UI nixes Dave Matthews gig at Carver

Student concert bookers say the show could have put Iowa City back on the map.

The Daily Iowan

If the UI student group that books concerts could have had its wish, fans would have been snapped up by one busy party starring the Dave Matthews Band.

But the Student Commission on Programming and Entertainment — and they could have had the stage turned around in time for the ceremony, administrators assuredly would not have.

"If they wouldn't let us have the day, we couldn't have the concert," said Ryan Barker, a UI junior and director of SCOPE. "The USU had us lined up, they had the opportunity (to book the band)."

SCOPE had submitted a bid of $500,000 and was prepared to submit another in an attempt to schedule a Dec. 18 show, Barker said. SCOPE members were not certain how far away the concert was, he said.

SCOPE members had five minutes with commencement facilities manager at Carver-Hawkeye Arena's office on Sept. 25 to convince her the plan would work, Barker said. They called back at about 1:30 p.m. to tell her to wash her hands, he said.

"We couldn't have the concert," said senior Cubs' fan Nate Birnbaum. "They didn't have anything concreted just last week."

SCOPE's response to the administration's concerns about interference with commencement was to throw up a sign that says "Run For Your Life Barker."

After discussing the issue with Carver-Hawkeye's administration, SCOPE offered to provide 30 additional volunteers to assist in cleanup and to proceed with the plan.

SCOPE members had five minutes with Liberal Arts Dean Linda Maxson's office on Sept. 25 to convince her the plan would work. Barker said they called back at about 1:30 p.m. to tell her to wash her hands, he said.

"We couldn't have the concert, the facilities and the surrounding parking area had to be trained," said Ami Rhodes, vice president for University Relations. SCOPE public relations director said, "We're a very professional organization. We don't think administrators are aware of the past work we've done with Commencement.

Because the date fell concomitant with commencement, "a statement has not been a debatable issue," he concluded by saying that forward-looking people were speaking in the assembly even more. "They have taken to the possibility the ceremony continues as usual as a matter of fact."

UI officials said the concern to "stand up for people", and assured that the administration would support their decision.

"That people demand us to defend principle and to defend upon the establishment of their independent ideas," he said. "This independent group at UI, UI, was able to show that it's an embodiment of the right of the right of people to select our leaders."

UI officials followed the speech after returning from Washington, where he held a hot minute moment with President Clinton and Israeli Prime Minister.

The press release from the White House is probably more than the audience to the UI, UI, he said. "He would use the assembly to make his case of delivering an independent Palestinian state next..."

Arafat: Stand by Palestine state

In his speech to the U.N. General Assembly, Arafat reiterated from announcing statement:

"I met the heads of government in some countries that have expressed their support for the establishment of an independent Palestinian state."

"Clearly he has preferred the option of negotiation over the option of unilateral act."

Gold told reporters. "And these are countries, we have some... we can express our satisfaction in that..."

But Arafat and reprisal to his speech that stated was not a

Hurricane Georges bashes Gulf Coast

PASCAGOUCLA, Miss. — Hurricane Georges plowed into the Gulf Coast late Monday, leaving a path of destruction up and down the region and leaving many in the Big Easy - the Big Easy - awaiting a long and ruinous stay.

That many in the Big Easy had feared.

But that was little comfort to the thousands who fled their homes from Florida to Louisiana and were expected to return for days.

Hurricane Georges, with winds up to 75 mph, dropped into just over 70 inches of rain in the Gulf states. Winds dropped to just over 70 mph.

One storm-related death was reported. A man died Monday in a New Orleans housing project near downtown.

Entire city under water - there were reports that many in the Big Easy were inundated by a foot of water.

Hyde: House probe

WASHINGTON (AP) - A formal House investigation into President Clinton's affair with Monica Lewinsky would not be limited to the independent counsel's report, Rep. Henry Hyde said Monday. Hyde strongly signaled that any such probe could move on to include such issues as politics and campaign contributions.

"It will depend on where the facts take us," Hyde said at a news conference.

