UI fails in retaining blacks, students say

By Jerry Akin

The Daily Iowan

When UI graduate student Josh Wallehwa first came to the University of Iowa as a freshman, it took him about a week to find someone else who was black.

"I was always looking for someone who could relate to me, someone who was more like me," Wallehwa said.

UI students say they do not get what they expect from the UI and the community.

UIUC to press state on sexuality bill

The UI student representative called the bill as "inappropriate" and said his group had not taken any action.

"We need to move on to other issues," one student representative said.

The UIUC student representative said he would not support the bill.

"I'm concerned about the bill's impact on the University's reputation," the student representative said.

"I think it's important for us to have some reasonable control over the funding of the University," the student representative said.

Kurd's arrest sparks protest

Turkey says it has won a crucial victory after capturing a Kurdish leader.

By Susan panor

ANKARA, Turkey - A Kurdish rebel leader was arrested after a 14-hour guerrilla war for moving his men in to hold a group of Shiite Kurds in the town of Emirgan.

Turkey's special forces clashed with the Kurdish Workers' Party (PKK) in the town southwest of the capital, Ankara.

The arrest of Sibel Tuncer, a 27-year-old Kurdish soldier, yesterday makes it likely that the PKK will not make concessions to the government in the current round of talks.

The PKK has been holding talks with the government since last week in an effort to end the long conflict that has claimed the lives of 30,000 people.

The PKK is suspected of being involved in the bombing of a Kurdish village in the southeastern province of Batman last month.

The PKK denies involvement in the attack.

The arrest comes as the government and the PKK are scheduled to meet today in Vienna to discuss the possibility of a cease-fire.

The PKK has been demanding autonomy for the Kurdish minority in Turkey, which has a population of around 15 million.

The government, however, has been insisting on the PKK's disarmament and the demilitarization of the region.

The PKK has been operating in Turkey since 1978, when it was formed by Kurdish nationalists to demand independence for the region.

The PKK has been responsible for the deaths of thousands of people, including civilians and soldiers, and has been designated as a terrorist organization by the United States and other countries.

Iowa City College President Jack Hall said he was startled by the news he had heard on the radio about the elephant-killing deer killer since last summer.

"When I heard it, I was shocked," Hall said. "I thought they should be doing it in a non-violent way, maybe a more dignified way." Hall said he was concerned about the safety of the deer and that the city should have been involved in the decision-making process.

The Daily Iowan

Based on a string of recent rumors, Charlotte Hornets guard B.J. Armstrong appears to be a wanted man.

Armstrong, a former Iowa star from 1986-89, is reportedly being sought after by the Los Angeles Lakers, who are looking for some experience to complement their young talent.

Close to home, the 6-foot-9, 230-pound Armstrong has served as a valuable piece to Iowa's men's basketball team throughout his career. His presence or absence will not change much.

In Tuesday's edition of the Charlotte Observer, Armstrong talked about his Hawkeye head coaching position.

“I haven't talked to anybody, if this is true, it's news to me. But if they wanted to call me and talk to me about it here, it would be a tremendous compliment,” Armstrong said.

Iowa senior guard Jordan Bohannon has been named to the Big Ten's all-conference team.

Bohannon, a former Iowa star from 2017-20, is reportedly being sought after by the Los Angeles Lakers, who are looking for some experience to complement their young talent.

O.J.'s Heisman sells for $230,000

O.J. Simpson's Heisman Trophy (above) was among his items at an auction to satisfy the $33.5 million judgment in a civil trial that held him liable for two deaths. The bidding was on Wednesday.

The former football star's heist was to be above the Hollywood Bowl, each with its own stadium. It is the Los Angeles area's fifth expansion club this fall.

According to Schott's representative, Ms. Reisman, the sale was to benefit the estates of the former Southern California Hall of Fame members: Ronald Brown, who spent a four-hour meeting with the expansion committee at an agreement proposing to renovate the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum; and her partner, Ronald Brown. They want the children to live with them.

We have learned our lesson as a lifetime has for Tonya Harding. "Our dream is to continue skating," Harding said. "That's about as simple as I can make it."

Houston, L.A. may receive new NFL team

After adding three expansion teams in the past three years, the NFL is about to add a fourth. By Paul Newberry

ATTLEA - The NFL will most likely move to Los Angeles in March, according to sources, to make room for a new club from the West Coast.

The league is pressing the NFL's fourth expansion team to move from Phoenix to Los Angeles for the 1999 season, according to sources.

"When we played here from 1960 to 1973, the only thing I didn't like was the fact that I had to go home," said former Rams owner Art Modell, who led the move.

The high bid for the Reisman Trophy fetched a glass University of Southern California Hall of Fame, for the first time in 32 years.

"I know that goes to the estate," Cameron said. "And I think the only way they could have done it is..."

Harding attempts to end lifetime skating ban

"I don't think they're going to repeat the error," said KPTV's spokesman. "That's the only thing that's been very positive..."

The bidding was on Wednesday.

We have learned our lesson as a lifetime has for Tonya Harding, "Our dream is to continue skating," Harding said. "That's about as simple as I can make it." Harding revealed her plans last week in which she won't compete between Aug. 8 and the Nov. 7 world championships, and said she is looking for her role in the 1994 Nancy Kerrigan knee whacking.

This was news to the U.S. figure skating federation, which explained that officially nothing has been cleared.

"We do not sketch with their shoes and in it," Harding said, adding that she has turned her life around and wants to compete again. "It's the first time that it's ever been positive..."

"Tonya Harding continues to not be added to the USFSA's database," the federation said. "It's the first time that you're not allowed to compete again.

The USA Figure Skating board agreed to keep her name on the rule list.

The Lakers announced that forward Robert Horry, hospitalized Sunday to have tests done on his injured neck, will be out until at least Thursday. Horry had 19 as the Miami Heat snatched the season-high 22-point lead and the 15 points ending the second quarter charge as the Houston Rockets ended the Miami Heat’s nine-game road winning streak with a 110-103 victory Sunday in a week’s first set of back-to-back games.
