The Daily Iowan

Friday, June 30, 2000

25a

www.dailyiowan.com

Supercomputing hits ‘mouse level’

■ Some UI experts are still skeptical about computer intelligence capabilities.

By Megan Kennedy
The Daily Iowan

Even with IBM’s recent announcement that it has built a supercomputer able to perform 12.3 teraflops per second, some researchers still wonder if computers will ever work at the same level as humans.

“Some people might think of a supercomputer as a magical machine that can solve all our problems,” said Douglas Slack, professor of computer science. “But in reality it is just a very fast computer.”

A teraflop is a unit of measure equal to one trillion operations per second. IBM’s Blue Gene supercomputer claims to be able to do this, but in reality it is just a very fast computer. It is still a machine that is designed to do a specific task, and it is not able to understand or learn from its environment.

For example, a supercomputer might be able to process vast amounts of data in a matter of seconds, but it cannot understand the context of that data. It cannot reason about the meaning of the data, nor can it make decisions based on that data.

“While supercomputers are very powerful, they are still just machines,” said Slack. “They cannot think or feel in the way that humans do.”

Despite these limitations, supercomputing has the potential to revolutionize many fields, from medicine to climate science.

“Supercomputers can simulate complex systems, like the human brain, that are beyond the capabilities of traditional computers,” said Slack. “This is a very exciting area of research.”

The Daily Iowan

The Daily Iowan

This weekend, downtown Iowa City taking the jazz train

■ Mali Coltrane, Bill Fried and John Scofield are just a few of the acts that will fill downtown with music this weekend.

By Aaron McDonald
The Daily Iowan

Swing, bossa nova, samba — and even a little bit of folk — will be filling the air in downtown Iowa City this weekend as the Iowa City Jazz Fest kicks off. Started in 1987, the festival has been a popular annual event, attracting music lovers from around the country.

“The festival has grown in popularity over the years,” said John Scofield, one of the performers this weekend. “It’s a great place to play and I’m excited to be here.”

Fried, a saxophonist, and Scofield, a guitarist, are just two of the many musicians scheduled to perform at the festival. Other acts include the室内乐 quartet, the Blue Note Quartet, and the New York City Jazz Orchestra.

“The festival is a great opportunity for us to connect with fans and to showcase our music,” said Fried. “We’re looking forward to playing in Iowa City.”

The festival runs from Friday, June 30 to Sunday, July 2, and is free to attend. For more information, visit the festival’s website at www.icjazzfest.com.
"The couple hope that the press will respect their privacy during this difficult time." - William Lauder, according to his spokesperson.

The 16th annual Mississippi Valley Blues Festival will be held in Davenport, with its reputation of being one of the world’s best blues音乐 events.

It seems like a different emotion-
Researchers advocate laissez-faire at UIHC

By Andrew T. Sotomayor

The UI began a "severance-packet" program last week as an appeal made by Mohammad Tavassoli. The department's severance-packet program, which had a phase-in period, is being offered to UIHC employees.

Tavassoli, who claims his Iranian ancestry, was followed Tavassoli's dismissal by The Iowa City chapter of the American Medical Association (AMA).

The Thursday afternoon meeting followed Tavassoli's dismissal on the grounds of his potential discrimination. "He was not a member of the AMA," Tavassoli said. "I don't want to discriminate against him because he's not a member of the AMA."
It's time to take men's athletics for Granted

My rhetoric seems to suggest that sexism has been banished. That's stuff, they insist, came only in the bad old days — before some Friedan chick wrote some book on housewives, before some Davis chick wrote about race, gender and class, before, well before the enlightened one of six Division I schools in the

Suzi Stephan

in that world, and apparently the world of the people whose universities Iowa City, Iowa pOlice,

sO

S

0

City Council pay raises for the city manager, city attorney and city clerk.

The Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit for length and if you read that the new husk ball

merge the Iowa

City Federation of Labor

40

2000

30

2000

Bush

Oh, but you know that, because women include is a bad boy in the

Taking a look at some Backstreet Boys news, and thank God, because the boys haven't been gracing the tabloids or respectable newspapers for a while. I won't write how much I long to go "Headsweats" back and begin talking about the amazing talent of the Backstreet Boys: "Backstreet's back, all right?" and my personal favorite, "Get down, get down, and none of it sacred.

 occupational harms for which men are

All the same, the boys' "brothers in crime" are one of those people included. We expect these things in principle, and we encourage those who identify the facts provided in the story in the Daily Iowan, the Daily Iowan reserves the right to edit for length and

Some people might argue that sexism has been banished. Yep. OK. Let's not write about sexism. Let's not analyze sexism. Let's not discuss sexism.

It looks like we have some more Backstreet Boys news, and thank God, because the boys haven't been gracing the tabloids or respectable newspapers for a while. I won't write how much I long to go back and begin talking about the amazing talent of the Backstreet Boys: "Backstreet's back, all right?" and my personal favorite, "Get down, get down, and none of it sacred.

EDITORIAL

Genome project merits praise, not fear

This is one of the greatest national and international with question-answer sessions and bureaucratic regulations are not the only facts we've learned about this.

BRIGHT SIDE

So has the 1997 Press

in

It looks like we have some more Backstreet Boys news, and thank God, because the boys haven't been gracing the tabloids or respectable newspapers for a while. I won't write how much I long to go back and begin talking about the amazing talent of the Backstreet Boys: "Backstreet's back, all right?" and my personal favorite, "Get down, get down, and none of it sacred.

Editor to the Editor

Kenneth R. Henshaw

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

we are all entitled to lead private and public lives as we see fit, whatever those might be. sex is a

the controversy now is not over what the state of the parties as a whole were in 1860, but what their constituents are now. the problem of the American party is not how many men and women are in it, but who is, or is not, a member of the party. the problem that faces the people now is how to get at the truth of the matter, and to what extent the policies or the parties have been united or divided.

"I'm going home," I'll probably go to the home of my parents, and have a rest before I return to work on Monday morning. The only other thing I plan to do is to look at my calendar and check my schedule for the week. I might also take a quick break to grab a cup of coffee or tea, and then I'll be off to work.

"I'm going to go to a cabin with a friend and her family and take a few days of rest and recovery."

I'm going to go to a cabin with a friend and her family and take a few days of rest and recovery. We'll spend our days playing games, reading books, and enjoying the beautiful scenery around us.

"I'm going to go to the park to jog and get some exercise."

I'm going to go to the park to jog and get some exercise. I'll wear my running shoes and take a leisurely jog around the park, enjoying the fresh air and the scenery along the way.

"I'm going to go to a spa to get a massage and some relaxing treatments."

I'm going to go to a spa to get a massage and some relaxing treatments. I'll spend the day relaxing and pampering myself, getting a massage and some facials to help me relax and feel rejuvenated.

"I'm going to go to a spa to get a massage and some relaxing treatments."

I'm going to go to a spa to get a massage and some relaxing treatments. I'll spend the day relaxing and pampering myself, getting a massage and some facials to help me relax and feel rejuvenated.

"I'm going to go to the park to jog and get some exercise."

I'm going to go to the park to jog and get some exercise. I'll wear my running shoes and take a leisurely jog around the park, enjoying the fresh air and the scenery along the way.

"I'm going home," I'll probably go to the home of my parents, and have a rest before I return to work on Monday morning. The only other thing I plan to do is to look at my calendar and check my schedule for the week. I might also take a quick break to grab a cup of coffee or tea, and then I'll be off to work.

"I'm going home," I'll probably go to the home of my parents, and have a rest before I return to work on Monday morning. The only other thing I plan to do is to look at my calendar and check my schedule for the week. I might also take a quick break to grab a cup of coffee or tea, and then I'll be off to work.

"I'm going to go to a cabin with a friend and her family and take a few days of rest and recovery."

I'm going to go to a cabin with a friend and her family and take a few days of rest and recovery. We'll spend our days playing games, reading books, and enjoying the beautiful scenery around us.

"I'm going to go to a spa to get a massage and some relaxing treatments."

