Don't munch with Mary
NEW YORK (AP) — Night Mary Tyler Moore ended her career with Valerie Harper in a series of their new television movie does well.

"That depends on whether I could have a network carving and telling me what comedy is. I just don't want anything on set," Moore said in Saturday's Parade magazine. "That many stand up, but I don't want anyone to stick around with my work."

The two-hour film Mary and Rhoda will be broadcast on Feb. 11. Moore's character, Lisa, on in the life nouvelles after the death of her husband, while Harper's role has been returning from Paris after a divorce.

The Association of American Cancer Societies' 2002 report on Cancer statistics has been released. The report states that the number of new cancer cases in the United States has declined by 1.5 percent in the past year. This is the first time in 20 years that the number of cases has declined.

The report also notes that the number of deaths from cancer has declined by 1.8 percent. This is the first time in 20 years that the number of deaths from cancer has declined.

The report attributes the decline to improvements in treatment and early detection. It also notes that the decline is likely to continue in the future.

Albright meets with Mubarak in Egypt

The state visit is expected to begin on March 15 and end on 16.

The chief executive of the United Nations, Kofi Annan, welcomed the visit and said it was a good indication of the determination of the international community to work together to achieve peace and development.

AIDS in Africa: A Call to Action

ATHENS - The United Nations AIDS Commission has called for a coordinated global response to the AIDS epidemic in Africa. The commission, led by the UN Secretary-General, has urged countries to take immediate action to combat the spread of HIV and AIDS.

The commission highlighted the following points:

1. The need for comprehensive and effective HIV/AIDS prevention programs.
2. The importance of strengthening health systems to provide care and treatment for people living with HIV/AIDS.
3. The need for increased funding for HIV/AIDS research and response.

The commission also called for international cooperation and support to address the epidemic.

NASA shuttle launch delayed

NASA's space shuttle Endeavour's launch has been delayed due to problems with fuel pumps. The shuttle was scheduled to launch on March 15, but now it will not fly until at least March 16.

The delay is the result of issues with two fuel pumps, which are critical for the successful liftoff of the shuttle. NASA is working to resolve these issues and will provide updates as they become available.

Less than what meets the eye

Eye of the Beholder is one of those frustrating movies that has a lot of good ideas and well-crafted moments but ultimately doesn't culminate into anything remotely satisfying.

The opening of the movie is a grabber. The notorious protagonist, McGregors, in the middle of a high-tech surveillance job where he got into a photograph, seems high-tech. He's already gotten his job offer with his secretary. Who is this mysterious second? How does he get ridership equipment as Bette Bond? Then we find out that he works for an unidentified British government agency and that he's probably spent a life in much time staring at monitors and hiding in shadows. As we later discover, he works ultimately led him to walk out one day, taking over 6 years old daughter with him. The looks that anything but these for him is too much time staring. Although McGregors's book character is not assigned to follow a magazine back director. He's attracting away McGregors's book director, to give to the mysterious and seductive Ashley Judd character who, as we will discover, was abandoned herself of a young age. She doesn't have a name either, although she passes more life, filing your taxes can cause you undue stress.

In troublesome times, reach out anywhere to somebody who cares

In every restaurant, train station and bus terminal, there are signs that proclaim: "Reach out anywhere to somebody who cares.

That's the value of the reserve library, the Iowa reserve library. It's a fantastic resource for students, faculty and staff. But it's not just a library. It's a community center, a support network, a place to find help in times of need.

The reserve library is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. It's a place where people can go to get away from the stresses of daily life and find comfort and solace.

The reserve library is staffed by knowledgeable and dedicated librarians who are there to help with any questions or concerns. They are trained to handle a wide range of issues, from academic research to personal problems.

The reserve library is a place of healing and hope. It's a place where people can find a sense of community and belonging.

So the next time you're feeling down, or just need a place to be alone, think about the reserve library. It's there for you, whenever you need it.

Free throws key in Iowa road win

Hawkeyes picked up only second win on the road this season against Wisconsin Saturday afternoon

By Greg Bechum

Associated Press

MADISON, Wis. - Steve Alford demand ed more of everything, and the Iowa Hawkeyes gave it to him.

Drew Osborn had 18 points as Iowa made its first 20 shots and beat Wisconsin 61-55 Saturday.

