The Daily Iowan

Fry says goodbye

Going cold turkey on Thanksgiving

Coachng legend leaves behind a gamut of emotions

a traditional Fry being, "Texas, 1 Amherst!" "Well, as an answer compared to the current situation, they will send him to another country for further training before he returns to the United States.

The old land was already very sad, and they had seen the other colonies form. After Fry's Monday press conference, the Iowa fans' best guess is that he will be stepping into a situation similar to the one he faced many years ago. However, Fry's Monday press conference was one of the most memorable events in Iowa football history, and his name is synonymous with Iowa Football, as he was the head coach for 20 years.

For a football fan, it is the right time for a new start and a new coach; having a younger coach will help both the university and its fans.

The Iowa fans are very hopeful that Hayden Fry will be his successor. Like many of those fans, they feel it is time for a new start and a new coach, and they pray that Hayden Fry will be his successor.

The Iowa fans feel that Hayden Fry will be his successor, and they pray that Hayden Fry will be his successor. Like many of those fans, they feel it is time for a new start and a new coach, and they pray that Hayden Fry will be his successor.

I.C. bucks violent-crime increase

According to an FBI report, 1,070 more violent crimes were reported in Iowa in 1997.

The violent crime rate in Iowa City was not part of the state's violent crime rate increase.

In 1997, Iowa City had the largest increase in violent crimes in the United States last year, and the third-largest increase in local crime, according to an FBI report released Wednesday. The Iowa City Police Department reported that the city had an 8.2 percent increase in violent crimes.

For the nation, the violent crime rate increased 4.6 percent, according to the FBI report. The violent crime rate increased 4.6 percent, according to the FBI report.

Iowa City police Chief George Burch said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

Burch said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

Iowa City police Chief George Burch said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

Iowa City police Chief George Burch said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant.

He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilant. He said that the increase in violent crimes is a concern, and he urged residents to remain vigilan
Thursday, November 24, 1998

Another Satisfied Customer!

As a new customer of WinNet, I was impressed with the quality and value of your products. I purchased the BEST 1080P HDTV/SD/HD combo and have been delighted with the performance. The picture quality is outstanding, and the price is unbeatable.

I am writing to express my gratitude for your excellent service and commitment to delivering high-quality products. Your company has truly exceeded my expectations, and I am confident that I will continue to be a satisfied customer for many years to come.

Thank you once again for your exceptional customer service and for providing me with a product that surpasses my expectations.
Three R's no trouble for UI freshmen, faculty say

Faculty members say the UI is doing just fine.

By John Damek

According to a recent article in the Wall Street Journal, students in first-year remedial education classes are not making much progress in basic reading and math skills. As a result, they are taking more remedial classes in their second and third years, leading to higher rates of dropout and lower achievement rates.

However, some UI faculty believe that students are getting the help they need.

"Remedial education is necessary, but it's not the most effective method for preparing students for college," said a professor.

"We have implemented a new system where students can take a placement test to assess their skills and receive personalized instruction," added another professor.

"The system has worked well for our students, and we believe it is helping them come up to speed in college-level coursework."

The Journal also reported that the University of Iowa has been facing budget cuts, which has led to a decrease in the number of remedial education classes offered.

However, UI officials have said they are committed to providing support to students who need it.

"We understand the financial constraints, but we are doing everything we can to ensure that our students have the resources they need to succeed," said a UI official.

"We are exploring alternative funding mechanisms and are looking into ways to reduce costs while maintaining the quality of our education programs."

The concern about remedial education classes comes as a consequence of the recent high school graduation rates, which have shown a decline in recent years.

"We need to address the issue of high school preparation so that our students are better prepared for college," said a UI official.

"We are working with local schools to improve the curriculum and increase opportunities for students to take advanced courses."

The Journal article also highlighted the need for a stronger focus on college readiness and preparation in high school.

"We need to ensure that students are ready for college when they graduate," said a UI official.

"We are working on strategies to improve college readiness, including improving counseling and guidance for students and their families."

In conclusion, the UI has made efforts to improve remedial education classes and prepare students for college. However, there is still room for improvement, and the University is committed to ensuring that all students have the support they need to succeed.
Hayden Fry lets go of the reins

Fry

Wealthy

City & State

Hayden Fry lets go of the reins

Fry continued from Page 1A

1 p.m. Monday, aborted his annuals Monday morning, and took a 2 p.m. conference.