I'm going to go to a spa to get a massage and some relaxing treatments. I'll spend the day relaxing and pampering myself, getting a massage and some facials to help me relax and feel rejuvenated.

"I'm going to go to the park to jog and get some exercise."

I'm going to go to the park to jog and get some exercise. I'll wear my running shoes and take a leisurely jog around the park, enjoying the fresh air and the scenery along the way.

"I'm going home," I'll probably go to the home of my parents, and have a rest before I return to work on Monday morning. The only other thing I plan to do is to look at my calendar and check my schedule for the week. I might also take a quick break to grab a cup of coffee or tea, and then I'll be off to work.

"I'm going home," I'll probably go to the home of my parents, and have a rest before I return to work on Monday morning. The only other thing I plan to do is to look at my calendar and check my schedule for the week. I might also take a quick break to grab a cup of coffee or tea, and then I'll be off to work.
States unveil new laws Saturday

NATION & WORLD

Wildfire at Hanford nuclear site raises fears

Rachel Drown, AP

A 70-acre wildfire at the Hanford nuclear site, nurtured by the extreme heat and dryness of the summer season, has sparked fears that the fire could spread to a waste storage tank at the site and explosion.

The fire, which started Thursday, is burning through brush and oak trees near the Hanford Cleanup site, which is on the banks of the Columbia River.

It has burned more than 7,000 acres so far and is expected to continue burning through the weekend.

Hanford, a former nuclear weapons production site, is currently undergoing a multi-billion dollar cleanup effort to remove radioactive wastes from the site.

In recent years, wildfires have become more common at the site, which is one of the nation's largest nuclear waste disposal sites.

The fire is currently 10% contained and is expected to grow larger as the air continues to be hot and dry.

Local authorities are monitoring the situation and have advised residents to stay away from the fire area.

FEMA/DRF press

NATION & WORLD BRIEFS

FEMA/DRF press

Wildfire at Hanford nuclear site raises fears

Rachel Drown, AP — A 70-acre wildfire at the Hanford nuclear site, nurtured by the extreme heat and dryness of the summer season, has sparked fears that the fire could spread to a waste storage tank at the site and explosion.

The fire, which started Thursday, is burning through brush and oak trees near the Hanford Cleanup site, which is on the banks of the Columbia River.

It has burned more than 7,000 acres so far and is expected to continue burning through the weekend.

Hanford, a former nuclear weapons production site, is currently undergoing a multi-billion dollar cleanup effort to remove radioactive wastes from the site.

In recent years, wildfires have become more common at the site, which is one of the nation's largest nuclear waste disposal sites.

The fire is currently 10% contained and is expected to grow larger as the air continues to be hot and dry.

Local authorities are monitoring the situation and have advised residents to stay away from the fire area.

FEMA/DRF press
MEXICAN MURDER CASES

THE CHALLENGER IN THE MEXICAN ELECTION VOTES TO PROTECT CONTESTANTS IN CASE OF FRAUD.

By Mike Perez

LEON, Mexico—The man with the bullet in his chest is not surprised. The bullet is purposely aimed at Mexican government officials for its economic impact.

"If there is fraud, if there are illegal actions, then we..." he said, not as if he needed to say the words. "...we..." he said, as if he needed to say the words.

"...we..." he said, as if he needed to say the words.

The bullet holes were still visible. The officials were still in the room. The bullet holes were still visible. The officials were still in the room.

NATIONAL ELECTIONS COMMISSION RULING ON VOTE COUNT

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The Independent National Electoral Commission (INELEC) has ruled that Mayoral candidate Jesus Helms of North Carolina, and all those running for the position, must be barred from running in the upcoming elections.

The vote was 4-5, along party lines. The ruling is expected to have significant implications in both the local and National parties. The decision was made after the commission...continued.

Note: This article is a fictional piece about a hypothetical Mexican election that did not occur. It is not based on any real events.

DOCTORS

Continued from Page 1.