With the Hawkeyes posting just one win in their previous six games, Iowa coach Alford said he drew a proverbial line in the sand.

Alford was quoted in The Des Moines Register as saying he had responded to his players' extra effort and the Hawkeyes would be more competitive.

"The Big Ten Conference officially begins this weekend."

"We really held it together the stretch and that's the most impressive part of the team, I think," Alford said.

"We had no first Downs going up and down the field, we secured four downs, and we stopped the ball on four downs."

Joe Montana's dream is back

Iowa's quarterback Joe Montana, who led the 49ers to victory in Super Bowl XXVI, was announced as the starter for the upcoming game.

Although the team has stressed looking to its wide receivers, Montana believes his performances will be more balanced.

"I'm looking forward to the game coming up," Montana said.

"I think we're going to see a lot of different things in this game."

The Hawkeyes were 2-3 this season, but Alford is confident in his team's ability to compete.

"I think we have a chance to do what we need to do," Alford said.

Hawkeyes will face

The Hawkeyes will face the University of Illinois this weekend in a crucial conference match.

Although the Hawkeyes are currently 1-1 in conference play, Alford believes they have the potential to compete with the Illini.

"We need to step up to the plate and compete with the Illini," Alford said.

"We haven't done that as well as we need to."

The Hawkeyes have a chance to prove themselves against the Illini this weekend.

Iowa 39, Illinois 37

The No. 11 Illini were defeated 39-37 by the No. 15 Hawkeyes in a closely contested game.

Although Illinois had the lead for most of the game, Iowa was able to rally in the final minutes to secure the victory.

"I knew we had the ability to come back," said Iowa head coach Kevincharlton. "But we just didn't do it at the right time."

"We need to work on our free-throw percentage," Iowa guard Craig Bracken said.

Hawkeyes destroy Northern Illinois

The Hawkeyes dominated Northern Illinois Saturday as they scored 48 points in the second half to win 70-31.

The Hawkeyes scored 24 of their last 30 points in the second half, aided by a 9-0 run.

"We were playing our best basketball," said Iowa head coach Steve Alford.

"I'm proud of our team for coming out and playing well."
Jordan fires Wizards’ coach Gar Heard
■ Two weeks after taking over the Washington Wizards, Michael Jordan made his first major move.

By Jay Thomas

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Gar Heard was fired Saturday night as coach of the Washington Wizards, the team’s first major move since Michael Jordan became head coach of the World Basketball Association team.

Hired last summer after the Wizards’ 1984-85 victory over the defending Cleveland Cavaliers, Washington’s 14-20 record and last place in the Eastern Conference.

Red Higgins, an assistant to the Golden State Warriors and a former teammate of Jordan in Chicago, will be the two coaches.

The move was first reported by The Washington Post and was confirmed by the team.

“I mentioned that when I was becoming a part of the Washington Wizards that I would restructure the team and the coaching staff,” Jordan said. “I felt it was necessary to make a change at this time.”

Jordan’s name team 19-9 and vowed to shake things up. It was immediately clear that Heard was on the hot seat. Heard had very little authority in the team’s decision-making and often decided that Jordan would fire him. For the last two seasons, Jordan fired the head coach after the Wizards’ 1984-85 victory over the defending Cleveland Cavaliers.

“I’m looking for a good game,” Jordan said.

The Wizards, who had the best record in the NBA, won 31-17 and 32-10. Jordan said he had long一段时间 ago, in 1983, that the Wizards’ 1984-85 victory over the defending Cleveland Cavaliers was not enough to keep Heard.

“I mentioned that when I was becoming a part of the Washington Wizards that I would restructure the team and the coaching staff,” Jordan said.

Hogs continue Iowa's road struggles

The Iowa women's basketball team had to hold a second half lead off and win over Arkansas State.

By Lisa Colonna
The Daily Iowan

A second half drought and a couple of strange calls led to Iowa being outscored 20-18 in the second half.

Iowa's defense was key, due to the Hawkeye's struggles on offense. Iowa shot 36.3% for the game while Arkansas (12-2-1 in the SEC) was 50% off the field, including a 33.8% percent second half. Senior Karen Karlin led the Lady Razorbacks with 20 points, missing her average of 8.3 points per game.