The purpose was a difficult one for Fry because he defined Iowa

Fry continued from Page 1A

4A

Total crime rates increased in 15 states

CRIME

Continued from Page 1A

Violent crimes include murder,

loans from Alumna Annegret

Fry said that he strongly considered stepping down after the 1996 season but backed out after some

Rodman has a home in nearby

A decision that was not expressed by the announcement, Fry

Iowa, but the FBI's figures

from former Hawkeyes

A decision on a replacement is

A decision on a replacement is

The program has slipped a Bowl but decided not to strive for, and I thank all of Stratton said. "It wasn't an easy thing for

Fry continued from Page 1A

And I thank all of

Iowa - Iowa

Iowa - Iowa

Laura Henningsen, a

A decision on a replacement is

Stratton said. "It wasn't an easy thing for

Chances are we may calculate

And I thank all of

Laura Henningsen, a

And I thank all of

Continued from Page 1A

violence quivered during the Rodman's agent, probably

from Former Hawkeyes

A decision on a replacement is

Stratton said. "It wasn't an easy thing for

Chances are we may calculate

Rodman's agent, probably

from Former Hawkeyes

A decision on a replacement is Kevorkian tape draws official scrutiny

The prosecutor delays making a decision because he doesn't want to be "bullied" and protests a charge.

By Jim Salter

Associated Press

Dr. Jack Kevorkian and his attorney David Gorosh watch the un unresolved "60 Minutes" story, which featured a tape of Kevorkian, who appeared to be injected a heavily man with a lethal drug of sausage: "They must charge him. Because if they don't, that means they don't think he was a scum." Oakland County Prosecutor Dave Guyton said Monday he does not plan to file a homicide charge in the case of 79-year-old "60 Minutes." For an unedited copy of the entire tape, which he wants to review, before making any decision on whether anyone should be charged.

Based on what he saw in "60 Minutes," "it doesn't raise a reasonable suspicion he committed a homicide," he said.

But he said he will not be held into making a premature charging decision.

It would be irresponsible for any prosecutors to level charges based solely on media reports.

Defiant Dissection

Alternative deficit disorders with attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder, usually is diagnosed in children. The diagnosis is based solely on observed behavior, and some experts believe it is highly based on media reports.

Status: Busted

The checks were not in Seattle mall

Seattle — A $2,000 check

thief whoseRIC

van was being followed by security

embarrassed at a month-long shopping excursion.

Postal Service officials have paid out $1.7 million since 1979 to people who claim to have been swindled, and internal audits have found

high-security

checks that were stolen. In the past the lost of the new boxes should spell the end of the Send in the clowns! makes a eventual to all wants manager,

are

the department,

by name

the

the bad

out

Seattle Post-Intelligencer, noting that a 1996 study by the American Medical Association said 80 percent of the people who receive mail-in exams like those offered in the have not done harm. Because

"It's not clear who is responsible for the error," the

Sister

of the

Meditations

Book of

Meditations

published by LUD Publishing, Inc. Indianapollis, IN 46206-0148

The Dow Jones average hit a record high of 9,374.27, the retail sales figure for the previous week. The rally came as a series of 6047 financial firms: "It's time to get ready for the 52-week

The checks were not in

Seattle mall

Seattle — Thousands of false

checks have been

being followed by

Security

Einera

world's outlet

ad

the

of

the

at

the

are wants

name

man,

department

the

the department

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are

wanted

the

are
LETTERS
An obvious solution to our hurried times
With Thanksgiving food still out everywhere, many students are left wishing they could be faithful for one more thing a longer vacation.
Sunday. Dec. 5
The Daily Iowan
The month of December is a mad dash for all students in the midst of a strain of sleeping and studying, and extra time would be much welcomed.
The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Iowa City/Coralville Deer editorial writer.

The Iowa City/Coralville Deer editorial writer.

The Iowa City/Coralville Deer editorial writer.

The Iowa City/Coralville Deer editorial writer.

The Iowa City/Coralville Deer editorial writer.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.

The Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving could very well be the least productive days of the fall semester. A visible portion of the student body chooses not to attend classes, leaving professors to fret over empty chairs. As an emotional retainer his ability to crack jokes and take on the media.
SOPHIA'S KITCHEN

Moscow winner

U.S. lags in high school graduation rate

BOSTON (AP) - As more and more students graduate from high school in other industrialized countries, the dual of states seems to be running in place.

Japan

The annual study of international education statistics, the Fortaleza-based Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA), has found that Japan has the highest percentage of its students who graduate from high school. The study, which is based on data from 35 countries, found that Japan had the highest percentage of students who completed high school education, followed by South Korea and Singapore.

U.S.

The U.S. has lagged behind many other countries in terms of high school graduation rates. Despite efforts to improve education, the country continues to have a relatively low graduation rate compared to other developed nations. The study found that the U.S. had one of the lowest graduation rates among the countries surveyed.

Worldwide

The study also noted that there were significant differences in graduation rates between countries, with some countries having much higher rates than others. For example, some countries had graduation rates above 90%, while others had rates below 50%.

Conference

The findings were discussed at a conference on education held in Moscow, where experts from around the world gathered to discuss strategies for improving education and increasing graduation rates. The conference also highlighted the importance of investing in education and providing support to students to help them succeed.

Exchange

Participants at the conference called for more international collaboration on education issues and urged governments to take action to improve graduation rates. They emphasized the need for investment in education infrastructure and the importance of providing access to quality education for all students.

Conclusion

The conference concluded that while there were challenges in improving graduation rates, it was possible to make significant progress through collective action and focused efforts. Participants urged governments and educators to prioritize education and work together to create a more equitable and successful learning environment for all students.
Jury acquits McDougal on all embezzlement charges

Susan McDougal became the last of President Clinton's aides to go on trial against President Clinton. "Everything that's happened to me in recent years has been about Bill Clinton," she said after the verdict.

By Linda Deutsch

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Hyper Hyde, the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, plans that the panel will complete its work on impeachment this week of Dec. 7 and the House would Adolescence of presidential powers, he public announcement on Monday. Only Hyde, though, has said that anything else in the final stages of the panel's impeachment inquiry, to include the task of laying out constitutional avenues to action. As an example, before adjournment last month of the House of Representatives, he said he's prepared to bring to the Floor a resolution that would allow the panel to call witnesses that he's been seeking to depose. That provision was removed from the committee's impeachment proposal in June. In Hyde's words, "If we are going to impeach Clinton, we've got to call these witnesses."

By David Ignatius

The committee chairman hopes to finish work by the first week of December. "I'd like to see the House, in the interest of the Constitution, to proceed to a vote on the articles of impeachment," Hyde said.

That is not the only perceived drawback. In addition, Hyde said he would like to see the House pass a resolution that would require the Senate to have a trial in the Senate. "If the Senate refuses to hold a trial, then it's going to be very difficult for the House to act," he said.

Jury acquits McDougal on all embezzlement charges

Susan McDougal became the last of President Clinton's aides to go on trial against President Clinton. "Everything that's happened to me in recent years has been about Bill Clinton," she said after the verdict.

By Linda Deutsch

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Hyper Hyde, the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, plans that the panel will complete its work on impeachment this week of Dec. 7 and the House would Adolescence of presidential powers, he public announcement on Monday. Only Hyde, though, has said that anything else in the final stages of the panel's impeachment inquiry, to include the task of laying out constitutional avenues to action. As an example, before adjournment last month of the House of Representatives, he said he's prepared to bring to the Floor a resolution that would allow the panel to call witnesses that he's been seeking to depose. That provision was removed from the committee's impeachment proposal in June. In Hyde's words, "If we are going to impeach Clinton, we've got to call these witnesses."

By David Ignatius

The committee chairman hopes to finish work by the first week of December. "I'd like to see the House, in the interest of the Constitution, to proceed to a vote on the articles of impeachment," Hyde said.

That is not the only perceived drawback. In addition, Hyde said he would like to see the House pass a resolution that would require the Senate to have a trial in the Senate. "If the Senate refuses to hold a trial, then it's going to be very difficult for the House to act," he said.

The power of partnership.
After an emotionally draining, hour-long press conference, Hayden Fry signed off Monday with one final word, 'Adios'.

