Students hail UT move on leftover fees

By Katrina Doyle
The Daily Iowan

For the first time since an account for leftover student fees was created three years ago, an internal university auditor will reexamine the account and recommend whether it should be controlled by the administration or distributed to the student leaders.

"It's reasonable that the system be reviewed. It's been 10 years," said Student Services Director Mary Schulte.

"It's possible that the auditor could call for the internal audit after reviewing the process, said Kristin Trotter, the Information Technology Services administrator.

"I'm calling for the internal audit after funding process," said Kristin Trotter, the Information Technology Services administrator.

UI unveils wireless Internet

By Grant Schefte
The Daily Iowan

Wireless Internet connections are now available at the UI Main Library and two other campus locations, and student technology officials hope to add two additional spots by the end of the year.

University students and faculty can check out wireless laptops for Internet work that does not require a high bandwidth at the Chemistry Building, the North Lindquist Center, and the Main Library Information Arcade. The university will also connect its systems to the greater systems in the English-Philosophy Building and the North Lindquist Center by April.

"If it receives a positive response, the UI will likely expand the $50,000 pilot program to the Pharmacy Building, the IMU, and the Medical Education and Research Facility later this year," said Iowan.

As Holy Week begins, Catholics face up to scandal

By Jennifer Peter

BOSTON — As Catholics gathered for Sunday in the beginning of Holy Week, the most solemn observance of the Christian calendar, priests across the country addressed a sexual scandal that has shaken the church and limited some of its faithful.

No one thinks the scandal is unique to today's world, but in the past weeks we've seen fresh things, and read things that we would have never dreamed of reading in our church's today.

In Denver, priests read aloud messages of apology and confession from one brother. In Chicago, Houston, and Palm Beach, Fla., priests were allowed to debate the existence of the church.

In many churches, the Pope humbly asked cards. He made an effort to take a note from the Easter story of faith's weakness.

"There's always trouble in the world, there's always evil," said the Rev. Paschal Hughes, also speaking at St. Anthony's. "What we should face our current situation with is perhaps even more hope, because evil's not supposed to have the last word.

This year, the six-week collaboration of Lent has been overshadowed by the shadow of priests' sexual misconduct.

Religious leaders that the Archbisho of Boston failed to banish priests accused of sexual misconduct have been repeated in parishes across the country.

There have been growing calls for the resignation of Cardinal Bernard Law, the leader of the Boston archdiocese, and each day seems to bring new reports of children damaged by their care.

Law, who has addressed the crisis numerous times and repeatedly pledged calls for his church to work with the public to speak to the scandal during the sacrifice.

Around the country, however, Catholics are gathering in the Mission of Salvation, praying for forgiveness, trust, and reproduction, and remembering their faith in the traditional Palm Sunday processions to address the church's sexual misconduct.

A series of events in recent years, including the death of a man, the conviction of a woman, and a scandal that has been ongoing for more than a year, Law's action was arranged and was in connection with BEDWEGO, N.J. — They and caregivers help back up their cars and direct the hose onto the basement windows. A reminder that keeping their imaginations busy is a way to keep their health cards.

The third-grade teachers in the basement of Rosemary Church’s 24-hour emergency shelter have the same adult schedule, each day a checklist of chores, sports, practices, and private lessons. When they complete this nighttime chore 20 miles from New York City, the jam-packed schedule is the last time for families, the church’s last time, unaccompanied, to talk to each other. In months of planning, but on this night of Tae Kwon Do and TaeJung, a new reality and a new test, 15 families in one hour on a mission to save 15 families in one hour.

For N.J. city, it’s ‘Ready, Set, Relax.’

When you think about your childhood, those are the times you made the best connections with your family, friends, and neighbors. Ridgewood is not alone in its efforts to stand against overscheduling. Neighboring Bergenfield will join in family night.

Bush pushes trade deals with Central America

By Sonya Riss

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador — President Bush on Sunday endorsed a free-trade pact with Central American nations, saying countries now barred from U.S. markets are ready to make concessions in return for market access.

"I hope they will hand them the keys," White House spokesman Larry Speakes said.

Bush also pledged Sunday to work for a comprehensive free-trade agreement for all the Americas and promote investment policies that would establish temporary protective slates for items from low-income countries when those have been exported.

During his tour of El Salvador, Belize, Nicaragua, Guatemala, Honduras, and Panama, Bush said he had hoped for "more progress" in the region. The session lasted a few hours a day throughout the trip with Bush pushing open markets, anti-terrorism efforts, and democracy aid in the developing nations.

"In the end, America must choose free trade over protectionism in the global economy," Bush said.

Afghan official blames U.S. allies for deadly attack

AFGHANISTAN — The security chief for an eastern Afghan province blamed NATO and U.S. allies for a deadly attack that killed 21 people at a UN compound.

Fahimuddin Ahmadzai said the UN security chief, killing a woman by blowing a child and wounds two others before reportedly fleeing to an American compound.

As a citizen of Iowa, I was charged by that lawyer, as a result of the state’s budget crisis, the Board of Regents was forced to consider the possibility of placing a cap on enrollment at our public universities.

All of us recognize that the state, long plagued by the unemployment of diminished resources, is in the process of weakening our tax revenues and tax deductions. It is in this context that we must think of no more counterproductive means of handling this issue. We must act as the legislators who must make the policy decisions.

The situation at the University of Iowa is critical. The costs of maintaining enrollment levels continue to rise at a rate that is unsustainable. The University of Iowa is the economic cornerstone of the state, providing economic development and education.