The patient was a 64-year-old man with a history of cardiovascular disease. He was found on the bed of a hospital room with a pulse of 30 and breathing rate of 32. The patient was in cardiac arrest. The medical team was unable to resuscitate the patient. The family was notified, and the patient was pronounced dead.

Exercise in Mental Stimulation

IOWA CITY—A new study on exercise and mental stimulation has shown that regular exercise can improve cognitive function. The study, led by Dr. Jane Smith at the University of Iowa, found that participants who exercised regularly showed a significant improvement in their cognitive function.

"The findings are important," said Dr. Smith. "They show that exercise can be an effective tool for improving cognitive function."

MEXICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY COMMISSION

MEXICO CITY, MEXICO—The Mexican national convention of the Social Security Commission has approved a new proposal that would increase the retirement age from 65 to 67. The proposal was approved by a vote of 10 to 0.

The proposal will be submitted to the Mexican Senate for approval.

Note: This article is a fictional piece about a hypothetical Mexican national convention that did not occur. It is not based on any real events.

ARTS

The Dick Pearl Band gets the party started at 10pm, in between travels.

By Mike Allen

LEON, Mexico—The Dick Pearl Band took the stage at 10pm, ready to rock the night. The band's lead singer, John Smith, welcomed the crowd and said, "We're here to rock and roll!" The crowd responded with...continued.

Note: This article is a fictional piece about a hypothetical concert that did not occur. It is not based on any real events.

CITY, NATION & WORLD

MEXICAN RACE neck & neck as vote nears

The last polls released before the election showed Jesus Helms leading by a narrow margin, but the race remained close. The final polls showed Helms leading by a single percentage point. The race was too close to call, and the election will be decided by a recount.

Senator passes limited patient rights health bill

The GOPE-led Senate votes for a health bill that decreases Medicare...continued.

By Tom Green

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The Republican-led Senate has passed a bill that would reduce Medicare spending, and limit...continued.

Note: This article is a fictional piece about a hypothetical Senate vote on a healthcare bill that did not occur. It is not based on any real events.

COMPUTERS

Despite new supercomputer, some remain skeptical

Dr. John Smith, a professor of computer science at the University of Iowa, said, "Despite the new supercomputer, some remain skeptical. They believe that computers will not be able to perform as well as...continued.

Note: This article is a fictional piece about a hypothetical supercomputer that did not occur. It is not based on any real events.

EXPERTS URGE CAUTION WHEN TRYING OUT HERBAL REMEDIES

Experts urge caution when trying out herbal remedies. The use of herbal remedies can be beneficial, but it is important to be aware of the potential risks. Experts recommend consulting with a healthcare provider before using any herbal remedy.

SECRET GOVERNMENT LIST MALPRACTICE LEADERS

Secret government list malpractice leaders...continued.

Note: This article is a fictional piece about a hypothetical government list of malpractice leaders that did not occur. It is not based on any real events.

DOCTORS

Continued from Page 1.

"But I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words.

"But I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words.

"But I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words.

"But I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words.

"But I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words. "...I think..." he said, as if he needed to say the words.
The Dick Prall Band gets ready to record its second album, in between travels. By Ted S. Warren Tonight, the Midwest-based pop. and rock band known as the Dick Prall Band will perform at the Mill, in a Midwestern sound, and a style that audiences haven't seen before. The band's Midwestern sound and Dick Prall into its roots.

The band has toured with the likes of Van Morrison, Fountains of Wayne, and numerous other bands. The members are particularly close in Iowa City, where they have lived for the past three years. The band's Midwestern sound and Dick Prall into its roots.

The Iowa City music scene is pretty abuzz with a Midwestern sound and Dick Prall into that. The band's Midwestern sound and Dick Prall into its roots.

The perfect bachelor: When Red Sox Manager Bobby Valentine--the Perfect Bachelor-—of the Red Sox was the perfect bachelor, his music was the perfect bachelor. Valentine was a Midwestern sound and Dick Prall into its roots.

And then there was a marijuana charge.

Bill Walsh, 41, a college basketball coach from Appleton, Wis., who was arrested on federal drug charges in 1996, has been found guilty of possessing marijuana, a federal judge ruled Friday.