Replacing Fry not an easy task

Florida defensive coordinator Bob Stoops is one of the rumored replacements for Hayden Fry.

By James Kramer
The Daily Iowan

Bob Bowlsby doesn’t have much time to make his search for a new football coach, and he will need an expert.

Bowlsby, the UI’s men’s athletic director, said he expects a new coach to be in place within 2-3 weeks. With Fry’s departure, this will be a new challenge for the athletic program.

My goal is to get the planning process and we will get started on it as soon as possible,” Bowlsby, and Bowlsby, “Coach Fry’s job was to work hard and his responsibilities were to win.

Fry will fill high school programs, and the UI campus will be a great place to learn.

Matt Bowen
Iowa City

Seeing Hayden go emotional for every Hawkeye

Before the Ohio State game, I thought Fry’s retirement was a non-event.

After Saturday’s game at Minnesota, it was a much more emotional affair.

And I was being an honest fool.

I knew Coach Fry had a good conscience addressed for Tuesday afternoon, which baffled me even more.

Considering that most of my memories would be out of bounds for the new coach, giving the Hawkeyes the best chance to win.

At the time, the state of Iowa was in a personal crisis. The fans were watching Fry’s every move, and everyone was there to support him.

The fans remember how Fry stood with the program through thick and thin. We hope to win another game, and that’s what I’m counting on.

Hayden Fry, this is your life

For the 47 years he spent in the sport of football, Hayden Fry has touched almost everyone he has come in contact with.

As the time, the state of Iowa need something to take his mind off everything else.

The year was 1985 and Iowans were facing one of the worst eras in state history. Banks were closing, grain prices were falling, and values were plummeting.

But for three hours every fall, Hayden Fry and his Iowa football fans were a bright spot in the gloom.

Fry understood. He said, "I am grateful to the fans for their support, and I will miss them.

The year was 1985 and Iowans were facing one of the worst eras in state history. Banks were closing, grain prices were falling, and values were plummeting.

But for three hours every fall, Hayden Fry and his Iowa football fans were a bright spot in the gloom.

They stood by the coach from the day he came into his new role, and fans responded considerably.

From this day forward, Hayden Fry will be remembered as a true American hero.

The fans remember how Fry stood with the program through thick and thin. We hope to win another game, and that’s what I’m counting on.

Hayden Fry walks up the stairs to the office following his farewell press conference Monday at the Jacobson Athletic Building.

Fry was named head coach of the Iowa football team in 1979. In Fry’s third game of the season, Iowa defeated No. 1 Oklahoma 15-7. In Fry’s fourth game, Iowa defeated No. 6 Penn State 23-10.

Fry's team finished the season with a 6-4 record, including a 6-4 record in Big Ten games.

Hayden Fry was honored Friday, Sept. 10, for his 24 years as head coach of the Iowa football team at the Homecoming football game.

The fans remember how Fry stood with the program through thick and thin. We hope to win another game, and that’s what I’m counting on.

Hayden Fry's retirement announcement is set for Thursday morning at the Jacobson Athletic Building.

The fans remember how Fry stood with the program through thick and thin. We hope to win another game, and that’s what I’m counting on.

Fans and friends of Hayden Fry showed up at the Jacobson Athletic Building to honor him on his retirement.

The fans remember how Fry stood with the program through thick and thin. We hope to win another game, and that’s what I’m counting on.

Hayden Fry's retirement announcement is set for Thursday morning at the Jacobson Athletic Building.

The fans remember how Fry stood with the program through thick and thin. We hope to win another game, and that’s what I’m counting on.
Prior to Fry’s arrival, bowl games hardly dared...
20 YEARS OF HAYDEN FRY

Iowa players sad to see their coach depart

By Megan Maskell

The Hawkeyes have a lot of holes to fill, and the competition is getting better.

By James Kramer

Hayden Fry often made winning look easy at Iowa football, even though it wasn't.

He was the rock in the middle of the road for the Hawkeyes' defense, and he always played to the best of his abilities. Fry was a master at his craft, and the defense was never the same without him.

Fry's success will be faced with a difficult task.

The Hawkeyes have a lot of holes to fill, and the competition is getting better.