The Iowa City council is expected to receive a report shortly on the possible impact of this decision on the University of Iowa. This report is critical, as it will provide key insights into the economic and educational impact of this decision.

It is important for all of us to support the decision of the Iowa City council as they consider the future of the University of Iowa. The University of Iowa is a critical component of our state’s economy and education system.

Iowa starts out cold in Florida sun

By Jeremy Shapiro

The Daily Iowan

Iowa's bats came alive as the Hawkeyes shook off a cold start and finished 8-3 in the Florida sun.

The Hawkeyes played eight games in six days at the Florida All-Star Baseball Classic. Starting with a 6-4 win over Long Island, Iowa's offense began generating more firepower. Iowa had 52 hits across the plate, which averaged out to 8.3 runs per game.

Iowa is 6-7 on the year, it was ranked 10th with a win over Illinois State in its home opener yesterday.

"I think we're going to gain some confidence in our hitting," said Iowa head coach Jim Ronai. "I had great hitting coaches of mine to get us to hit the ball today.""

"Connecticut does everything as well as Iowa," said her press, "but they make you pay for it. They're just as tough as they look on the floor."

Though the Hawkeyes hang tough, they could not maintain their strength. In the final half hour, the Huskies outscored them 25-15, handing them their fifth straight loss.

Hoosiers prove worthwhile efforts

By Michael Warsaw

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Indiana guard Kent Valentine said Wednesday he's hesitant to declare himself in the running for the national title, yet the Hoosiers have far more to offer than a March Madness appearance.

"We've got a whole lot of things we can do," Valentine said. "And I think we can win a national championship.

"We're a well-balanced team. We've got a lot of different weapons. We've got a lot of different shooters. We've got a lot of different shooters. We've got a lot of different people who can make big plays when we need them."

The Hoosiers (23-8) have been considered long shots to make it to the Final Four, but they have proven they can compete with anybody.

"I think we're one of the best teams in the country," Valentine said. "We just haven't been able to put it all together yet."

Valentine said the Hoosiers have a chance to win it all if they play well in the NCAA Tournament.

"We've got a lot of potential," he said. "We've got a lot of talent. We've got a lot of depth. We've got a lot of experience.

"But we've got to put it all together. We've got to play well as a team. We've got to play well together. We've got to play well defensively."

Men wind up last at Big Tens

By Jeremy Shapiro

The Iowa men’s gymnastics team finished last at the Big Ten Championships over the weekend. The Hawkeyes had a final score of 208.3, 90.5 behind Minnesota, 208.3, 90.5. This was Iowa’s third consecutive Conference last place finish.

The team started strong on the first day of the competition, competing against Wisconsin, Ohio State and Illinois. On the second day, the Hawkeyes competed against Minnesota and Michigan State.

Head Coach Larry Wieczorek said the team did not have a good start to the season and struggled to improve as the season went on. He said the team got off to a slow start and did not get their act together until the last meet.

The team’s final score was 208.3, 90.5. Wieczorek said the team needs to work on their consistency and improve on their overall score.

Despite the final score, Wieczorek said he was proud of the team for their efforts and hard work throughout the season. He said he was impressed with the team’s determination and willingness to improve.

Hass defeats former team

By Rebecca Smith

In a major upset, the Iowa men’s track and field team defeated the No. 20 Illinois Fighting Illini on Wednesday. The Hawkeyes scored 137.5 points to 115.5 points.

The win marked the first time Iowa had defeated Illinois in the meet history. The Hawkeyes had not won a meet against Illinois since 1984.

The win was a result of the team’s strong performance in the sprints, hurdles, and middle-distance events. The Hawkeyes were able to pull away in the final event, the 4x400 relay, to secure the victory.

This win was a major boost for the Hawkeyes’ confidence and momentum heading into the Big Ten Championships later this month. The team is currently ranked 21st in the nation and will be looking to build on this momentum to make a statement in the conference meet.

It's part of the American college culture. I don't know of any college where a large part of the student body doesn't drink on weekends.

ANDES (March 21-April 19) This is a great day for long and involved phone calls. It's also a great time to make your move and tackle something about which you are ambivalent, especially if you feel a bit of pressure from others.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Don't let your emotions stand in the way of your judgment. Being intuitive will only hold you back. If you refuse to see the bigger picture, you will probably fall short of your expectations.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) Can be helpful and service-oriented, but don't let that last too long. Open your eyes to all the opportunities around you and use the power of your newfound self-confidence to make positive changes that will allow you to pick and choose, so be discriminant.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) If you have some health concerns, be sure that everything is as it should be. It would be wise to get one more set of eyes on your personal health before your future.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Take it easy and slow today. Don't let your little hassles hold you back or prod you off your path. Stick to what you know and do best.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Take it easy and slow today. Don't let your little hassles hold you back or prod you off your path. Stick to what you know and do best.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Put on your best shoes and prepare to face the world. Let your worldly outlook lead the way and you'll be sure to discover an array of amazing people.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If you have missed going every year in your financial picture, you'd better start going once you have a financial cushion. You can always go back and step down and do some disappointment if you made a couple of changes now.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Make sure that you've made sure to communicate with someone you care about or engage in events that you'll know and do best.

PICTURES (Feb. 19-March 20) This is your time to achieve. You need to get the door off to a good start. Your way of doing things will certainly help you get what you want from your colleagues.