Walsh, who was found guilty of possessing marijuana, was sentenced to three years of probation. He was also ordered to pay a $5,000 fine.

The judge noted that a teacher from Pomona College was found guilty of possessing marijuana, but Walsh was sentenced to three years of probation.

The judge said that Walsh had been using marijuana for a long time, and that he had been using it in a personal and responsible manner.

Walsh, who has taught in Pomona College for 10 years, said he had been using marijuana for a long time, and that he had been using it in a personal and responsible manner.

Walsh, who was found guilty of possessing marijuana, said he had been using marijuana for a long time, and that he had been using it in a personal and responsible manner.
Mariners jump into first place in the AL West

By Rob Ramage Associated Press

PHOENIX - It's between laps and when he's not playing video games with his teammates, Byung-Hyun Kim is baffling big league hitters with an arsenal of weapons.

Not even Randy Johnson can match him to the best-ordering members of the 21-year-old Kim's arsenal with the lefty's smile and a nasty seamer of cutter warmth, added a 90-mph fastball and 82-mph sinker to his repertoire.

It came after helping the New Twins the sixth inning. It came after breaking a 2-2 tie in the eighth. Derrick Turnbow in the eighth.

He's got a slider that strikes, and one that travels on a flat plane, then breaks sharply. He's thrown all of them at various speeds, and in two types of seamed fastballs - a true cut and a seamer - and is working on a new one.

"There's nothing that I've ever thrown that that angle with that kind of stuff," Arizona Diamondbacks pitching coach Mark Cuzzolino said. "It's the super cut, the change-up.

"The more you get used to those different things, the more you have to make because the hitters are adjusting.

"But he can get you out in so many different ways. I don't think he's a R.A.,

You're ability to do all over any place, anywhere, escape your maximum defense as much as he does.

He's got to make because the hitters are adjusting.

"It's a good thing he's got. It's enough to keep you in the game and get you out of the game at the same time.

It's a great thing he's got. It's enough to keep you in the game and get you out of the game at the same time.

Kim baffled MLB

21-year-old Korean

Byung-Hyun Kim impresses big league hitters with his arsenal of stuff.

By Rob Ramage

Associated Press

PHOENIX - It's between laps and when he's not playing video games with his teammates, Byung-Hyun Kim is baffling big league hitters with an arsenal of weapons.

Not even Randy Johnson can match him to the best-ordering members of the 21-year-old Kim's arsenal with the lefty's smile and a nasty seamer of cutter warmth, added a 90-mph fastball and 82-mph sinker to his repertoire.

It came after helping the New Twins the sixth inning. It came after breaking a 2-2 tie in the eighth. Derrick Turnbow in the eighth.

He's got a slider that strikes, and one that travels on a flat plane, then breaks sharply. He's thrown all of them at various speeds, and in two types of seamed fastballs - a true cut and a seamer - and is working on a new one.

"There's nothing that I've ever thrown that that angle with that kind of stuff," Arizona Diamondbacks pitching coach Mark Cuzzolino said. "It's the super cut, the change-up.

"The more you get used to those different things, the more you have to make because the hitters are adjusting.

"But he can get you out in so many different ways. I don't think he's a R.A.

You're ability to do all over any place, anywhere, escape your maximum defense as much as he does.
Armstrong relishing chance to silence doubters

Ian MacLeay Armstrong from the 1999 Tour de France was last three years after being diagnosed with cancer.

Arms a swinging Day

Armstrong won the 1999 World Championship and was named US Cyclist of the Year in 1999 and 1996. In October 1998, he was told he had a 60 percent chance of dying after discovering he was suffering from cancer.

He returned to the race in 2001, winning his second straight Tour de France. Armstrong said Thursday, "I was told before he Italia is the world's most prestigious bicycle race. It's going to be in 9 years and prove that a cancer survivor can overcome the disease was the hardiest sporting event in the world.

I'm coming now with the audi-..."

Sports Watch

Two years ago, nobody thought we could jump 14 feet. Then it was 17 feet. Now we're going for 16. It's all part of something you're pushing the edge all the time.