By Megan Maskell

The Hawkeyes have a lot of holes to fill, and the competition is getting better.

By James Kramer

Hayden Fry often made winning look easy at Iowa football, even though it wasn't.

He was the rock in the middle of the road for the Hawkeyes' defense, and he always played to the best of his abilities. Fry was a master at his craft, and the defense was never the same without him.

Fry's success will be faced with a difficult task.

The Hawkeyes have a lot of holes to fill, and the competition is getting better.
Broncos quarterback John Elway before the team's 31-20 win over New Orleans.

DENVER - Records are falling, and the Denver Broncos are over the cylinders. If we can do that, we're going to be running on all four.
Hawkeyes to face a pair of Tigers

The Iowa women’s basketball team will take on two new opponents this weekend, as the Hawkeyes prepare for their final games of the regular season this weekend. The Hawkeyes will take on Missouri on Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. and then finish things off on Saturday night with a 7:00 p.m. tip-off against Kansas State.

On Friday evening, the Hawkeyes will be able to use their home court advantage to their advantage as they host a Missouri team that has struggled throughout the season. The Tigers have struggled to find consistency on both offense and defense, and will likely struggle to keep up with the Hawkeyes on both ends of the floor.

Saturday night, the Hawkeyes will travel to Lawrence, Kansas to take on the Jayhawks. The Jayhawks have been a tough team to beat this season, especially at Allen Fieldhouse. However, the Hawkeyes have a chance to sweep their series against the Jayhawks if they can get things going on offense.

By Eric Peterson

Hawkeyes

The Iowa women’s basketball team finished 21st at the NCAA Midwest Regional last weekend, but now the team will be looking to finish the season on a high note. The Hawkeyes are currently 18-11 on the season and will need to win both games this weekend to have a chance at making it to the NCAA Tournament.

On Friday, the Hawkeyes will take on Missouri and will need to find a way to slow down the Tigers’ high-scoring offense. Missouri has scored 74 or more points in four of their last five games and will likely look to continue that trend against the Hawkeyes.

Saturday night, the Hawkeyes will face a tough challenge in the form of Kansas State. The Wildcats have been a tough team to beat this season and will likely give the Hawkeyes a good test.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

CROSSES' COUPLES

Wieczorek's team finishes 21st

Missouri is coming off a season where they finished 13th in the Big 12 conference with a 4-8 record. The Tigers have struggled to find consistency throughout the season and will likely be looking to finish things off on a high note.

The Hawkeyes, on the other hand, are currently 18-11 on the season and will need to win both games this weekend to have a chance at making it to the NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

Hawkeyes

The Iowa women’s basketball team will face their toughest opponent in the form of Missouri on Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. The Hawkeyes will need to find a way to slow down the Tigers’ high-scoring offense.

Saturday night, the Hawkeyes will face a tough challenge in the form of Kansas State. The Wildcats have been a tough team to beat this season and will likely give the Hawkeyes a good test.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

CROSSES' COUPLES

Wieczorek's team finishes 21st

Missouri is coming off a season where they finished 13th in the Big 12 conference with a 4-8 record. The Tigers have struggled to find consistency throughout the season and will likely be looking to finish things off on a high note.

The Hawkeyes, on the other hand, are currently 18-11 on the season and will need to win both games this weekend to have a chance at making it to the NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

Hawkeyes

The Iowa women’s basketball team will face their toughest opponent in the form of Missouri on Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. The Hawkeyes will need to find a way to slow down the Tigers’ high-scoring offense.

Saturday night, the Hawkeyes will face a tough challenge in the form of Kansas State. The Wildcats have been a tough team to beat this season and will likely give the Hawkeyes a good test.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

CROSSES' COUPLES

Wieczorek's team finishes 21st

Missouri is coming off a season where they finished 13th in the Big 12 conference with a 4-8 record. The Tigers have struggled to find consistency throughout the season and will likely be looking to finish things off on a high note.

The Hawkeyes, on the other hand, are currently 18-11 on the season and will need to win both games this weekend to have a chance at making it to the NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

Hawkeyes

The Iowa women’s basketball team will face their toughest opponent in the form of Missouri on Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. The Hawkeyes will need to find a way to slow down the Tigers’ high-scoring offense.

