The Best Harsher Performances of 1996-97

1. Alpine Alley American Dance Theater: "Theatres"

Never before has there been a more thematically rich and honest dance performance in Iowa City, as witnessed by the audience at Alpine Alley American Dance Theater in the last month of the '96-'97 season.

This performance made the audience laugh, cry, shriek and think. It was a successful demonstration of what dance might be and how it can be used to communicate ideas.

Kiss of the Spider Woman

Rutgers University

2. Stomp

Creating rhythms and movement using everyday objects is a theme that has been explored many times, but Stomp, with its creative use of found objects such as brooms and kitchen sinks, transformed the theme into a new and exciting experience.

Lena

University of Iowa

3. "Lena"

A story of a young woman who is trying to break free from the expectations placed upon her by society. Lena's journey is one of self-discovery and empowerment, and her perseverance clearly paid off.

Best 10 Theatre Events of 1996-97

1. "Strawberry"

A play that explores the theme of power and control in a relationship, and the devastating effects of societal pressure on its characters.

2. "Fool's Progress"

A comedy that satirizes the British aristocracy, with a talented ensemble cast bringing to life this classic British play.

3. "Three Sisters"

A production that brought Chekhov's classic play to life, with a strong emphasis on character development and cinematic staging.

4. "The Music of the Heart"

A heart-wrenching story of survival and family, with a powerful performance by Gary Sinise as a musicians who lost everything in the Great Depression.

5. "Choir Boy"

A coming-of-age story set in a wealthy private school, with a young man learning to navigate the complex social dynamics of his environment.

6. "Chorus Line"

Miami experiences rare twister

By David Rovics

MIA MI (AP) - A tornado passed near Vero Beach, Florida on Monday, sending a 4-by-6 piece of wood "like a whirlpool," traveling all the way through downtown and then jumping into the ocean as it fell.

"It bounced so hard I thought we hit another plane or something," American Airlines passenger Claude Remy, of a tornado that caused turbulence for planes flying overhead.

Remy told the Daily News that he and his mother, who were traveling from Miami to New York, were sitting in the top rear seats of the plane when the turbulence started. "The plane touched down on the runway and took off again, but brought heavy turbulence," he said.

"We thought it was going to hit us in the last 15 minutes of the flight," Remy said. "It was a whirlpool for me, it looked like a whirlpool, it was spinning out of the ground and set down a whirlpool for us.

"The plane touched down on the runway and took off again, but brought heavy turbulence," he said.

"I was sitting there looking out the window, and suddenly I saw a whirlpool," said passenger Claude Remy, whose name was not immediately available.

Stiffer penalties and preventive measures for juvenile crime

Breaking another human being is always a wrong thing to do. The human race, however, is not a perfect species. All nations system is so very slow. Thoughtfully, we are taking some new preventive actions to minimize and deter criminal behavior. Following public protest, a new group of officials have been elected. These officials are working hard to improve the situation. The House of Representatives has passed a bill that includes several new preventive provisions into law. The police now have more power to arrest and detain individuals suspected of committing crimes. The police are also being trained to identify and prevent crimes before they occur. It is now more difficult for criminals to escape justice. Some politicians have also proposed new laws that would increase penalties for convicted criminals. These laws are currently under debate. Meanwhile, the police continue to work hard to keep our communities safe.

MALCOLM X - The first international aid supplies trickled on Monday, and the government regarded the event as a water.

The world's leading aid organizations have been offering assistance to the people of the region. The United Nations, the Red Cross, and other organizations have sent food and medical supplies to the area. The aid has been welcomed by the people, who have been living in difficult conditions since the war began.

The aid has been distributed through the Red Cross, the United Nations, and other organizations. The aid has been used to help people in a variety of ways, including providing food and medical supplies. The aid has also been used to help the refugees and displaced people who have been living in the region.

The aid will continue to be provided, and the United Nations will continue to work with the governments and organizations to ensure that the aid is distributed effectively and efficiently. ANC admits to bombings, torture

By Alexandra Lox

CAPE TOWN, South Africa — South African President F. W. de Klerk today admitted that the state security forces had committed acts of terrorism andisodes ies against apartheid — apartheid killings, torture and kidnapping.

The admissions were made in a heated, 38-page report to South Africa’s Truth and Reconciliation Commission, which is offering the country’s leadership a chance to watch past wounds heal. The commission is probing the political crimes of the apartheid era.

The commission was created in 1995 and the hearings have focused on allegations against government officials and police.

ANC founder in 1912, and the chief governing body, called the party that included no majority-voting-age population is black but was a victim of apartheid. The party that was before the late that killed 42 people, including some 8.7 million Americans covered a separate opinion by Breyer, and a majority-minority districts. Braves give Pirates third loss in three days

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Chipper Jones homered and Greg Maddux won his fourth straight game as the Atlanta Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-3 Monday night, giving the Pirates their third straight loss.

Jones hit a solo home run in the third inning, breaking a 3-3 tie. Maddux (4-3) gave up three hits and one run in seven innings to improve his record to 6-3.

The Pirates (33-29) have lost three straight and 13 of their last 15 games.

Jones' homer off Pirates starter Charlie Hayes in the third inning was his second home run of the season.

Maddux allowed only one run in seven innings and picked up his fourth straight victory.

Jones, who has hit 125 home runs over the past five seasons, has homered in three of his last five games against Pittsburgh.

The Pirates, who have not won a series since May, have lost seven of their last nine games.

PHILADELPHIA — Darrel Steinbrenner and a couple of doubles hold in Chicago's seventh-inning, five-game losing streak.

Larry Walker had two hits, increasing his league-leading batting average to .381, and hit a home run to help the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Chicago Cubs 9-2 Wednesday.

Walker's solo home run in the fourth inning gave Pittsburgh a 1-0 lead.

The Pirates (32-29) have lost six straight games and 12 of their last 15.

Steinbrenner, who had three hits, said the losing streak is not getting to him.

"We're just not hitting the ball enough," Steinbrenner said after the game. "We need to get some more of those to the opposite field."

Despite gripes, players down about Banks' departure

By Mike Trij pk

Though player complaints played a role in the decision to remove Larry Banks from his coaching position, many of the Iowa State baseball fans were surprised at the news Tuesday morning that Banks had been demoted to the freshmen level.

"We've had our ups and downs, with our team in the Big 12, but we've been able to stay in the mix," said Travis Martin, a sophomore pitcher.

"I think the move was a good one for us as a team, but it's not easy for Banks to make," said Jordan Teel, a freshman catcher.

Banks, who had served as a co-captain this season, was named to the freshmen level for the first time in his career.

"I'm excited about the opportunity to work with the freshmen," said Banks. "I think we can help bring some energy and leadership to the team."

Despite the positive outlook, Banks admitted that the decision was difficult.

"It's tough to be demoted to the freshmen level," said Banks. "I think I've earned the right to be a co-captain, and I'm going to miss all of those, including my teammates at Bucks. Especially Coach Banks."

Banks' decision to step down after years at the Hawks' helm is an end to a long tradition of excellence in Iowa State baseball.

"He is the second straight Mets player to be named to the freshmen level," said Martin.

"I think this move is a good one for us as a team, but it's not easy for Banks to make," said Teel.
