Powwow celebrates spirituality

The 12th annual UI Powwow drew an estimated 8,000 spectators over the weekend.

The event, which started on April 6, ended on April 8.

Powwow is about meeting old friends, catching up on their plans and sharing your new experiences with them.

Room 155

Sunday, April 8, 2001

Dear Daily Iowan,

I am no longer a student of the University of Iowa, but I feel that it is important to acknowledge the importance of the university to our lives. I was a member of the Class of 2001, and I feel that the university has played a significant role in my life.

I am currently working in the banking industry, and I have found that my experiences at the University of Iowa have prepared me for my career in a number of ways. I have learned how to work effectively in a team, how to manage my time effectively, and how to communicate effectively.

I have also found that my experiences at the University of Iowa have given me a strong sense of community. I have made lifelong friends at the university, and I feel that the university has helped me to become a better person.

I am sure that the University of Iowa will continue to be an important institution in the lives of many students in the future.

Sincerely,

[Name]

Barbie was the Gestapo chief in Lyon, France, from 1943-44, during which time she was responsible for the death of some 4,000 persons and the deportation to concentration camps of some 4,000 others. After the war, she was arrested by American officials, who recruited her in 1947-51 for counterintelligence work and then spirited her and his family out of Germany. Barbie was extradited from Bolivia in 1958 and tried and found guilty of crimes against humanity in 1961.

Wendy Holden, a French major, and she found the before and after photos taken by Barbie. Holden was originally planned to be a credit to the university's merger session, but she said, "I was a bit frustrated," she said. "I was not happy about the past with the subject." On April 5, Holden held an informal discussion on her view to the creation of the study. He was responsible for the studies. The possible effects of the intensive tutoring sessions during World War II may be severe, results may occur.

"When people say they want to do more, I wonder if they really want to do more," she said. "We can do more, but we have to do more."
Solon teen officially charged with terrorism

By Katie Boyle

A Solon High School freshman accused of making death threats against classmates was arraigned on a small group discussion in a week that was formally charged with terrorism on April 6.

The charges come after testimony from a 14-year-old Brian Maestad, whose allegedly told officials that Vin- sion had teased him, according to court reports. Davis Foster, a police officer, said a per- son on the list was charged with terror- of fear or threats involving a use of a weapon.

Cheney warns of budget vetoes

The statement comes in wake of the administration's budget veto on April 6.

By Michael Gonzalez

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — With President Bush preparing to release the fiscal-2002 budget, the White House on Friday left open the possibility that his order for a balanced budget would run in govern- ment programs.

In a speech before the National Governors Association, the president told the group that his 2002 budget proposal to balance the budget "is not going to be a question of fixing this budget to balance, but rather it is a question of getting our priorities right on the budget.

This president is eager to see appropriations that come our way," the president said.

But as the White House gets ready to unveil its budget next week, the administration is preparing to limit the growth of mandatory bene- fit programs and to keep an eye on the budget deficit.

Bush's office said that the new budget will be released next week and that it will be a "resolute" effort to reduce the deficit.

The administration is planning to make cuts in defense spending, but it also plans to increase spending on domestic programs and to reduce the deficit by $1 trillion over the next 10 years.

Tiffin teen charged in alleged harassment

A Tiffin teen was arrested on April 6 for allegedly harassing a person who lives near his school.

"I'm a domestic-abuse no-contact order," said Kevin Heick, a police officer.

According to police reports, the accused teen, who was arrested at 5:39 a.m., was charged with making a personal contact against the victim.

"He called her home," Heick said. "He said he was not going to make any personal contact with her.

The alleged victim had been receiving personal contact from the teen, who was supposed to be a "status" student.

McIlravy applies for head coaching job

Iowa assistant Lincoln McIlravy is one of 22 candidates for the Arizona State job.

By Nick枋雄

The Daily Iowan

Iowa assistant wrestling coach Lincoln McIlravy and Sunday, a native of a small town from Arizona State University, has applications about his recent application for the Bus Devils' head-coach position.

McIlravy served as a volunteer assistant for Iowa from 1999-2000 and was an assistant coach for the first time during the 2001-2002 season. "Being a head coach is something I’ve thought about all my life," he said. "It’s just the next step after stepping up and being an assistant at Iowa."

The position at ASU opened after coach Lee Roy Smith’s contract wasn’t renewed. University spokesman Smith spent nine years as coach of the Hawkeyes, who placed ninth at NCAA this year.

McIlravy, who was nationalЧ°nс°n in 1990, 1994 and 1997 as a Hawkeye and posted a 6-2 career mark, said he has what it takes for the job.

"I definitely think I’m capable of what needs to be done to be a head coach," he said. "It’s something I’ve been interested in for a long time after I was done competing."

McIlravy said there are 30 applicants for the ASU job and that experience and ability will play key roles in the university’s decision process. The position is the first head-coach job for the 38-year-old McIlravy has applied for.

"They have a unique program, and it’s a situation that I think we very well,” he said. "They’re a top-10 program, and they’re located in the Southwest, which is an area on the map that I don’t think too many coaches would want to go to.

"I think it will narrow its selection process to three candidates sometime after Wednesday day and then interview the remaining applicants, McIlravy said.

"I’m very excited about it," he said. "You can’t stay in the same place anymore."

Hawks lose two over weekend

The Hawkeyes fell to 3-2-1 in the Big Ten and in the loss to Northwestern, they were held to one hit, a single by Brian Rodio in the top of the fifth inning.

Despite committing only three errors, the Hawkeyes were unable to score, as they were held to one hit for the third consecutive game.

The win for Northwestern was the team's 27th on the season and it was the first time they had scored three runs since March 31.

Freshman Jennifer Stoffel was named the Big Ten Female Athlete of the Week for her performance in the event.

The freshman All-American since her freshman year, she is the only individual to make the All-American team in the event in the country.

Hawks lose to Penn State

The Hawks lost both games of the doubleheader against the Lions on Saturday, April 7, with losses of 5-2 and 2-1.

In the first game, the Hawkeyes were held to three hits and were unable to score, as they were held to one hit for the third consecutive game.

The win for the Lions was the team's 27th on the season and it was the first time they had scored three runs since March 31.

Senior Tyler Cleveland lost his last match of the season

Iowa men's golf team is getting closer

"Iowa men's golf team is getting closer after pulling out a two-shot win over the University of Central Florida. The Hawkeyes finished the tournament with a three-day total of 863, which is two strokes better than the second-place finisher, the University of Central Florida. The Hawkeyes are currently in third place after the first day of the Big Ten Conference Championships, which are being held at the Ohio State Golf Club in Columbus, Ohio."