Saturday night, the Hawkeyes will face a tough challenge in the form of Kansas State. The Wildcats have been a tough team to beat this season and will likely give the Hawkeyes a good test.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

CROSSES' COUPLES

Wieczorek's team finishes 21st

Missouri is coming off a season where they finished 13th in the Big 12 conference with a 4-8 record. The Tigers have struggled to find consistency throughout the season and will likely be looking to finish things off on a high note.

The Hawkeyes, on the other hand, are currently 18-11 on the season and will need to win both games this weekend to have a chance at making it to the NCAA Tournament. The Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

Hawkeyes

The Iowa women’s basketball team will face their toughest opponent in the form of Missouri on Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. The Hawkeyes will need to find a way to slow down the Tigers’ high-scoring offense.

Saturday night, the Hawkeyes will face a tough challenge in the form of Kansas State. The Wildcats have been a tough team to beat this season and will likely give the Hawkeyes a good test.

However, the Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.

By Megan Stein

CROSSES' COUPLES

Wieczorek's team finishes 21st

Missouri is coming off a season where they finished 13th in the Big 12 conference with a 4-8 record. The Tigers have struggled to find consistency throughout the season and will likely be looking to finish things off on a high note. The Hawkeyes, on the other hand, are currently 18-11 on the season and will need to win both games this weekend to have a chance at making it to the NCAA Tournament.

The Hawkeyes have been playing well lately, winning four of their last six games. They will need to continue that trend if they hope to make it to the NCAA Tournament.
The work never ended.

Hayden Fry and the 1986 Hawkeyes await the beginning of Fry's last game at Memorial Field Nov. 21.

"There was a wild job search for Fry. But it doesn't mean that he won't be involved with the athletic department. I told Athletic Director Bob Bowlsby that I'd make myself available for any situation that will serve the university forward, whether it is the university itself or the athletic department," said Hayden Fry.'s former assistant, and Fry plans on helping his new successor, whether it is the university or the athletic department, Fry said he would be willing to make phone calls or even meet with individual athletic director if it would help one of his assistants land a job.

"I also always enjoyed helping people. Fry said, "Anything I can do to help people makes me feel good." The Hawkeye coaches and administrators were more than happy to work with Fry and Bowlsby of what he wants to see in the new Hawkeye coach. Fry said the Hawkeyes need a head football coach who is open-minded and can work under the pressure of the job. They need someone who can take charge and get the program moving in the right direction.

Fry said he would be willing to sit down and talk about the team's needs and see what the good options are. He also said he would be willing to help with the transition of the new coach into the role.

"We'll probably keep the big house," Fry said. "But I can do something about the team. We've got people in the program who can help make the transition easier."
A part of Iowa died Monday

It took all of 10 words for Hayden Fry to break into tears at the news of the public aware that his 28th season would be his last as head coach of the Iowa Hawkeyes. He was too overwhelmed by emotion to do much else, so he just stood next to his Pall Mall cigarettes, his hands on his hips, and the tears streaming down his face.

"It means so much to me," he said, "to say goodbye to these players."

The 65-year-old Fry, who has been the face and soul of Iowa football for more than three decades, will retire at the end of the season after 35 years as head coach at the University of Iowa. He is the winningest coach in the history of Iowa athletics and has won 319 games, including 35 in the Big Ten.

Fry’s journey began in 1981 when he was hired as head coach at Iowa, replacing Don Coryell, who had been the head coach since 1971. Fry had previously coached at Texas and Oklahoma, where he won a total of 256 games.

Under Fry, Iowa has had success on the field, winning three Big Ten championships and reaching the Rose Bowl in 1990. The Hawkeyes have also had success in the recruiting arena, bringing in top-tier talent to the program.

But Fry’s legacy goes beyond the field. He has been known for his commitment to his players and their personal development. He has been a mentor and role model for many of his players, who have gone on to have successful careers both on and off the field.

Fry has also been a vocal advocate for the sport of football, particularly on issues related to player safety and mental health.

Iowa athletics spokesman Bob Berson said Fry’s impact on the program has been significant.

"He has been the face of Iowa athletics for more than three decades," Berson said. "He has been a mentor and role model for many of our players, and his legacy will live on long after he retires."
Steinbrenner will retain control of Yankees

New York — Even as George Steinbrenner sale a major share of the New York Yankees, he will retain the deciding vote in all major decisions and will continue to have close ties with the team.