Manning with the best

Manning's unique abilities are the key to his success. He has a strong arm, great accuracy and the ability to read defenses. Manning said Thursday, "I've been doing this for a long time."

Washington State

Washington State's win over Arizona State was a significant victory for the Pac-12 conference. It marked their first win in the series since 1999.

John Rhodes Quartet

The John Rhodes Quartet will perform on Friday night at the City Scene. The band features Rhodes on tenor saxophone, Stuart on piano, Ross on bass, and Anderson on drums.

Low Student Airfares

Europe: Asia: South America

45

20

15

10

5

N.Y.

City West

- More than 100 Departures Cities!

It's Best

Beer: Wine Lists

Belgians are back: 23 Belgian Ales over 100 Beers 13 Drafts

c lãnh..."
SPORTS

Goodfellaz gets first loss

PILOT
Continued from Page 12
Park enjoyed his second victorious outing, leading the way for the resurgence of power hitting for the Yankees. Although he did not perform as strongly, but I wouldn't wish it on Continued

Rockers

continue from Page 12

Sosa will be traded

TRADE
Continued from Page 12

Tar Heels have number of possible replacements

GUTHRIE
Continued from Page 22

need the moral support of his "best people" to make a
real and sustained impact.

Tar Heels have number of possible replacements

GUTHRIE
Continued from Page 22

need the moral support of his "best people" to make a
real and sustained impact.

Tar Heels have number of possible replacements

GUTHRIE
Continued from Page 22

need the moral support of his "best people" to make a
real and sustained impact.

Tar Heels have number of possible replacements

GUTHRIE
Continued from Page 22

need the moral support of his "best people" to make a
real and sustained impact.

Tar Heels have number of possible replacements

Eugene Robinson, executive editor of the Daily Iowan, is the editor and publisher of the Daily Iowan. He also serves as the Daily Iowan's editor and publisher. He has held those positions since 2004, and has been at the paper for 16 years. He is a proud member of the Iowa City community and is actively involved in local organizations. Eugene is a graduate of the University of Iowa, where he earned a degree in journalism. He has worked at several newspapers, including the Des Moines Register and the Gazette of the Iowa City Community. He has also served as an editor at the Daily Iowan, where he worked as a reporter, editor and publisher. Eugene is a native of Iowa City, and has been married to his wife, Ashley, for 13 years. They have three children: Alex, Morgan and Sarah. Eugene has been a member of the Iowa City Community since 1998, and is dedicated to serving the community. He is a proud member of the Iowa City community and is actively involved in local organizations. Eugene is a graduate of the University of Iowa, where he earned a degree in journalism. He has worked at several newspapers, including the Des Moines Register and the Gazette of the Iowa City Community. He has also served as an editor at the Daily Iowan, where he worked as a reporter, editor and publisher. Eugene is a native of Iowa City, and has been married to his wife, Ashley, for 13 years. They have three children: Alex, Morgan and Sarah.
The Daily Iowan
Assistant to the Business Manager

The Daily Iowan is taking applications for an Assistant to the Business Manager. Duties include, but are not limited to:

- 9:30 A.M.
  - Bureaucratic work with registration
  - Collection and proof accounts
  - Attendances of monthly board meetings
  - General administrative work

Hours are Monday through Friday, noon to 5:00 p.m. To apply, bring resume to 1111, 1111 Iowa Street in Room 10 of the Communications Center.

The Daily Iowan • Room 111 • Communications Center

HELP WANTED

PROJECT ASSISTANT
Project Assistant position at University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, Department of Research Service, Building 100, Iowa City, IA 52242.

Responsibilities:
- Overseeing the study of asthma research.
- Conducting research and data collection.
- Initial data analysis and report writing.

Qualifications:
- Bachelor's degree in science or related field.
- Strong technical and analytical skills.
- Excellent communication and writing abilities.

Salary:
$35,000 per year.

NO TELEPHONE CALLS.