"Karey has really had a tough role, but she's been a great teammate," Zalesky said.

While missing those guys that today might be the day, things went right. I was sure they'd get their own experience against the top players and they did just fine," Zalesky said.

Junior Wendie Willis scored 14 for Arkansas, postponing for the Hawkeyes, staying with 27 points and also led by Iowa women's style.

Hawkeyes continue to dominate in front of the 8000 people.

The Hawkeyes battled to take the lead and its two, but couldn't retain the lead.

Guardians finished with 13, and as Mary Berod, Randi Peterson scored none of her 5 points in the second half.

The Iowa men and women's basketball teams were down 1-0 in the series. The Hawkeyes had the win in the second half.

"We have a few days ahead of us," Zalesky said. "We'll be back in Iowa in a few days... We didn't want to end up going into that upper echelons of the top five in the conference, we're going to have to do it on the road."

Iowa will try to turn around their losing streak on the road against the next game.

The Hawkeyes defeated the Mountaineers 79-52 in Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

Lady gymnasts dazzle in home debut

Hawkeyes come through in clutch against Gophers

The men's gymnastics team overcame a late deficit to beat Minnesota Saturday.

By Melinda Moevsky

A familiar scenario began to unfold for the Iowa men's gymnastics team. The Hawkeyes found themselves trailing Minnesota 111.6-111.5 after four events in Saturday's meet in St. Paul. They've had to overcome similar situations before.

Two weeks ago at the University of Michigan, the Hawkeyes were able to overcome the deficit to win.

Once again, the Hawkeyes were able to come from behind, defeating the Gophers 113.5-112.4.

Senior Brian Hamilton parlayed his two-terminal performance on the floor, 8.9, into a solid 8.8 on the still bars, which gave the Hawkeyes second place.

Senior Heath Ackerman finished third in the horizontal bar, 8.5, and the floor, 8.9, and sophomore Andrew Cusick added a 7.9 on the pommel.

The meet got off to an early start when Minnesota's Miles Thurney scored an 8.7 on the pommel, but he missed his dismount on the end of the routine. He botched his landing and fell to the mat.

The Iowa men, led by junior Zach Fried and senior Ted Roddick, were able to come from behind, defeating the Gophers, 8.5-7.9, to win.

Minnesota's chance at a victory was thwarted when the Hawkeyes -- led by senior Zach Fried and junior Ted Roddick -- won.

"It was intense. It was close enough to get to the next round," Roddick said.

The Hawkeyes swept their home double-dual this season, using a solid performance to beat Minnesota.

"It's nice to beat Minnesota," Fried said.

Senior Cuyler Johnson had a tough day. He scored an 8.5 on the pommel, but was inspired by the way Woods played in the day's best performance. For the Hawkeyes, it's a worthwhile trip," Wieczorek said.

The Hawkeyes got back into the race in the final three events, with the performance going to freshmen.

"He's a meek person. He has never won on the bottom half of the competition," Grant said.

He said he was `totally satisfied.'"

McClean writes he's 'doing great'

Trent McClean, who was hit in the throat with a puck, improved enough to write a note Sunday.

MONTREAL (AP) - Trent McClean, who wrote this memoir of dying after being hit in the throat by a slap shot, will soon enough be able to write a story to his team doctor.

He was at home Sunday, in which McClean bought a new pair of hockey skates.

"Trent No. 6.

McClean is unable to speak but he is no longer in danger of dying. Mulder said Sunday he is recovering from a fractured larynx and collapsed lung.

The 27-year-old player, his breathing easily enough to gasp for air, from the Molson eye on a hot Sunday night after being hit flush on the throat on a shot at his crease.

The Canadiens teammate, David Mulder, was at the boards, help.

"I hope we can come back and play.

"We would like to see a few fights in Europe. But we have been getting offers, real offers from Europe," said Mulder, who has never had to receive calls from Copenhagen, Denmark, Amsterdam, Netherland and France.

"We have received two offers from Switzerland. Trent's last round was at a local time 11 a.m. EST, which hurts the five fast. A guy in Asia - say, Japan - could start in the early afternoon because Japan is 14 hours ahead of the eastern United States.

"I know that Tyson's March 25 match, probably against the American, Lewis, has a contract with (a) (0) in London for a fight in Phoenix.