The deal, which the two sides have been working on for months, would result in Steinbrenner's son, Curtis, becoming the new majority owner of the team. Steinbrenner would remain in control, however, because he would retain the right to vote on certain key issues, including the team's future stadium and any potential changes to the franchise's ownership structure.

The Yankees are one of baseball's most valuable franchises, and Steinbrenner has been a polarizing figure in the sport, known for his aggressive management style and his frequent clashes with other owners and league officials.

Son of former Iowa coach

Barlow, N.C. (AP) — Son of former Iowa football coach Hayden Fry, who was killed in a one-car accident last August, has been sentenced to 18 months in prison for his role in the crash.

The sentencing of Scott Fry, 21, comes a year after the crash killed his father, Hayden Fry, 70, and another man. Scott Fry was driving a two-seater sports car when it crashed on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, killing all three people aboard.

The Fry family had been visiting relatives in New York when the crash occurred. Hayden Fry, a legendary college football coach who spent most of his career at Iowa, had just retired from coaching to focus on his work as a teacher and mentor.

The crash was the latest in a string of tragic events to strike the Fry family, who had faced financial difficulties in recent years. Hayden Fry had recently been diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease, and his family was struggling to pay for his care.

Steinbrenner stays in first place in BCS standings

(BA) — Kansas State is ranked No. 1 in the final BCS standings, extending its lead over the Ohio State Buckeyes, who are ranked No. 2.

The BCS standings are based on a formula that combines the polls, the Associated Press, and the coaches' polls, and are used to determine the championship game participants. In the latest standings, Kansas State is ranked ahead of Ohio State, who are both ahead of Alabama, the third-ranked team.

The BCS is a computer-based system that takes into account a team's regular season record, conference standing, strength of schedule, and other factors to determine the top teams in college football. The system has been criticized for not accurately reflecting the best teams and for being too complex for the average fan to understand.
Dealing with life's imperfections

Emma's Child opens this Friday at Riverside Theatre.

By Bob Shaw

The Daily Iowan

In tone with the holiday spirit of superheroes, Riverside Theatre is staging "Emma's Child," a show about the story of Henrietta, a woman who performs the part of a literary favorite. "This is a show about who one is, and it's staged by a woman," said director Michael Mohlak.

"This show is about a woman who has been middle-aged, you know, and has been looking to become more familiar with her body, more familiar with her responsibilities and her success in the world," Mohlak said.

"The plot is a little bit different because the creator of the show, David Moscow, who is also the creator of the sitcom 'The Wonder Years,' has done one of the most successful series on television," Mohlak said. "But this show is a little bit different because it's a play, and it's about a woman who has been middle-aged and has been looking to become more familiar with her body, more familiar with her responsibilities and her success in the world."

The play follows the life of a woman who has been middle-aged and has been looking to become more familiar with her body, more familiar with her responsibilities and her success in the world. The cast includes a range of actors, including Julia Dreyer, who plays the lead role.

The play opens at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 9, and runs through Sunday, Dec. 11. Tickets are available at the box office or online at riversidetheatre.org.

Antz

By Bob Shaw

The Daily Iowan

"Antz" is a computer-animated film that tells the story of a grasshopper named Z, who dreams of becoming a big-time executive. Z's job is to get the grasshoppers to the colony before the grasshoppers are mashed by the tractor.

"Antz" is a computer-animated film that tells the story of a grasshopper named Z, who dreams of becoming a big-time executive. Z's job is to get the grasshoppers to the colony before the grasshoppers are mashed by the tractor. The film has been nominated for an Academy Award for Best Animated Feature.

"Antz" is a computer-animated film that tells the story of a grasshopper named Z, who dreams of becoming a big-time executive. Z's job is to get the grasshoppers to the colony before the grasshoppers are mashed by the tractor. The film has been nominated for an Academy Award for Best Animated Feature.

"Antz" is a computer-animated film that tells the story of a grasshopper named Z, who dreams of becoming a big-time executive. Z's job is to get the grasshoppers to the colony before the grasshoppers are mashed by the tractor. The film has been nominated for an Academy Award for Best Animated Feature.