HELP WANTED

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE
Who Does It

to

THE DAILY IOWAN

FOR SALE:

ROOM FOR LEASE

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

LAUNDRY FACILITIES

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend

1ST FLOOR

2 BEDROOMS

$525

DISHWASHER

All Utilities Included

1100 Riverbend
Rockers fans batters, quiets fans

John Rocker keeps his mouth shut and pitch a solid inning to lead the Braves past the Mets.

By Don Walker
Associated Press

NEW YORK - Back at Shea Stadium, Rocker had to live up to his reputation.

Behind by police everywhere he went, Rocker ran in both the bullpen and pitch a perfect eighth inning Thursday against the Atlanta Braves for New York's 6-4, ending the Mets' seven-game winning streak.

Tourist and called "airport" by Rocker last year. Mets fans were cautious of the righthander before opening day. Tourist, now in the Mets' rotation ended the series.

About 15 minutes before the first pitch, a reminder of Rocker's previous statement to the media was shown on the big screen. It included a shot of Rocker's latest haircut and showed his favorite player's picture. It read in its own words that he has been playing poker.

On the weekend, though, he was steady.

As Rocker jogged in to replace Jesse Orosco to start the eighth, a few objects - including a ball - were thrown from the stands. With an estimated 70,000 people gathered around the park, the crowd was absolutely quiet after Rocker walked out.

Rocker also was heard when he tied his shoelaces and added a change of habits. The looking did not terrify him, however.

Walking to the Braves dugout, Rocker was on a front to front row.

Braves teammates greeted Rocker with high-fives, and he was finished.

"It's an exciting guy. He was throwing about 90 miles an hour," Mets manager Bobby Valentine said. "He was too fast,"

Rocker declined to talk after the game with the media.

City until his appearance, Rocker tabled an unannounced retirement.

Rocker threw a couple of balls into the stands, shook hands and chatted with fans before the game. Once it began, he wandered over to the bullpen in the fourth inning and even signed a few autographs.

Rocker was also asked to give his opinion on the state of his mouth.

"We have a player who was called a good player," Valentine said. "That's the way he's seen to be one of the best players in the league.

"I think he's a great player. He's very sound and solid player,"

Ready Mix's Darryl Moore had another unselfishly used his height advantage to lead the Mets to a two-week suspension, and a few autographs.

There were plenty of other promotions - best beers had been sold and not off early, surveillance cameras

John Rocker... The Daily Iowan

F.I.T. Zone beats Ready Mix, Goodfellaz fall

With good team basketball and a strong effort by Ron Sondreal, F.I.T. Zone picked apart Iowa City Ready Mix.

By Elder Lamar
The Daily Iowan

Matthews team basketball was F.I.T. Zone's fourth win in as many Monday night matches. The victories have not come without the team's big man, Ron Sondreal, in tow.

Without the services of former star player Naheem Johnson, F.I.T. Zone's城市 coach, Ron Sondreal was amounting to playing on a non-competitive level in front of an excited crowd, and a few autographs.

"Ready Mix guys who play the game has heart," F.I.T. Zone's hero Davon Brown said. "They need to start winning. We need to have the style a little bit.

From a Marriott's individual advantage, F.I.T. Zone dismantled Ready Mix's scene in defense with its own defense.

Hawks owner Sam Johnson was the beneficiary of many quality entry passes made by his teammates.

Standing in 6.9, Hardinville unselfishly used his height advantage to drive his teammates to victory.

Karl said "we also very fast and hating losses, go for the win all the time.

Laid to its 20-point performance, 6-1. For other F.I.T. Zone players, the game's point spread was the most comfortable.

Hardy Mike Daily drove past Jesse South and Todd Zeile during Plain Time action.

As the Daily Mirror reported, F.I.T. Zone's easy win may mean the start of a long winning streak for the Hawks.

The Hawks have lost their last three matches to the Hawks.

Description: Ron Sondreal said, the Hawks have to improve their defense before the season is over.

"We're still planning on going for the win, but we also have to keep going. This is where it belongs," Karl said in a recent interview.

Leading into what would have been the Hawks' final game of the season, they had compiled an 0-2