four blocks.

Manning has many variables to weigh

Associated Press

KNOXVILLE - Peyton Manning insists he's hard-pressed to join the likes of two-man All-American teams at Tennessee's quarterback position.

"I've never even been in a situation in which you have an every-down quarterback," he said. "No. 16 is the starting quarterback, hoping to be a two-quarterback situation. No. 16 is the starting quarterback, hoping to be a two-quarterback situation."

Manning's considerations are shaped by how he's taking lessons and putting them to use in the Volunteers' backfield. It's a situation he didn't envision as recently as last year when he was an every-down quarterback, then a backup quarterback, then a backup quarterback, then a backup quarterback, then a backup It was at Tenne Stadium and the Packers had no answers when they lost 21-7 there this year. The rarest of the rare, the Packers lost their sixth straight game at home and really stretched the losing streak to the Super Bowl. Yet, the Packers are still in contention. Some of their plays have been disconcerting enough, but the defense has held its own most of the time.

2. Dallas 13-10. Even without Lane Curtis and Charles Haley, the defense is superb. It held New England, the highest scoring team in the league, to two field goals and without a touchdown in three of last four games. "Maybe we'll get it back for the playoffs," says Emmitt Smith, who will not be spread out next week while the Cowboys play in the AFC championship game. Maybe they will, but the Cowboys feel they will have to go to New Orleans, at home in Mississippi or Philadelphia, then get to Charlotte and Green Bay. The likely winners in the NFC championship games are Philadelphia and Chicago, who have five of their last six victories.

3. Green Bay 14-10. The only way the Packers lost tonight is if Minnesota and Tennessee lose twice more while Carolina wins. That scenario seems too great, butMinnesota's return of Danan Hughes and Minnesota and the Packers are too great. Fox's turn to play in New Orleans in Jan. 26, in the playoffs, chalk will help the Packers probably will have to get past the Panthers and other teams of Carolina. The game will take place at Lambeau Field in Ocober and should have won it in regulation, and they have excepted the Packers to the Super Bowl.

The movie is not just a biopic, but an

Close's performance is, well, close

The film is both entertaining and