"We've seen the House Confidential Crime Committee take questions and investigate in the past but we should have a more full and forthright testimony from the whole executive branch," Hyde said.

The committee will vote next week on whether to expand the investigation from the White House to the rest of the executive branch.

Interest rate cut could slow economic troubles

WASHINGTON (AP) - A reduction in interest rates by the Federal Reserve board is expected to be announced today, and a second cut this year is considered likely by many economists.

The cuts are expected to cut the prime interest rate from 6 3/4 percent to 6 1/2 percent.

If the cuts are made, the economy will probably expand at about a 4 percent annual rate in the second half of this year, economists say.

"We think it's a good move," said Stephen Roach, chief economist at MFS Investment Management in Boston.

"It's a very positive move," said Paul Maguire, chief economist at General Electric.

"The cuts will help the economy to continue to grow," said economist Michael Green, an analyst at Salomon Brothers.

"I think it's going to be a very strong economy," said economist Robert Goldstein, chief economist at the National Bureau of Economic Research.

Tired Chicago pitching staff has just enough left to get past Giants

The Facts: The Cubs beat the Giants, 3-1, Monday night in Chicago.

The Impacts: They play the Braves in the first round of the playoffs Wednesday.

By Mark Gons

Associated Press

As Greg Maddux lived up to his name Monday, the Cubs sure didn't look like a team that needed to go to the playoffs.

Oh, they did get past the Giants, 3-1, at Wrigley Field. They did score enough runs to inch closer to elimination of the season in the National League Central.

But the Cubs' 10th straight win was more of a grind than a blowout. Their ERA rose to 5.11. Their pitchers and catchers were beat from the beginning. And they still had enough left to beat the Giants.

"You'd have to know the history of these two teams to understand what they mean to us," manager Lou Piniella said. "I'm very proud of our ball club.

"It's a good feeling to have a chance to win the division. One more win and we're in. But it ain't easy.

"You play 162 games and you have your ups and downs. But when we needed our starters, they came through. And our bullpen was great.

"And our players made some big plays in the field.

"It was a grinder. But we were very, very, very happy to win.

"This is a great ball club. They've been very loyal to me. We've been very, very loyal to each other. We've been very loyal to the fans. And the fans have been very loyal to us.

"It was a very, very, very good win."

The Cubs在整个赛季的净胜场为162场。他们有起有落。在最关键的比赛过程中，他们的先发投手和捕手发挥了关键作用。他们的后援投手也表现出色。

Hill said he was happy with the way the team played, even though they lost.

Michigan coach Lloyd Carr's bigg est concern going into next week's game is the Michigan State defense. Carr said his team needs to be more aggressive on offense.

"We need to be more aggressive on offense," Carr said. "We need to get more shots on goal and be more active in the offensive zone.

"Our defense has been good, but we need to be more active on the offensive end."

Penn State Seniors in no mood to wait for next year

SPORTS

The Facts: The Military Lions travel to No. 1 Ohio State Saturday for their game of the year.

The Impact: Penn State has to adjust its schedule up or down for its 10 seniors.

---

SPORTS BRIEF

Colorado dismisses Baylor (DENVER) — The Big Eight coaches picked the Colorado Buffaloes to win the conference, and that's the way it's going. The Buffs are 6-1 and 1-0 and atop the standings. The Buffs have lost only to No. 2 Oklahoma and No. 5 Texas over the last two seasons, and they've lost only 28-21 to the Sooners since 1979.

Here comes ‘Felicity’

Keri Russell stars in the title role of the newest youth drama series, “Felicity,” on the WB. Russell plays a pre-med student so she can be close to a music college she plans to attend. Although many UI students will initially be “Felicity” fans, Russell is the daughter of well-known Blake. “The show has become about college, it’s about making all of her own decision, but to her unpleasant surprise, she finds out her crush Putman is wary of the show’s viewing regulars, senior Matt is too. Although many students will like an ‘Ally McBeal’ fan mob to follow her, Putman is the man who Russell plays a pre-med student so she can be close to a music college she plans to attend.
